THE CANADIAN CLUB FAVORS STONE TOWER AT SPRINGBANK PARK

Passes Resolution re Federal Child Welfare Bureau.

Yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Women's Canadian Club, held in the Talbot Street Baptist Church, was one at which business was combined with social intercourse. The matter of greatest local public interest coming up at this meeting was the question of a soldiers' memorial, to take the form of a stone tower, situated on the spot where now stands the first summer-house overlooking Springbank Park and the city of London. This scheme, the suggestion of Miss Grace Blackburn, president of the club, was brought before the meeting by her. That Springbank was one of the most beautiful spots in the world was strongly emphasized, and the suggestion was made by her that its name be changed to "Soldiers' Memorial Park," with permission to erect memorial gates, granted to various organizations throughout Western Ontario.

The scheme of the tower would involve an expenditure of from $8,000 to $10,000. This tower, according to Miss Blackburn's plan, would be built of rough stone similar to many Irish towers, several of which were thrown upon the screen yesterday. Inside, memorial tablets to soldiers of Western Ontario might cover the walls, while a winding stairway might lead to an outside gallery above, commanding the country for miles around.

Club in Favor of Tower.

The club almost unanimously expressed themselves in favor of the erection of such a tower. A few objections to the changing of the name of Springbank Park were, however, made; Mrs. A. T. Edwards suggesting that such would not be courteous to the founders, one of whom in the person of James Egan, had died so recently. One member did not favor the scheme on the ground that the Canadian Club had been organized in the first place as a distinctly non-money-raising society. However, it was pointed out that war conditions had changed this to some extent, and that since the beginning of the war, $29,000 had been raised by the club.

Mrs. David Williams was strongly in favor of the scheme. She felt that London was lacking in memorials of beauty. That the useful things must be done and will be done, was the opinion of Miss Blackburn, at the same time, pointing out that Germany's downfall was partly due to the fact that she divorced herself from the beautiful.

Federal Child Welfare Bureau.

A resolution to the effect that a federal child welfare bureau be established in the country was yesterday passed by the club to be forwarded to the Government.

Two delegates, Mrs. Donald McLean and Mrs. Frank Leonard, were appointed to attend Dr. W. A. Riddell's sitting in the court house this morning, when the question of mothers' pensions will be dealt with.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the introduction to the members of the little French orphan girl whom the club has adopted for the period of two years, her photograph being thrown upon the screen along with that of her younger sister, the foster child of the Ottawa Canadian Club. This adoption, which entails the expenditure of $115 per year, was undertaken through the executive of the club at the instigation of Mile. Guerin of the Franco-Canadian orphanage in Paris. A most interesting letter from the eleven-year-old child, expressing her gratitude at the action taken by the club, was read by Mrs. A. B. Greer.

Revised Constitution.

A letter was also read from Mrs. H. A. Bonner, indicating that the question of a Dominion memorial to the soldiers of Canada would come up shortly at a meeting of the executive of the National Council of Women.

Miss Yeates presented the constitution of the club, the revision of which has been in the hands of the executive for some time. This was accepted as read by Miss Yeates, Mrs. Donald McLean putting the motion, and Miss Yeates seconding it. At the close of the meeting tea was served.

Western Ontario Women's Activities

WROXETER RED CROSS.

The following shipment was made this week by the Wroxeter Red Cross Society to headquarters at Montreal: 12 suits pyjamas, 9 flannel shirts, 7 quilts, 6 towels, 29 babies' bonnets, 90 children's petticoats.

EAST HARWICH W. I.

The February meeting of the Harwich Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. James Nash, Creek road. There were about fifty ladies present, who spent the afternoon in doing refugee work. Quite a large amount of sewing was distributed for home work. An excellent paper was read by Mrs. E. Newcomb, entitled, "The Value of Self-Control." Miss Sadie Want also read an interesting paper relating to Mrs. Patterson, an energetic member of the W. I. Two piano selections were given by Mrs. Isobel McKinley, which were much enjoyed. The collection amounted to $10.65. At the conclusion a dairy lunch was served. The presence of several visitors was much enjoyed.

