Militia Contracts Aired in the House.

Supplies for the Camp at London and Kindred Questions Discussed.

Why Contracts for Clothing Were Not Allowed to Stand.

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—In the House yesterday, Hon. Mr. Laurier stated that it had been decided to lay before the House the letter of Gen. Gascoigne to Gen. Cameron, but as the former is an imperial officer, the consent of the Home Government must first be obtained.

CAMP SUPPLIES.

Mr. Beattie complained that the supplies for the London camp had not been given out by tender.

Mr. Gibson referred to the camp at Niagara as having been supplied for years on this principle, only Conservatives getting contracts. Besides Mr. McCleary, member for Welland, had in times past got fat contracts without competition. He defied Major Beattie to name one Liberal who had a military contract in London.

Mr. Beattie retorted that Johnston Bros.—"bitter Grits," he called them—supplied bread to the permanent corps.

Mr. McCleary asserted that his firm had never obtained a contract except in public competition.

Mr. Ingram and Sir Adolphe Caron defended militia management in the past. The latter said the lowest tenderer always got the contract.

Mr. Mulock replied that in the matter of clothing contracts large sums were lost to the country by the work being given by the late Government to favorites by private offer. "Why," he went on, "what have I had to do every day? Why, my work day by day is canceling frauds committed by my predecessors in office."

At this Mr. Foster jumped up and called the Postmaster-General to order.

Sir Adolphe Caron indignantly demanded if the Postmaster-General charged him with fraud.

The Speaker ruled that if Mr. Mulock charged fraud he must specify the honorable member against whom to charge the fraud.

Mr. Mulock said he did not charge personal corruption against Mr. Caron. He pointed out, as an instance of what he contended, that in Cape Breton a mail contract for $9,000 was continued while an offer to do the work for $2,700 was before the Government.

The Minister of Militia complained that the discussion has been sprung without notice. He declared the contracts had all gone to the lowest tender, "but," he said, "my hon. friends must not be disappointed if under the new regime the Liberals of Canada get a fair show. I'll make it my business to see that they do." (Loud Ministerial cheers.) He added that they would not, however, get any more than fair play.

Sir Charles Tupper said the promise that the militia supplies would be let by tender and contract had been broken.

Col. Domville reminded Mr. Foster that the late Administration had purchased land for a drill hall at Sussex, N. B., without public competition, at a cost of $7,000, and then leased it without tender.

Mr. Fraser gave illustrations from Nova Scotia along the same line.

Mr. Calvert brought up the case of a contract for carrying mails between Melbourne and Middlemiss, given by the late Government, which, he said, had not been let by contract.

The Speaker suggested that, instead of springing questions like this before the House without notice, members would best serve the public interest by asking for the papers.

THE MILITIA CLOTHING.

Col. Tisdale asked what about the canceled clothing contracts.

The Minister of the Interior said that on looking into the clothing contracts he found one had been awarded for three years, from July 1, 1896, and another commencing July 1, 1897, for two years. These contracts were let without tenders being asked for by public advertisement. He had referred the papers to the Department of Justice and had received a carefuly prepared opinion from that department stating that the Militia Department had no authority whatever to make these contracts. He proposed, therefore, to annul the contract commencing July 1, 1897. In regard to the three years' contract, he would accept that for one year, subject to the will of Parliament.

OFFENSIVE PARTISANS.

The estimates were then taken out. It came out that five sessional clerks had been dismissed for offensive political partisanship.

Sir Hibbert Tupper condemned the Speaker for so acting.

The Speaker warmly resented this, and said he had acted perfectly fair. He could have refused to reappoint every sessional clerk if he chose.

Mr. Fielding quoted from a newspaper report of a speech by Sir Chas. Tupper in 1887, wherein he gave as the reason of the dismissal of a sessional clerk the taking of an offensive part in the election.

Sir Charles Tupper said he stood by every word of that speech. He would not ask the Government to spare a man who had acted as an offensive partisan.

Several items were passed, and the House adjourned at 12:15 this morning.

THE HIGH COMMISSIONERSHIP.

Mr. Oliver gives notice of a resolution to the effect that the country is not receiving a corresponding benefit for the $30,000 paid for the maintenance of the High Commissioner's office in London. The resolution alleges that during the tenure of office of the late High Commissioner, Sir Charles Tupper, the cattle trade with Great Britain decreased and immigration fell off; also that by reason of his business connection the present High Commissioner is not a suitable person to hold the office.

Mr. Calvert gave notice of an inquiry of the Government as to whether Mr. Angus P. Campbell, of the P. O. Department, Ottawa, was absent from his duties for a considerable time previous to the late elections.

To the ratepayers of the City of London,—As you are about to spend about a quarter of a million of dollars upon your sewerage system, the question for the ratepayers to decide is whether the sewer pipes required shall be manufactured in the city of London or brought in from other places. E. North will exhibit his Portland cement, concrete stone sewer pipes, at the southwest corner of the Exhibition grounds, and respectively invites the citizens of London and experts and visitors to the Western Fair to this exhibit of 12 different sizes from 4 inches within to 43 inches, with Y, T and elbow. Please note their smoothness, thickness of wall and depth of socket, and their great strength, and when properly placed and the right size for the work they have to do, they are there for all time, as they are practically indestructible. E. North, manufacturer, London, opposite Carling's Brewery, has testimonials from the leading men of the city of London and the leading men of Western Ontario as to their great merits, and at the Western Fair of 1892 was awarded the silver medal. They are the only class of sewer pipes made from the materials that improve with age in the ground and in the water, and positively there are no superior sewer pipes in the market. Should the city authorities decide to have their sewer pipe made in the city of London for the sewerage system, it would give employment to a number of hands, besides building up a permanent industry in our midst, and besides about half the cost of production would remain in the city of London. Yours respectfully.
EBENEZER NORTH.

Hampton Court's great goldfish is dead. It lived in the central fountain, and was probably the largest and oldest specimen of its kind in England.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—a pulmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence.
