arrived at this port were mere living skeletons. Some of them were so worn down by sickness and hunger that they had not the strength to walk, and had to be conveyed in vehicles to the Charity Hospital. Sixty were admitted to this institution on the first day of their arrival, many of them so destitute of clothing that decency was shocked in beholding them.—[N. O. Delta, April 28.

The landing of emigrants from Europe, most of them paupers, is now stated to be upwards of three thousand a month in the city of New York alone. The city authorities find themselves taxed beyond endurance. The poor houses are long since crowded to repletion. The mechanics are holding meetings of distress, finding their labour superseded by the prices next to nothing for which starving foreigners will work. Expediencists are advocating laws whereby this dreadful tide "shall be turned back on aristocratic Europe."

John Quincy Adams holds his estates, in the town of Quincy, under the original Indian deed; the old parchment deed, with its arrow-head mark, being the only visible title.

IRISH RELIEF FUND.—£3271 7s. 8d. has been raised in Sydney, N. S. Wales, for this fund.

HER MAJESTY'S CLOAK.—The form of the cloak is copied from that of a Greek tunic. The outside is composed of the richest white satin brocade, and it is lined with plain white satin. Its length extends to about half way down the skirt of the dress, and it is widened at the lower part by two slits about a quarter of a yard in length. These slits or openings are confined, but not closed, by lacings of gold cord, fastened by pendant gold tassels. The most striking novelty in this beautiful cloak is a border consisting of a row of Indian pine leaves of the size of those usually introduced in shawl borders. These pine leaves are cut out, and the interstices are filled up with tasselated open work in gold. The cloak is edged all round with gold passamenterie of a very tasteful design. The sleeves are slit, and laced with gold cord and tassels like the openings at the bottom of the cloak.

AMERICAN TRIBUTE TO ROYALTY.—An article of millinery, consisting of a bonnet of peculiar and costly descriptions, is immediately expected to arrive, if such be not already the case, from New-York, for her most gracious Majesty the Queen. It is the joint manufacture of several ladies, residents and natives of the principal commercial city of the United States of America.—Liverpool paper.

Passengers per Steamship Britannia from Liverpool to Halifax.—Major Dunmore, Lady and servant, W. L. Black, Mrs. Stewart, Rev. Mr. Loder, Col. Jackson, Capt. Kennedy, lady, three children and servant, Capt. Cameron, lady and servant, Mr. Ritchie, Mr. J. H. Dawson, Mr. Petrie.

COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE. MAY 15.

Flour and Meal.—The market has probably never been so bare. There is scarcely one week's supply in the City. Prices accordingly rate high. American Superfine is selling at from 47s. 6d. to 55s.; Mill Flour, 51s. 3d. to 52s 6d.; Rye Flour, 35s. to 40s.; Corn Meal, 28s. 9d. to 32s. 6d. A few days, however, will bring a supply—there being two or three vessels due.

Molasses.—Stocks are heavy, and from the reduction in prices in the United States, holders are obliged to sell at or under cost. Selling by retail at 1s. 5d. to 1s. 6d., duty paid.

Sugar.—Bright selling at 41s. 3d. to 43s. 9d., duty paid.

Salt.—Last cargo sales, 16d.

Timber and Deals.—No transactions in Timber. Deals, £5 15s. per M.

Freights.—40s. for Timber, and £6 for Deals to Liverpool and Irish ports; £6 6s. to London offered. Tonnage scarce.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

The following letter is from a highly respectable merchant, dated Lewistown, N. Y., Sept. 10, 1844.

DR. D. JAYNE.—Dear Sir: It is said by Physicians, and is by the mass of mankind believed, that Consumption cannot be cured—that when once it becomes seated in the human system, nothing can eradicate or stay its progress, but that it will continue the work of destruction until its victim sinks into the grave.

However true this may be in theory, I am disposed to doubt it in fact; indeed, my own experience, and a desire to benefit others, compels me to pronounce the assertion untrue. You will probably recollect, sir, that in the beginning of 1840 I wrote to you, stating that I had the Consumption, and that it was fast hurrying me to the grave. I did not then, nor do I now doubt, every symptom was too painfully visible. My Physicians considered me incurable, but the advice which I asked of you was given, and I am happy to say that by using a few bottles of your incomparable medicine—the EXPECTORANT, I was restored, and never in my life have I enjoyed better or more uninterrupted health than since that time. If you should see me now, you would not imagine by my appearance that I had ever been sick, much less that I had had the Consumption, but that I am still living, I ascribe wholly and entirely to your EXPECTORANT.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

We challenge the world to produce a medicine of any kind that stands the test like this article. See what an agent in Kent County, Maryland, says, who has been selling it ever since it was first introduced.

Chestertown, Feb. 12, 1846.

Mr. Seth W. Fowle—Sir: I understand that you have become the general wholesale Agent for that valuable medicine, Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. Having sold all I had of Mr. Butts, if you please, you may send me another gross the first opportunity. I have been the agent for selling this medicine four or five years: during that time I have sold some hundreds of dollars' worth. I have frequently sold it to persons apparently in the last stages of Consumption, who were cured with it when all other remedies, and the skill of physicians had failed. This article has by its own intrinsic value, performed many wonderful cures, and established for itself a reputation far surpassing any other medicine of the name or kind, for the cure of colds, coughs, early stages of Consumption, Asthma, Liver Complaint, &c. JOHN RUSSELL.

Such is the unprecedented success of this medicine, none are genuine unless signed I. Butts on the wrapper.
