OAK HALL—CANADA'S LARGEST CLOTHING STORE

A Great Chance....

For the Boys on Saturday

School Opens in a Few Days. The holidays have played havoc with clothes, and the weather is too warm for heavy suits—though our fall stock is ready—so there is an opportunity to clothe the boys now for a very small outlay.

We have about 400 Boys' Knee Pant Suits left over from the season's selling, many of them plenty heavy enough for early fall wear, but we would rather have the room than the suits.

There are suits of all sizes from 22 to 34, in knee pant style, not many of one kind, but a good assortment in every size.

These 400 Suits, which are sold regularly at from $2.50 to $7.00, are offered on SATURDAY as follows:—

From 8 a.m. to 10 a.m., your choice for $4.00.
From 10 a.m. to noon, your choice for $3.50.
From noon to 2 p.m., your choice for $3.00.
From 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., your choice for $2.50.
From 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., your choice for $2.00.
From 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., your choice for $1.50.
From 8 p.m. to 9 p.m., your choice for $1.00.

Time to be taken from St. James' Cathedral Clock, exactly opposite.

FORESTERS STILL FORENSIC

High Court Session is Now a Matter of History.

Business Transacted at Sessions of the Supreme Court and the High Court Yesterday—Speeches Spoken, Resolutions Resolved and Other Interesting Incidents Occurring.

The Supreme Court I. O. F. resumed its deliberations in the assembly room of the Temple Building yesterday morning, the Supreme Chief Ranger, Dr. Oronhyatekha, in the chair.

After the opening ceremonies Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Premier of New Brunswick, who had received the Supreme Court degree, was introduced and invited by Dr. Oronhyatekha to a seat on the platform.

The minutes of last session were read and confirmed.

The Past Supreme Chief Ranger, E. Botterell, being called to the chair, Dr. Oronhyatekha, accompanied by H. A. Collins and other members of the High Court of Central Ontario, retired to pay an official visit to that High Court.

J. Clancy, M. P., submitted the report of the Finance Committee, as follows:

The Salary List.

Your Committee on Finance beg leave to report as follows: First, that with reference to the salaries of the Supreme Court officers, who now receive fixed salaries, the committee are of the opinion they should not be increased, except the salaries of the Supreme Auditors, which we recommend be increased to $2000, with the understanding that they devote their whole time to the work pertaining to the office. Second, we recommend that the salaries be as follows: Supreme Chief Ranger, $10,000 per annum; Supreme Secretary, $6000 per annum; Supreme Treasurer, $2000 per annum; Supreme Physician, $6000 per annum; Supreme Auditors (each), $2000 per annum. Third, we further recommend that the sum of $100 be given the Supreme Formal Secretary for his services; members of the Mileage and Per Diem Committee the sum of $25 each; members of the Press Committee the sum of $30 each; to the messenger the sum of $10.

The report was taken up clause by clause.

B. J. Solomon of San Francisco moved that the salary of Supreme Treasurer Collins be increased to $2500. This was seconded by Dr. Clark of Ontario and several others, and was carried by a good majority.

Dr. Clark, seconded by James Marshall of London, moved that the allowance to the Press Committee be $50.

This was adopted.

Bro. Victor Morin of Montreal said that the members of the Committee on Constitutions and Laws, who had been laboring hard since Aug. 18, should get $100 each. He moved that the Finance Committee be authorized to consider it. This was seconded by Bro. Solomon and adopted.

The report of the Finance Committee as amended was then adopted unanimously.

Solid Appreciation.

Bro. Clancy, M. P., for the Finance Committee, then submitted a supplementary report, as follows:

"The Committee on Finance beg leave to report as follows: Recognizing the untiring zeal and energy of our worthy Supreme Chief Ranger in the planning and erection of this magnificent Temple, we recommend that he be paid the sum of $5000 as a slight mark of our appreciation of his valuable and untiring work."

In making this motion Bro. Clancy delivered an eloquent address, paying a very high tribute to the great work done for Forestry by Dr. Oronhyatekha, his zeal, his remarkable ability, his untiring labors and his wonderful success.

With even greater force and eloquence Rev. Mr. Cregan of Belfast, Ireland, endorsed the remarks of Bro. Clancy and paid his tribute to the Chief. "He's the pride of every circle and the idol of his own," quoted Bro. Cregan, and the brethren cheered heartily.

