MAGNETISM OF THE EX-ROYAL FAMILY OF FRANCE.

The following strange and startling story is abridged from the last letter of the Paris correspondent of the Atlas newspaper:—"Doctor B. in addition to his great skill in the management of children is one of the first magnetisers of Paris; and the conversation (at Nouilly, last summer), as it always the case when he is present, turned upon magnetism. He told many wonderful tales, of course, of the clairvoyance of some of his patients, and the extraordinary power in foretelling the futurity of others, until, being pressed by the King, he looked around to see if any of the company bore outward sign of any great susceptibility to magnetic influence. 'There is one person present,' said the Doctor, 'who possesses, in a most extraordinary degree, every symptom of this peculiar faculty. Madame La Princess de Joinville would, I am sure, astonish us, would she but submit to the trial.' After some little reluctance, the fair Princess consented. In a moment, and I believe with no other ceremony than the placing of his thumb against hers, did she realise the Doctor's provision, and fall into as deep a magnetic slumber as it was possible to witness. There was a deep silence, and the Doctor turned to demand which member of the family would like to consult her in the name of the rest. Madame Adelaide it was who volunteered, and to her questioning did the patient reply with such truth concerning the past, that she felt emboldened to consult her with regard to the future. 'I give you my honour as a gentleman,' added my informant, 'that in that seance every event which has happened with such fearful rapidity as to astonish and confound us all was foretold with most awful precision. The day, the hour of the flight, was named, as well as the despoilment of the Tuileries; the secreting of the diamonds once belonging to the crown of the Emperor, by a person about the Court (they have not been found), and a second catastrophe not far distant, and which concerns the Orleans family alone. 'You name me not,' said Madame Adelaide, 'with whom am I to fly?' 'You will remain peacefully in France,' replied the somnambule; at which observation the King laughed, and said that the last prophecy was sufficient to betray the fallacy of the whole, as his sister would be incapable of deserting them in the hour of peril. I have heard this story from two or three individuals, and from one who declares himself to have been an eye-witness to the scene, and have no reason to doubt its accuracy."

THE POPE AND THE SULTAN.—The following presents have been remitted to the nuncio of his holiness, for presentation to him:—A magnificent saddle, enriched with diamonds; eight Arab horses of great beauty; three magnificent snuff boxes, enriched with diamonds; four decorations for distribution at his pleasure; 600 pieces of Damascus cloth, beautifully embroidered, and of various colours (the pique is a measure of 227 inches); a great number of Smyrna carpets; 30 pieces of Angora shawling; and a grand decoration for Pope Pius the IX., and another for the ambassador.—Galignani's Messenger.

PUBLIC OFFICERS AND DEPARTMENTS.—A return obtained by Mr. Hume, M. P., shows that the actual net increase in the number of appointments, and the amount of salaries in all public offices and departments, since the passing of Act 4th and 5th William IV., chap. 24, is 6363 as regards the number of persons, £184,368 as regards the salaries, and £17,536 as regards the emoluments: 7000 persons at salaries amounting to £350,000 have been added to the establishment of the Post office within the period of this account, for the purpose of affording increased facilities and accommodation to the public in the receipt and delivery of letters, &c. The account exclusive of the Postoffices would exhibit a diminution of 197 persons, and about £58,000 per annum in salaries and emoluments.

THE LEGACY DUTIES.—A statement of the legacy duties paid in Great Britain for the year 1847 shows the total amount of capital which became liable to this tax to have been £43,611,642, being nearly one million in excess of the capital taxed in the preceding year, when it was £42,630 689. Of this amount the portion which paid the duty of 1 per cent., the bequests being to children or parents, was £22 231 885; the portion which paid 3 per cent., for bequests to brothers or sisters, was £14,274,321; the portion of 5 per cent., to uncles and cousins, £1,842 160; that at 6 per cent., to other more distant relations, £295,155; and that at 10 per cent., to strangers, £4,863 375, or about a ninth part of the whole. The average capital on which legacy duty has been paid during the last half century is £28,513,237 per annum.

A CHIP OFF THE OLD BLOCK!—COWARDLY CONDUCT.

