Present Actual Values Should Govern.

The assessors are now at work making up the rolls on which next year's tax rate will be levied. It is expected of these officials that they will rate every piece of property within the city limits at its present actual value, and the owners of property ought to see to it that the assessors do their work honestly and fairly in every case. Property should not be rated at what it was worth two years ago, or what it is estimated it will be worth two years hence, but at what it will fetch if sold in the market to-day under reasonable conditions. If a man is willing to sell his property for $20 a foot it is very unjust to assess it at $30. Many people bought property away above its present value. Because land was assessed at $30 in 1890, this is no reason why it should be rated at the same figure to-day. There has been a decided drop in land values all over the city, with the single exception of the business centre. The assessors ought to recognize this fact in making up their rolls during the current month. It is misfortune enough for a property-owner to have dropped say 25 or 50 per cent. on purchases of three and four years ago without now being taxed on values which he could not realize in the open market. The assessors will have to exercise a great deal of patience and industry in arriving at actual values this year. The figures of preceding years cannot be relied upon as correct. They are, in fact, more likely to be incorrect than correct. Neither will the future furnish the assessors with any criterion upon which to base their valuations. The present alone must be consulted. The assessors in making their figures must confine themselves to such data as exist in regard to present land transactions.

The taxation this year is far in excess of what a city of the size and population of Toronto should require for its management. The policy of our aldermen and civic officials is to raise as much in taxation as the people will bear. Whatever is the amount of money that can be raised such is the amount that the City Hall bosses will spend. They would have little hesitation in dissipating five millions a year if they could get their hands on it. To oppose this dominant money-spending tendency on the part of the City Hall bosses every possible obstacle should be put in the way. In order to raise as much funds as possible our assessment has been placed away up beyond actual values. And even on this assessment we will have to pay over 17 mills this year. The lower our assessment is the smaller will our taxes be. There is a certain rate on the dollar that our tax-raisers do not feel bold enough to exceed. That rate is about 17 mills. If our assessment is reduced by several millions this year a 17 mills rate will mean less taxes next year than the same rate if it is to be levied for the current year. There is a decided advantage in point of economy in keeping the assessment down to actual values, and we trust that citizens will not be slow in asserting their rights and seeing that it is so kept down.

The Commercial Bank of Manitoba.

The suspension of this bank may prove a serious matter to the province or it may not, according to the method of handling its affairs. As a matter of fact there is too much bank capital seeking employment in Winnipeg, and it is just here where the trouble likely existed. The Bank Act of 1891 provides machinery, at the expense of other banks, for taking care of the circulation of a suspended institution, but the process of getting into operation is slow and there is no specially prompt provision made for deposits. It is a hard thing in a small province to have a million of dollars in circulation and deposits locked up. When the Federal went out of business its outstanding liabilities were nearly $4,000,000, but an arrangement was made through the agency of which the circulation and deposits were paid in full on the very day of suspension, and by the same arrangement the debtors of the bank secured time to pay up, and hence the suspension did not distress the noteholder, depositor or debtor or injure business generally. A somewhat similar plan ought to be pursued in this case.

The State Turned Barkeeper.

An interesting experiment in temperance legislation was inaugurated on July 1 in the State of South Carolina. That experiment is the absolute monopoly of the liquor traffic by the Government. About 60 per cent. of the people of the state are negroes, and more than 99 per cent. of the population are native-born Americans. The total population of the state three years ago was 1,151,149. There are thirty-five counties in the state, in six of which prohibition by local option obtains. The new system does not interfere with local option. The twenty-nine counties are the field for the operation of the new law. Every town outside of the six protection counties is entitled to one dispensary, or state liquor store, and only one, with two exceptions. Those exceptions are Charleston and Columbia. The former, with a population of about fifty-five thousand, is allowed ten dispensaries, and the latter, with about fifteen thousand, is allowed three dispensaries. There are no other cities of much size in the state. None of this liquor can be drunk on the premises.

A Horse and Wagon Postal Delivery.

