The Honorable William Stuart, who is now entrusted with the business of the British Embassy at Washington, consequent on the recall of Lord Lyons for England, was [illegible] of the Scotch Peer Lord Blantyre. The Blantyre family are an ancient [illegible] in Scotland, being directly descended [illegible] Walter the first, Lord High Steward of Scotland, in the reign of David the First, [illegible]. The Sixth Lord High Steward, by his marriage with the Princess Marjory, daughter of King Robert Bruce, became the [illegible] of the royal family of Stuart. The first Prince of Blantyre was Walter Stewart, who was brought up with King James VI., under George Buchanan, and became Lord High Treasurer of Scotland. The Honorable William Stewart, now at Washington, was born in 1824. His sister, Lady Georgiana, is married to Sir Andrew Buchanan, Ambassador at the Court of St. Petersburg.

INTERNATIONAL BONSPIEL.—The 'Globe says:—A meeting of delegate curlers, from the various clubs in Canada, will be held at the Royal Hotel, Hamilton, to-day, for the purpose of taking steps for the holding of a grand international bonspiel between Canada and the United States. We believe that curlers of both countries have entered keenly into the matter, and there is every probability of the great match coming off some time early in January. The Canadian men can muster forty first class rinks; but as the Americans can procure only twenty-five rinks, it will be necessary to choose from the Canadians a corresponding number of players. It has not yet been decided where the play will take place. Some talk of Buffalo, others of Rochester, while a great many think the Central Park, New York, would be the best place. However, this question will be settled at the meeting to day. We trust that every necessary arrangement will be made, in order that the affair may turn out as successfully as its proposers hope.

HOW NATURE COVERS UP BATTLE FIELDS.—"Did I ever tell you," says a correspondent of an Eastern paper, "among the affecting little things one is always seeing in these battle fields, how, on the ground which the battle of Bull Run was fought, I saw pretty, pure, delicate flowers growing out of the empty ammunition boxes, and a wild rose thrusting up its graceful head through the top of a broken Union drum, which doubtless sounded its last charge in that battle, and a cunning scarlet verbena peeping out of a fragment of an exploded shell, in which strange pot it was planted. Wasn't that peace growing out of war? Even so shall the beautiful and graceful ever grow out of the horrid and terrible things that transpire in this changing, but never advancing world. Nature covers over the battle fields with verdure and bloom. Peace and plenty spring up in the track of departing campaigns, and all things in nature and society shall work out the progress of mankind."—[Fishkill Journal.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK

The Fashion Magazine for the World

LITERATURE, Fine Arts, and Fashions. The most magnificent Steel Engravings. Double Fashion-Plates. Crochet knitting, Netting, Embroidery, Articles for the Toilet, for the Parlor, the Boudoir, and the Kitchen. Everything in fact, to make a complete Lady's Book.

The Lady's Favorite for 35 years

No Magazine has been able to compete with it. None attempt it.

GODEY'S RECEIPTS

for every department of a household. These alone are worth the price of the Book. Model Cottages (no other Magazine gives them), with diagrams. Drawing Lessons for the young. Another specialty with Godey. Original music worth $3 a year. Other Magazines publish old worn-out music; but the subscribers to Godey get it before the music stores. Gardening for Ladies. Another peculiarity with Godey. Fashions from Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York, the millionaire merchants, appear in Godey, the only Magazine that has them. Also, Fashions from the celebrated Brodie, of New York. Ladies' Bonnets. We give more of these in a year than any other Magazine. In fact, the Lady's Book enables every lady to be her own bonnet maker.

MARION HARLAND,

Authoress of "Alone," "Hidden Path," "Moss Side," "Nemesis," "Miriam," writes for Godey each month, and for no other magazine. We have also retained all our old and favorite contributors.
