THE HOOPER CASE.

IN THE Transcript of Oct. 2 a beautiful analogy is drawn between the case of J. R. Hooper of Port Hope Ont, suspected of poisoning his wife and Mrs. H. T. Stevens. Mrs, Stevens was accused, says the Transcript in effect, of manslaughter; Hooper is accused of murder. Mrs. Stevens was arrested before the trial and kept during the trial in a criminal cell, Hooper also was arrested before his trial. It goes on to say that Mr, Stevens is a monomaniac on the subject of Mrs. Stevens arrest and is misrepresenting matters either wilfully or through ignorance of the custom in such cases. It continues to state that such cases of arrests are frequent and that the Transcript will not cease to cite all cases as they arise in the interests of an upright and impartial administration as well as for the edification of Mr. Stevens. It does not explain that while Mrs. Stevens was a woman whose husband was willing to give any bonds required and to pay officers to guard her, Mr. Hooper is a man and charged with a more serious crime but there is another weak point in the 'analogy'. The Sun points out that Hooper, at the time of the Transcripts editorial had not been placed under arrest because there was then no reason to suppose that he would escape. Also as the Transcript has expressed its determination to cite all cases analogous to the placing of Mrs. Stevens in a cell of the jail during trial and as this is the first 'case' cited in the three months since the trial and as this turns out after all not to be a 'case' some people may begin to doubt whether such cases are frequent. Moreover as the Transcript on Oct. 2 states that the Hooper and Stevens cases are analogous and on Oct. 5 seeks to disprove the analogy by a plea of insanity in the Hooper case the question may arise whether Mr. Hawke is not also a monomaniac on the subject of the Stevens trial and whether he also is not misrepresenting matters either wilfully or through ignorance. If the Transcrtpt would confine its attacks and analogies to actual cases without drawing on its imagination and at the same time avoid lengthy platitudes on justice, honor, virtue and other subjects foreign to its make-up its opinion would carry greater weight.

—The Dominion Coal Company has already shipped 500,000 tons of coal from its Cape Breton mines and the Whitney syndicate expect this year to show the largest export in the history of the island. The shipment from Old Sydney mine is 35,000 tons ahead of last year to date and this year's output will be the biggest in the history of the colliery. The Caledonia mines are 20,000 ahead, the output being more than the total of last year. Little Glace Bay mine expects to be 20,000 tons ahead by the close of navigation. The Reserve mine is 15,000 tons ahead of last year, Owing to the late start the International is not ahead this year. The Gardiner mine is behind and probably at the close of the year the mine will be shut down for an indefinite period. A large shaft to tap the Old Bridgeport seam is being sunk. The shaft will be 22x11 feet and of a vertical depth of 180 feet. To the rise of the shaft will be an area of 1,000 feet of coal. In two years the output from this shaft is expected to be 2,000 tons daily.

SIR LEONARD TILLEY.

Mr, James Hannay has become Editor of the St. John Telegraph, succeeding Mr. I. E. B. McCready, who has proved himself a skillful and cultivated "Editor," and made himself hosts of friends amongst journalists on both sides of politics, who will regard with pleasure his future advancement and success. Mr. Hannay commenced some time since an historical work that promises to be, in many respects amongst the most important in the literature of the Province—namely: The life and times of Sir Leonard Tilley. Considering that Sir Leonard has been the most prominent figure in all the political movements of this Province for the past thirty years, the narrative of his political career, embraces the history of events of interest to all our readers and students. Judging from the opening chapters, the work promises to be one of exceeding merit. We trust Mr. Hannay's time will not be so monopolized by his new duties that the publication of this work will be deferred.

THE ELECTION.

The municipal election is over; the old candidates returned by an overwhelming majority; the new men snowed under. The final figures Ogden 417, Lowerison 342, Copp 223, Fawcett 180, show that 581 voters cast ballots. Of the 1158 names on the voters list over two hundred were struck off as paying poll-tax only; consequently it appears that in spite of the disagreeable weather and muddy roads a very large majority of the voters were present. Many were surprised, not that the old councillors got in but that they had such a sweeping majority. The voting during the entire day remained in about the same proportions. Poll closed at four o'clock and the result was announced at five. The reelected warden was then called for by the people and replied in a short speech touching briefly on the Gallagher Case, Jail, Sinking Fund, Blank Checks, Stevens Trial, and other subjects which have been fully aired in late issues of the POST. Mr. Lowerison followed and then Mr. Copp, who largely possesses the good-will of the people was called upon. Mr. Fawcett closed in a short speech and the crowd dispersed about six. It cannot be said that there was any very wild enthusiam, but all present felt more or less interest in the result. Mr. Lowerison expressed his intention of retiring after his present term of office expires. The defeated candidates expressed themselves as not discouraged and as believing that the contest had not been in vain.