WARDSVILLE W. I.

The Women's Institute of Wardsville showed a box of clothing valued at $102.55 to the Belgian relief headquarters last week. The society also sent eight pairs of socks to the Toronto Red Cross Society.

Miss Bella Gardiner has just returned from Toronto after attending the big W. I. convention there.

TEMPO LADIES' AID.

The Ladies' Aid of Tempo Presbyterian Church held a very successful social in the church. A splendid program consisted of chorus, songs by Miss Amey Baker of Littlewood, and readings by Miss Blanch Shipman. very interesting number on the program was a chorus by the elderly ladies of the church and their rendition of "Old Folks at Home" and "Ding Dong Bell" was enthusiastically received.

After the program supper was served in the school-room. The proceeds amounted to $16.

AILSA CRAIG YOUNG WOMEN'S CLUB.

The Young Women's Club received a letter from the Red Cross Society of London regarding the Ailsa Craig ward, with the result that the society decided to have the ward repainted. The following letter was received in reply:

"In acknowledging your check for $35 for painting, etc. in the Young Women's Club of Ailsa Craig Ward at Byron Sanatorium, we really feel we must express again to you the society's appreciation of the excellent work done for so long by your club. Your generous interest in the work of the Byron infirmary and in all patriotic work has given us all a delightful impression of the patriotic girls of Ailsa Craig, and we believe that nowhere has war work been more enthusiastically undertaken than in your club."

BRYANSTON SOCIAL EVENING.

The Presbyterians of this village held a social evening in the church to welcome home R. T. Needham, who recently returned from overseas, where he had been for over two years. He was formerly superintendent of the Sunday school here. A splendid musical program was rendered, local talent being ably assisted by the Misses Branion of Granton. Mr. Alps of Granton and Mr. Cosens of the Bryanston Methodist Church gave splendid addresses. The chairman, Hamilton Needham, called on A. Grant for an address, and he expressed the sentiments of the people regarding Mr. Needham's splendid sacrifice, tendered to him the welcome of the whole community, and presented him with a Book of Praises, leather bound. Mr. Needham replied in an interesting manner.

The ladies served an appetizing lunch at the close of the program.

LAWRENCE STATION PATRIOTIC LEAGUE.

The regular meeting of the Patriotic League was held at the home of Miss Maribel McLellan, with a good attendance of members and visitors. Roll call was responded to by the paying of the monthly fee. Several letters were read from the boys overseas. It was decided to purchase five pairs of flannel blankets and a bolt of towelling. It was announced that any one wishing to donate towels for the hospital shower might purchase same from Mrs. J. D. Campbell. After the meeting the hostess served a tea, assisted by Mrs. Dugald McLellan and the Misses Joiner, Hunter, Campbell, Evans and McLellan, $7.05 being realized for the league.

The next meeting will be held in the hall on Wednesday afternoon, February 26, when the mattress covers are to be quilted.

Advertiser Patterns

AN ATTRACTIVE FROCK FOR SCHOOL OR HOME WEAR.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Size 10 will require 4 yards of 36-inch material.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Name .....

Town .....

Province .....

Age (if child's or misses' pattern) ....

Measurement: Bust..... Waist.....

Caution: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark 33, 34, or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 25, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist, and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of application.

CYNTHIA GREY'S MAIL-BOX

Anxious To Correspond.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am 14 years old and would very much like to correspond with a girl about the same age. Would you send me an address, or, as I'm sending a self-addressed envelope, could you please forward it to someone? I am a naughty GERLA.

P.S.—Who writes The Advertiser's daily short stories? Can anyone write them, please? Answer through Mail-Box. GERLA.

Ans.—Who writes the short stories? Why, people of course. You'll see their names at the top of the stories from day to day. The McClure Syndicate of New York City buys these from the various writers and in turn sells them to newspapers like The Advertiser.

