A BOLD ROBBERY.—On the evening of election day the stable of Sheriff Robinson was entered, and a valuable mare, together with saddle and bridle was stolen therefrom. As yet no clue or tidings hove been obtained. This is too much of a joke, and we hope the guilty party will soon be brought to justice.—Journal.

GUITEAU.—Friday, 30th inst., is time appointed for the execution of Guiteau. He receives the visits of Rev. Dr. Hicks, Congregationalist. He reports that Guiteau still expresses the belief that he is not going to suffer the extreme penalty of the law, but that President Arthur will interfere in his behalf. He manifests no remorse, and seems entirely unconcerned, eating heartily, sleeping soundly, and gaining in weight. He is not allowed to see visitors, and is continually watched by prison guards day and night.

FOURTH JULY.—Special inducements are offered this year for parties to visit the Hub on the Fourth and see Uncle Sam effervesce. The New Brunswick, of the Nova Scotia Steamship Co. is advertised to leave Yarmouth on Saturday 1st July, arriving in Boston next day, issuing tickets good for six days for $7.00.

The Hatheway Steamship Co. will issue excursion tickets by the steamers Hunter and Secret, leaving Annapolis on Monday and Wednesday previous after arrival of express train. The fare, good to return in thirty days, is $8.00.—Journal.

ADIRONDACK MURRAY.—Among the noted residents of San Antonio, Texas, is the Rev. W. H. H. Murray "Adirondack Murray," as he is called. When he fled from Boston his private secretary, a young lady, followed his fortunes and has since lived with him

Last year her father came for her, and after an effort to get her to return with him, which proved ineffectual, the poor old man, broken in spirit, and almost, penniless after his long search for her, blew out his brains at the very threshold of Murray's door. A correspondent to a New England paper, says he saw him on Sunday at San Pedro Springs, unloading with his own hands a wagon load of cedar ties that he had hauled from his little place for the street railroad company. He was without coat, vest, or collar, dirty and unshorn.—Ex.

Cattle Transportation.

A train of ten improved stock cars, containing 158 head of cattle, arrived in this city on the night of May 28th. The train left Chicago on the 26th, and ran to Buffalo on slow time. From Buffalo to New York a speed of from 30 to 45 miles an hour was sustained. This is said to be the quickest trip ever made by a live stock train, and the condition of the cattle on their arrival proved the excellence of the treatment they had received on their long journey. The weight of the cattle when loaded in Chicago was 226,098 pounds, an average of 1,430 pounds a head. They arrived in New York at midnight, and early the next morning their aggregate weight was found to be 222,870 pounds, an average of 1,410 pounds each, showing a shrinkage of only 20 pounds a head. The usual shrinkage for this journey is from 70 to 100 pounds. The cattle were watered at stations along the road, and at the same time supplied with hay to be eaten while the train was running.

The improved cars are each 40 feet long, inside measurement, or 10 feet longer than the ordinary cattle car. Each car contains sixteen stalls, eight of which face to one side and eight to the other. These stalls are 2½ feet in width, 8½ feet in length, and 7½ feet high, allowing ample room for the largest steer to lie down on and rise from at will his comfortable dried sand bed of an inch and a half's thickness. They are separated by gates, which are cushioned, with spring fastenings, against which the animal can lean without being bruised by the motion of the train. For about one-sixth of the width of the car the gates are permanent, and extend from the floor to the ceiling, but for the remainder of their length fold upward into the rigid section, thus making a free passage for the cattle to pass out of or into the cars. The gates are dropped down, one at a time, as each animal is walked into its stall, while the car is being loaded. The heads of the animals are between the stationary sections, so that "hooking" or quarreling about feed is effectually prevented. In front of the beast, along the sides of the car, are continuous troughs for feed and water. The food which may be cut feed or dry hay, is easily introduced from the outside by raising a hinged board that is upheld by a hook while the food is being placed, and afterward dropped and fastened by another hook on the outside to prevent the feed from being thrown out. The water was received through an aperture in the top of the car, and is conveyed directly to the trough throughs pipes. The train was provided with automatic brakes.—Scientific American.

Counterfeit Greenbacks.

A DANGEROUS GANG OF COUNTERFEITERS AT WORK IN BOSTON.

From the Boston Journal of June 17.]

It is not safe for any one unskilled in the detection of counterfeit money to accept $10 greenbacks of the issue of 1875 Within a week hundreds of good imitations of the genuine bills have been put in circulation in Boston by a gang of expert counterfeiters, and the general public has thereby been robbed of several thousand dollars. The nefarious work is being done systematically and on a large scale, and the officers have thus far been unsuccessful in their efforts to trap the criminals. No such deluge of bad money has been spread over New England since the $5 counterfeits of the Tamaqua National Bank of Pennsylvania were recklessly distributed here five years ago. At that time the rascals were easily detected and captured in Norfolk County with much of the contraband stuff upon them. But the present situation is much more serious. Experienced criminals are conducting the work, and the number of bad bills already in circulation in this community greatly exceeds that at any time within recollection since the war. Indeed, the matter has occasioned much alarm among Treasury officials, and it is feared that only by the active co-operation of the public the evil will be stopped where it is.

