LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Oak Hall wants all boys in London to call at their store and leave their name and address.

—Major Bough, city, will visit the St. Thomas corps of the Salvation Army to-morrow and commission the band.

—She was the very embodiment of mirth, and as she quoted the objections to woman's suffrage and answered them, it seemed as if the very spirit of fun possessed her. Peals of laughter echoed from all parts of the house.—[Toledo (Ohio) Daily Commercial, on Rev. Anna Shaw.

—Someone stole an ox hide from the sleigh of a London township farmer, named John Thompson, on the market last Saturday. On the way home from market on the same day one of his horses dropped dead. The animal was young and valuable one and Mr. Thompson is at a loss to account for the cause.

—Miss Woodworth, corner of King and Richmond streets, gave the ladies of London a brilliant display of millinery, etc., today. It was her first opening of styles and novelties for this year, and the store was crowded all day. Friday and Saturday will also be opening days, and ladies should find time to attend before the goods are all disposed of.

The Deputation Returns.

The civic railway deputation, accompanied by Mayor Oill, of St. Thomas, returned this morning from Ottawa with the exception of Ald. Garratt, Jones, Parnell and Taylor, who will remain until Friday, when the bill comes up. Mayor Essery became ill in Ottawa and is now confined to his house. A conference is being held this afternoon in the city, and it is expected that the finishing touches will be applied whereby St. Thomas will withdraw all opposition to the bill.

THE RAILWAY PROBLEM.

The Solution a Satisfactory One—Explanation of the Transaction.

"The solution of the London and Port Stanley Railway problem is the best that could be arrived at," said a gentleman this morning who was largely instrumental in effecting it. "The city of London buys up the first mortgage bonds held by St. Thomas to the amount of something over $38,000. St. Thomas therefore throws up all its interest in the road and has no voice in its management; but that city is protected just as well by the General Railway Act, against any discrimination on the part of London as if it had retained its part ownership in the L. and P. S. R. If the present lease to the Cleveland syndicate proves a success, the deal will be financially advantageous to London. Under the proposed lease St. Thomas was to get $3,000 a year as its share of the $28,000 rental. By buying St. Thomas' interest London is only paying the former about $1,900 a year—i. e., the interest on the $38,000 at 5 per cent. Of course St. Thomas is released from all the responsibilities of co-partnership in the road. If the present lease falls through St. Thomas will lose nothing and will have that sum to apply to other purposes. Negotiations were on foot last year as to the purchase of the St. Thomas bonds, but they came to naught, because the possibility of a hitch like the present one was not predicted. Mr. J. W. Little, ex-Ald. Jeffery and other public-spirited citizens, in the absence of the mayor and half the council at Ottawa, signed a note for the face value of the first mortgage bonds as an immediate guarantee to the St. Thomas Council. Messrs. Little and Jeffery visited St. Thomas and held a consultation with its mayor and aldermen with mutually satisfactory results. The London City Council will, of course, relieve the citizens who signed the note from their obligations and pay the $38,000."

A Woman's Queer Will.

BROOKLYN, Mich., March 15.—Henrietta W. Todd died here on Jan. 10, and her will, bearing the same date, was subsequently presented to Surrogate Abbott for probate. It was as follows:

Charley and Harry each have 400 if there's enough.
5 to Ellen.
4 to Mary.
4 to Sam.
400 to youngest sister during life, then all Harry, pay 50 for coal.
5 to Mr. Moore, St. Felix street.
10 to Mr. Barber.
17 gas bill.
I wanted my oldest sister to have something if she not live her husband. Oldest brother have 400 to buy piece of land, ⅔ of it to go to Mary.
This is my last will and testament.

HENRIETTA W. TODD.

Relatives contested the will on account of its vagueness and as being incoherent and incomprehensible, and yesterday the surrogate set it aside on those grounds.

BOSTON, Mass., March 16.—The annual meeting of the East Cambridge Women's Christian Temperance Union held last evening in Trinity M. E. Church, East Cambridge, was abruptly interrupted by the sudden death of one of the speakers, Rev. Wm. Graham, pastor of the First Reformed Presbyterian Church of Boston. Mr. Graham was introduced to speak on "The Temperance Outlook." He arose and said, "I came out of a sick bed to show the side I am on." The sentence was hardly spoken when he fell back dead.

The Standard Says So.

LONDON, March 15.—The Rome correspondent of the Standard says that Mr. Gladstone has agreed to restore diplomatic relations with the Vatican on the condition that the Pope use his influence in favor of the Home Rule Bill. An inter-nuncio, says the correspondent, will be sent to London to negotiate a final agreement with the Government. He will not be received at court.

The Liberal Elected.

LONDON, March 16.—The election held yesterday to fill the place of Robert William Duff, recently appointed governor of New South Wales, resulted in the choice of Sir Wm. Wedderburne (Liberal) by 3,166 votes to 2,395 for J. A. Grant, the Conservative and Liberal-Unionist candidate. The election was sharply contested notwithstanding the severity of the weather, and the fact that many of the roads were blocked with snow. At the general election in 1889 Duff (Lib.) had 2,293 votes to 1,424 for Barry (Ind.)

France and the Vatican.

ROME, March 15.—A serious friction is threatened between the Vatican and France in regard to the appointment of a primate in Africa to succeed the late Cardinal Lavigerie. The Pope demands that France shall provide the primate with a fixed allowance for his maintenance, and to this the French Government objects. The Pope, therefore, holds that if the primate is to look to the church for support the church should not submit to dictation by interference as to the appointment, and the Pope has intimated that he may nominate an Italian for the office. In such an event a serious conflict will surely result.

No Fool Ever Rode a "Quadrant."

A word to the wise is sufficient. Now, we don't pretend that everyone is wise, for unfortunately we know many fools; still there is a vast difference in fools, and, personally, we would rather deal with a young fool than an old fool any time. But we don't wish to deal with either, and so far as our patrons are concerned we know we never shall. Flattery? Not a bit of it. They know a good thing when they see it; that's why they come to us. No fool ever rode a "Quadrant" yet, and no fool ever will. It's an impossibility. The fact of them riding this wheel is proof positive of their wisdom. See? Now don't be fooled. Come to us! We say this with all sincerity of purpose, and we will give you honest value for every dollar you spend. The "Quadrant" is a magnificent machine. That it has no superiors we assert positively, and back our assertion with a year's guarantee. Remember we make a specialty of changing tires, and in fact all kinds of repairing. J. D.