HALIFAX, June 16.—About half past three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, the streets of the city presented an extraordinary scene in consequence of a fracas which occurred between Lieut. F. Harvey, A. D. C., and H. N. Dickson, Esq., Secretary to the Marine Insurance Company. It appears that some time in Autumn a quarrel had occurred between the two Gents at some convivial gathering, —which was revived on Tuesday night at a ball given by the Hon. J. McNab, where the two were guests. On the following afternoon, Mr. Harvey was riding on horseback in Hollis Street, and meeting Mr. Dickson near the Province Building, accosted him with a large hunting whip—Mr. D., offering resistance—the gallant son of Mars called to his groom for aid, who joined in the assault by attempting to run Mr. D. down.

Then commenced the most exciting portion of the afternoon's proceedings; a crowd of Mr. Dickson's friends gathered, when the brave Lieutenant seeing the tables turned against him—took to flight in a most inglorious manner. Mr. D., his friends, and a large crowd of persons following in pursuit, which resembled on a small scale the memorable day of the revolution last February—the "B'hoys" enjoying the fun amazingly, at every square they passed added its hundreds to the general rush.—their object being to inflict summary chastisement on the actowar. Mr. Harvey in the meantime making tracks as fast as a fleet steed could carry him through Water, Jacobs, Argyle and Barrington Streets, finally took refuge in the Government House—where his pursuers followed him—and rushing down the court of the building, despite the gleaming bayonets of the Sentinels—halted in front of the hall door, and called most lustily for Frank to come out. Giving him a specific time to do so —otherwise, we believe, Government House would have been entered by the indignant multitude. A short time elapsed, when his Excellency Sir John, came out, amazed! at the strange scene exhibited before him. Mr. Dickson stepped in front and firmly, though respectfully, acquainted his Excellency with the injury and insults he received from his son, and finally said he must quit the country or bear the consequences. His Excellency told Mr. Dickson that so far as the authority of a Governor and a father could go—he would investigate the matter and give the injured gentleman every satisfaction. Mr. D. appeared satisfied, and the crowd dispersed—giving three cheers for the victorious termination of the affair.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CHRONICLE.

SIR—As chairman of the Gaol Committee I feel myself called upon to remark on the extraordinary Presentment made by the Grand Jury, as appears in the New Brunswicker of the 20th instant, on the subject of the improvements recently contemplated at the City and County Gaol. In answer to the several observations made in such presentment, reflecting upon the Committee in various ways, I have much pleasure in assuring the gentlemen of the Grand Jury that they were all informed on all the material points in that special presentment—The Committee did not differ on the subject of the plan proposed, nor was any other plan proposed or submitted to the Committee—not one of the Committee objected, but all unanimously agreed to what was done, and I believe they all thought they were doing for the best. The Committee had nothing to do but obey the directions of the Sessions in going into contract with Mr W. F. Smith—the plan and specification were laid before the Sessions and approved by them, and the Sessions accepted Mr. Smith's tender for completing the work. The Committee on this occasion were Benjamin L. Peters, James Gallagher, Daniel Ansley, and his Honor the Recorder was added for the purpose of assisting the committee in adopting a plan and he concurred in the one adopted. Some three or four years since, Moses Vernon, Esquire, was appointed one of the Gaol and Court House Committee, but never acted to any extent, and for the last two years has not, I think, given the slightest attention to the duty in any way. It was in consequence of this fact that Mr. Ansley was added to the Gaol Committee in March last, and his Honor the Recorder was attached to the Committee for aiding in the adoption of satisfactory plans, and the Committee so formed were unanimous in what was done.

Whether or not the opinions of the Grand Jury were formed on convictions of their own, or on the oath of some sworn witness before them, I am at a loss to judge, but one fact I do know, that the whole particulars as stated in their presentment in reference to the acts of the Gaol Committee are incorrect.

BENJ. L. PETERS.
Chairman of the Gaol and Court House Committee of Sessions.

CORBETT'S

COMPOUND SYRIP OF SARSAPARILLA.

THE Subscribers having been appointed Agents for New Brunswick, for the sale of this invaluable preparation, now offer the same to the public under the amplest testimonials as to its signal and efficacious qualities. It stands unrivaled in cures of the most inveterate cases of Scrofula and all diseases of the blood.

It also by its powerful alterative qualities securely and permanently effects a full restoration to health in cases of Chronic Inflammation of the digestive organs, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice, Weakness, and soreness of the stomach, salt Rheum, all Cutaneous Eruptions, Erysipelas, &c.