White Corduroy Hat.

Dear Miss Grey,—1. What will clean a white corduroy hat? 2. Can you give me a good recipe for ginger cookies? 3. What are the meanings of Vietta, Eliza, Myrtle and Beulah? 4. What are the flowers and meaning of the months of May, July, August and December? Thanking you in advance, I remain. INQUISITIVE.

Ans.—1. An application of magnesia just slightly dampened with gasoline may help. Rub it well into the hat, leave for a few hours, then brush and rub out all the powder. May need a second treatment. Sometimes just to rub well with dry flour and coarse salt (equal parts heated in the oven before applying), then brush out thoroughly, renovates an article of this sort very nicely.

Ginger Cookies—Cup and a half of sugar, one cup shortening, one cup of blackstrap, one egg, one tablespoon giner, one teaspoon each cinnamon, alispice and cloves, two teaspoons soda, dissolved in half-cup boiling water. Mix stiff enough to roll out.

3. Eliza means consecrated; Myrtle, loving; Beulah, land of rest.

4. May, hawthorn (sweetness); July, water lily (purity of heart); August, poppy (indifference); December, holly (jollity).

Didn't This Time.

Dear Miss Grey,—I received song, also stocking-foot pattern, for which I didn't even ask. I only gave you a "dig," and you tumbled. Thanks, awfully. It will come in very handy, as my old one is very much worn from constant use. Am sending "Break the News to Mother." I suppose you remember who asked for it. Dear Miss Grey, if you squeeze this letter as much as you did my last one there won't be anything left, Ha, ha! MRS. ELL GEE.

P. S.—Where is "Luke McLuke"? I sure do miss him, even if he does make me good and sore sometimes.

Let's Forgive and Forget.

Dear Cynthia,—Here I come, repentant, on bended knee. I said I'd never come again, but under these conditions I will.

Listen, Miss Grey, and be merciful. One of the girls (should say, two or three) said they saw my letter in the paper, and are certain of it. I tell you I was thunder, lightning, rain and snow struck.

So, now, Miss Cynthia, I will humbly close, in sackcloth and ashes, sending my best love to Ura Kidd and feeling extra good on account of just finishing a delicious "hunk" of "the" chocolate cake. Ima Kidd, alias AN OUTRAGED DIANA.

P.S.—I mean the first letter I wrote that I thought didn't appear.—I. K., alias A. O. D.

"Dolly Dimples'" Desires.

Dear Miss Grey,—I hope there is room for another new-comer. Will you please send me the song called "The Mockingbird"? Some of the words are: "Listen to the mockingbird; 'tis singing o'er her grave." Also the song, "I Want to Kiss Papa Good Night"? DOLLY DIMPLES.

Yes, Pretty Busy.

Dear Miss Grey,—I saw in your column where "Beth From Down East" had sent in some crochet patterns. I would like very much to get a few, and also the much-wanted stocking-foot pattern. It certainly must keep you busy mailing them. If I may call again I hope to be of some help, but not this time, as I am writing this with a six-weeks-old baby in my arms, and it's not a very easy job.

Well, Miss Grey, I would like to ask a few questions also: 1. What day did July 27, 1895, fall on? 2. Do you get many letters from here? 3. What do you think of my writing? SNOWFLAKE.

Ans.—1. A Saturday. 2. Some. 3. It's vary good. Pleased to mail you a few patterns.

Lace or Doily.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am a new-comer to the Mail-Box, and would be glad to get some crochet patterns for lace or a doily if you or any of the readers have them to spare. Wishing you success, I will close. FERN.

Lois This Time.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have written to your Mail-Box several times before, signing different names. The last time I sent "Beet" the recipe for curing beef, and signed "A. E. O. T. D." I wonder if she ever tried it? I read "Seventy-Years Young's" letter. She must have missed that little one. Some chance for you, "Ura." What did your "lonely" say when he got the photo? I am just going to try "Little Sarah Maud's Beau"—special. I have copied many recipes and found them excellent. I don't see Paw Perkins or Luke McLuke in the 'Tiser any more, but they really did not interest me at all. But I do feel sorry for Lemuel Splutterfuss. Buddy sure is helping him out, though.

