Morgan, Wingham Hurler, Pitches No-Hit, No-Run Game in N. W. B. A.

WINGHAM, July 20.—Windy Morgan got his name in the baseball hall of fame today, when he pitched a no-hit, no-run game in Kincardine for Wingham today and defeated Kincardine by a score of 5—0. Morgan pitched the best game of his career and was assisted well by Arnott, who caught the entire game for Wingham with a split finger. Farrar was the star hitter of Wingham's team with a home run and a triple to his credit. Wingham team played airtight ball and deserve the greatest of praise. Wilson of Kincardine pitched a good game, but received poor support at times. Besides winning the game, Wingham by this win cannot be beaten for the championship of group 3 of the N. W. B. A. They are now ready for the semi-finals, and, on their performance today, should go a long way in the race for the cup.

Batteries: Wingham — Morgan and Arnott; Kincardine—Wilson and Anderson.

KITCHENER SEES WORLD'S CHAMPION

Sparring Partners Glad of Afternoon's Vacation Away From Jack.

KITCHENER, July 20.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, and his party made Kitchener their exhibition point this afternoon. A fair crowd turned out to see the sport card at the local baseball park, while Jack himself was the center of attraction from the minute he stepped off the train until he left for Toronto after the show. Neither Jack Benault nor Larry Williams, the champion's sparring partners, felt able to go through their four-round exhibition with the champion, taking a welcome vacation after a series of even only sparring performances. Tex McEwen of Ottawa faced Jack, and in their four-round exhibition the champion toyed with the Ottawan, showing his wares as could be expected by the crowd and without doing serious damage to the more or less unfortunate Tex.

Stanislaus Zbyszko, the Polish giant and ex-heavyweight wrestling champion, put on a 30-minute exhibition with George Walker, Canadian heavyweight champion, with neither scoring a fall, though old "Biscuits" could probably have turned the trick at almost any time.

Bert Schneider, ex-amateur boxing champion of the world and winner at the last Olympic, went through a three-round exhibition with Jack Thomas of Montreal, former welterweight champion of Canada.

Bermondsey Billy Wells, ex-champion welterweight of the British Isles and Canada, was unable to appear in a bout owing to an injured hand, but was introduced to the crowd. Then followed the introduction of Champion Black of Hespeler, the present 150-pound amateur champion of America, who recently defeated the champion of the United States navy.

Local color was given the show when Charlie Geanios, Kitchener wrestler, went five minutes with Walker after the Zbyszko-Walker tussle. Neither one gained a fall.

Further local interest was aroused when Barney Schultz, Kitchener lightweight, went a three-round exhibition with Frankie Fleming, light and featherweight champion of Canada.

Dempsey and McEwen wound up the show, after which the champion left for Toronto.

Tendler Confident

LEW TENDLER.

DELANCO, N. J., July 19.—Lew Tendler is hard at work here, developing his left smacker, which he says will win him the lightweight title.

He is leaving nothing undone that will tend to put him in shape to remove the burden of the crown from Benny Leonard's brow when they meet the night of July 27 in the arena at Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City.

Tendler is confident he will be returned the victor.

He says: "I hope to wear Leonard down with crashing lefts to the body and then drop him with the same punch. It's worked on lots of other fighters, and I believe it will work on Benny.

"Boxing as I do with my right hand and right foot forward I will have two hands to his one.

Will Watch Right.

"His left nitt will be useless to him for offense. He can use it only on the back of my neck or shoulder or, if he wants to, he can slam me on the top of my head.

"His right, which is his dangerous hand, is the only one I will have to watch.

"But Benny had better watch both my hands.

"Another advantage that my style of fighting gives me is the fact there are so few fighters using it that when a man does go up against it it is awkward for him to solve. Every blow or defense is reversed."

WALLACEBURG TOURNEY JULY 26 IS CALLED OFF

WALLACEBURG, July 20. — The Wallaceburg bowling tournament will not be held on July 26th, as previously stated, but at a later date, which will be published later.

The Wallaceburg bowlers visited Petrolea yesterday and participated in the Scotch doubles tournament, and although they did not bring home the "bacon," a most enjoyable time was spent.

REPORTS NORTHCLIFFE NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE

Rumor Indicates Noted British Publisher Gradually Sinking Lower.

PARIS, July 20.—Inside information reaching Paris from London indicates that Lord Northcliffe is not expected to live longer than a few weeks.

Last Friday he was so low that it was believed he could not last through the night. Obituary notices of him were ordered ready for publication in all his newspapers. Since then there has been small improvement.

Specialists say that if Lord Northcliffe lasts out the month he may linger for some time, but never recover sufficiently to direct his properties again.

Few bulletins on his condition are issued even to editors of his papers. His London town house is entirely given over to nurses and doctors, so that even Lady Northcliffe is living elsewhere.

It is reported the Walter family, former owners of the Times, are endeavoring successfully to raise financial support to enable them to buy back their controlling interest if Northcliffe dies.
