Australia's Congratulations

Melbourne, Aust., Oct. 20—A resolution was moved in the commonwealth House of Representatives by Mr. Fisher, the prime minister, to the effect that the commonwealth Parliament should congratulate the Parliament of South Africa on the establishment of a national government. The motion was seconded by the leader of the opposition. Mr. Deakin, who congratulated the South Africans on attaining a measure of union similar to that enjoyed by Australia. He also expressed the hope that South Africa would enter upon a period of progress and prosperity.

A kingfisher flying over Milford, N. H. suddenly made a dive for what it probably thought was a pond of water, but struck with terrific force against a large plate glass window in a drug store. The bird was completely stunned. It was picked up and after a short time had so recovered that it was released.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Athletics Again.

Chicago, Oct. 20—Philadelphia came out here today and rubbed it in. The Athletics won their third successive victory of the world's championship series with the Chicago Nationals 12 to 5, and if the big pennant is not nailed to the Quaker City mast tomorrow Connie Mack will be the most surprised gentleman on the base ball map.

Captain Chance was ordered from the field in the third inning for disputing a decision. In the three games played so far the easterners have pounded every assortment of curves which the entire galaxy of Cub pitchers could offer. Only "King" Cole, the so-called pitching find of the year, remains to be seriously considered by Manager Chance, and has been held back because of his inexperience in crucial games and a belief also that his assortment of shoots is just what the Mack men like.

The combat today was a slaughter. Big Ed. Reulbach lasted just two innings, during which he allowed one single and two doubles, passed two batsmen and saw three runs cross the home plate.

McIntyre was the next twirler led forth for slaughter. He pitched just one-third of an inning, but that was long enough for the visitors to hammer out two singles, a home run and to send Davis to first, rubbing his back where one of McIntyre's inshoots had hit him. With the assistance of a boot by Schulte, four runs were scored under his beneficient reign.

The bright particular stars of the day were Coombs, Barry and Murphy. Coombs allowed only six hits, passed four men and contributed a two-bagger and a single, which added three runs to the Philadelphia collection.

Barry hit as if there were another automobile in sight. Also he figured in double plays. He made three hits, each one a double, drove in two runs, and himself reached the counting station thrice.

It remained for Murphy, however, to electrify the crowd. His first noteworthy exploit was to smash the ball over the heads of the right field overflow crowd into the regular bleachers for four sacks, driving in two runners ahead of him. At the time he didn't know how far the sphere had traveled, and stopped after covering the two bases allowed under the ground rules for hits into the overflow. Umpire O'Day waved to him to come in, which he did with half the team slapping him on the back.

The hit was more than a run counter, for it figured largely in the expulsion of Captain Chance from the grounds. Chance, joined by most of his men, surrounded O'Day in an endeavor to persuade him that the rules made all hits into the crowd at any point or distance doubles. The arbiter could not see it and when the Cub leader sought to prolong the argument he ordered him from the field. Archer, ordinarily a catcher, replaced him at the initial station.

Murphy's next sensational exhibition earned him an ovation. He ran back after what Zimmerman had marked for a double, jumped on the barrier in right field, grasped the ball by his finger nails, fell over backward into the crowd and presently emerged with the trophy still safe. Meanwhile Sheckard, thinking that there were two out, or that Murphy couldn't possibly have captured the drive, sped around the bases. He awoke at third to find that he had been doubled at first.

Sterling an Easy Winner.

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 20—(Special)—Sterling, of St. John, won the ten mile race at the Arctic Rink here tonight. The time was sixty minutes. Stubbs, of St. John, was second, and Coward, of Fredericton, third. Pat Whyte, of Fredericton, failed to finish, collapsing in the last mile. Sterling led practically throughout the race, finishing four laps ahead of Stubbs, five ahead of Coward, and ten ahead of Whyte. Coward ran a game race, but was in too fast company. Whyte showed lack of condition. The track was thirteen laps to the mile.

