MORIARITY'S WEAKNESS.

Failed to Pay His Statute Labor Tax and Is Fined—Furious Drivers Dealt With.

Christopher Moriarity, whose case has been postponed from week to week, to give him a chance to pay his statute labor tax, failed again to show up at today's police court. Inspector Bell stated that Moriarity had no money, but had promised to work out the dollar. A job was found for him, but Chris got weary, and failed to do it. He was fined $2 or three days.

Duncan Bell and Andrew Thompson were summoned for furious driving. Thompson was up about a week ago and discharged with a warning. This time he was fined $5 or three days, and his companion $2 or a like period.

Robert Shannon, a drunk, was discharged.

CURLING.

BY SEVEN SHOTS.

A friendly match between St. Marys and London Club curlers took place this morning at the Simcoe Street Rink. The old song, "Bring 'er along," and "Take all that ice and draw in there" were well sung by both sides. The ice was in splendid condition, and both sides played to win. St. Marys' skips made some capital shots at critical times, and came out seven shots in the lead. Score:

Forest City and St. Marys are hard at work with the stanes this afternoon.

Fever and Ague and Bilious Derangements are positively cured by the use of Parmelee's Pills. They not only cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter, but they open the excretory vessels, causing them to pour copious effusions from the blood into the bowels, after which the corrupted mass is thrown out by the natural passage of the body. They are used as a general family medicine with the best results.

Around the City

—Mr. Richard Toothe is on the sick list.

—Sheriff Brown, of St. Thomas, was a visitor at the court house today.

—The London West Council meeting has been postponed until next Thursday night.

—At noon today the chimes of St. Paul's rang out in celebration of the festival of Candlemas Day.

—Mrs. Tilley, city, addressed the King's Daughters at St. Cyprian's Church, Toronto, last evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Landon have returned from their honeymoon, and are at home at 108 Askin street.

—Mrs. J. D. McIlwain and daughter, of Pittsburg, Pa., formerly of London, are the guests of Mrs. W. D. Mills, Colborne street.

—Drs. John Wilson & Stutt attended Mrs. Crowe, of South London, who cut her throat yesterday. The old lady is doing as well as can be expected.

—Mr. Joseph Loney, Waterloo street, lost both his wife and infant son by death yesterday. The double affliction will create the deepest sympathy for Mr. Loney.

—Mr. J. Hathaway, of Petrolea, who is on his way to Winnipeg, called at The Advertiser office today to say how much he appreciated this journal as an all-round newspaper.

—A meeting of the creditors of E. Zeller, Merlin, was held yesterday at the offices of Gibbons, Mulkern & Harper. The assets amount to $8,000, and the liabilities to $7,500. The stock was sold to Mrs. Zellar at 65 cents, by private sale.

—A meeting of the Wilson ex-pupils was called in Chicago last Thursday night, but owing to the blizzard only four of them attended, and the meeting was adjourned until tonight. A meeting will be held here on Thursday night, when the report of the Chicago committee will be received.

—Several requests have been received this morning by the committee of the Y. M. C. A. managing the popular concert course to have last night's concert repeated, and the committee are seriously considering the advisability of securing the return of Mr. Harold Jarvis and Miss Alexander.

—A well-known British army veteran in this city has received a letter from Gov. Robinson of the Royal Chelsea Hospital, England, stating that no man discharged at his own request on the completion of his first term of engagement has any claim to reward or pension. The veteran who received this thinks there is no hope for the ten-year veterans who are agitating for pensions.

—"Twixt Love and Duty" was the delightful comedy with which the Willson company opened a week's engagement at the Grand Opera House last night. The play was not at all of the blood-and-thunder type, but, on the contrary, much above the average in the repertoire of a popular-priced company. The company, like the play, is surprisingly good, all the members filling their parts with rare ability. Mr. Wilson, who is a finished actor, and Miss Helen Minkley, a charming and vivacious petite comedienne, are both happily free from "staginess." They possess originality quite refreshing, and all the support is excellent. The specialties introduced last evening were very bright, and included clever dancing and good singing. Baby Florida was a great favorite. There was a good house, and the play was received with liberal applause. Mr. Alex. Furness, of this city, is a member of the company, and his appearance was greeted with unmistakable evidence of his local popularity.

HON. DAVID MILLS' LECTURE.

One of the best of the Western University course of lectures will be that on Thursday evening by Hon. David Mills, L.L.B. The title is "The British in Egypt." Mr. Mills is the greatest constitutional authority in Canada, and the subject is one which he has mastered, and which will prove deeply interesting to all readers of history and students of current events.

MOZART SYMPHONY CLUB.

The Mozart Symphony Club, of New York, will appear at the Auditorium Friday night, and includes the following well known artists: Mr. Otto Lund, solo violin; Herr Theo. Hoch, violin; Mr. Richard Stoelzer, viola; Mr. Mario Blodeck, 'cello, assisted by Miss Marie Louise Gunzer, prima donna; Mr. Richard Stoelzer, viola d'amour soloist; Herr Theo. Hoch, virtuoso, and royal triumphal trumpet, and Mr. Mario Blodeck, De Gamba soloist. This organization of musicians is such that lovers of music may well be delighted at their engagement here.

