ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TREE OF ORIENT CLUB SUCCESS

All Get Presents From Santa Claus—Caretaker "Watched."

Equalled only by the annual banquet is the annual social evening and Christmas tree of the Orient Club. Last night was the occasion of the 1920 gathering and all good Orients did not fail to take advantage of it. To the number of 75 they assembled in their club rooms and enjoyed "eats," music and still more "eats."

The musical program, although not lengthy, was nevertheless an excellent one. Among the number were solos by Keith MacDonald and Percy King, and a recitation by Mr. Hamilton.

Harold (Red) Tudor, who acted as Santa Claus, sprung some surprises on the various members, but none were more surprised than Percy Ashton, the caretaker, who was "watched." All evening Dame Rumor had it that he was to receive a fine gold watch. So persistent were the rumors that he had almost come to believe them. When the gifts were distributed he got a watch, but to the amusement of all present, it was found to be a glass one, coated with gold paint.

DROP OPPOSITION.

HAMILTON, Dec. 29.—Upon receiving assurance that the local organization of the police was for sick benefits and holding social affairs, and in no sense a labor organization, the police commissioners have withdrawn their opposition to the movement.

FINEST THING EVER FOR CHRONIC CATARRH!

Gets Away From the Medicine Habit, Cures By Novel Method.

With the many remedies you have tried you surely know that no liquid medicine can cure your throat or nose. Even a gargle only bathes the entrance of the throat—it can't really get inside, nor can it reach the inflamed bronchial tubes.

With Catarrhozone, it's so different from medicine-taking—you simply breathe its healing vapor, inhale its balsamic fumes, which carry cure and relief to the minutest air cells in the lungs, nose, throat, and bronchial tubes.

In this scientific way the soreness and inflammation is rapidly allayed, relaxed cords are toned up, the entire mucous membrane invigorated. Every trace of catarrh disappears, the disagreeable dropping of mucus in the throat, hawking, spitting, and stopped-up nostrils—all these sure signs of catarrh and bronchitis are permanently cured by Catarrhozone. Large outfit lasts two months, costs $1; small size, 50 cents; trial size 25 cents, at dealers everywhere.

VERY IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY HELD AT VICTORIA HOSPITAL

Unveiling of Tablet in Memory of Victoria Nurses Who Died in War Service.

The unveiling of the bronze tablet at Victoria Hospital yesterday afternoon, in memory of the Victoria nurses who lost their lives in the fight for freedom during the late war, was one of the most impressive ceremonies of its kind ever held in the city. Not a dry eye was left in the large ward on the ground floor of the hospital where the ceremony took place after the final notes of the "last post" were sounded by Bugler Charles Ward of the R. C. R. The final mark of respect was paid when the whole audience, numbering perhaps 100, filed past the beautiful tablet and read the names inscribed thereon: Lieut. Agnes McDougall, Lieut. Henrietta Mellett, Lieut. Katherine MacDonald and Lieut. Dorothy M. Y. Baldwin. The tablet, which is executed in bronze, bears at the top the British coat-of-arms and underneath: "Their names liveth forevermore." It is the gift of Col. William Gartshore to the hospital, and will be placed in the entrance hall of that institution.

Many Present.

Those who were invited to attend the unveiling ceremony were friends of the four nurses whose names appear on the tablet, overseas nursing sisters and other nurses and military people of the city. Col. Wm. Gartshore occupied the chair, stating the purpose of the ceremony. Ceremonies were opened by an invocation offered by the Rev. R. J. Bowen, the final drawing of the flag from before the tablet being done by Miss Margaret Stanley, lady superintendent of the hospital. A 'cello solo, played with muted strings by the Rev. G. Q. Warner and "The Supreme Sacrifice," sung by Miss Margery Talbot were also included in the program.

Addresses.

Three splendid addresses referred to the nursing sisters who had sacrificed their lives and their splendid heroism. Col. Seaborn of No. 10 Stationary Hospital, who was the first speaker, declared,

"Although I tried to carry out my duty in every posible way, while at the front, I now look back with unutterable remorse, because often when there came appeals for men and more men at the front, I had to send on men who were not fit to be sent. I say this because I want to show the difference between what men did over there and what women did. The nursing sisters, from their experience at the front, cannot possibly feel any remorse."