The Winnipeg Postoffice people have introduced a system of postal, packet and parcel delivery by wagon. On the first of the month a free daily delivery of such matter was established. If such a service is desirable in Winnipeg, where the distances are short and the parcels comparatively few in number, it ought to prove much more so in a city like Toronto or Montreal. The idea is no doubt being carried out as an experiment in Winnipeg. If it is a success there we may expect to see it adopted here. If the postoffice is serious in this matter it ought to extend the idea and undertake the delivery of parcels from one part of the city to another at a uniform rate of, say, 5 cents. It would be a great public convenience to have street boxes and district offices where one could stamp and "post" a parcel the same as a letter, with the knowledge that it would be delivered promptly to the address indicated. Toronto would be a more favorable centre for making an experiment of this kind than is Winnipeg. By utilizing the street railway's excellent facilities we would be able to handle all kinds of postal matter, and parcels too, with greater despatch than characterizes present methods, efficient as they undoubtedly are.

Nearly two and three-fourths million people paid to pass through the gates at the World's Fair during the month of June. Of this number over two and one-half million were adults and the others were children. During May the paid admissions numbered 1,050,037, 22,825 being children. This is an increase of over 100 per cent. for the month. The average daily attendance during May was a little over 37,500. For June it was nearly 90,000. The gate receipts for May were $519,312.15. For June they amounted to nearly $1,500,000.

The improvement to the health of the people of Hamburg, who have this year a supply of filtered water, proves how large a part impure water plays during an epidemic.

McCARTHY'S NEW ORGAN.

The Editor Will Have a Live Corpse to Make Things Hum.

A corpse of special correspondents is being organized, and when arrangements are complete the field will be so efficiently covered that not a line of genuine news will be permitted to dodge our pickets.—Prospectus Orangeville Banner.

A Foolish and Malicious Statement.

Mr. W. W. Copp, one of the leading trustees of the Northern Congregational Church, was interviewed as to the truth of the statement made in The Mail that Rev. Dr. Wild would be called on to succeed Rev. Mr. Burton at that church. "The statement is wild, imaginative and malicious," said he. "We have not the slightest notion of calling a man like Dr. Wild, and it is especially unkind to Mr. Burton to suggest that we would replace him with a man with whom he had such grave differences of opinion, both on theology and general conduct. We have thought of no individual as a successor as yet, nor are we likely to select one until autumn. Many disengaged ministers in Toronto are pressing their services on us for the summer months."

Ashbridge Bay Improvements.

The work of making the inlets to Ashbridge's Bay is progressing favorably. At the eastern end of the Sand Island, which lies between the bay and the lake, Mr. Shields, who has the contract for that section of the work, is busied driving piles with which to form breakwaters on each side of the eastern outlet. He has about a dozen men at work and they have commenced operations some 200 feet from the shore. The piles are driven in eight feet apart, and in three rows on each side of the proposed canal, which is to form the outlet. About 400 feet on the eastern side have been done, on the lake side of the Island. The western outlet will be near the old breakwater, at the foot of Trinity-street. Here a number of men are working on the inner side of the Island dredging the part of the Bay opposite the proposed outlet, but as yet no attempt has here been made to do anything on the outer side, nor has anything but dredging been done. Though all the work is getting along well the future progress will to some extent depend upon the weather. This is more especially true in respect to the work on the east which is exposed to the lake.

Heigho! For the Humber.

Editor World: Of all the pleasant spots near Toronto to spend a day there are surely none where more enjoyment can be had than on the Humber River, and the large number of boating parties that thronged that stream on Dominion Day show that I am not the only one who fully appreciates that lovely spot, and it is, to put it very mildly, a great pity that boat after boat, the majority of whose occupants are young ladies, should have to run the gauntlet of such numbers of perfectly nude boys and, I am sorry to say, men also, who take a delight in making themselves as conspicuous as possible. It is surely time that such a popular spot so near the city should have some kind of regulations as to bathing, and if the city cannot do it surely the Humber residents, especially the boat-owners, will see to their own interests by putting a stop to the nuisance. A stream, however beautiful, in which bathers swarm without any regard to common decency is not the place gentlemen would care to take ladies the second time.

A LOVER OF THE HUMBER.