Bro. A. W. Fraser of Ottawa said he yielded to no man in his respect and admiration for the Chief. He recalled, however, that the Chief's salary had been increased three years ago at London, and he felt that the court was not now justified in making this grant. He was sure the love and respect of the rank and file of the order would be more valued by Dr. Oronhyatekha than any amount of money. [Hear, hear.] The speaker did not wish to be misunderstood. He would oppose the motion, not on any personal ground, but because he believed it would be in the best interests of the order. He referred to the increase in the rates and other constitutional changes of this session, and argued that the present proposed action would be utilized by enemies of the order.

G. D. Clark of the Finance Committee said he had been entirely opposed to any increase in the salaries of the officers. He was, however, in favor of at this time showing this special mark of appreciation of one who had done so much for the order, and who might not be with them at their next or any future Supreme Court meeting to receive from them any such mark of their esteem. Mr. Clark's eloquent speech provoked hearty applause.

Bro. W. H. Wardrope of Ontario, who in London three years ago had spoken and voted against any increase in salaries, said he was now in full accord with this proposition. Mr. Wardrope added a warm personal tribute to the Chief.

The vote was then taken and the report was adopted by a large majority.

Dr. Oronhyatekha, who entered while Mr. Wardrope was speaking, was greeted with great applause.

The Minnesota Division.

W. R. Hickey, chairman of the Committee on Appeals, submitted their report. The first section related to an appeal from Minnesota against a division of the jurisdiction into two High Courts by the Supreme Executive without a petition from the existing High Court in regular session. The committee reported against the appeal.

High Chief Ranger O'Neill of Minnesota supported the appeal in a vigorous speech. He claimed there was no need of a division and that it certainly should not have been made without reference to the High Court. There was ample time, he said, to have made such reference, and the action of the Supreme Executive was, in his opinion, arbitrary and unconstitutional. When the division of Ontario was under discussion it was never mooted that such power might be assumed by the Supreme Executive. If this precedent were endorsed by the Supreme Court there would be no end of trouble.

After some remarks by I. H. Backus on the constitutional aspect of the question, Bro. John A. McGillivray, speaking for the Supreme Executive, said this question of Minnesota was one of the most delicate that had come before the Executive in his time. Minnesota had had many troubles and in this present case a section of Minnesota larger than Western Ontario had, with but one dissenting court, asked for a separate High Court. The Supreme Executive notified the High Standing Committee of the state that a meeting would be held to discuss the question. Both parties were heard and after an effort to overcome the difficulty they decided to institute a second High Court in the state. That court was now represented in this Supreme Court. He asked the Supreme Court to sustain the action of the Executive.

Rev. W. J. McCaughan said there were two points to consider, as had been stated by Bro. Backus. First, had the Supreme Executive the right to take such action as they did? And, second, if they had the right, did they exercise it properly? He believed they had the right, and felt that their action should be sustained.

Mr. La Courn, who represents the new High Court of Northern Minnesota, justified the action of the Executive, and declared that the division had been made in the highest interests of Forestry in that state.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session of the High Court, the Past High Vice-Chief Ranger occupied the chair. The minutes having been read and adopted, the election of officers was continued. For the office of High Secretary the following were nominated: Bros. Hetherington, Dr. Niddrie and J. C. Morgan. Dr. Niddrie was elected. Bro. Atwell Fleming was re-elected by acclamation to the office of High Treasurer. The nominees for High Physician were: Drs. C. A. Hodgetts, A. C. Thompson, W. C. Clutton, Rose and Little. Dr. Rose withdrew and of those remaining Dr. Hodgetts was elected.

Bro. J. A. V. Preston was made High Councillor. The others nominated were: H. Ardagh and E. J. Hearn. The High Auditors were then nominated as follows: Barlow Cumberland, A. Fraser, G. E. Challus, A. H. Dixon, W. T. R. Preston, A. S. Wigmore and H. Reeves. Bros. Challus and Preston were elected. In conclusion a vote was taken in reference to the place of next year's meeting, and the following were voted upon: Orillia, Owen Sound and Toronto. It was decided to meet in Toronto, and the time was arranged for the second Tuesday in September.

High Court Finishes.

The evening session was taken up with the consideration of the finance report, which was adopted. The Past High Chief Ranger installed the officers and the proceedings of the court were declared ended for 1898.

The Supreme Court.

At the opening of the afternoon session the Supreme Court Ranger not having arrived, the Supreme Vice-Chief Ranger, Hon. Mr. Aitken, was elected to the chair.

The minutes of the last session were read and confirmed.