Col. Seaborn spoke of Nursing Sister Agness McDougall, who was with No. 10 hospital for such a long time, and who was then sent on to Etaples only to be killed by a German bomb coming through the operating-room a few days before she was to return to No. 10. He also mentioned Nursing Sister Katharine MacDonald, who was returned to Canada, to die here.

Dr. Reason.

Dr. Clifford Reason was the second speaker.

"We are here today, not only to do honor to the nurses whose lives were lost during the war, but to do honor to all the mothers and sisters and wives throughout the Dominion who gave their support and help during the terrible conflict," he said. In referring to the nurses themselves, he spoke of how the sick men had always spoken of their kindness and care, and how whenever the soldiers wrote home it was always of the nurses that they spoke first.

He told of that terrible day, May 29, when the Etaples Hospital was bombed in spite of the fact that it was Corpus Christi Day, and both armies had promised to desist from hostilities. And in this connection he mentioned the splendid work of Nursing Sister MacDougall and Nursing Sister Baldwin, who were killed by the falling of a German bomb, directed onto the hospital.

Graves Cared For.

He mentioned the burial of the nurses and patients on May 31, and how the French people stripped their gardens to lay flowers on the graves, and were still doing so, for he had heard but a few days ago that the French were still caring for the graves at Etaples.

Nursing Matron McIntosh was the final speaker, telling of Nursing Sister Henrietta Mellett's work in the east, and how she was drowned on a ship returning to Ireland, which was torpedoed.

FORMER NORMAL STUDENTS REUNITE

Class '20 Stages Banquet at Cafe—Professors Give Teachers Advice.

One of the jolliest social affairs of the Christmas season was the re-union of the 1920 class of the London Normal School yesterday. Over 100 former students returned to London from various parts of Western Ontario, practically the whole 1919-1920 class, to renew old acquaintances. During the evening, no less than three of the toastmasters referred to the 1919-1920 class as being one of the best ever graduated from the Normal School, and that it was a known fact, that the majority were receiving a salary with four figures to start with, while preceding classes boasted of a three-figured salary.

The teachers met at the Normal school at an early hour on Wednesday afternoon and were welcomed by Professor John Dearness, M.A. A short time was allowed for old friends to greet each other, and then members of teaching staff of the Normal school gave miuute speeches, in which they urged the teachers not to forget to save a little of their earnings. The speakers were Mr. A. Stevenson, E. T. White and T. E. Clark. Mr. George Hofferd held a round-table conference with the teachers. An amusing as well as interesting part of the afternoon session was the little sketch given by each teacher, telling where she taught school and a few of the difficulties she met with when first starting out. Mr. Hofferd, one of the teaching staff, had remedies for all the difficulties.

Banquet at Cafe.

At 6:15 o'clock the students went to Wong's Cafe, where a banquet was held. The large number were accommodated around a "T" shaped table, and no end of fun was obtained from the toasts proposed and replied to by the teachers. Thomas Willis was the chairman of the evening, and provided a constant supply of ready wit and humor. A toast was proposed to the King, followed by one to the Normal School by Miss Wright, replied to by Mr. Secord; to the Class of 1919-1920, by Miss Clark and replied to by Mr. Allingham; to the Athletic Association, by Miss Lucas, replied to by Mr. Banks; to the Y. W. C. A., by Mr. Hubbell, replied to by Miss Beacom; to the Dramatic Club, by Miss Helen Sharpe, replied to by Miss Hopkins and Miss Thumb. A toast was also proposed and replied to to the members now teaching school and to the special subject masters. Each toast and reply made laughter among the former students, and were reminders of the happy days at the Normal School. Miss Wright sang for the teachers, accompanied by Miss Clark, and Bert Thomas also favored the students with two selections.

Miss Louise Gahan, librarian of the Normal School, was kindly remembered by the former students, when they presented her with a corsage of Russel roses. Miss Gahan in a speech at the close of the evening gave the young teachers some timely advice to help them in their profession. Professor Dearness remarked that the event would long be remembered by him and that he hoped this reunion would not be the last.

BUILDING INCREASES.

VANCOUVER, Dec. 29.—The value of building permits issued here during the year amounts to $3,713,968, more than a million dollars greater than in 1919, when the value was $2,710,411.
