New and appropriate name for the ex-Khedive—Blackmail Pasha.

At this season of the year it is very necessary to keep a bottle of West's Cough Syrup in the house for sudden colds. Nothing like it. Cures like magic.

A wag pronounces "Morphine the greatest of modern composers."

Singers and public speakers will find perfect relief for all throat difficulties in the use of West's Cough Syrup.

Whatever you dislike in another person take care to correct in yourself.

All enterprising druggists wishing to supply their customers with the best keep West's Cough Syrup and recommend it, as it is the best made.

That's so!—It is not nearly so bad to have a head that is bald on the outside as to have a head that is bald on the inside.

Detective—Have you seen a tramp about here with one eye and one arm?

Tramp—No, pard, I ain't.

Detective—Sorry. I was looking for a man of that description. He's wanted for a murder in New York.

West's Cough Syrup, the household remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat, influenza, bronchitis, whooping coughs, asthma and consumption. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle. All druggist.

Some enterprising cigarette firm should advertise that they will give away a first class coffin on the return of a certain number of empty packages. The coffin would be useful as well as ornamental.

There is no necessity of passing a sleepless night and annoying the entire household with that cough, as West's Cough Syrup will cure you like magic. The best known remedy for coughs, colds, consumption in its early stages and all throat and lung diseases. All druggists. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per bottle.

"The army worm, in Berks county wheat fields only works at night." It must be a Knight of Labor. A non-union worm should be introduced into the field, and then they wouldn't work at all.

Do not neglect a cold or cough, as it frequently results in consumption. You will find a never-failing remedy in West's Cough Syrup. All druggists.

Doctors and Lawyers—When doctors give a man up his chance for life has gone. When lawyers give one up his money is gone.

West World's Wonder or Family Liniment, a sure cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, cuts, burns, wounds and bruises. 25 and 50c. All druggists.

Their position is analagous to that of Johnny Fizzletop. His mother put him in the corner because he would not say "Please." After he had been there a while his mother wanted to make him useful in running an errand.

"You may come out now, Johnny," said she in a flute-like voice.

"Not till you say please, mother," was the reply of the little boy.

World's best West's Liver Pills cure liver complaint, dyspepsia, sick headache and indigestion. Sugar coated. 30 pills, 25c. All druggiste.

An Italian organ-grinder had been playing before the house of a very irascible old gentleman, who furiously and with wild gesticulations ordered him to "move on." The organ-grinder stolidly ground on, and was arrested for his disturbance. At the police court the magistrate asked him why he did not leave when requested. "Me no understan' mooch Inglese," was the reply. "Well," said the magistrate, "but you must have understood his gestures—his motions." "I tinkee he come to dance," was the rejoinder.

A Bargain in Corner Lots is what most men desire, but to keep from filling a grave in a cemetery lot ere half your days are numbered, always keep a supply of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" by you. When the first symptoms of consumption appear lose no time in putting yourself under the treatment of this invaluable medicine. It cures when nothing else will. Possessing, as it does, ten times the virtue of the best cod liver oil, it is not only the cheapest but far the pleasantest to take. It purifies and enriches the blood, strengthens the system, cures blotches, pimples, eruptions and other humors. By druggists.

Delays are dangerous. Procure a bottle of West's Cough Syrup at once and cure that troublesome hacking cough and sore throat, relieving pain and misery. It is the household remedy for all throat and lung diseases. All druggists.

Varieties for Women.

The age that all women desire to approach is marriage.

Miss Cleveland's salary as editor of the Literary Life is said to be $50 a week.

"A Year in Eden" is the suggestive title of a new novel by Miss Harriet W. Preston, soon to be published.

White crepe is used on the newest bridal gowns, and very long trains are again made for young brides.

Cloth cotele and heavy silks are taking the place of the expensive tailor cloths for walking suits.

Celia Thaxter frizzes her bangs and so do Louise Chandler Moulton and Ella Wheeler Wilcox, if reports are true.

Jackets in dark shades of rough cloth made very plain and fastened with large buttons are worn with gowns of any color.

Rosa Bonheur, the artist, has a sort of menagerie at her home at Fontainebleau. The latest addition to it is a wild mustang.

