MINES AND MINING STOCKS

Centre Star and War Eagle on the Boom Yesterday—Other Issues Were Quiet.

DEVELOPMENT IN BOUNDARY.

Details of Work Going on Just North of the Line in British Columbia.

The feature in mining stocks yesterday was War Eagle, which advanced about 15 points, selling as high as 165 in Montreal and up to 163 locally. There was a slight reaction at the close of the day, but the issue is probably going much higher. The news of the settlement of the labor dispute in Rossland and the fact that the new machinery is getting into shape in the War Eagle have combined to encourage the market. Centre Star was higher yesterday.

Development in Boundary.

Grand Forks, B.C., March 28.—Ore is being stoped out of the 70 and 150-foot levels of the City of Paris Mine in Central Camp. In the tunnel, at a depth of 300 feet, the ledge is expected to be encountered within the next 20 feet. The ore, according to assays made at the Granby smelter, averages $40 per ton. Development is also being pushed on the Lexington, owned by the Majestic Gold Mining Company, in which Jay P. Graves is heavily interested. Upwards of 673 feet of tunneling and drifting have been done.

A pump and hoist have just been installed on the Athelstane in Wellington Camp. Two shafts on the claim are 60 and 100 feet deep respectively.

Seventeen men are employed on the Snowshoe, driving a tunnel underneath the C. P.R. spur. The incline shaft is now down 300 feet.

In the Gold Drop the work of making an upraise 200 feet to the surface is in progress. The force comprises 20 men. The compressor is working satisfactorily.

The cross-cut from the 100-foot level of the Hartford in Wellington Camp has been extended 11 feet during the past week. It encountered a ledge three and one-half feet wide, and another vein which shows on the surface is expected to be secured within the next 10 feet.

The main tunnel in the Rawhide is now in 500 feet. A ledge was cut at a point 460 feet from the surface.

The wooden superstructure of the smelter dam across the Kettle River is under construction. Over 1,000,000 feet of heavy timbers will be utilized.

MORE BRIBERS FOR THE MILL

Fourteen Named by the Judges in the Halton Election to Be Tried at the Spring Assizes.

DATE FIXED FOR GARROW APPEAL

Efforts Being Made to Secure the Release of Herbert T. Beatty, Arrested at Niagara.

The prosecution of election boodlers and corruptionists goes on. At the instance of Mr. William Lount, Q.C., Crown Prosecutor, summonses have been issued, calling upon 14 persons in Halton County to appear at the Spring Assizes at Milton on the 24th instant, to stand their trial for corrupt practices. Justices Osler and Maclennan tried the petition against the return of Mr. John R. Barber, who was elected in the Liberal interests in Halton at the election held in March, 1898.

Mr. Barber was unseated on account of bribery by agents and the judges reported the following persons as having been guilty of corrupt practices: Hugh Hanna, William Dowdle, Thomas Dowdle, John Evans, William Elliot, jr., Robert Sherwood, J. W. Wallace, C. E. Ryan, Patrick Lyons, George Storey, William Halliday, Thomas G. Dent, jr., Michael Quinn and A. E. Cross.

The Garrow Appeal.

W. D. McPherson, on behalf of the Conservatives, yesterday morning moved before the Court of Appeal for the hearing of the appeal of Hon. J. T. Garrow, from the decision of the election judges unseating him. The appeal was set down for the second week in May.

Beatty Still Under Arrest.

An unsuccessful attempt was made yesterday before Mr. Justice Robertson to secure the release from custody of Herbert T. Beatty, who was arrested over a week ago at Niagara Falls, on an attachment, charging him with fraud in connection with the sale of shares in the Colorado River Irrigation scheme. The motion was enlarged until the 20th inst., when further material will be presented by both sides.

Moore Must Stay in Custody.

In Calder v. Moore, Mr. Justice Robertson yesterday refused to make an order discharging the defendant from custody. The motion will be renewed on Monday, when fresh material will be presented in support of it. Moore, it will be remembered, is the Manitoba merchant who was arrested on a capias while in Hamilton on his wedding tour.

Gurney Company Appeals.