J. D. Clark moved that the consideration of other committees who had met at the same time as the Committee on Constitution and Laws, be referred to the Finance Committee, along with the latter. This motion arose out of Mr. Morin's resolution in the morning, that the members of the latter committee be granted $100 each. Mr. Clark's motion was seconded and carried.

Appeals Heard.

The report of the Appeals Committee was again taken up. The first section endorsed the action of the Supreme Executive in refusing the payment of the mortuary benefit of the late Bro. Punnetton of Montreal.

Discussing this case, Victor Morin showed that the suspension of the brother was due to circumstances of a very exceptional nature, and in part to a failure of the officers of the subordinate court of which he was a member. If the claim were denied the widow and children would be in absolutely destitute circumstances. He made an eloquent plea in their behalf.

Judge Wedderburn said that there were mitigating circumstances in the case, but since there was no legal claim, it would be better to sustain the committee's report and then vote as a donation the amount, which they could not recognize as a legal claim.

Mr. Morin accepted the suggestion and the report of the committee was accordingly sustained.

Similar action was taken with reference to the appeal of the beneficiaries of the late Alexander Sutherland, whose case was put in a clear and forcible speech by A. Herald Kingston.

The action of the Supreme Executive in suspending A. A. Weeks of Grand Rapids was sustained.

James B. Halkett submitted the following report of a special committee and, seconded by Hon. Elliott G. Stevenson, moved its adoption.

Report of special committee appointed to take into consideration the services of the retiring Past S. C. R. and S. V. C. R.

A Good Resolution.

Brothers E. Botteral and D. D. Aitken, who have for many years served the membership of this society as members of the Executive Council, with ability and fidelity, being unwilling, in view of their other engagements, to accept re-election to the offices they have so acceptably filled, the Supreme Court of the Independent Order of Foresters desire to express their regret at their retirement, and to acknowledge the obligations of the membership for the many sacrifices they have made for them, for their devotion to their interests, and as a slight token of the esteem in which they are severally held by this body, and of their eminent and faithful services, we, the committee appointed to take this matter into consideration, recommend that a grant of $500 be made to each to defray the expense of procuring such a testimonial as shall be most acceptable to them respectively, and that the proper officers of the Supreme Court be authorized and directed to draw a warrant in their favor for the amount named.

This was adopted by a standing vote.

Elliot G. Stevenson, for the Appeals Committee, submitted a further report.

Another Report.

Mary Ruthenbeck's son was insured in the Railway Trainmen's Society and applied for insurance in the I.O.F. He passed the Medical Board, but the notice was sent to another court in the same city. He appeared several times for initiation, but the notice not being there, he could not be initiated. He in the meantime dropped his insurance in the R.Y.A. A little later he was killed by accident. The committee sustained the action of the Supreme Executive in rejecting the claim. Report adopted.

Re the Chief's Illness.

Hon. Judge Wedderburn read the following:

To the officers and members of the Supreme Court:

Brethren, whereas at a meeting of the physicians in attendance at the Supreme Court, held this day, we have observed the prostration shown by the Supreme Chief Ranger which we believe has been produced by close attention and over-fatigue incident to the various official duties of his position and the great amount of work necessary in superintending the erection of the Foresters' Temple and whereas the interests of the order imperatively demand that he take a much-needed rest, it is hereby resolved that we request the Supreme Court, I.O.F., to take immediate action to relieve him of the cares of office for a period of not less than four months. Signed, M. O. Ward, P. A. Barker, Charles G. Frowert, Ralph Morden, C. Day Clark, T. Newton Greer, B. McMullin, John Herald, Chas. P. Stone, T. Wellman, J. W. Cameron, E. W. Bucklay, D. Albert Rose.

Heartfelt Words.

Judge Wedderburn followed this by moving the following resolution:

"Resolved, that the communication and resolution of the members of the medical profession just read are hereby accepted and adopted, and ordered to be entered upon the records of the Supreme Court; and the Supreme Court, recognizing the unwearied zeal and invaluable services of the S. C.R., always devoted to the best interests of the order, and his eminent services in connection with the planning and completion of the Temple, most earnestly and cordially requests the S.C.R. to accept leave of absence for not less than four months, with the warmest expression of the unabated love and confidence of his brethren, and their heartfelt prayer for his early and complete restoration to health and strength."

Judge Wedderburn, in tones of deep sympathy, supported this resolution and dwelt upon the arduous labors of the Supreme Chief during the last year. He did not wish it to be understood that Dr. Oronhyatekha's condition was serious. He had been requested by the doctors to say that the doctor was merely suffering from temporary prostration and that a few months' rest would restore him to complete health.

