Chicago, May 16.—Announcement was made in New York last night of the completion of negotiations for the merging of all elevated railroad properties in Chicago, according to the Tribune.

Initial papers were signed, binding the National City Bank of New York, as head of the banking syndicate, to underwrite $22,000,000 to be offered the stockholders in the several companies, and a refunding bond was provided for, to take up the $18,000,000 Northwestern Elevated four per cent. bonds due on Sept. 1.