The Gurney Foundry Company have entered an appeal to the Court of Appeal from the verdict of Mr. Justice Falconbridge and a jury, awarding Thomas Morris $1170 damages. Morris was injured while at work in the foundry; a heavy pattern casting fell on him. The action was tried at the Winter Assizes in January last.

Mrs. Lazarus Claims $2500.

A writ has been issued on behalf of Mrs. Jeannette Lazarus of Toronto, against the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, claiming $2500, the amount of a policy of insurance.

List for Monday.

Peremptory list of cases to be heard at the Non-Jury Sittings on Monday: King v. Rogers, Orford v. Orford, Macdonald v. G.T.R., Stanley v. Thomson, Shaver v. I. O.F., Somerville v. McBean.

At the Civil Assizes.

Before Mr. Justice Street in the Civil Assize Court yesterday, Francis Torbitt of Mimico sued Austin Worden to recover $3000 damages for injuries received in October last. Torbitt claimed the defendant had a lot of brick lying on the sidewalk near his home in Etobicoke Township and in order to grant pedestrians a safe passage he laid some loose planks on top of them. On the end of one of these Torbitt stepped and was struck when the plank flew up. The hearing was not concluded at adjournment.

In the Non-Jury Court, Mr. Justice MacMahon is still engaged in listening to the evidence in the suit of W. G. Hairis against the Toronto Electric Light Company.

At the Police Court.

At yesterday's Police Court, Harry Knowles, a bell boy at the Daly House, was sent down for 30 days for stealing $1.50 from Robert Gowanlock of Mayfair, a guest at the hotel.

John Knowlton and Fred Mercer were acquitted of a charge of attempting to break into the Wm. Davies Company's branch store at 606 Dundas-street, on Tuesday night.

Edward Hills, alias W. H. Storey was committed for trial on a charge of stealing $110 from Rachael Pilcher of 143 Lisgar-street.

The case of Brenard O'Rourke, charged with committing an aggravated assault on Michael Callaghan, was adjourned till Thursday next.

Lewis Pollard, charged with committing an aggravated assault upon Arthur Phipps, was remanded till Monday.

Jane Grierson pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing some clothing from William Cox and was remanded till Monday.

EMPIRE DAY IN THIS 1900

Falls on Wednesday, May 23—Minister Harcourt's Circular to School Inspectors.

Hon. R. Harcourt, Minister of Education, has just sent the following circular to Public School inspectors thruout the province, in reference to Empire Day. The Minister says:

"I earnestly invite your co-operation in having 'Empire Day' duly celebrated this year in all our schools. In the other provinces of Canada, as well as in Ontario, the 23rd of May, 1899, inaugurated an important event in the cultivation of British patriotism among the Canadian people. As intimated, last year the Education Department of Ontario, on the 1st of March, 1899, adopted the following minute:

"'The school day immediately preceding the 24th of May shall be devoted specially to the study of the history of Canada in its relation to the British Empire, and to such other exercises as might tend to increase the interest of the pupils in the history of their own country and strengthen their attachment to the Empire to which they belong—such day to be known as "Empire Day."'

"According to this minute, 'Empire Day' this year falls on Wednesday, the 23rd of May, and it is desirable that every suitable means should be adopted to foster among the youth of our country a high national sentiment. The subject is specially important this year, since the struggle in which England is now engaged, and in which Canada is taking a prominent part, will call forth increased love for British institutions. Canada is helping to make history, and the youth of our country should be taught fully to appreciate their position as citizens of the British Empire. It should be understood that true patriotism does not consist in empty shouts of acclaim, in mere professions of loyalty or in any spirit of national boasting. The patriotism to be cultivated among the children of our schools should be that which results from a just appreciation of what the nation has become because of its spirit of freedom, its laws, its customs, its form of government and its triumphant onward march as a great civilizing agency. For the children of our schools to appreciate rightly what they owe to the British Empire, it is necessary for them to know something of its traditions, its perils, its stages of growth, its source of power and its many glorious achievements. In other words, the patriotism to be cultivated in our schools should be broad, and marked by intelligence and high moral principle.

