The garden party given by the members of the Bible class of the Baptist Sunday school on Friday evening last was a decided success. The weather was ideal and the crowd good.

At Oakdale's annual picnic over 5,000 people were treated to a snappy game of baseball between Alvinston and Bothwell. Tunks, for Bothwell, pitched a steady game throughout, while Norsworth, for Alvinston, was pounded to all corners of the lot. He was replaced in the seventh by Hamilton, whose offerings met with similar approval. The feature of the game was Williams' sensational attempts in left field. The score ran high, owing to the roughness of the diamond, being 12 to 9 in favor of Bothwell. Batteries—Norsworth and Hamilton for Alvinston; Tunks and Gilbert for Bothwell.

Through Pullman Tourist Sleeping Cars, Sept. 5 to 19.

Sarnia, Aug. 28.—Capt. James Reid, of this city, who has worked nine months to release the big freighter Moreland, ashore on Sawtooth Reef, Keewenaw Point, Lake Superior, has just succeeded in floating the after portion of the steamer, carrying the boilers and machinery. The bow section has been towed into shallow water, where further repairs will be made.

"SELF CULTURE"

Address by Rev. Bela H. Hayden Before Epworth League.

"Self-Culture" was the subject of an intensely interesting and thoughtful address which Rev. Bela H. Hayden gave before the First Methodist Epworth League last evening. "Self-culture" does not imply selfishness," said Mr. Hayden. "Selfishness and self-culture are opposite poles of life's activities. Without self there can be no sacrifice, and there must be personality from which all good comes. God is the spirit of all being, and from the Being of God all other being is derived. It is the duty of every man and woman to make the most of life, to develop their selfhood and make their personality as complete as possible. Jesus gave because He had something to give. We cannot give beyond what we possess.

"There are many persons who are not willing to pay the price of the prizes of life. We do not know what we do because we are what we are. Our actions reveal our character, our personality and our real thought."

In conclusion Rev. Mr. Hayden emphasized strongly the dignity, sacredness and infinite possibilities of life.

A brief talk was also given by Miss Matheson, a former deaconess of the First Methodist Church, and a solo was very beautifully rendered by Miss Mabel Ferguson.

At the conclusion of the regular programme ice cream and refreshments were served by the executive committee of the league.

THE CAMORRA TRIAL

Witness Says Vitozzi Was Active Member of the Gang.

[Canadian Press.]

Viterbo, Italy, Aug. 29.—The morning's session of the Camorra trial was entirely taken up with the testimony of a carabineer, who contradicted statements made at previous hearings by members of the secret society now being tried for the murder of Genarro Cuoccolo and his wife.

By his straightforward recital of the evidence collected against the prisoners, the carabineer made a favorable impression on the jury. He said that the priest, Ciro Vitozzi, who has been given the appellation of "guardian angel of the Camorra," undoubtedly was an active member of the Camorra, spending most of his time among the criminals who frequented Castellamarre.

During his deposition the carabineer said that although Tomasso de Angelis (a witness for the crown, but charged by the defence with being one of the actual murderers of the Cuoccolos), had a long criminal record, when provided with work through the carabineers he had behaved honestly.

RETURNED THE SWEATER

Two Girls Accused of Stealing Are Allowed to Go.

Blanche Harding and Florence Barrett, charged with the theft of a coat sweater from a girl named Heatherly, appeared before Squire Chittick this morning. As the girls had admitted taking the article and had given it over to the constables to be returned, the squire took a lenient view of the matter and let them off with a warning.

Two bicycle riders, who preferred the sidewalk rather than the road, and a couple of bathers, who violated the law by bathing without the necessary costume also appeared and pleaded guilty to the charges. They were let go on paying the costs.

McGILLICUDDY REPEATS THE OLIVER CHARGES

Attacks Minister in a Stormy Meeting at Humber Bay.

Toronto, Aug. 29.—After a rough-and-tumble, in which two men were roughly thrown out and others who showed a disposition to ask questions effectually cowed into silence, Mr. Dan McGillicuddy was allowed to make his charges against Hon. Frank Oliver at the Conservative meeting held in Devlinns' Hall at Humber Bay last night. It was a strenuous meeting, and at times it almost developed into a burlesque.

Mr. McGillicuddy made his charges with considerable attention to detail. He told the meeting of Pinkerton detectives discovering how the minister of the interior had received through a New York bank a draft for $50,000 as a "slush" fund for use in the Dominion elections. A portion of that sum, he alleged, had been devoted to practical campaign work, but part of it—he cited several payments—had been used for his own private purposes.

A Letter to Premier.

A lengthy letter written to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, after the Premier had made his statement in the House in reference to the Oliver charges, was read to the meeting by Mr. McGillicuddy. In it he gives his version of the interviews he had had with Sir Wilfrid. He reviews all the circumstances surrounding the Oliver charges, but carefully avoids naming the source from which the campaign contributions were supposed to have come, although he goes to considerable trouble to draw the inference that the Mackenzie-Mann interests put up the money.