NEW AMBASSADOR OF RUSSIA IN PARIS

Paris, Oct. 20—The appointment of M. Iswolsky as Russian ambassador at Paris is officially confirmed. The imperial decree signed by the Tsar confers on the ambassador the order of the White Eagle and mentions among other things that M. Iswolsky in 1906 accepted the office of minister of foreign affairs in St. Petersburg at a time when conditions in Russia were particularly difficult. Since that time he has devoted the whole of his energies to serving the best interests of Russia and to furthering a practical and pacific policy in the empire, a policy the effect of which has been felt not only in Russia itself, but more still in Russia's pacific policy in the far east, and even in the recent understanding between Great Britain and Japan.

M. Iswolsky is persona grata in Paris and the appointment has given the greatest satisfaction.

WINDSOR BUSINESS MAN IN ACCIDENT

Windsor, N. S., Oct. 20— (Special)—While riding from Falmouth at a rapid pace on his bicycle this morning, C. J. Shand, a buisness man of Windsor, collided with a truck and was seriously injured about the head and face, and had his right hand badly mangled.

No bones are broken, and although he lost considerable blood, the outlook is favorable.

YOU CAN INTEREST HIM

Any Man Over Fifty.

You can interest any man over fifty years of age in anything that will make him feel better, because while he may not as yet have any positive organic disease he no longer feels the buoyancy and vigor of twenty-five nor the freedom from aches and pains he enjoyed in earlier years, and he very naturally examines with interest any proposition looking to the improvement and preservation of his health.

He will notice among other things that the stomach of fifty is a very different one from the stomach he possessed at twenty-five. That greatest care must be exercised as to what is eaten and how much of it, and even with the best of care, there will be increasing digestive weakness with advancing years.

A proposition to perfect or improve the digestion and assimilation of food is one which interests not only every man of fifty but every man, woman and child of any age, because the whole secret of good health, good blood, strong nerves, is to have a stomach which digests easily and thoroughly digests wholesome food, because blood, nerves, brain tissue and every other constituent of the body is entirely the product of digestion, and no medicine or "health" food can possibly create pure blood to restore shaky nerves, when a weak stomach is replenishing the daily wear and tear of the body from a mass of fermenting half-digested food.

Not the stomach itself wants help and in no roundabout way either; it wants direct, unmistakable assistance, such as is given by one of Two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal.

These tablets cure stomach trouble because their use gives the stomach a chance to rest and recuperate; one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contains digestive elements sufficient to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food such as bread, meat, eggs, etc.

The plan of dieting is simply another name for starvation, and the use of prepared foods and new fangled breakfast foods simply makes matters worse as any dyspeptic who has tried them knows.

As Dr. Bennett says, the only reason I can imagine why Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not universally used by everybody who is troubled in any way with poor digestion is because many people seem to think that because a medicine is advertised or is sold in drug stores or is protected by a trade mark must be a humbug whereas as a matter of truth any druggist who is observant knows that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have cured more people of indigestion, heartburn, heart trouble, nervous prostration and run-down condition generally than all the patent medicines and doctors' prescriptions for stomach trouble combined.

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS

THE OLD HOMESTEAD.

The Old Homestead, made famous by Denman Thompson, was presented last night at the Opera House by a company of all Canadian players to a large and appreciative audience. N. W. Mason as Joshua Whitcomb scored an unqualified success, his comedy being very good and not overdone. Harry Murray was his leading support as Cy Prime and his work throughout was excellent. Miss Della Olding was another who scored a marked success. She has a sweet voice and her solos were features of the performance. Miss Newington also acted and sang well. In her solo in the second act she had to respond to several encores. The singing of the Old Homestead quartette was greatly enjoyed by the audience, as also was the rendering of several well known hymns by the Grace church choir. The other members of the company who shared in the success of the play were Clarence Cameron, Finley Fraser, Chas. Simmons, Cyrus Muldoon, Sam Murphy, John Leonard, Edith Melvin, Dot Pattis, Edith Davis, Isabel McIntyre and Mabel Grant.

The performance will be repeated tonight and tomorrow evening and tomorrow afternoon.

THE GEM.