Well, this will never do. The wash-tub for mine. So long. Will sign hereafter, LOIS.

Here's Somebody's Mother.

Dear Miss Grey,—I wonder if a poor auld lady like me may come into your cosy corner, just to rest, and have a wee chat?

Well, I see that stockingfoot pattern is in great demand. Well, Miss Grey, I am not going to bother you for a pattern, as I have a stocking knitter, and can turn out a pair of stockings in less than an hour, finished all, but the toe to put together. I can knit heavy or light stockings. Oh, Miss Grey, they are beasts to understand, but once you know how, they sure are a treasure.

I am going to ask a favor. Could any one supply me with the recitation or reading, "When Mary and I Made Up"? A few lines read: "And then she came to me, her eyes all drooping with tears, and kissed me for the first time—first time in twenty years."

Here are a few household hints that I have found good:

If a teaspoonful of common salt is put into the coal oil lamps and lanterns, they will never explode if accidentally upset.

If you put a tablespoonful of vinegar in the stove polish it will shine brighter and last longer.

You can boil cracked eggs as well as whole ones, by adding a tablespoonful of vinegar to the water.

When ironing, I always heat two bricks with the irons, and set a hot brick on my board, and my irons keep hot much longer than if set on a cold iron stand.

When chopping fried potatoes, use an empty baking powder can; it is more quickly accomplished than using a knife.

Here is a nice way to use up small onions: Peel the onions, then in a saucepan put half milk and water, enough to cover the onions good, and add a tablespoonful of salt; boil until tender, but not soft, or they will break up. When done take out into another dish and cover with vinegar. These are real nice when cold, and don't "repeat" on one like raw or fried onions do.

A nice way to put down pork for the summer is to salt it slightly and then roast it until nearly done, and then pack in crocks, put on a weight, and fill up with hot lard. Put up this way it will keep any length of time if kept in a cool place, and it's so nice to have fresh meat in the heat of summer. Be sure to have an inch or more of lard on top of meat, so no air can get to it, otherwise it will spoil.

If the clotheslines are washed with strong salt water, the clothes will not freeze on to them in cold weather.

For cleaning fruit jars I use cut-up potato peels and a little baking soda; it saves soap and is very effectual.

When sweeping day comes I make a mixture of equal parts of kerosene, vinegar and sweet oil. After I dust I use this mixture on the furniture, and it brightens everything up just splendidly.

And now I'll be going, and may I come again, Miss Grey? Sure if I haven't done any good, I hope I have done no harm. Now I'll shut the door quietly, and just remain SOMEBODY'S MOTHER.

To Purify Syrup.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see where "Perplexed" is having trouble with her maple syrup. I think if she would beat up an egg thoroughly, mix it with the syrup, put it on to boil and skim when the froth comes to the top, it might help if anything will.

I would like—no, not the stocking foot pattern! My kiddies wear out the legs as well as the feet. My, I am glad to see the work it saves me—but would you please publish the recipe for your Christmas cake? I have used it for three years and we think it the best ever, but have lost it and wish to make it again. I will sign me CARELESSNESS.

Ans.—With such appreciation it can be nothing but a pleasure to reprint. Chirstmas Cake—Two pounds raisins, seeded and cut in half, 2 pounds currants, 1 pound dates, stoned and cut, 1 pound chopped almonds or walnuts, 1 pound mixed peel, cut fine, 6 eggs, 1 pound butter, 4 cups brown sugar, cup molasses, ½ cup preserved cherry juice, ½ cup ground mixed spices, 8 cups flour, heaping teaspoon soda dissolved first in a little hot water, then stir into the molasses. Stir all together thoroughly and bake in loaves in a moderate oven. Half the quantity may be made up if preferred.

Such Good Cookies.