PULFER'S PREDICAMENT.

A Toronto special to The Advertiser says: "Fred Pulfer, the much-married laundryman, was able to present himself at the police court to answer for his misdoings. He has been suffering from typhoid fever at the General Hospital, and as soon as he became convalescent, Pulfer was arrested and lodged in jail. The charge was of having at London on Jan. 15, 1896, married Edith Chuter, while Catharine Limpert, whom he had married at Toronto on May 5, 1890, was still alive. The prisoner pleaded guilty, and said: 'I've done the deed. I am sorry for it and willing to undergo any punishment.' He was remanded till tomorrow for sentence."

WEDDED IN CHICAGO.

The Western British-American, of Chicago, says: "The marriage of Miss May Marguerite Magee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Magee, 323 Beldon avenue, to Frederick Lyon Roach, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roach, 462 Orchard street, took place on Tuesday evening, Jan. 26, at the Church of Our Savior, Fullarton avenue, near North Clark street, at 7:30 o'clock. The bride's attendants were Miss Edith Magee, of London Ont., a cousin, as maid of honor; Miss Mary French Field, Miss Nell Darling Anguish, Miss Myra Chisholm and Miss Myrtle Hartman, as bridesmaids. The bridal gown was of heavy white satin, trimmed with lace, and the bride carried bridal roses. A large reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Roach will be at home the first and third Thursdays in March, at 462 Orchard street."

THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The officers of Mizpah Lodge, K. of P., were installed Friday evening by District Deputy D. C. Kennedy, after which the rank of page was conferred on one candidate without the aid of the ritual. The officers installed were: D. Smeaton, C. C.; J. Shouldice, V. C.; Frank Couke, Prelate; W. A. Bell, M. of A.; R. Poulton, M. of W.; M. Jarvis, K. of R. and S.; H. Farnan, M. of F.; Edward Boyle, M. of E.; J. L. Sullivan, I. G.; Wm. Brown, O. G.

The London Knights who visited Petrolea yesterday had a royal time, and returned this morning. The grand chancellor was warmly welcomed by the Petrolea Knights, who exemplified the first and second ranks. About 30 brethren from St. Clair, Mich., enlivened the occasion, and displayed their skill by exemplifying the third rank in the amplified form. Subsequently a grand banquet was held at the Iroquois Hotel.

TOMMY MITCHELLTREE'S RECITAL.

Seats are going fast for Tommy Mitchelltree's recital in Cronyn Hall this evening. One of Mr. Mitchelltree's compositions received a very flattering notice in the December number of the Canadian Ladies' Home Journal as follows: "A favorite little song just now is Longfellow's "The Tide Rises; the Tide Falls," published by Nordheimer. It has a rhythmic time pulse that gives a dramatic effect to the words and brings before us a vivid mental picture of storming night seas and up-creeping waters. It is eminently a song for November twilights, when cheery grate and home surroundings accentuate by contrast the low and sweet grey mists of music and words." This song, and two others of Mr. Mitchelltree's composition, will be sung by Miss Quita Moore tonight at the recital.

KENSINGTON METHODISTS.

The annual church anniversary tea and entertainment was held yesterday evening in the Kensington Methodist Church, and was largely attended. Mr. Samuel McBride occupied the chair, and performed the duties of that office efficiently. The programme commenced by singing the hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," after which Rev. R. W. Knowles led in a short prayer. Mr. McBride, in his address, referred to his attitude towards the building, etc., of the First Methodist Church, of which he is an honored and esteemed official. Messrs. Corbin brothers delighted the audience with their selections on the flute, autoharp and mouthorgan. Mr. Liddicoatt, the principal of the London West public school, gave two very witty and appreciative readings, followed by two quartets, rendered by the Misses Rossiter, and Messrs. Rossiter and Stickles, and the Misses Robinson, Messrs. Robinson and Knowles. Mr. Percy Wilkins, son of the esteemed assistant superintendent of the Sunday school, gave a fine selection on the clarionet. The musical selections given by Messrs. Stewart, Bartleman brothers, on the violin, autoharp and guitar, delighted the audience. Miss A. Green gave two excellent recitations, and the Misses Rossiter a duet. During the interval between the first and second parts of the programme, a sumptuous tea was prepared by the ladies of the church, and all present seemed to do justice to the good things provided. Mr. W. T. Hamilton, the painstaking and beloved superintendent, gave a short, spicy address, which caused frequent laughter. Altogether a most enjoyable evening was spent. The meeting closed with the doxology and benediction.

The Yellows Lead.

Y. M. C. A. Membership Contest Virtually Closed.

Over 500 Members Added Since the Competition Began.