In the Vitagraph production, "Her Adopted Parents," the Gem Theatre this weekend presents one of the most pathetic and absorbing motion pictures ever put on canvas. It depicts the loneliness of a spinster and of her adoption of an aged couple who have been dispossessed of their home. It is a picture teeming with heart interest. "Mirth and Sorrow," is another drama of the appealing type. It is an interesting story well staged. A young girl is called away to take her place in the opera, while her mother lies at the point of death. While the performance is in full swing a note is handed to her telling that her mother is near the end, and if she would see her alive she must come at once. She hurries through the streets, which are filled with merry makers and three young men pursue her thinking that in her stage costume she is out for a good time. The scene when they find her at home by the bedside of her dead mother is a pitiful one.

Different trades in Bombay, is an educational and scenic subject and the comedy element is supplied in "The Diabolo" and "The Terrible Kids." Doris Dean will sing "Kiss Me Kid," and Donald McGregor will render, "Two Little Sailor Boys." On Saturday afternoon there will be souvenirs for the children.

THE LYRIC

For the last of the week the Lyric was fortunate in securing an excellent vaudeville act as was shown by the applause Howard Dotson, the smoke and clay artist met with yesterday. His drawings from smoke were not only clever, but unique and interesting, while his clay modeling was funny and out of the ordinary. Saturday afternon he has a splendid Buster Brown offering for the children.

Four fine pictures constitute the new film programme today. For Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week a startling and sensational act is announced. Huber's seven trained bears are to be the attraction and they are said to be one of the most clever animal troupes that have visited the provinces in some time. A comic Salome dance by Judy is given, while colleagues will be seen in some clever ladder climbing, skipping, etc. Marie, the fifteen year old girl animal trainer keps the bears well under control. The doors will open every evening during this engagement at 7 o'clock and the first performance will start at 7.15 sharp.

THE UNIQUE

As a comedy programme the one at the Unique today and Saturday is announced as hard to equal. Three big feature comic films are to be shown and laughter will greet every one of them. A funny travesty on the new hobble skirt with an abundance of perplexing situations called "Woman's Vanity," is calculated to bring down the house. "The Golf Fiend" is one of those ever popular chase pictures and is said to be a most amusing one. "The Butcher's Nightmare" will keep all guessing as this farcial transformation is shown. "Making Cider in France," and one other special feature will look after the more serious side of the bill. Miss Harrington is very pleasing in her rendition of "Pretty Peggy Brady." On Monday F. Louise Tufts will open a limited engagement in new bright photo songs.

MARIE NARELLE

Miss Narelle is announced as one of the most accomplished and finished artists of today, and her beautiful soprano voice has won international recognition. She is coming soon to the Opera House. Nature has given her a beautiful face, and classic physique. Her voice is of that rich, full and sympathetic quality which leaves an impression memory likes to treasure. Whether she is singing a heavy aria to the hardened critics, or a simple folk song to the masses the verdict is the same, and the press of every country where she has appeared has been unanimous in praise of her work.

The New York Herald says: "Never before has an artist of Marie Narelle's calibre willingly put aside the glamour of an operatic career to become an exponent of the stirring and loveable ballads of the people. Her choice has been amply rewarded, for she could fill the whole of Madison Square Garden with her notes of War, Peace and Victory."

THE STAR

If ever a picture was designed for childish eyes, and also for the wholesome entertainment of grown-ups the feature at Star Theatre tonight and Saturday is that one. It is no other than a pictureization of that great fairy story "Alice in Wonderland," a classic in nearly every home. On Saturday afternoon the little ones, it is hoped, will turn out in great numbers to see it. Then there will be a fine tale of the west entitled "A Romance of the Western Hills," and two very funny comedies—"An Egg Story" and "The wrong Medicine." Mr. Weston will sing. The Saturday matinee is expected to be a bumper under these circumstances.

THE CECIL.

A fine picture bill has been secured for the Cecil Theatre today, and tomorrow, and patrons of this playhouse may rest assured that a treat is in store. There will be four great pictures. The feature film is "Garibaldi Boy," a strong Italian drama, showing life at the Italian court in "Garibaldi's time. "The Saloon Next Door" "The Lovers Embarrassment," are rattling good comedies that will keep the watcher convulsed with merriment. "A Child's Forgiveness," is a pathetic drama of a very high order and rounds out a programme of more than ordinary merit.

A London restaurant has this notice displayed in various parts of its dining room: "Any incivility or inattention on the part of any of the employes of this establishment will be considered a favor if reported to the proprietor."
