FAIR, FOLLOWED BY RAIN

Toronto, Sept. 30—11 p.m.—The principal features of this evening's weather chart are a pronounced area of high pressure covering the lake region, the middle states and Maritime Provinces, and a well-marked low area over the Lower Mississippi Valley, and the indications are that this low area will move northward accompanied by an extensive rain area. A few local thunderstorms have occurred today in Ontario, but the weather in the Dominion has been generally fine. Minimum and maximum temperatures: Victoria, 40-54; Kamloops, 38-54; Calgary, 28-44; Prince Albert, 26-50; Qu'Appelle, 34-58; Winnipeg, 34-66; Port Arthur, 42-62; Parry Sound, 60-74; Toronto, 56-80; Ottawa, 50-32; Montreal, 54-74; Quebec, 40-72; Halifax, 44-64.

Probabilities.—Toronto, Oct. 1—1 a.m.—Lower lakes: Easterly and southeasterly winds; fair, with a little lower temperature during the day, followed by rain.

Local temperatures—The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the observatory here on Friday were 84 and 60 degrees.

THE STORM IN LONDON

Brief, but Severe—Lightning Struck Several Places—Large Hole Torn in the Roof of a Church.

Out of a clear sky yesterday afternoon a thunderstorm suddenly gathered and broke over the city with great power. It was brief, but severe. Lightning struck in several places, fortunately doing little damage. The peals of thunder were terrific. Rain fell in torrents, and good-sized hailstones were plentiful.

Until 3 o'clock in the afternoon the day was clear and warm as in summer. But the storm which came unheralded almost, was most severe.

Lightning twice visited the Grand Trunk station. The first bolt seemed to enter Trainmaster Cunningham's office and pass into Chief Dispatcher McLarty's office, giving everybody a bad fright. The second flash struck a chimney over the general waiting-room. In the descent a few shingles were ripped up. Then Assistant Superintendent Ferrior's office was the scene of commotion. Stenographer E. Wiesbroad was knocked over and suffered severe pain in the head for the rest of the day, while all the clerks were more or less disturbed by the shock.

The Advertiser building was also struck, a lightning bolt having entered the stereotyping room. The men at work in the room were greatly startled.

A shattered chimney on the building at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, over McCallum's drug store, is a visible reminder of the storm.

Another evidence is a large hole torn in the roof of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church.

Three headlights on the street cars were broken and a number of telephone wires burned out.

DISCLAIM ANY LIABILITY

Council Sends a $1,400 Account Back to the Hospital Trust.

Architects' Bill Rejected by the Finance Committee—Ald. Winnett Explains About an Irregularity.

The finance committee met in regular session last night, Ald. Winnett (chairman), Ald. Nutkins, Graham, McPhillips and O'Meara were present.

The city solicitor reported that the council was not liable for the payment of the $1,400 account from Architects Moore & Henry, submitted to the trust for preparing plans for a new hospital. No resolution was on the minutes of the council, said the solicitor, authorizing the trust to have the plans prepared.

The account was referrred back to the hospital trust, the city disclaiming any liability.

The city auditors reported an irregularity concerning an account for the construction of a granolithic walk, the amount of which was payable to Contractor A. Graham. The account had been made payable to City Engineer Graydon and indorsed to Ald. Douglass.

Chairman Winnett explained that the contractor was anxious to get his money before leaving the city, and that Mr. Graydon had advanced it to him. The speaker supposed that Ald. Douglass had advanced the money to Mr. Graydon.

The account was referred to the council.

Several petitions for remission of taxes were granted.

THE FALL SHOW IN ILDERTON

A Splendid Exhibit and a Record-Breaking Crowd.

Rain Spoiled the Speeding Events—Names of Exhibitors—The Judges.

The fall show at Ilderton yesterday was taken in by the usual big, good-natured crowd, and everything passed off pleasantly and without a hitch until the sports commenced, when the downpour of rain caused trouble. It took but a short time for the people to seek shelter and desert the railings, over which they had expectantly hung in the broiling sun, waiting for the races to start, and when the rain ceased the track was far too soft for the comfort of the horses. But that wasn't through any fault of the energetic managers, who felt as badly as anyone about the meanness of "Old Probs."

The attendance was far larger than that of last year, there being a fat increase in the gate receipts. The number of exhibits was also in excess of previous years, though in a few classes a falling off was apparent. Horsemen say there was never a better display made in their line, which is saying a good deal, for the best animals always bob up at this exhibition. Sheep also were shown in fairly good numbers, the various classes being filled very well. The cattle display was another feature commented upon, the class shown being just of the sort demanded by shippers and breeders. The usual crowd admired the poultry exhibit, which was a good one. Apples were the main exhibit in the fruit line. The ladies' work took up a large space, around which clustered the women, always deeply interested in the prettiest rag carpet design or the most inviting pair of worked slippers that make such a swell present. There was no merry-go-round, an absence of fakirs, but a couple of industrious Italians kept the air resonant extolling the excellence of their lemonade, peanuts and bananas.