The Y. M. C. A. membership contest, which closes tonight, has been carried on during the past month with much vigor. That the idea was a happy one is clearly proven by the results, for over five hundred members have been enrolled since the contest began. The starting point was when three captains were selected—T. B. Howard, J. W. Westervelt, jun., and Robert Kirkpatrick—each of whom chose their sides from the other members then belonging, and decided upon colors, yellow, green and pink, respectively. They started with ten men on each side, and each new member became a worker at once. The leader of the green was out of the city a good deal, and his side fell behind at the start. In a short time an equal division of the greens was made in order to have the contest as close as possible, half siding with the yellows, and half with the pinks. The standing of the sides was marked by points, a point representing a dollar, and membership tickets range from $1 to $10 each. Little dolls, with dresses of the colors of the sides, were fastened on three upright cords in front of the secretary's office in relative positions, to indicate which side was in the lead, and it was in this direction that each member cast an eager glance as he entered. The standing as we go to press is: Yellow, 521; pink, 402 1-2 points.

THOSE INSURANCE APPEALS.

A Partial Victory for the Companies—Their Assessment Reduced—A Principle Upheld.

Judge Edward Elliott has given his decision on the appeals of several insurance companies against assessment on their incomes of the London offices. The verdict is a kind of compromise. It upholds the principle that incomes of insurance companies are assessable, while the local assessments are considerably reduced.

The Standard and Sun Life were assessed for $5,000 each. The Sun is reduced to $1,000 and the Standard to $2,000.

The Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association was assessed for $1,500, and the London and Lancashire at $1,000. The reductions are $1,000 and $600 respectively.

The total reduction is, therefore, $3,600. The judge's decision will doubtless be accepted by both parties, pending legislation on the subject.

CITY HALL NOTES.

Inspector Bell has received his first supply of 1897 dog tags, and they are selling at $1 each, strictly cash. Business in this line is quite lively.

Ald. Bennet is acting mayor today, Mr. Little being away on business.

A FARMER IN TROUBLE.

A Grenville County Man Speaks His Mind—Feels Like a New Man—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Cardinal, Jan. 30.—Mr. Robert McIntosh, a farmer very widely known in this county, and living near this village, has been in a painful and dagerous condition as the result of kidney disease affecting the bladder. When called upon he said:

"During three years, until quite recently cured by using four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I have been an intense sufferer from Kidney Disease, which kept going from bad to worse, though I was doctoring all the time.

"Under advice I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills, at once realizing great help. I now feel like a new man, and am perfectly cured of kidney trouble in any form."

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

A Father Point telegram says: "Mr. John McWilliams was tonight unanimously re-elected mayor of this parish for the seventh time."

The Hamburg-American Line steamer Thuringia, which went ashore on the east end of the Island of Curacoa, in December last, has just been successfully floated.

Serious strikes and bread riots are reported from Madrid. The municipal authorities have resigned, being unable to maintain order, and the city is under martial law.

Mr. Archibald McNabb, of Alexandria, has been appointed sheriff of the united counties of Stormont and Dundas and Glengarry, in the place of the late Mr. E. D. Stewart.

Theodore Zehrham shot his wife and his employer at No. 1,242 Third avenue, New York, Monday afternoon, and then killed himself. His wife and employer are in a serious condition.

At St. Joseph, Mo., Delbert E. Mitten, was acquitted of the charge of robbing the American Express Company of $2,000. The acquittal was largely due to his betrothed, Miss Edwards. Five minutes after the verdict was given, Rev. W. H. Davis married the couple in the presence of 5,000 people in attendance at the trial.

DIVORCED.

Prince de Chimay Secures Legal Separation From His Notorious Wife.

Charleroi, Belgium, Feb. 2.—The Prince de Chimay was today granted a divorce from his wife, the Princess de Chimay, formerly Miss Clara Ward, of Detroit and Toronto, on account of her misconduct with Janos Rigo, a Hungarian gypsy musician, with whom she eloped last summer. There were few people present at the close of the proceedings.

WHY SUFFER WITH PILES?

Dr. Chase's Ointment Will Cure Them at a Cost of But 60 Cents.

Piles, scrofula, eczematic eruptions, scald head, salt rheum and all other annoying and painful skin diseases can be easily cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

"I had protruding piles for ten years," writes H. H. Sutherland, commercial traveler, of Truro, N. S.; "tried many remedies and had doctors operate. It was no use. Was completely laid up at times. Chase's Ointment was recommended to me by Mr. Brennan, of the Summerside, P. E. I., Journal. I tried it, and one box completely cured me."

Mr. Statia, the editor of the Streetsville, Ont., Review, gives this unsolicited testimonial under date of Nov 6, 1895: "Half a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured my daughter of eczema. That was six months ago, and there has since been no reappearance of the disease."

T. Wallace, blacksmith, of Iroquois, Ont., was troubled with blind itching piles for 20 years. "I tried every remedy that came out in vain," he writes, "until I tried Dr. Chase's Ointment. It was a godsend. One box cured me."

All dealers, and Edmanson, Bates & Co., manufacturers, Toronto. Price, 60 cents.

Linseed and turpentine are every mother's household remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung affections. Dr. Chase has disguised the taste and made the remedy pleasant to take. Large bottle, only 25 cents.