To Columbian Exposition

Via the Wabash vestibuled trains running to Chicago every day in the year, are the finest known to the railway service. They are complete and solid vestibuled from end to end, the entire train being a moving palace of connected apartments. All Wabash trains stop at Englewood, near 60th-street entrance to the World's Fair; electric cars direct to grounds every five minutes. Get your tickets via Detroit and the banner route. J. A. Richardson, Canadian Passenger Agent, northeast corner King and Yonge-streets, Toronto.

A Church Without Debt.

GLENARM, July 3.—On Dominion Day the corner stone of the new Presbyterian Church was laid by the pastor, Rev. D. Macdonald. Addresses were delivered by Rev. J. H. McVicar of China, Rev. Robert Johnston of Lindsay, Rev. Mr. Bethune of Beaverton, Rev. D. D. Macdonald, Lorneville; Rev. M. McKinnon, Fenelon Falls; Rev. A. McAuley of Woodville, John McSwyn and S. Hughes, M.P., of Lindsay. The chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr. Thomas Smithson of Glenarm, announced that all payments to date had been met, and there was enough money in sight to allow of its being opened in September free of debt.

TOTALLY DEAF.—Mr. S. E. Crandell, Port Perry, writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter, which resulted in my becoming totally deaf in one ear and partially so in the other. After trying various remedies and consulting several doctors without obtaing any relief I was advised to try Dr. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL. I warmed the Oil and poured a little of it into my ear, and before one-half the bottle was used my hearing was completely restored. I have heard of other cases of deafness being cured by the use of this medicine."

Of Interest to Travelers.

Mr. Thompson, late of Novar, has recently purchased the Toronto and Nipissing Hotel of Huntsville. Mr. Thompson has thoroughly remodeled and refurnished the hotel. It is now one of the best commercial hotels in the north. Travelers will remember Mr. Thompson when he kept hotel in Sundridge. There is also a livery in connection with the house.

Mrs. H. Hall, Navarino, N.Y., writes: "For years I have been troubled with Liver Complaint. The doctors said my liver was hardened and enlarged. I was troubled with dizziness, pain in my shoulder, constipation and gradually losing flesh all the time. I was under the care of three physicians, but did not get any relief. A friend seat me a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and the benefit I have received from it is far beyond my expectation. I feel better now than I have done for years."

New Legal Firm.

Mr. W. T. J. Lee, B.C.L., who was lately called to the bar, has entered into partnership with Mr. D. O. Cameron, B.A. The new firm, known as Cameron & Lee, have rented commodious offices in Equity Chambers, corner Victoria and Adelaide-streets.

Severe Abscess Cured.

DEAR SIRS,—I had an abscess just behind my right ear in August, 1891. After suffering for three months I began to take B.B.B., and after one month's use of it I was very much better, and the abscess entirely disappeared in four months. I am certain that Burdock Blood Bitters is an excellent remedy.

THE PATTON INQUEST.

Recommended That Moving Cars Do Not Pass Stationary Ones.

The inquest on the body of William Patton, who met his death through a trolley accident, was resumed last night at the Poplar House, Queen-street east, by Coroner Aikins.

County Crown Attorney Curry conducted the examination for the Crown; Mr. George Kappele represented the Street Railway Company.

The electrical engineer of the company, William E. Davis, gave evidence that the "V" truck, which caused the death of deceased, was the best guard against loss of life. Hundreds of other guards had been tried, but could not stand the hard usage; "V" truck was sometimes effective in preventing loss of life.

Transferman William H. Graham testified that the car which struck deceased was going at the rate of about three miles an hour. The deceased was struck in stepping across the track and could not have got out of the way had he seen the car.

A witness of the accident, David Tarlton, gave testimony that the car was going slowly and that he shouted to warn deceased. Witness thought that perhaps the shouting dazed Patton.

Witness had not heard Mr. Patton cry, "My God; you are killing me." Deceased might have saved himself by using his hand, had he not had a parcel with him.

Several other witnesses of the accident were called and all told the same story, which was practically identical with that given in The World.

The jury, after 20 minutes' consideration, returned a verdict of accidental death.

Attached to the verdict was this recommendation: "We advise a regulation to be adopted by the company preventing one car passing another while that car is standing still."

