THERE IS NO PLACE IN THE CIVILIZED world that offers better inducements to enterprising businessmen than the Province of "Alberta." In the centre of this marvellous district is the town of "Stettler," surrounded by the finest body of agricultural land in the world, and peopled by a prosperous, energetic, wealth-producing population. The town needs several enterprises immediately. Brick is imported in large quantities. We want a brickmaker. A machinist will have unlimited work. A carriage repair shop is an absolute necessity, and a sash and door factory would pay from the start. Energetic men in the east are requested to correspond with the Board of Trade or Town Council. Amusements

Kitty Arrived.

"Kitty" arrived last evening at the Grand, and was welcomed by a fair audience. There have been some changes in "Kitty" since she arrived in London on a previous occasion, and on the whole they were some better.

The story is quite familiar to theatregoers. It concerns the troubles of Col. Charles Bell, who desires to marry off his sister and niece so that he can obtain a big piece of money, which becomes his, provided he can "unload" the girls. His former attachment for a vaudeville star, Kitty Benders gets him into difficulty. "Billy" Brown, a college boy, in love with the niece, impersonates Kitty, and puts everything in a tangled condition. It all works out, of course, after many laughable scenes.

Hal Johnston, who impersonates Kitty, is quite clever—at that kind of thing. He is rather a spry sort of person, who dances well, and is otherwise rather good. Nora Sterling, as the French maid, is a bright little girl, who can sing a song well, has histrionic ability, and is very pretty. She was applauded generously. Jennie Farron is clever as the niece, and Florence Foerrest, as the regular Kitty, is fair.

The show is a good one—for a popular-priced entertainment, just as enjoyable as many higher-priced offerings. There are some pretty songs in the piece.

A return date will be played at the Grand on Monday next of "The Arrival of Kitty."

Large Sale for "Billy."

The advance sale for "Billy," the attraction at the Grand tomorrow matinee and night, opened yesterday morning, and judging from the sale, this funny farce will be seen by good-sized audiences, both afternoon and evening. About the best recommendation that can be given "Billy" is the fact that many who were present at the Grand last Saturday, and thoroughly enjoyed it, are buying tickets for tomorrow's performances. Another feature not to be overlooked is the reduction in the prices.

Mary Garden Coming.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

New York, Dec. 10.—Lovers of music in many cities will row hear the Manhattan stars. The Canadians, too, will listen to the thrills of Garden, and Tetrazzini. Oscar Hammerstein's arrangement with the Messrs. Shubert for backing his Manhattan Opera Company in their theatres in other cities is a matter of intense interest to lovers of music in many sections. The cities of Canada will benefit greatly by this turn of affairs, as by the arrangement with Messrs. Shubert, Mr. Hammerstein will be able to present his Opera Comique Company, for extended engagements in all the principal places in the Dominion. A week will be played at the Royal Alexandra Theatre in Toronto, while Ottawa, Kingston, Hamilton and London will hear the company. The cast, which will be taken on a tour, includes Miss Mary Garden, Mme. Tetrazzini, Mme. Carmen-Melis, Mme. Gerville-Reache and Messrs. Dalmores, McCormack, Carasa, Gilibert and Crabbe.

EARLY MORNING FIRE IN RIDGETOWN PLANT

The Warerooms of the R. Watt Company Were Totally Destroyed.

Ridgetown, Ont., Dec. 10. — Early this morning fire broke out in the warerooms of the R. Watt machine works, and before the fire company reached the building it was beyond control, totally destroying the warerooms and contents, and slightly damaging the machine shops. The loss has not been estimated as yet, but it will be partly covered by insurance.

Christmas and New Year Excursions.

The Grand Trunk Railway system wish to announce that return tickets will be issued between all stations in Canada, also to Detroit and Port Huron, Mich.; Buffalo, Black Rock and Suspension Bridge, N. Y., at the following rates:
