HORSES AND CATTLE MAKE GOOD SHOWING AT CLINTON FAIR

CLINTON, April 13.—Today's display of horses at the Clinton Central Spring Fair was up to the pre-war standard and in the opinion of the judges and officers, the horses shown were of unusual quality.

The numbers, too, were almost up to banner years, all classes being well contested.

A special feature of the show is the annual banquet, which is always appreciated and brings together the businessmen and agriculturists.

The officers were fortunate in securing for this year's banquet Commissioner C. F. Bailey of Toronto, who gave an excellent account of his trip to the old land in search of pointers on agriculture, especially as it related to the establishing of soldiers on the farms of Canada.

The following is the list of prize-winners:
