THE CANADIAN MILITIA.

Annual Drill for Cavalry, Artillery and Infantry — General Inspection — Regulations—Pay and Allowances, &c.

OTTAWA, June 2.

The following appears in the Militia General Orders:—Active militia, annual drill, 1873-74.—It being considered inexpedient to form any camps of instruction for the annual training of the active militia during the financial year of 1873-74, the drill of all the corps of active militia for this period is to be carried out at the local head-quarters of the corps under the supervision of the officers commanding the corps, at such times between the 1st July, 1873, and the 30th June, 1874, as may be most convenient. The officers and men residing in any city belonging to a brigade of artillery, or to a battalion of infantry, the headquarters of which are within such city, are to perform the drill by companies or in brigade or battalion, or part in battery or company, and part in brigade or battalion, as may be directed by the officers commanding such brigades or battalions. Rural corps attached for administrative purposes to city brigades of artillery or battalions of infantry, are to perform the annual drills at their battery or company headquarters, except in cases where from proximity to the city it may be more convenient for the battery or company to drill with the brigade or battalion. Sixteen days drill, of not less than three hours during each of the sixteen days, will be performed.

The drill for all troops of cavalry will be carried out by the officers commanding, and the mode of forming advanced and rear guards practiced as laid down in the cavalry regulations; also the mode of extending as mounted skirmishers and in firing with blank ammunition when mounted, whenever circumstances will admit. The necessary instruction for cavalry corps is detailed in the cavalry drill book of 1st August, 1869; and in addition to the introductory remarks contained in that code of instruction, particular attention will be paid to sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, comprising "Military Equitation." The cavalry target practice will be at 200 and 400 yards range.

The drill for artillery corps to consist of gun drill and such other regimental artillery exercises as may be deemed most essential and fitting. The officers commanding field batteries should select the most simple and useful of the movements laid down in the "Manual of Field Artillery Exercises." The drivers will be instructed in riding, driving and cleaning harness; the gunners in gun drill, dismounting and mounting guns, righting guns which have been upset, changing wheels, removing disabled field artillery, &c. Where facilities exist, officers commanding field batteries should practice those under their command in throwing up cover for guns in action, moving guns and horses over walls, ditches, ravines, small streams or other obstacles: and without adhering to strict rules endeavor to stimulate the ingenuity and interest of all concerned. On the conclusion of the training of field batteries, all harness, saddlery, carriages, wagons and small stores will be replaced in the sheds in a perfectly clean state and fit for immediate service, the drivers cleaning the harness, the gunners the guns and wagons. Officers commanding field batteries will be held responsible at any time when their batteries are suddenly ordered out, that the service ammunition and other necessary stores are complete and in good order. Lieutenant Colonel French, Inspector of Artillery and Warlike Stores and Commandant of the School of Gunnery, A. Battery, Kingston, will transmit to headquarters a detailed report on the annual regimental inspection of all the Artillery corps in the Province of Ontario, and a special report on the School of Gunnery A Battery, Kingston. Lieut. Col. T. B. Strange, inspector of artillery and warlike stores, and Col. Mandalt, of the school of gunnery, B Battery, Quebec, will transmit to headquarters a detailed report on the annual regimental inspection of all artillery corps in the Province of Quebec and a special report on the school of gunnery, B battery, Quebec. Lieut. Colonel Jago, of the New Brunswick artillery, will make the annual regimental inspection of all the artillery corps in that Province, transmitting his report thereon to headquarters. The annual shot and shell practice of the field batteries of artillery, should not under any circumstances be dispensed with.