The fact is well established by medical writers, that phthisis Pulmonalis or Consumption, a disease generally originates in a scrofulous state of the system. Diseases of the Liver, and affections of the Biliary secretions often originates with persons with scrofulous taint. But before such diseases can be mitigated or arrested this scrofulous Diathesis must be removed. This the present preparation is warranted effectually to do.

The formula was laid before the New Hampshire Medical Society, and was there approved. And the celebrated Dr. Twitchell, of Keene, N. H., who has personally tested its virtues and approves and prescribes this medicine in his general practice, pronounces it "The best preparation of Sarsaparilla is ever known," and cordially affords it his full commendation.

The form of this preparation, its component parts, &c., have been placed with the most distinguished physicians of the country, among whom, in this city are Dr. J. C. Warren, Dr. J. M. Hayward, Dr. D. Reynolds, Jr., Dr. John Jeffries, Dr. V. C. Smith, and others, several of whom have given their names in writing, in favor of this medicine.

At a recent exhibition of the Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association, held in this city in september, 1847, the Judges on Chemicals made the following report: "Specimen of compound syrup of Sarsaparilla as produced by Dr. Corbett, of the shaker society, Canterbury, N. H., the committee have carefully examined the testimonials signed by names of the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from knowledge of its component parts the committee cannot but express their full belief as to its efficacious qualities. The ingredients entering into its condition are of such a highly useful and alterative quality that the committee willingly pronounce it the best preparation of Sarsaparilla syrup yet known; and as such think it deserving of a Diploma. (signed by)

John W. Webster, M. D. Professor of Chemistry in Harvard College.
Martin Gray, M. D. Chemist of Boston.
J. V. C. Smith, M. D., Editor of the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Under the full conviction of the virtues of this medicine without accumulating facts as to the same the Proprietors with all confidence, now place before the public as a preparation not equalled by any ever yet discovered.

The Proprietors are every day receiving testimonials from those who have benefited by the use of this medicine; and Mrs. Noshmith wife of G. W. Noshmith, Esq. President of the Northern Railroad, recently testifies, she has been cured by the use of it of the salt Rheum of fifteen years standing.

Important to the Public!

SPRING AND SUMMER

CLOTHING.

The subscriber has received per late arrivals a large and varied assortment of GOODS, consisting of:—

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DORSKINS, Cashmeres, Cassinets, Buckskins, Velvets, Satins &c., with a large assortment of Marseilles, Hamocks, Blankets, Shorts, Rugs, a superior article of OIL CLOTHING, Glazed, Brown, and silk HATS—high and low crowned, latest styles; Cloth and glazed Caps; silk and linen Covers for do; Reins and sheaths; Knives; Lambswool, Merino and Cotton Shirts and Drawers; Regatta and heavy striped, do; White Cotton do., with Linen ruffles; Linen Fronts, and Collars; Red and Blue Flannel and Serge Shirts; with an assortment of Tailor's Trimmings, and almost every article in connection, suitable for a GENERAL CLOTHING STORE.

And, as heretofore, having made up in the concern a great part of the Cloths into Fashionable Spring and Summer CLOTHING of the latest styles, he is now prepared with his large stock of Ready made Garments of every fabric, style and finish, for the farmer or laboring man, the gentleman of fashion or mechanic, the wayfaring man, and all others; which will be hereafter profered for sale to the public at lower prices than ever before known.

It is almost unnecessary to point out to a discerning public the vast benefit accruing to the Province generally by having your Clothing made up in the place. You may safely say that every imported garment you purchase, you are actually sending one fourth of the cost unnecessarily out of the country, not to speak of the great injury you are entailing on a large class of industrious people in your own city. It is high time to look seriously into this matter, and to tell those people who import that they are the real enemies of the country, and that their slops you do not want; but patronize those, and those only, who always get their Clothing made up in the City, and sell them at a cheaper rate than imported garments can possibly be obtained; and those Goods you will now find at the

CITY CLOTHING STORE.
JOHN ANDERSON.

NOTICE.

ALL persons having any legal demands against the Estate of DANIEL M'WILLIAMS, late of the parish of Portland, deceased, are requested to present them duly attested within Three Calender months from this date, and those indebted will make immediate payment to

JANE M'WILLIAMS,
Administratrix.