Among those who made entries and won prizes were: John Hord & Sons, Maggie Creighton, Gus Kennedy, Fred Barling, H. McLurg, Mrs. A. C. Johnston, Andrew Scott, Mrs. R. Pincombe, Mrs. A. B. Douglass, C. & H. Henderson, W. A. McIntosh, Mrs. Catermole, Wm. West, Mrs. Atwood, R. Higs, S. Robb, W. Headley, Minnie Walker, R. Smith, J. Haskett, E. Ironside, E. A. Scott, Angus Fraser, T. A. Scott, C. Haskett, W. Cunningham, Geo. Scott, Jas. McRea, J. Porter, Ed. Charlton, C. T. Rosser, Wm. Charlton, E. Douglass, John Armstrong, J. O'Neil, Melvin O'Neil, John Paisley, W. McAndless, W. H. Beattie, R. Paisley, J. McQuinn, T. Reeve, F. Paisley, R. L. Hodgins, R. S. Douglass, Geo. Long, B. Kennedy, A. Tummonds, R. Armstrong, Miss E. Creighton, Mrs. John Sinclair, T. P. Hughes, T. J. Clatworthy, T. J. Humphrey, Bert Little, T. E. Stewart, J. W. Nichol, James Robson, E. Hodgins, Wm. Noyes, B. Randell, N. G. McVicar, J. H. Hodgins, J. Ardell, John Stoneman, J. H. Moran, Jas. McNair, G. C. Robson, W. Goulding, R. S. Robson, J. F. Routledge, James McFarlane, Chas. Laing, Joseph Moore, T. E. Robson, Geo. Robson, John McNeil, C. Shipley, E. McLurg, A. B. Campbell, B. Matthews, M. Rosser, Miss Crake, J. Siddall, S. Lewis, A. Hall, A. O'Neil, James Henderson, D. Bell.

The judges performed their duties to the general satisfaction of all. Their names are as follows: Roots—George Nixon, Hyde Park. Grain—J. Hawkins, Arva; W. Baynes, Granton. Poultry—John Saunders. Hogs—John Ackland, Delaware; James Hodgins, Arva. Sheep—S. Langford, London; John Scott, Lobo. Cattle—John Stoneman, Arva; John O'Brien, Hyde Park; R. Whetter, Odell. Heavy horses—R. Craig, London. Light horses—John Eynon, Ailsa Craig; J. Routledge, V.S., Dashwood. Ladies' work—Miss Powell, Ballymote.

The officers who looked after the arrangements, so well deserve the credit they received from their friends. Their names follow: Wm. Fleming, president; Wm. Kennedy, vice-president; P. Bowey, secretary-treasurer; directors, Messrs. R. S. Douglass, R. Smith, Geo. A. Scott, R. Beamish, W. W. Robson, George Long, Graham Walker, L. Paisley, J. Winters, W. Needham, Ellis Hodgins, W. West.

LIFE'S CLOSING DAYS

Need Not Be Sad and Pitiable, as They Used To Be.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Keep the Body Young and Strong—Build New Tissue in Place of Old—Cure and Prevent Disease.

When old age begins to creep upon us the infirmities of life make themselves felt.

It is then that the terrible effects of the follies and excesses committed in our younger days appear.

The vital forces are weak, the stream of life is gradually drying up. The silver cord will soon be loosed, and ere long the golden bowl will be broken.

The aged and the ageing have not enough vitality to make up for the daily wear and tear. Thus many days, yes, years of life and strength are lost, are allowed to slip away from us, when they might be retained, to add to the sum of our earthly happiness.

By stimulating the Kidneys, and restoring them to sound health, Dodd's Kidney Pills keep off the breaking-down attacks of old age.

By putting the Kidneys in good health, Dodd's Kidney Pills insure a full supply of pure, rich blood, on which the broken down nerves, muscles, bone and tissues feed, and which makes new tissue to replace the old and worn-out matter.

Dodd's Kidney Pills thus renew the system, by insuring the provision of abundant material for the creation of new tissues; they also fortify the body against the attacks of disease and old age, by keeping the Kidneys in condition to supply the needs of the system, in the way of nourishment.

Use Dodd's Kidney Pills and be young. They will make new bone, muscle and sinew, give strength, vigor and staying power.

Try Dodd's Kidney Pills; it will cost you only fifty cents.