The counterfeit made its appearance in the South and West in March last, and it has been widely circulated in those sections. A week ago the seat of operations seems to have been transferred to New England. The bad bill is well calculated to deceive the unwary. It presents a remarkably bright, clear appearance, and while it will not bear close inspection, there is no glaring defect by which it can be instantly detected. Among the points of difference between the good and the bad may be mentioned a slight irregularity in the shape of the letters in the line on the top of the face of the counterfeit: "This note is a legal tender for ten dollars." On the counterfeit there is no space between the words "for" and "ten." In the word "printing," just below the words "for ten," the last four letters, "ting," are italic in the counterfeit. The numbers are rather irregular and the lathework, particularly in the upper right corner, is blurred. On the back of the counterfeit note, the word "This" in the inspection beginning "This note is a legal tender," etc., is priated "TMS." while in the genuine the H is plainly crossed.

Over 25 of these counterfeits have been reported as received from depositors at various banks in the city within a day or two, showing that there must be many of them in general circulation. Look out for them, and don't hesitate to notify the police promptly if you think you have a clue to the guilty distributors.

EXPORT DUTIES.—There is one restriction to trade that might be imposed without much protest from thinking people, and which should, if enacted have all the supporters of the National Policy in its favor. One almost weeps when one sees at every station of the Grand Trunk beyond the French country immense stacks of hemlock bark waiting for shipment to the United States, and when one thinks what a destructive waste of noble timber is going on to supply this traffic. If there were an export duty on this article, it might, to some extent, delay the destruction, it might to some extent maintain the tanning industry in the hemlock regions themselves, and preserve till there is local demand for a good deal of the wood that is now left to rot. If duties are anywhere desirable, it is surely for the purpose of protecting the forest wealth of the country, which is being consumed at a spendthrift rate. Very different is the proposal to tax the export of cattle and of beef. It is true that this export raises for the moment the price of meat in this country, but no one will pretend that Canada cannot raise all the meat it needs. The increased price of meat will in a very short time increase the product very greatly, and, as a rule, the more meat that can be raised on any soil the richer that soil grows. Any profits, therefore, that accrue to the country from meat exported are gain unalloyed by a sense of ruining the country for the future.—Montreal Witness.

A Horrible Fate.

SHOCKING DETAILS OF THE DEATH OF DE LONG AND HIS PARTY.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Mr. W. H. Gilder the Herald correspondent with the Rodgers, sends a despatch, dated Lena Delta, April 12th, giving details of the finding of the dead bodies of LeLong and party. Their feet were covered with rags, tied on. In the pockets of all were pieces of burnt skin and of the clothing, which they had been eating. The hands of all were more or less burned, and it looked as if, when dying, they had crawled into the fire, and Boyd lying over the fire his clothing being burned through to the skin, which was not burned. Colin's face was covered with a cloth. All the bodies were carried to the top of a hill 300 feet high, about 40 versts to the southward from where they were found, and were interred in a mausoleum constructed of wood from the scow.

After completing the tomb they separated to search the delta for traces of Chipp's people. Melville went to the northwest part of the delta and west as far as the Olnek river. Ninderman took the centre and Bartlett the northeast. Ninderman and Bartlett found nothing. Melville has not yet returned. The search is to be extended to Cape Borchaya and the bay of that name.

PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.—Political affairs were far too pressing during the past fortnight to permit of our giving the attention we should wish to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which sat in St. John from Wednesday, the 14th, till Thursday, the 22nd. This body represents one of the largest and most prosperous denominations in the Dominion, and embraces under its jurisdiction Newfoundland and Bermuda. The Assembly controls eight educational institutions:—the Presbyterian College, Halifax; Morrin College, Quebec; Presbyterian College, Montreal; Queen's College, Kingston; Knox College, Toronto; Manitoba College, Ottawa Ladies' College and Brantford Ladies' College. It has Home Mission operations extending from Newfoundland and Labrador to British Columbia, and costing about fifty thousand dollars a year. It has Missions to the Heathen in the New Hebrides, in China, in India, in Trinidad, and among the wandering Indian tribes in the North West,—costing this year about forty-five thousand dollars. French Evangelization takes about thirty thousand dollars. The Assembly discussed such matters as Psalmody, Sabbath Schools, helping aged and infirm ministers, helping weak congregations, etc. The litigation and legislation about the Temporalities Fund cost fifteen thousand dollars. The Assembly appointed Principal Grant chairman of a large committee which is charged with raising the necessary funds to pay these costs. The Assembly was attended by about 250 commissioners.—Herald.