—An exciting contest was carried on in Dorchester parish which resulted in the return of W Hickman and Dr. Gaudet. The poll stood. Hickman 283; Gaudet 279; Colwell 87, Colwell did much better in Dorchester that at McGinley's. Shediac returned Smith and LeBlanc,

A scheme for the consolidation and common working of all the coal interests of the United Kingdom has been laid before the public. Sir George Elliot the proposer and orginator of the sceme, claims that it is not to be a benefit to the coalowners, lesses, workman and consumers alone but to the whole nation. The coal lesses in the United Kingdom are invited to exchange their interests in properties worked by them for shares and debentures in a United Coal Company. The yearly output of the coalfields of Great Britain is 182,000,000 tons but as a great deal is raised and worked by ironmasters that portion is left out of the consideration and it is calculated as an output of 145,000,000 tons. As the amalgamated value of the railways in Great Britain amounts to nearly £900,000,000 it will probably surprise many people to learn that slightly under £110,000,000 would represent the whole capitalized interest of the lesses. If the necessity of foundaries for any but engineering purposes were done away with there would be at least 10 per cent increase on the collective profits of the coal trade. The expenses of pumping ventilation and under ground hauling are among the biggest items of cost in coal raising. It is claimed that these would be greatly reduced if the area to be treated were regarded in the light of physical peculiarties without regard to arbitrary divisions. Nearly a million of men who with their families form nearly an eighth part of the population of the kingdom are dependent on the mines for support. The scheme contains a clause providing that workmen shall share with the coal lesses in any profit that is made after paying a limited interest upon capital as part of the working expenses. One of the essential conditions of the scheme is the provision that the price of coal shall always be at a rate to give 5 per cent upon the debentures and to reach a maximum of 15 per cent upon the stock without the Board of Trade's sanction. It has been estimated that 7s 3d a ton at the present rate of ouput would give the required interest.

Legal Notes.

Monday Oct. 9th. Before His Honor Mr. Justice Hannington, Mr. M. G. Teed on behalf of the plaintiff, applied for an order in the Equity suit of Edson E. Peck -vs- John R. Calhoun restraining the defendant from selling or in anywise interfering with certain goods claimed by the Plaintiff.

In February 1892 the Plaintiff gave defendant a bill of sale on Plaintiff's goods. The defendant had agreed upon receipt of this bill of sale to pay and discharge a certain number of Plaintiff's debts. After the defendant had received said bill of sale he paid a number of Plaintiff's debts so agreed to be paid, but the Plaintiff contends that defendant has not paid all of said debts, and that he the (Plaintiff) has been called upon to pay the same. In view of the facts presented his Honor granted the order.

Palmer, et al vs. Wilbur. This cause which was contested in the parish of Dorchester Civil Court a short time ago, will probably be appeal to the County Court.

Judge Landry was sworn in at Fredericton last Thursday morning, by the Chief Justice, as a Judge of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick.

Mr. M. G. Teed and Judge Oulton went to Moncton this morning on probate business.

More Marsh Matters.

DEAR MR. EDITOR—I read a letter in your esteemed paper last week from Judge Morse of Amherst, complaining that Messrs. Fawcett and Anderson did not open their "silent and mysterious lips" in reply to the "admirable minority report of A. Fawcett, Esq."

The Judge need not come over here to disparague John Fawcett or Josiah Anderson, Esq. They are too well known—their characters too well established by long years of honest and consistent living—for any reflections to effect them, no matter from what source they may eminate. A broad smile passed over the faces of this community when it was found that Albert has been more than usually erratic and actually charged his brother John and Josiah Anderson with "injustic, partiality and outrageous discrimination." That is not the character they have acquired by their life work with their neighbors. Either one of these gentlemen has had infinitely more experience in making valuations and rate rolls than the exceeding wise and knowing Albert.