John A. McGillivray seconded the motion and added a few words. He endorsed what the Judge had just stated. The Executive had some time ago urged Dr. Oronhyatekha to take three months' rest. He had taken only one month, and devoted part of that to Forestric work in England.

The resolution was adopted by a rising and unanimous vote.

G. A. McElfresh at once arose and extended to the Supreme Chief an invitation for Dr. Oronhyatekha to spend the whole four months in his home in Los Angeles, the finest climate in the world.

Hearty applause greeted this generous offer on the part of the Californian delegate.

On motion of Ven. Archdeacon Davis a committee was appointed to draw up a memorial expressing the esteem of the Supreme Court for their Chief and their profound sympathy.

Re the Constitution.

The report of the Committee on Constitutions and Laws was next taken up, and a large number of sections of the proposed amendments to the constitution were adopted.

John A. McGillivray referred to a charge made by members of the order that its securities were not examined by other than its own auditors. The Supreme Executive had gone outside the order and got Hon. S. C. Wood of Ontario, and R. S. Simlinson, the head of a great English loan company, to make a thorough investigation into all the securities. Their report was as follows, and was, he observed, a complete answer to the charge made in a hostile circular, which was being circulated and had no doubt come into the hands of members of the order.

A Truthful Expert.

Toronto, Aug. 30, 1898.

The Supreme Chief Ranger, Independent Order of Foresters:

Dear Sir,—The undersigned, at the request of the Executive of the Supreme Court of the I.O.F., have made a careful examination of the investments of the order, etc., Dec. 31, 1897, consisting of:

1. Mortgages on real estate, amounting to $1,531,563.

2. Municipal bonds, etc., in the custody of the Trusts Corporation of Ontario, $138,426.

Total, $1,669,789.

From such examination and the very full and satisfactory information furnished by the Supreme Secretary, and the valuators and inspectors' reports, and from the personal knowledge we have in many cases of the securities, we are enabled to report that the moneys of the order are, with a few exceptions, safely invested. Taken as a whole we are of the opinion that the investments would realize at the present time more than the above sum of $1,669,789.

We have much pleasure in adding that every facility has been afforded by the officers of the order to enable us to arrive at a clear understanding of the investments and the securities upon which they are made. Also to the efficient manner in which the borrowers' accounts are kept, and to the system adopted for the filing and care of the mortgages, title papers, etc. (Signed) S. C. Wood.

R. P. Simlinson.

Securities Sound.

Mr. McGillivray, in a vigorous speech, declared that the securities of the order were absolutely sound. He invited the fullest enquiry. There was nothing to conceal. He was proud of the securities and the investments made, and challenged the world to show another institution that could make such a showing. He would be pleased if the Supreme Court wished, for their own satisfaction, to appoint a committee to go fully into the subject and examine for themselves. The Executive had already, on their own count, invited members from various parts of the jurisdiction to make an examination, and they had declared themselves completely satisfied. There were, he explained, no investments in tenement houses, unoccupied property, hotels or manufacturing establishments.

Mr. McGillivray's powerful address on the subject was greeted with hearty applause.

On motion of Col. Caldwell it was ordered that the report of Messrs. Wood and Simlinson be entered in the minutes.

After a large number of sections of the amended constitutions had been adopted, the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

COMPANION COURTS.

For some three years past ladies have been endeavoring to obtain admission into the I.O.F., but each succeeding Supreme Court, despite the pleading of Oronhyatekha, S.C.R., said it was not to be. However the ladies were allowed to form social courts, and play at being Foresters, and it is only at the present session that they were admitted on equal footing with the men, and eligible for benefits.

Foresters on Dishabille.

When the Supreme Court of the I. O. F. is in full swing at the Temple it is a familiar scene to see influential members, who are perhaps tired, or not immediately interested in the proceedings, sitting in comfortable neglige in the large and airy anteroom of the court.

A Lofty View.

This is situated many storeys up, and cool breezes blow in through the open windows, and, divested of regalia, the officers sit in the comfortable leather chairs and talk of the order, and from the high altitude splendid views may be obtained of the city.

Seen in the Haze.

The room is furnished with tables, chairs and writing utensils, and the smoke of the pipe, cigar and cigaret circles round and floats out through the open window.