For infantry corps, the drill will consist of squad, company and battalion drill, including the manual and platoon exercise, skirmishing and rifle instruction. Two days to be occupied in squad drill, four days in company drill, two days in theoretical rifle instruction, four days in target practice, and four days in skirmishing drill. The annual exercise of rifle instruction and target practice for the infantry is to be considered of primary importance as a military exercise. The non-commissioned officers and men of all corps armed with the Snider rifle will fire ten rounds each at 200, 400, 500 and 600 yards respectively, and at the conclusion of the training, the shooting figure of merit, together with the names of the best shots in every company, battalion, corps and brigade, will be rendered to the Adjutant-General at headquarters by the Deputy Adjutant-General commanding the militia in the respective military districts, for publication in the annual report to Parliament. The few simple rules, on the careful observance of which good rifle shooting depends, are laid down in paragraph 170 of the regulations and orders for the Active Militia. These rules may easily be taught and impressed upon the men by their officers in the period allowed for theoretical rifle instruction, and the annual authorised allowance of ammunition, viz., forty rounds per man, can be properly and advantageously applied within the period allowed for target practice, if due supervision be exercised by the officers and attention paid by the men.

General instructions:—The annual general inspection of all corps will be made by the Deputy-Adjutants General and Brigade Majors of Districts, these officers dividing the duty as may be most convenient, the regimental inspection of the Artillery corps by the inspectors of Artillery to take place at the same time as the annual general inspection of such corps by the district staff officers.

Pay:—The rates of pay for officers, men and horses will be as follows:—Officers, $1 per diem; non-commissioned officers and men 50 cents per diem for sixteen days drill of three hours each, or for thirty-two drills of one and a half hour each. The pay for horses will be allowed at the rate of seventy-five cents per horse for each drill of three hours for a full representation at each such drill, not exceeding the number of horses actually and necessarily present at the drill of each troop of cavalry, provided that at least one half the strength of the field battery or troop of cavalry, and at least one commissioned officer shall attend each such drill, and for the horses necessarily used by mounted officers of corps authorized to drill in brigade or battalion. The course of drill and target practice, required of each arm of the service, to be certified to according to forms which will be supplied from head-quarters.

Extracts of Roots and herbs which almost invariably cure the following complaints:—

Dyspepsia, Heart Burn, Liver Complaint, and Loss of Appetite cured by taking a few bottles.

Lassitude, Low Spirits and sinking Sensation cured at once.

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, and all impurities of the blood, bursting through the skin or otherwise, cured readily by following the directions on the bottle.

Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Derangement invariably cured. One bottle will convince the most skeptical.

Worms expelled from the system without the least difficulty. Patients suffering from this prevalent disease will see a marked change for the better in their condition after taking one bottle. Worm difficulties are more prevalent than is generally supposed in the young, and they will find the Quaker Bitters a sure remedy.

Nervous Difficulties, Neuralgia, &c., speedily relieved.

Rheumatism, Swelled Joints and all Scrofular Afflictions removed or greatly relieved by this invaluable medicine.

Bronchitis, Catarrh, Convulsions, and Hysterics cured or much relieved.

Difficult Breathing, Pain in the Lungs, Side and Chest almost invariably cured by taking a few bottles of the Quaker Bitters.

All Difficult Female Derangements, (almost invariably caused by a violation of the organic laws,) so prevalent to the American ladies yield readily to this invaluable medicine—the Quaker Bitters.

All Impurities of the Blood and diseases incident to the same always cured by the Quaker Bitters, if taken according to the directions.

The Aged find in the Quaker Bitters just the article they stand in need of in their declining years. It quickens the blood and cheers the mind, and paves the passage down the plane inclined.

NEW YORK, May 27, 1873.

THE Northern Pacific Railroad Company having determined to close its 7-30 First Mortgage Gold Loan at an aggregate not exceeding thirty million dollars, and thereafter to pay no higher rate of interest than 6 per cent. on further issues of its bonds, the limited remainder of the 7 3-10 loan is now being disposed of through the usual agencies.

As the bonds of this issue are made receivable in payment for the Company's lands at 1.10, they are in constant and increasing demand for this purpose, and will continue to be after the loan is closed—a fact which much enhances their value and attractiveness as an investment.

The Company has more than 500 miles of its road built and in operation, has earned a title to nearly ten million acres of its land grant, and sales of lands have thus far averaged $5 66 per acre.

All marketable securities are received in exchange for Northern Pacifics at current rates.
