GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

Come, get out of this,' as the egg-shell remarked to the chicken.

An old and well tried remedy is Baird's French Ointment. By its use Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Ulcers &c., are soon healed. It will cure the Itch in a few days.

Which is the worse, the man who can sing and won't, or the man who can't and will.

Advice to mothers. Many children suffer and die from no other cause than an excess of Worms in the Stomach or Intestines, to avoid this give Dr. McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup, any child will take it.

A woman's scorn is something not to be trifled with, especially when you step on it in a crowded car.

A Frequent Annoyance.

Who is there that is not frequently annoyed by distressing headaches? Sufferers from sick or nervous headache will find a perfect cure in Burdock Blood Bitters. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

A woman woke her husband during the storm the other night, and said, "I do wish you would stop snoring, for I want to hear it thunder."

On the Platform.

Public speakers and singers are often troubled with sore throat and hoarseness and are liable to severe bronchial attacks which might be prevented and cured by the use of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam—the best throat and lung remedy in use.

A quarter of a Century.

For more than twenty-five years has Hagyard's Yellow Oil been sold by druggists, and it has never yet failed to give satisfaction as a household remedy for pain, lameness and soreness of the flesh, for external and internal use in all painful complaints.

"Is it true, papa, that New York is a very wicked city and full of temptations?"
"Yes, my child; there are 10,000 milliners there. But perhaps it will be better not to say anything to your mamma about it."—Boston Transcript.

Did She Die?

"No
"She lingered and suffered long, pining away all the time for years."
"The doctors doing her no good;"
"And at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about.
"Indeed! Indeed!"
"How thankful we should be for that medicine."

Keep in good Humor.

This injunction applies not only to the mental but the physical welfare. Salt rheum, erysipelas, and all obstinate humors of the blood are perfectly curable by Burdock Blood Bitters.

She: Why do you look so unhappy, George? Don't you know we are one, now?
He: Yes, I've heard that before, but when it comes to paying the weekly board bill, the landlord don't seem to think so.

Father is Getting Well.

My daughter's say:
"How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters.
He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable.
"And we are so glad that he used your Bitters."—LADY of Utica, N. Y.

Bear it in mind.

That pure blood is the life nourishment of the body, and means perfect health no one can deny. Cleanse the blood from all impurities with B. B. B., the best blood purifier known.

Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites.
For Children and Pulmonary Troubles.
Dr. W. S. Hoy, Point Pleasant, W. Va., says: "I have made a thorough test with Scott's Emulsion in Pulmonary Troubles and General Debility, and have been astonished at the good results; for children with Rickets or Marasmus it is unequalled." Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

THEY DEALT WITH HIM.—'Please, I want the doctor to come and see mother.'
'The doctor's out,' said the servant. 'Where do you come from?'
'Why' said the little boy, 'don't you know me? Why, we deal with you. We had a baby from here last week.'

A High Valuation.

"If there was only one bottle of Hagyard's Yellow Oil in Manitoba I would give one hundred dollars for it," writes Philip H. Erant, of Monteith, Manitoba, after having used it for a severe wound and for frozen fingers, with, as he says, "astonishing good results."

He—Getting married seems to be very dangerous now. No fewer than seven brides have been accidently killed on their wedding-day this year.
She (ingenuously)—But no true woman will shirk her duty, Tom, through craven fear of death.—Tit-Bits.

A Daughter's Misery.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery."
From a complication of the kidney, liver, rheumatic trouble and Nervous debility.
Under the care of the best physicians, Who gave her disease various names, "But no relief."
"And now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had shunned for years before using it."—THE PARENTS.