Here are four auditors, divested of coats, going over their work for a report; here a man with a scheme buttonholes another and they steal away to the open window and discuss the idea and work it up. Approaches a pretty girl, undecided whether to blush or look perplexed—she is not a member. Can she send a message to Blank, in the court? There is no difficulty in the way of getting the message in if the pretty girl will give directions to the doorkeeper; he is all-powerful and will have the note delivered.

Snapshot—Different Dialects.

Here they all gather, at some part of the day, and the sharp dialect of the Republic mingles with Canadian Queen's English; the quick, musical tongue of France is heard, the brogue of Erin, different races, widely varied intonation and manner, idioms different, ideas different, faces different—one only in that all are members of the great fraternity—I. O. F.

Visitors to the Exhibition are invited to examine the Alaskn acetylene gas machine, near Machinery Hall. It provides absolutely cold gas. There is positively no loss or smell. The Winnipeg heater will also interest you. It saves half the fuel or doubles the amount of heat. We can prove it by users. Ask for circulars. Metal Shingle & Siding Co., Limited, Preston, Ont.

The R. Q. T. Road Race.

The time for receiving entries for the R.Q.T. road race has been extended till Saturday, Sept. 3. The committee have announced that the limit will be 10 minutes, the same as last year. The office and showroom, 14-16 King-street east, will be open on Friday and Saturday evenings. Saturday will be the last day for receiving entries as the Handicapping Committee start their work on Monday.

STABBED IN THE SHOULDER

David Donohoe Struck Four Times by a Fellow-Workman.

The Wounds, However, Are Not of a Serious Nature—O'Reilly-Street Residents Complain About the Odor Coming From the Terra Cotta Kennels—Hamilton General Notes.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—David Donohoe, Lock-street, was stabbed four times in the shoulder with a jack-knife this evening by a man who escaped after he committed the deed. The wounds were not very deep, and Donohoe is not in a serious condition. There was no provocation for the assault, according to the statement of eye-witnesses. Donohoe was engaged with several other men in hauling a boat from the yard of John Larkin, Barton-street east, to the bay. One of the axles under the boat took fire, and a pail of water was thrown on it. Some water went on the man who used the knife and he complained. Donohoe told him he should not have been so close to the boat. Then he drew his knife and used it.

Board of Health in Session.

The Board of Health was in session for over an hour to-night, but did little else than discuss the report of a committee which visited cow byres in Toronto, and decided to pay a visit to the Queen City next Wednesday to inspect pork factories.

A deputation of residents of O'Reilly-street complained about the Terra Cotta Kennels, owned by Mr. Kent, Toronto, and managed by John Tulk. It was stated that there are 25 dogs in the kennel, and they smelled badly and also made a great noise. One resident said he thought it was a shame that the canines of a Toronto man should be allowed to be barbored in the heart of the city. A committee was appointed to investigate the complaint to-morrow.

Trolley-St. School Opened.

The new school on Trolley-street, in section 8, Barton township, was formally opened this evening. There was a large gathering of trustees, township councillors and residents of the district.

Police Cases.

David Gilbert, Robert-street, pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of assaulting Daisy Cox, a little girl. He will be sentenced to-morrow.

The sentence of Charles Maher, the fence, has been reduced from one year to six months by the Minister of Justice.

Afternoon Weddings.

Two pretty weddings took place here this afternoon. Capt. Dougald McGillivray, accountant in the Bank of Commerce, Toronto, and Miss Harriet Howard, niece of Lt.-Col. McLaren, were wedded by Rev. G. A. Forneret. J. A. McDonald, Toronto, was the best man and Misses Margery and Kathleen Howard were the bridesmaids. Dr. B. C. Bell of St. George and Miss Alice E. Craney of Bay City, Mich., were made one in the Central Presbyterian Church by Rev. Dr. Burns. Frank Bell was the groomsman and Miss Alma Freeman, Burlington, the bridesmaid. The ushers were Charles Bell, George Black and Herbert Givin.

Minor Matters.

Annie Elliott, a little girl, 223 Main-street east, is dying from inflammation of the brain, caused by a blow with a stick in the hands of a playmate.

Joshua Dodson, caretaker of Queen Victoria school, fell off a ladder this morning and broke his collar bone.

A large crowd will be at Dundurn Park to-morrow to see the Toronto and Hamilton baseball teams cross bats. The game will be called at 4.

During August building permits representing $42,500 were issued by Building Inspector Anderson, who is one of the busiest men in the city at present.

The annual excursion of the Central Church Sunday school takes place to-morrow.