STRUCK BY A TROLLEY CAR.

Peter Crowden's Thoughtlessness May Cost Him His Arm.

Peter Crowden, aged 45, of 12 Ontario-street, will probably lose his left arm as the result of a trolley accident at the corner of Carlton and Sherbourne-streets, at 4.15 yesterday afternoon. Crowden who intended to take a southbound trolley, attempted to cross in front of No. 4 trolley northbound to reach his car. Both the motorman and transfer man stationed at the corner called out to him, but he continued across the track with the result that he brought up against the southbound car, apparently having the idea that he could board it. It being the guard side, however, he was caught between the two cars.

He was thrown down, and his left arm badly mangled by the upbound car. He was taken to the hospital, and will probably have to undergo the amputation of the injured limb.

CRUSHED BETWEEN TWO CARS.

A Hamilton Girl Loses Her Arm in a Trolley Accident.

HAMILTON, July 3.—At the corner of James and Barton-streets this morning a trolley car coming down James-street at a high rate of speed dashed into the rear of a car which was standing at Barton-street.

A girl 11 years of age, named Lillie Reece of 308 James-street north, who was standing on the crossing, was crushed between the two cars and badly injured. Her left arm was fearfully crushed and had to be amputated near the shoulder.

Run Them, By All Means.

Editor World: I have been reading with much interest the different correspondence re Sunday cars. For my part I am in favor of Sunday cars, although opposed to their noise on a quiet Sabbath. I think the opponents to Sunday cars should limit their protest to this point, and let alone talking about the small end of the wedge, about taverns, drinking, dancing, card-playing, etc.

Travelers on these cars will not make any more noise on Sunday than during the week. All the noise would be an occasional pull at the bell straps when they leave the car.

I reside in Bloor-street east, and when the belt line runs at full speed past my residence every article on the premises, particularly sashes, radiators, etc., are shaking and trembling, giving a very uncomfortable feeling, which would condemn Sunday cars without any doubt at once.

But I believe this could be remedied and give satisfaction to all if the Sunday cars would be limited to half the ordinary speed by running the cars every 10 minutes and by doing away with that noisy gong. At certain hours some trailers might be put on to accommodate church-going people.

On Sundays there is no meeting of trains, delivering of goods, etc., and there is very little obstruction in the streets with the exception of an occasional milkman, and if by accident the motorman should find a clergyman with his coupe on the same track in front of his car he could blow a little whistle, stop his car and invite the gentleman quietly to get out of the road.

Let the cars on Sunday run on trial under the above rules until the end of the year and then let it be decided by popular vote if the running shall be permitted for good or be subject to another year's trial. I think cars could be run on Sundays from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Praise for the Wabash Route.

A citizen who has just returned from the World's Fair speaks highly of the trip via the C.P.R. and Wabash route. The scheduled time, which is very rapid, was maintained both going and coming. He states further that he found every convenience that the most fastidious traveler could desire, such as dining cars, beautiful sleep-rs, etc. The new Wabash route is the shortest one between Detroit and Chicago.

Cholera and all summer complaints are so quick in their action that the cold hand of death is upon the victims before they are aware that danger is near. SUMMER IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Annual Excursions of the Little Ones Now Being Held.

This is the Sunday school picnic season. It is noticeable that all the trips are taken to points within easy distance of the city and to which the train or steamboat ride will not tire the smaller members of the parties. A Sunday school with no poor children in its ranks would be an anomaly in Toronto, and to many of these children the annual excursion of the school means all they will see of the country or the lake for at least another year, unless the Sunday cars commence running in a few weeks, when the mothers and fathers and older sisters and brothers of the little people can come in for their share of the benefit.

A Workingman's Wife On Sunday Cars.

