LIBERALS TO FINISH BALLOTTING TONIGHT
Members Vote For Candidates Seeking Positions in New Executive.

Forty per cent of the members of the Liberal Club registered their votes with the treasurer to elect a new executive last night. The balloting will continue this afternoon and tonight, when the votes will be counted and the names of those obtaining office announced.

President Webber, the new head of the club, was unanimously chosen for that position two weeks ago. Peter Cameron, first vice-president; John Griffith, second vice-president, and C. C. Ferguson, treasurer, are other new officers.

An arrangement by which the newly-elected executive will choose its own secretary without a vote from the members has been decided upon. The result of the balloting will not be officially announced until Monday morning. When the 1924 executive is installed a selection will be made of a secretary and the new slate will then be complete.

HAD JOLLY PARTY.
Special to The Advertiser.
Watford, Nov. 16.—The last meeting of the Kingscourt Branch of the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission took the form of a Halloween social, which was held at the home of Mrs. Stephen Morris, fourth concession, Warwick Township. An enjoyable program of musical selections, choruses and readings was successfully carried through. The members of group six of the society were in charge of the arrangements, as follows: Mrs. Stephen Morris, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Cecil McNaughton, Mrs. Russell Duncan and Miss Alma Morris. our young girls assisted as helpers: the Misses Hilda and Dorothy Morris, and Mary and Marguerite Smith.

LABOR INDORSES CANDIDATES FOR COMING ELECTION
Members Chosen For Council, Public Utilities and Board of Education.
NO ONE FOR MAYOR

Candidates for election as aldermen in the four city wards, for the public utilites commission and the board of education were indorsed at last night's convention of the labor party.

The names recommended by the executive and later indorsed by the delegates are: Walter Ellis, ward 2; Ald. McKay, ex-Ald. J. Ashton and E. C. Depotie, ward 3; Ald. Colbert, ward 4; D. J. Tallant, public utilities commission; R. H. Hessell, board of education. Ward one nominations were left in the hands of the executive, to be decided at a meeting on Sunday, although one name was put forward and indorsed, that of Joseph Brown. It is hoped that one more may be prevailed on to contest this division.

No candidate will oppose Mayor George Wenige as far as the labor party is concerned. Neither will he be indorsed by it. Vice-president Moule stated that the matter of the mayoralty would be left to the individual, to vote as he or she saw fit.

The feature of the evening was the return and acceptance into the fold of ex-Ald. J. Ashton, who was turned out last year, after having, in the opinion of the party, neglected and broken away from the party during the previous year, and when he sought election independently at the last election. When his name was read out as being recommended for aldermen, one of the delegates drew attention to this fact and asked Mr. Brown for an explanation, which was given. After a short discussion of the pros and cons of the case, a ballot was taken to decide whether he was acceptable to the convention or not. There were 17 ayes and 5 nays.

The board of education proved a difficulty until after much discussion Mr. Hessell tentatively accepted the nomination. He will give his decision on Sunday. He stated that there was a very real need for labor representation on this body to work for the insertion of the fair wage clause in all its contracts.

During the discussion concerning Mr. Ashton, several delegates expressed the opinion that ex-Mayor Cameron Wilson had double-crossed the labor party in 1922 after having pledged it his support.

ELECT NEW DIRECTORS FOR LONDON CHAMBER
Keen Interest Shown by Members in Selecting Officials.

Seven new directors for the London Chamber of Commerce were chosen by the members in the final election, which closed last evening. The election committee announced the names of the successful candidates as follows: Ray Lawson, E. S. Little, T. W. McFarland, Gerald F. Pearson and Jared Vining.

The vote cast was exceptionally large, a big majority of the members showing their interest in the future of the organization by exercising their right to select its leaders for the coming year.

The directors elected last night will serve for a two-year term, and with the seven other directors elected last year will comprise a directorate of 14 members, from which number the directors will elect the president and other officers at the next board meeting, probably on Wednesday of next week. The seven directors elected last year, and who remain for another year on the board are: Frank S. Ashplant, Lieut.-Col. W. J. Brown, Arthur Ford, Gordon J. Ingram, John S. Moore, C. R. May and R. J. Webster.

The election committee, which under the chairmanship of Prof. E. H. Morrow, completed its task last night was comprised of the following members: W. F. Marshall, A. R. Douglas, M. Lerner, A. H. Murphy, R. T. Brymner, Stanley D. Baby, William Loveday and J. Birnie Smith.

WORK-WORN WOMEN
Care of Home and Children Often Causes a Breakdown

The woman at home, deep in household duties and the cares of motherhood, needs occasional help to keep her in good health. The demands upon a mother's health are many and severe. Her own health trials and her children's welfare exact heavy tolls, while hurried meals, broken rest and much indoor living tend to weaken her. No wonder the woman at home is often indisposed through weakness, headaches, backaches and nervousness. Too many women accept these visitations as part of the lot of motherhood. But many and varied as her health troubles are, the cause is simple, and relief is at hand. When well, it is the woman's good blood that keeps her well; when ill, she must make her blood rich to renew her health. The nursing mother, more than any other woman, needs rich blood and plenty of it. There is one way to get this good blood so necessary to health, and that is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These enrich the blood, and through their use many weak, ailing wives and mothers have been benefited. If you are ailing, easily tired or depressed, it is a duty you owe yourself and your family to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50c a box, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.—Advt.