Washington Letter.

(From our Regular Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 30th, 1882

This promises to be a very busy week in Congress. The intensely warm weather of the past three days has created a longing among our legislators, for green fields, groves, and the fresh salt air of the beach, and every effort will be made to complete indispensible legislation in order to adjourn at the earliest possible moment. To day the House bill extending the National bank charters will be laid before the Senate, and an effort will be made to press it to a final vote. Next, it is thought, the Republicans will endeavor to push through the Senate a bill for the admission of Dakota as a state; but there will be great opposition on the part of the Democrats to this measure, and it is doubtful if it can be carried through.

The Legislative, Executive, and judicial appropriation bills and the general deficiency bill are still in the hands of the Senate appropriations committee, but are expected to be taken up before the end of the week, and, when they come before the House, they will have priority over all other business.

It is not now expected that anything will be done with the Bankruptcy bill during the present session of Congress, and the friends of the measure have decided not to urge its consideration before next winter.

There, is on the Senate calendar, a bill for the better protection of the immigrants. Also, a bill to enlarge the scope of the Agricultural Bureau, and to increase its dignity by making its chief a cabinet officer. It is probable that the tub will be thrown to the immigrants before taffy is dispensed to the granger.

Senator Maxey will to-day urge the payment of nearly half a million due to southern mail contractors since 1860, before a wall of fire was established between them and Uncle Sam's pay office.

Senator Pendleton will thunder earnestly, but with trivial effect, against assessing government clerks for political campaign purposes.

The above is, as nearly as can be predicted, what the Senate will do in the "fierce light" during the week, but it will hold more than one secret or Executive session, when the President's nominations for the tariff commission will be measured, weighed and probably found wanting in some of its members.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Bills to build a new Congressional Library, to reduce Internal Revenue taxation, to redeem the silver trade dollar at its face value, by the Treasury, in order to withdraw this unhandy coin from circulation, and various appropriation bills will be taken up in the House this week. A Republican caucus will decide the order of business tomorrow.

President Arthur is not going to Long Branch as has been extensively advertised by the Real Estate speculators, who wish to increase the value of property at that resort. The son of the President, Mr. Allen Arthur, has arrived at the White House. Miss Nellie Arthur, his daughter, is expected this week from Albany. The President's cottage at Soldiers Home is being refitted for the family, and it is expected that they will remove there the latter part of this week. The President will not leave Washington until after the adjournment of Congress.

The National Post Office building is draped in black cambric, in honor of the memory of ex-Governor Dennison, of Ohio, who was formerly Post Master General. It has been only a few days since the black drapery hung in honor of ex-Post Master General Maynard of Tennessee was removed. On the day of the funeral of an ex-cabinet officer, though it may occur hundreds of miles from Washington, the department of which he once had charge is closed, and hundreds of government clerks celebrate his memory by picnic excursions, and general conduct that is the reverse of lugubrious. It is quite common for the clerks to calculate the number and time of their prospective holidays by rules familiar to life insurance agents, and contingent on the death of a cabinet officer.

TELEGRAPH NOTES OF THE WEEK.

Trouble appears to be brewing in England, a special says: There exists at the moment I write grave fears of an all round crisis. In fact both in Zululand and Egypt, and between Russia, Germany, and Austria, things are on the acute and general tangle. Zululand is bitterly dissatisfied with England. Russia is trying to go into war to divert attention from home affairs, and is rapidly arming three vast lines of bastions, with their guns pointing both to Austria and Germany. Austria in turn is fortifying, Germany is watchful, and France seems keenly on the alert. The Egyptian difficulties may set the whole of that confounded Eastern question, to use Thackeray's phrase, "on the rampage' again, and this time it may not be so easy to patch up a temporary peace as was the case at the time of the Berlin treaty.

London, June 18.—The Commons in committee resumed the debate on the Repression Bill. The ninth clause, providing for the arrest of strangers found under suspicious circumstances, was adopted by 194 to 3. Clause ten, directing the seizure of newspapers containing matter inciting to commission of treason, was adopted by 99 to 26.

London, June 20.—In the House of Commons to-day, Sir Charles Dilke stated the conference of the six great powers will meet at Constantinople on Thursday, without the consent of Turkey.

The Tribune's Washington special says: An earnest effort is making to secure a reprieve for Guiteau, and the appointment of a commission to make a thorough examination whether or not he is insane. The President on Thursday will give a hearing to Miss Chevalier, the Secretary of the National Society for the Protection of the Insane. She requested Dr. Beard, of New York, and others to be present. A strong appeal, doubtless, will be made to induce the President to postpone execution.