Mrs. Parnell and her daughter will probably spend the coming winter in the south of France and Italy. Her son will accompany her on her travels.

When Mme. Minnie Hauk gave a concert recently in Montana her audience showered scalps, eagle claws and gold nuggets upon her in the absence of the usual floral tributes.

Mme. Blavatsky, the leader of the Theosophists, is as rigid in her diet as the strictest Mohammedan. She smokes finely flavored Russian cigarettes to prevent corpulence.

There was a young man in Bordeaux,
Proposed to a girl who said neaux;
Now all day she sighs
With tears in her eyes,
Repentant for serving him seaux.

A girl in a moment of pique
Give her lover a slap on the chique;
Not a word did he say,
But he left her that day;
And didn't go back for a wique.

A girl who had plenty of beaux,
A flirt, as we well may suppeaux.
Met a lover one night,
Who kissed her on sight,
And kissed her right square on the neaux.

Mme. Janauschek always discourages young ladies from seeking the stage as a profession. She says it is all work and travel, and travel and work, with no time for domestic or social pleasures.

Mrs. Annie L. Jack, the widely known authoress, is a Canadian, and has a home on the banks of the Chauteauguay River, near its junction with the St. Lawrence, Here with her husband and their twelve children she passes a happy life.

A diary of Guido Reni was recently sold in Florence. It contains interesting passages concerning the painter's relation to Caracci and other contemporaries as well as memoranda of the prices paid him for his paintings, of the cost of his materials, &c.

As fur is likely to be worn as a garniture for indoor gowns during the cold weather, modistes are favoring the Russian redingote. Its simple straight lines, and somewhat severe style favor the utilization of fur. The back is cut in almost exact resemblance of a gentleman's great coat, the skirts long and slashed up the back. There are lappets, large buttons, and a rolling collar. The Russian redingote is also noted among elegant long wraps for the street, a favorite material being golden brown or seal brown silk plush.

Mary Anderson is not skilful in making up. She goes to the extreme of simplicity, and a little more rouge and noir indien deftly applied would be useful. Margaret Mather (Mr. Hill's protege) makes up artistically. When she played Juliet last winter she didn't look a day more than 19, and there was no struggle with paint and powder to accomplish this beaute de diable. When she appeared at the balcony she was as radiant as the dawn, and as fresh as one of the Tintoretto goddesses that one admires in the mighty frescoes of the Ducal Palace of La Bella Venezia.

Young and middle-aged men suffering from nervous debility, premature old age, loss of memory, and kindred symptoms, should send 10 cents in stamps for large illustrated treatise suggesting sure means of cure. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

"It's got to come!" said the solemn man, solemnly straining away at the handle of a door.

"What has got to come?" excitedly asked a dozen bystanders, rushing up.

"Christmas!" said the solemn man, solemnly, letting go the door handle. And the bystanders rushed down again.

A RADICAL CHANGE.—Daniel Sullivan, of Malcolm, Ont., takes pleasure in recommending Burdock Blood Bitters for dyspepsia. It cured him after years of suffering. From being a sceptic he is now a confirmed believer in that medicine.

Tourist—An' now me letter of credit is cawshed, can you direct me to some spot in this blawsted country that will equal Pipe-weed-under-Thy-copse-Hereford-shire-heath, North Staffordshire England, for a flip at a salmon?

Banker—I seldom fish myself, but I understand that Mud-creek-over-against Bill Simmonse's-Mill-pond, Knox-county over-the-left-and-under-suspicion-Maine, United States of America-four hands 'round is a fair sporting ground.

A CURE FOR CROUP.—It is a valuable fact for mothers to know that there is no better or more certain remedy for croup than Hagyard's Yellow Oil used internally and externally. This handy household remedy may be had of any druggist.

This story brings to mind one that is told of a Confederate guard who was once on duty over in South Carolina. An officer was discussing war matters, and remarked:

"You know your duty here, do you, sentinel?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, now, suppose they should open on you with shells and musketry, what would you do?"

"Form a line, sir."

"What, one man form a line?"

"Yes, sir; form a bee line for camp sir."