Dear Miss Grey,—Will you spare me a little space in your corner, and if so I am going to ask you to send me the much-sought-after stocking foot pattern. I inclose a cookie recipe which is so good: Three cups flour, 1 heaping teaspoon baking powder, mixed with flour, 1 small teaspoon soda dissolved in little hot water, add soda to sour milk, 2 cups brown sugar, 1 cup shortening, a little nutmeg, mix and add 1 egg and 1 cup sour milk. Yours truly COOKIE.

A Happy-Go-Lucky.

Dear Miss Grey,—One more happy-go-lucky to join your sociable column. I see where E. E. E. would like a knitted edge or crochet edge. I can help her out in the crochet edge, if I knew how much she would like in length.

I am 12 years old. I am in the senior third and stand thirteenth in my class. I can crochet anything, and knit sweaters also. HAPPY-GO-LUCKY.

Ans.—Re the address you ask about, you are in error in thinking it appeared in this column. But I have asked the advertising department to trace it if they can and mail you the information.

A. C. BINGHAM SPEAKS ON "MOTHERS' PRAYER"

Rev. A. C. Bingham addressed the Chesley Avenue Mothers' Club on "Mothers' Prayer" Thursday evening. He said that prayer was the soul's sincere desire uttered or unexpressed, that many men had been saved through mothers' prayers, and that people should always be in an attitude of prayer, so that when times of temptation came, they would be ready armed for the fight.

An interesting program followed, consisting of a vocal solo by Miss Carroll, and readings by little Miss Leff. Miss Stockwell also spoke briefly on behalf of the Women's Gardening Association.

On Thursday evening, February 27, a grand concert will be given by the Chesley Avenue Club in aid of the well-baby clinic. Several musical numbers, including a pipe number by Miss G. Comber, and selections by the Selby-Young Orchestra will be given.

ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION.

Moses Praying For Israel. (May be used with missionary appliances.)—Exodus xxxii: 1—xxxiv: 5.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY.

Verses 15-20. When money is invested in that which is working the ruin of the people—like the liquor traffic, for example—why is it the duty of the government to confiscate the property in order to save the people?

19. Verses 21-35. Here is an account of a great slaughter through the sin of idolatry. What is the extent of the annual slaughter of the liquor traffic?

Golden Text.—The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working.—James 5:16.

THERE IS NO LIMIT TO THE ACHIEVEMENT OF PRAYER.

We hear a good deal about the fact that this is a world governed by law, and that laws are unchangeable, that like begets like, and the thing that has happened will continue to happen, and that, therefore, there is no use praying. When it is put this way it is only a half truth, for, while in a certain sense God's laws are unchangeable, there are an infinite number of ways by which God can answer prayer not out of harmony with law, but in perfect harmony with it. We say that the age of miracles is past, and while perhaps this is true, yet it is true only because of the scarcity of men who actually believe in the almighty power of God, and that this vast power is brought into action in answer to prayer. Hosts of people know that God has frequently done the impossible in answer to their prayers.

FEW MANIPULATE PRICES FOR MANY

Farmer Does Not Profit From High Prices.

Solomon said "There is nothing new under the sun," and if the wisest man came to that conclusion, surely Margery will not be censured for failing to find a new topic for this week's letter.

Like some other things, these old topics come up with a somewhat new dress, every little whipstitch suggested by the old question, What do the farmers want anyway? What's the matter with them? Haven't they the earth, and didn't a beneficent Government supply them with an extra hour of daylight in which to till last year, and is not the same gracious gift in contemplation for the season so close at hand? Hard to suit this farmer, isn't it? Paper after paper that we pick up prates of the profiteer farmer. As if they expected to be believed for their much speaking.

Less Than $1,000 a Year.

But then along comes an editor who studies Dominion and provincial statistics and announces that "the average income of the farmer of this country is less than $1,000 per year"—less than many a buyer has made in a week out of the potatoes, etc., that the farmer has worked to produce. One paper especially "spluttered" over this announcement, but there were the figures.