In his earlier remarks and again in his letter Mr. McGillicuddy threw some light upon the now famous photograph that was supposed to represent Hon. Mr. Oliver's account in the Imperial Bank.

"I never mentioned a ledger page," he declared in answer to a jeering question about the photograph. In his letter to Sir Wilfrid he admitted that he had no photograph of the account in question.

KIDNAPPED CHILDREN

The New York Black Hand Gang Again Busy.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Aug. 29.—The police attacked the problem of restoring two kidnapped Italian children today with the belief that they had to deal with an organized gang operating under the auspices of the Black Hand.

Four weeks ago Vincenzo Sabella disappeared, and three weeks later little Peter Quartararo vanished while playing in the street, and afterwards their parents received a number of letters demanding $10,000 ransom for the Sabella boy, and $3,000 for young Quartararo. The letters, signed with the skull and crossbones, and smeared apparently with blood, finally caused the terrified parents to overcome their dread of the Italian secret society, and report the cases to the police. Neither made any effort to comply with the demands of the kidnappers, although Sabella is said to be wealthy.

The letters in both cases were worded practically the same.

FATAL MONTREAL ROW

Man Shot by Patrolman Succumbs to His Wounds.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 29.—Death came last night at the General Hospital to Emile Lisotte, who was shot on Friday night by Arthur Peachey, a patrolman, in the employ of the Dominion Burglary Guarantee Company, at the corner of Notre Dame and Inspector streets.

Judge Lafontaine, clerk of the peace, went to the hospital, and took the evidence of the dying man for the preliminary enquiete. He was accompanied by an official stenographer. Sergeant-Detective Charpentier brought Peachey, the accused, to the hospital. Peachey was represented by Mr. John Hackett.

The evidence of the dying man was brief. He could not identify Peachey as the man who shot him, and could only say he was shot by the man who was fighting with his friend, Vivier.

Lisotte told Judge Lafontaine that he tried to separate the men, and just as he pulled Vivier away he saw the other man draw a revolver from his pocket, and the next instant he was shot. He did not know the man who shot him, and would not be able to identify the man if he saw him.

THERE'S HOPE FOR ALL.

Troy, Mo., Aug. 29.—Mrs. Nancy Edey, 96 years old, today became a bride for the sixth time, her latest husband being Ree Indow, 24 years old. The bride's fifth husband died six weeks ago at the county poor farm here. The pair were given an ovation when they left for a wedding trip. Although gray-haired Mrs. Indow does not look so near the century mark. Indow wore overalls and a hickory shirt on his honeymoon. He declared he married his wife because he loved her.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed form supplied and signed with their actual signatures, stating their occupations and places of residence. In the case of firms, the actual signature, the nature of the occupation, and place of residence of each member of the firm must be given.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted check on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honorable the Minister of Public Works, equal to ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited if the person tendering decline to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or fail to complete the work specified in the tender, or if the tender is not accepted the cheque will be returned.

By order,
R. C. ELROS, Secretary.
Department of Public Works,

Department of Railways and Canals

Branch Line of Railway From Guysborough to Sunny Brae Through Country Harbor Crossroads With an Extension From Country Harbor Crossroads to Deep Water of Country Harbor.

Sealed tenders addressed to the undersigned, and indorsed "Tender for Guysborough-Country Harbor Line," will be received at this office until 12 o'clock on Friday, Sept. 15, 1911, for Section 1 of the above line of railway, comprising that portion extending from Guysborough to Country Harbor Crossroads, and from the latter point to Deep Water Country Harbor.

Plans, profiles, specifications and form of contract to be entered into can be seen on and after the 15th inst. at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Intercolonial Railway, Moncton, and at the office of the Board of Trade of Halifax. Forms of tender may be procured from the Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals or from the Chief Engineer of the Intercolonial Railway.

Parties tendering will be required to accept the fair wages schedule prepared or to be prepared by the Department of Labor, which schedule will form part of the contract.

Contractors are requested to bear in mind that tenders will not be considered unless made strictly in accordance with the printed forms, and in the case of firms, unless there are attached the actual signature, the nature of the occupation, and place of residence of each member of the firm.

An accepted bank check for the sum of $100,000, made payable to the order of the Minister of Railways and Canals, must accompany each tender, which sum will be forfeited if the party tendering declines entering into the contract for the work, at the rates stated in the offer submitted.

The checks thus sent in will be returned to the respective contractors whose tenders are not accepted.

The check of the successful tenderer will be held as security, or part security, for the due fulfillment of the contract to be entered into.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted. By order,

L. K. JONES,
Secretary.
Department of Railways and Canals,
