The Mission Play under the auspices of the W. A. of St. James Church, held Friday last on the beautiful Rectory grounds, was a most successful and enjoyable event, reflecting much credit on the performers and those in charge of the entertainment.

Messrs Clark and Hiltz, proprietors of the "Nicklet" are having their theatre further improved by the addition of another exit, with large folding doors, opening on Cornwallis Street, which will be very convenient. The new machine just installed is giving fine satisfaction the pictures being the best ever thrown on the canvas. An especially fine program of pictures will be shown to-night and Saturday night.

Miss Hilda P. Kearney, Milliner, who has been in attendance at the Openings in the Big Millinery Centres returned Wednesday with the very latest ideas and correct modes of dame fashion. The first showing of early Fall Hats begins to-day. The Millinery for this season is more beautiful then ever, the hats being unique and the trimmings superb, as will be fully demonstrated at the Grand Fall and Winter Opening which takes place Tuesday, Sept. 23rd., at F. J. McCarthy's Millinery Parlors.