But the Judge is very anxious that the makers of the majority report for the Amherst marsh owners should go to the press in reply to Albert's falsehoods and queer ideas. They have no need to. It is quite proper for them to maintain a dignified silence. Their work was for the body of Amherst marsh and not for the public. It is to be hoped the Judge over the way has more experience in law than marsh matters. If so even he will recognize the aptness and force of the follo wing illustration. When a cause has been heard by the Supreme Court in banco quite often the Judges differ. The decision of the majority is the judgement of the Court. It is quite proper for the minority to give his or their reasons for dissenting from the Court, but it is never expected that the Court criticise and 'clear up' the opinions of their "co-judge." As such conduct would be irregular with the judges of the Supreme Court so it would be with these judges. But what would be thought of a disappointed litigant rushing to the press and demanding the Court to answer the opinions of the minority, their "co-judge" If such conduct were not treated as a contempt of Court it would be recognized with the contempt of silence, which it richly deserved.

In just such a manner should the minority treat the minority report, and the insulting remarks of Judge Morse thereon. I remain, Mr. Editor,

"JUSTICE."

Westmorland, Oct. 9th, 1893.

Buctouche Matters.

—The root, grain and potato crops have been excellent. The nay crop is light.

—The new buildings erected here since the fair are of a superior class and the town presents a great improvement in appearance to what it formerly did.

—Father Michaud proposes to have a cheese and butter factory next season. He has erected an ice house for it. This will stimulate the dairy products of the Acadian farmers up and down shore.

—Mr. Isaac Trenholm, (formerly of Fort Lawrence, N. S) is erecting a fine large Hotel at the end of the Bridge. It will be 3 storeys high and possess modern improvements. He expects to occupy it next month. Mr. Trenholm is a capital Hotel man and travellers will not be disappointed in their accomodation.

—Iron piles are to be driven in the channel blocks to support the superstructure of the Railway bridge in the harbor. The worms destroyed the old piles. At Cape Breton Station, the Company is making a fill where the pile bridge exists. Mr. James Barnes has a contract for widening the roadway, repairing bridges, ditching and ballasting.

—Mr. James Barnes is putting into effect a new idea in oyster business. He has erected a building 100 feet long and 22 feet wide on the shore, under which he has constructed a frost proof cellar wall, connected with the tides by an iron pipe. He intends filling the building with oysters during the fishing season and keeping them in condition by salt water, until high prices obtain for them in the spring.

Point de Bute.

Rev. Mr. Pickles has returned from his 3 weeks visit to his old friends in Nova Scotia, His visit would have been more enjoyable if the weather had been finer.

R I McLeod and family are visiting friends in Shediac.

—There is to be a grand temperance meeting in Robb's Hall Thursday evening, addressed by prominent speakers from Amherst and other places. The object is to reorganize the Independent order of good Templars as well as to lay the temperance question plainly before the people.

—Although this place has the reputation of being dull three places of business have been opened here within the last few weeks Messrs. Wilson and Prescott have opened a store for the sale of farming utensils; Mr. W. E. Lawrence an oyster saloon and meat shop; Messrs. P. J. King & Co. grocery store, which give things a lively rather than quiet appearance.

—The names of J. E. Phinney and W. W. Wells are mentioned in connection with the vacant judgeship. Either man is qualified for the position.

Sackville Flyers.

WHAT BLOOD AND BREEDING ARE DOING FOR THE HORSES OF THE WINDY TOWN.

Among the speedy horses noticed about the streets of Sackville may be seen the grey mare "Country Girl" by Grey Chester owned and driven by John Richardson. This mare has shown in races her ability to beat 2.40 easily and is only seven years old. "Happy Jack" a black gelding owned and driven by Thomas Wood is able to go a lively clip and has a record of about 2.45. "Chester Junior" Grey stallion owned by David McCarthy five years old by Grey Chester out of a Knox mare bids fair to be a fast horse and has showed ability to trot in 2.45.

Our genial Banker Mr. McDougall handles the ribbons over his good grey mare "Mary" by "Columbus" in a masterly style and does not purpose taking the dust from any of the Roadites.

Of late years some of the most popular stallions have been patronized in this vicinity and a goodly number of promising colts and fillies are now coming to maturity.

Mr. Hammel Oulton is the owner of a standard bred 4 year old mare by Administrator 357 dam by Abdallah Messenger 4869 that now has a filly at foot by "Sunny Clime" 3951 which is probably the best bred youngster in this part of the County. Mr. Thomas Hosler has a two year old filly by "Dearborn" 4804 dam by Messenger Boy and also a yearling filly by "Sunny Clime from same dam, Mr. Wm. Gass has a 2 year old gelding by "Dearborn" 4804 dam by Grey Chester and also a yearling by 'Sans Peur" out of the same dam.

