Thankful for the munificent support she has received at the Concerts in her own interest, she assures her friends and the public that she will be much more gratified should her efforts be crowned with still greater success, and hopes the Public will assist to raise a sum worthy of the object.

LIVERPOOL AND LONDON Fire and Life Insurance Company.

Instituted in 1836.

Incorporated by Special Acts of Parliament.

Capital, Two Millions Sterling.

Unlimited liability of the Stockholders of the Company.

Subscribed Capital, £1,500,000.

Instalments called in,	£197,197	10 0
Accumulated funds,	346,972	4 0
	£544,169	14 0

THE 18th annual General Meeting of this company was held at Liverpool on the 16th February last, when the following Report of the business of the Company during the past year was submitted:—

"The increase in the Fire Insurance Business must be satisfactory to the Proprietors, as shewing the rapid and safe progress which the Company is making. The receipts for the first year have increased considerably over those of 1852, while the losses have materialy diminished.

	1852.	1853.
Receipts,	£98,654	£113,612
Loss s,	59,091	42,846
Profits,	£39,563	£70,766

These results show, notwithstanding the very numerous and destructive fires that have occurred both in this country and especially in America, that great caution has been exercised in taking risks, on the part of those on whose judgement the Directors must necessarily in a great measure rely. The reserved surplus fund now amounts to £143,712.

Cure of Asthma of several years standing.

Cainscross, near Stroud, Gloucestershire, March 20, 1850.

SIR,—Having been troubled with Asthma for several years, I could find no relief from any medicine whatever, until I was induced about two years ago to try a box of your valuable Lozenges, and found such relief from them that I am determined for the future never to be without a box of them in the house, and will do all in my power to recommend them to my friends.

If you consider the above Testimonial of any advantage, you are quite at liberty to make what use of it you please. I am, Sir,

(From the "New York Tribune.")

The scenes are laid alternately in New York, on the coast of Africa and Ægian Sea. We have laughed almost to side splitting at the eccentricities of Old King Kettle, the Lounge Chief; and we have alternately rejoiced and wept over the history of Zuleika, the Greek maid and matron.

We fancy, too, that there is some satire hidden beneath the character of Mordaunt, but we do not wish to forestall the author's narrative—there are some exceedingly beautiful touches of pathos in various portions of the volume. It must have a large sale. For sale by