Shanghai, May 26.—A serious discussion is reported in Tsung Li Yamen upon the course to be pursued respecting America's anti-Chinese action. One party is said to welcome it as affording on opportunity of severing all relations with the United States. The majority propose to await further developements. All agree that China's rights have been ruthlessly disregarded, and the American Government has opened itself to retaliatory action. The question is raised at Tientsing whether China's assistance in the Corean negotiations should not be summarily withdrawn, as it is believed Commodore Shufeldt could not proceed conveniently without China's co-operation. Much irritation is felt over the publication of a letter attributed to Commodore Shufeldt, accusing the Empress of immorality, and but for China's known slowness to act suddenly, troublesome consequences might be apprehended.

Yokohama, June 3.—The Chinese envoy to Japan ordered six hundred shipwrecked Chinese en route to Portland, Oregon, to return to Hong Kong in consequence of the hostility in America to the Chinese. The order was revoked owing to the urgent plea of the emigrants. The Government is preparing to show marked courtesies to Mr. Young, the American envoy to China, while passing through Japan.

London, June 20.—In the House of Commons to-day, Sir Charles Dilke stated the conference of the six great powers will meet at Constantinople on Thursday, without the consent of Turkey.

Ottawa, June 23.—News was received here to-day that the British Privy Council has sustained the Scott Act.

An edict signed by the Czar, and published in the official Gazette of St. Petersburg, virtually bankrupts every wealthy Jew in Russia. It provisionally suspends all payment for contracts or debts due to Jews, prohibits them from settling outside towns and villages, ond otherwise provides for their speedy extirpation throughout Czardom.

London, June 25.—The Standard's Alexandria corespondent is informed on the best authority that if France and England interfere actively in Egyptian affairs, Arabi Pacha will blow up the Suez Canal, cut the railway to Cairo and oppose the landing of European troops in Alexandria. If beaten, he will retire to the desert, where he is promised the support of 30,000 Bedouins. The Egyptian Ministry is prepared to sanction the above on patriotic grounds.

Constantinople, June 25.—At a sitting of the conference to-day the sovereign rights of the Sultan over Egypt were discussed and confirmed.

London, June 25.—The newspaper this morning under the heading "English war preparations," give great prominence to orders from the Admiralty, for the immediate undertaking of the ironclad Hotspur, the preparation for immediate embarkment of marines at Chatham, and getting ready for sea on the same troopships.

Sioux City, June 26.—Another hurricane passed through Hoopersville, North East of here, on Saturday morning, destroying twenty-five or thirty houses. Outside the town twenty-five houses were destroyed. One person was killed.

Copenhagen, June 26.—A movement for the severence of Norway and Sweden and the establishment of a Republic is assuming increasing proportions, and unpleasant complications are expected.

Ottawa, June 26.—A Liberal member in Quebec Province is about to resign in favor of Mr. Huntington.

Just at the Wrong Time.

Mr. Robert Wilson, of the City Surveyor's office, and Street Commissioner of the Eastern Division for the Board of Public Works, Toronto, Ont., who is very fond of shooting, says: "To lose a duck hunt is a loss for which there is no adequate recompense. This misfortune lately overtook me. The boys got together recently and made arrangements for a good hunt. At the time the arrangements were entered into I was in good health generally; but, just as the shooting was to take place, my old enemy, the rheumatism, came back to stay with me awhile again, and I had to forgo the pleasure. The rheumatism has been a source of great bother to me, and I have done a great deal of doctoring for it, without much good. When this last attack came on me and crippled my hands so that they were drawn up, a friend of mine recommended St. Jacobs Oil, the Great German Remedy. I tried it, I am happy to say, and the result is that I am now cured and as well as ever. St. Jacobs Oil succeeded where more than a score of other liniments and medicines had failed."

— A few days ago, while the Prince and Princess of Wales were in attendance at the ceremony of opening a park at Leicester, Eng., a drunken shoe rivetter, under the impetus of liquor and a bet rushed out of the crowd assembled to "shake hands with the Princess" he afterwards said. His action caused great alarm, as it was thought to be an attempt at assassination, and a yoeman of the guard struck the man to the earth with the edge of his sword, not, however, injuring him severely. He was sentenced to seven days' imprisonment for his foolishness. The Prince bravely leant forward to protect his wife from the supposed attack. The Princess was not much frightened.

Let the Land tax of ten per cent., or about one half, be paid to the landlords for rent to be submitted for such rent, and to be paid the State for the loss of Liberal revenue. A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.
[From the Boston Globe.]

Messrs. Editors:—
The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants, to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhœa, Irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special case, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Complaint of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as abundant testimonials show.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity.

All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.
