Messrs. C. Wright & Co., Druggists:

Dear Sirs,—I, J. W. Monkhouse, feel at heart that your invaluable mineral water saved my life. All people here know that three medical men gave me up to die of consumption of the bowels, etc. For three weeks I vomited everything in the shape of food, and got so weak I could not move. My brother was induced and brought me St. Leon Water from your store. After a few draughts vomiting ceased. I continued on St. Leon—it was food and all to me. In seven days I took my place at the table. Six weeks have passed. I am now well and strong as could be, still using the water mixed with milk in place of tea. I recommend all people troubled with inward complaints to try this surprising water. This is neither blow nor puff, but solid facts validly drawn. For proof inquire of any person at the Junction, of myself or Mr. Wright, druggist, 37 Dundas street.

Sold by Alex. Tytler, grocer, 384 Richmond street; W. T. Strong, 184 Dundas street; W. S. Barkwell, 268 Dundas street; C. McCallum, drugs, London, and all first-class hotels. yt

Rev. Mr. Forsythe's Love for the Game Splits His Church.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 17.—The story of a pastor deposed and a church disrupted by a quarrel over the national game of baseball comes from the town of Rockland, Sullivan county. The Rockland Methodist Episcopal Church belongs to the Newburgh district of the New York Conference. In April last the Rev. Frank Forsythe, then recently ordained to the ministry, was assigned to the Rockland charge. He is a young preacher of pleasing social manners and of fine gifts as a speaker. At first he was universally liked, but after a time some members of the flock began to find fault with his free and easy deportment and his indulgence in worldly pleasures. It was charged, among other things, that he not only smoked cigars and played croquet and joked and laughed with chance acquaintances, but also engaged in baseball matches with other young men in the town.

The elders of the church took the matter in hand, and called the pastor to account. He rebelled, and the conference aggravated rather than healed the discord. Soon afterward came the crisis. Pastor Forsythe announced from the pulpit that a picnic was to be held to raise money for the church, and that among the attractions would be a match game of baseball. The announcement horrified some of the brethren, and the trustees of the society resolved to depose the offending pastor summarily and without the customary appeal to the Bishop. On the following Sunday they locked the pastor out of the church, and gave notice that he would no longer be permitted to conduct services there. The pastor responded by promptly sending in his resignation.

A large minority of the congregation, sympathized with the views of the pastor, at once seceded and started a Free Methodist Church, with the Rev. Mr. Forsythe as shepherd. They have hired the Roscoe school house as a temporary place of worship, and there Mr. Forsythe preached eloquently to a large and sympathetic audience. His followers are going to build a larger and handsomer church edifice than the old one at Rockland. The basement will be fitted us a gymnasium.

The delightful thirst-quenching "Montserrat" Lime-Fruit Juice is an admirable and wholesome hot weather beverage.

"Well, Uncle Israel, how did you get on with your farming this year?" Uncle Israel—I didn't make nothin', marster. You see, me and de boss was workin' on sheers. I 'greed to do de farmin' for harf de crap, an' I didn't make but harf a crap dis year, an' so, in course, I didn't git nothin'."

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.

Similarity of Tastes—Miss Oldmaid (cultivated pianist)—Yes, I always play classic music, Mozart, Beethoven and Haydn, you know. Little boy—You're just like my mamma. She don't play anything but the pieces that was new when she was young.