Editor World: I have followed the Sunday car correspondence pretty closely both pro and con, and have come to the conclusion that the cons have not a support left to stand on. By whose authority does Mr. Howland and the Y.W.C.G. ladies seek to restrain the poor from having a breath of cool, fresh air on the only day in the week they can call their own? If we workingmen's wives could spare the time from our housework, we, too, would hold a meeting in the Y.W.C.G. (if they would let us) and give our views on the subject. But alas! we do not keep servants to cook our husbands' meals and have to devote all our energies to the task of life's daily battle for existence. Does Mr. Howland and all others in his class know anything about how working people live? Or do they care? How we toil week in and week out, with only an occasional public holiday to relieve the monotony of our lives! More than that, we have no hopes of ever being any better off on earth, as the wages paid are only sufficient to keep body and soul together and a roof above our heads. Contrast this with the life of our would-be law-givers. They don't want Sunday cars, not they. Why should they? Have they not horses and carriages of their own and coachmen to drive them around the suburbs every day in the week (Sundays included) before going to and after their return from the seaside? And in winter we see them doing the town in sleighs, wrapped up very cosily in furs. They don't want Sunday cars, or Saturday cars either, and have no moral right to vote upon this question. Let the City Council cease playing with this matter and submit it to the people at once, so that we and the children, whom we love as much as the rich do theirs, can enjoy a breath of God's fresh air in the parks, which were never intended for the sole use of the fortunate few who reside in their vicinity, or for those who have or can hire rigs to take them there. All honor to those men interviewed by your reporter who are willing that their less fortunate brethren should enjoy the same liberty as themselves. In conclusion, I have a proposition to make, viz.: Do not put the vote, "Are you in favor of Sunday cars?" but let it be, "Are you in favor of allowing any vehicular traffic in the streets of Toronto on Sunday?" If we could only get the question put in the latter form it might be the means of getting some of our dog-in-the-manger friends to vote right.

MOORE PARK.

"If I had known, two months ago, what I know about Moore Park to-day, the work on my new house would be going on there, instead of at South Parkdale."

This remark was made to the writer last Saturday by a prosperous professional man of this city after a visit to Moore Park.

The advantages of Moore Park are truly worth inquiring into.

The choice residence sites in the midst of the most attractive surroundings appeal to good taste; the perfect sanitation and the wise provision for the preservation of the high character of Moore Park appeal to good judgment. NOTICE

Take notice that the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto intends to carry out the following local improvements, viz: Cedar block pavement, with wood kerbs, on Mansfield-avenue, from the west side of Manning-avenue to the east side of Clinton-street and to assess the final cost thereof upon the property abutting thereon and to be benefited thereby.

And that a statement showing the lands liable to pay the said assessment, and the names of the owners thereof, as far as they can be ascertained from the last revised Assessment Roll, is now filed in the office of the City Clerk, and is open for inspection during office hours.

The estimated cost of the said proposed work is $850, and the amount thereof to be provided out of the general funds of the Municipality is $290.

Persons desiring to petition the said Council against undertaking the said proposed work must do so on or before the 7th day of August next.

A Court of Revision will be held at the City Hall, Toronto, on Monday, the 17th day of July, A.D. 1893, at 3.30 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of hearing complaints against the proposed assessments, or accuracy of the frontage measurements, or any other complaints which persons interested may desire to make, and which are by law cognizable by the Court.

OAK HALL'S

HURRICANE SALE OF HOT-WEATHER WEAR

For Men, Youths and Boys.

The prices this week represent our final reductions in the Summer Clothing left over from our great sale this season in the old Oak Hall building across the way.

We are more than crowded in our temporary quarters at 118 King-street east. It is the three-story building immediately next door to the Cathedral—hardly big enough for one-third of the requirements of our business, and we are getting rid of everything that cannot be carried over the season, and Summer Clothing for Men, Youths and Boys is the first to go.

We have begun this week's sale with the final reductions in the prices for Lustre, Flannel, Silk, Nun's Cloth, unlined Serge and Tweed Coats and Vests.

Yachting Suits and Yachting Pants in White Duck.
Odd Pants and Odd Coats and Vests of elegant material, for Men, Youths and Boys.
All light-weight goods of the latest styles.

The reductions in the prices for these garments are final. They cannot be marked any lower, and in order to have the benefit of a fairly good-sized variety of patterns to select from we advise our patrons to call early to get the pick of the choicest.

Our changed prices will probably clear out all the summer goods this week.

Remember, we're next door to the Cathedral now.