Mr. Thomas Estabrooks has a yearling filly by "Sans Peur" dam by Confidential Charlie that is very promising. Mr. Charles Fawcett has two 2 year old colts by "Dearborn" 4804 one out of a dam by "Aurros" by 'Daniel Lamber' also two yearlings by 'Peter Blair' 1960 and one of these from the 'Aurora mare.

Mr. Wm. McLeod has a yearling filly by 'Gipsy Charter' also a sucker by 'Peter Blair' 1960. Mr. Berton Black has a likely 3 year old filly by 'Peter Blair' 1960, and Mr. Joseph L. Black has another the same age and by the same sire.

Mr. Ainsley Bowser is now driving a 3 year old mare by 'Dearborn' 4804 dam by Grey Chester that is very stylish and a good mover.

Mr. Arthur W. Dixon drives a 3 year old gelding by 'Peter Blair' 1960 that shows him a fast clip when called upon.

Mr. Edgar Ayer has a very nice and speedy driver in a bay mare by 'Alright' 5817'. He also drives a bay mare 5 years old by 'Administrator' 357 dam by the Bassett Horse. His stock of youngsters consists of a 3 year old filly by 'Dearborn' 4804 dam by 'Saladin'. a 2 year old filly bred the same way, and they will make a very handsome matched team when developed. He also has a yearling colt by 'Peter Blair' 1960 dam by 'Dean Swift' 19796, a yearling colt by 'Sunny Clime' 3951 dam by Saladin and a yearling colt by 'Sunny Clime' 3951 dam by Administrator 357, that in size action and appearance is a beauty standing 14½ hands high and finely formed in every part.

Mr. Wm. C. Milner has a yearling colt by 'Dearborn', 4804, dam by Skeedaddler, also a sucker by same sire and dam that are well developed and fine looking colts. A 3 yr. old which he raised by same sire and dam, has in use proved a very fine mare and sold for a good figure.

Capt. Charles Moore owns and drives a 5 yr. old black mare by 'Couns Harry Wilkes' 1896, dam by Lord Nelson, that is stylish looking, and has a good way of going, but has never been handled for speed. She is, however, a fine roadster and the Capt. appears to enjoy sitting behind her. This mare has this year produced a colt by 'Dearborn' 4804, that looks all right and should make a good one.

Mr. Thomas C. Patterson, Coles Island, drives a very promising looking 3 year old mare by 'Dearborn' 4804, that appears just to suit the wishes of Thomas, and it will be well for the 'Boys' to keep an eye on him next winter. Mr. Patterson also has a 2 yr. old filly by 'Good Luck' which we all hope may bring 'good luck' to him.

Mr. Robert Duncan has a 2 yr. old filly by 'Sir Nutwood' 5786, out of a Flying Frenchman mare, which altho' the only representative of her sire here, is in no way discreditable to him.

The foregoing list of young colts shows that the breeding interest has been kept moving along with the times in our locality, and it is only fair to look for some very fine driving horses in the near future with a good percentage of speedy ones among the lot.

A good track for developing the young horses is very much needed in our town, and our breeders can hardly expect to get the best results and prices from this stock until they have that advantage, as a developed horse sells much more quickly than a really better one will if undeveloped, and buyers are attracted to the towns where the colts are kept going.

SCOTT ACT IN WESTMORLAND.—The Victuallers' Association of Westmorland county, are waiting for an answer to their petition for an election on the repeal of the Scott act. They expect an election at an early date and are confident that they will succeed in having the act repealed, and the number of the signatures to their petition seems to justify their hopes.—Telegraph. Mr. Chas. E. Knapp of Dorchester made a careful study of the petition and published the results of that study in a letter to the Times of Sept. 26. This letter does not imply that the confident hopes of the repeal party are well founded. For instance he states that from the fact that 765 of the 2,338 who signed the petition are unable to write their own names it may be inferred that all the illiteracy in the county was swept up by the circulators of the petition. Further all in the county engaged in the liquor traffic and nearly all who frequent hotels and bars have signed while it has not been signed by a clergyman or school teacher. Nearly two thirds of the electors have refused to sign, and in this connection it is interesting to note that very few names were obtained in the Parish of Sackville and that in Sackville village it was thought useless to circulate the petition. It cannot be denied that there is a strong feeling against the Scott Act not as a useless but as an abused weapon, but the temperance people still have faith in it and as they are organizing and becoming active in various parts of the country it cannot be doubted that an effort will be made to retain the act.