What does the farmer want? Well, he wants that the class to which he belongs shall know from these same "infallible" statistics that he and they are paying 89 per cent of the taxes of this country, while the really organized interests—Big Interests—spelled with big capitals, pay the other 11 per cent.

Manipulate Prices.

They want the people to wake up to the fact that the finances of this country of 7,000,000 or thereabouts are in the hands of less than 400 people, who manipulate the prices of everything found in the earth or sea to suit their own pockets; that nearly 50 per cent of the land of this country is in the hands of syndicates; that the price of any or every manufactured article is fixed by them, so as to insure a profit, and that the price of any natural product of the farm is not so fixed.

Were there a few weeks that you didn't pay—dear knows what—for bacon? Well, there were a few weeks when the price paid for hogs didn't pay for their feed.

Let People Get Together.

Let "the people" get together with big aims and let us stop this dangling over trifles and make ourselves felt. Let the producer and consumer co-operate to make conditions right. "Equal rights to all, special privileges to none," is our watchword. Do you know a better? Organize and co-operate, think, talk, work. Let not the opportunity for righting many conditions which certainly admit of improvement find us asleep. MARGERY MILLS.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Harry C. MacKendrick will receive for the first time since her marriage on Tuesday at 24 Hayman Court. Her mother, Mrs. Jas. E. Warnock, of Galt will receive with her.

Miss Sheldon and Miss Gibbard are the guests of Mrs. MacKendrick for the week-end.

Mrs. Hugh Shuttleworth has just returned from spending a week in Detroit.

Another social affair to be given on March 3 is the at-home of the employees of the Bell Telephone Company in the Masonic Temple. The patronesses are Mrs. C. H. Beard, Mrs. A. Robinson, Mrs. E. W. McLennan, Mrs. J. L. Richmond, Mrs. P. T. Robinson and Mrs. E. B. Webber. Music will be furnished by the Jack Cortese Orchestra.

A jolly birthday party was given at the home of Mrs. W. T. Topham on Friday evening for her father, Mr. Samuel Barr, who has reached his 92nd birthday. Forty guests were present, including several of his sons and daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mr. Barr is an old pioneer, former of Dorchester, but has been making his home in this city for the past seven years.

The annual meeting of the Lord Roberts Chapter, I. O. D. E., will be held on Monday at 3 o'clock in Cronyn Hall. Important business for the coming year will be discussed, and the election of officers will be held.

A very enjoyable time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gale on Wednesday evening, when the Sunday school scholars of Hyde Park Presbyterian Church presented Miss Lola Barclay, who has been organist and Sunday school teacher for some time, with a beautiful cutglass dish. An address was read by Mr. Harvey Herbert on behalf of the Sunday school, regretting very much the departure of one who has always taken an active part in church work, and was wished ever success in her new home.

The annual "at home" of the King Solomon Lodge, A., and A. M., was held last evening in the Masonic Temple, which was resplendent with colored lights, flags and flowers, making a fitting setting for the members, who wore their regalia, and the ladies clad in smart evening gowns. Splendid dance music was provided by the Tony Cortese orchestra, who played from an alcove on the stage, surrounded by palms.

Preceding the dance a most enjoyable and varied program was given by the following artists:

Mr. Fred Rossiter, Miss Richmond, Miss Helen Trick, Mrs. L. A. Keenleyside, Master Sam Munroe and Mr. W. E. Wilmer. Some of those present were Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead, Mr. Sam McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. James Haslett, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Richards, Mr. J. Holliday, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Baly, Miss Rose Johnson, Mrs. and Miss Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barr, Dr. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knott, Miss Susie Wells, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dyer, Mr. J. Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Copp, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. J. Beemer, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McGill, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Tobias, Mr. and Mrs. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. George Fraser, Miss Mary Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Rowed, Mr. W. Prine, Mr. Harry Boss, Mr. J. W. Pearl, Miss White, Mr. and Mrs. R. H.