"It is not necessary that the manner in which 'Empire Day' is to be observed should be indicated in detail. As was done last year, some intimation of the following nature might guide the teachers and trustees:

The Forenoon.

"In each of the classes, part of the forenoon might be occupied by the teacher reading as his subject the British Empire, and discussing in a general way, for example, its extent and resources, its history and institutions, its literature and distinguished statesmen, authors, soldiers, etc.; the excellence of the British form of government, and the privileges which all British subjects enjoy; the great extent and magnificent resources of Canada, together with some account of its system of government—Dominion, provincial, municipal, educational; historical incidents in connection with the development of the Dominion; and the part it has taken in the unity of the Empire. An historical reference to the Union Jack, explaining when and how it became the national emblem, would be opportune. It should be understood that the aim of the teacher, in any outline he may give to his pupils, will be to cultivate that spirit of Canadian patriotism which will be marked by intelligence and the highest moral sentiment, and which will be adapted to the age and attainments of the pupils.

The Afternoon.

"A suitable program can easily be arranged for the afternoon, the exercises commencing at 2.30 o'clock. These might consist of patriotic recitations, songs, readings by the pupils, and addresses by trustees, clergymen, and such other persons whose services may be available. At the afternoon exercises, the trustees and public generally should be invited to be present, and during both forenoon and afternoon the British flag or Canadian ensign should be hoisted over the school building. With these objects in view, you will kindly give the necessary directions to the teachers of schools under your supervision, in order that thruout the entire province 'Empire Day,' in the closing year of the century, may be duly celebrated."

UTILITY OF SUBMARINE BOATS.

Mr. Goschen Says the Admiralty Has Been Considering the Subject.

London, April 6.—A question was asked in the House of Commons to-day as to the steps taken by Her Majesty's Government with reference to submarine boats and the American submarine boat Holland. The First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. George J. Goschen, replied that the Admiralty had given attention to the subject. But, he added, even if the practical difficulties attending the use of submarine boats could be overcome, they must essentially remain a weapon for maritime powers on the defensive, "and it was natural that those nations which anticipate holding that position should endeavor to develop submarine boats."

Mr. Goschen, continuing, said the best method of meeting their attack was receiving consideration, and, in this direction, practical suggestions would be valuable. The first Lord of the Admiralty then said: "It seems certain that a reply to this weapon must be looked for in other directions than in building submarine boats ourselves, for clearly one submarine boat cannot fight another."

Nursing-at-Home Mission.

The regular monthly meeting of the Nursing-at-Home Mission was held in the library of the Y.M.C.A. yesterday, the president, Mrs. Stayner, in the chair. From the annual report just published it appears that the mission has a small balance on hand, the receipts for the year having been $1518.

In her annual report the president states that during the year 428 patients attended—356 women, 18 girls, 24 infants, 19 men, 11 boys. Twenty-eight were sent to the hospitals—8 to General Hospital, 8 to Grace Hospital, 4 to St. Michael's, 2 to Home for Incurables, 3 to Children's Hospital, 1 to Burnside, 11 to House of Providence. Out of this number 33 deaths took place. A total of 5550 visits were made (not including "occasional calls"), 217 being all night duty. The nurses worked under 146 doctors. This takes no note of 157 infant patients, who were washed and tended daily while the mother was being nursed. The patients in Dispensary were 4152.

The monthly reports presented yesterday were of a satisfactory character.

BUY AND SELL ALL MINING STOCKS ON COMMISSION.

Our Rossland correspondent telegraphed Thursday night: "Mines will all work; all trouble settled." This, and other factors governing the situation, point to a considerable advance in several stocks. We do not like losing money ourselves, and we would hate to see our clients do so. If all holders of mining stock could sell out at a good profit, it would give a tremendous impetus to the brokerage business. Our paramount interest, therefore, is to make money for our clients. Begin anew with all the experience you have gained in the last four years, then you will have a good chance of success. Send us a list of all the stocks you hold. Copies of our last confidential letter can still be had. Call, write, wire or phone at any time for advice or information.

Newspaper Man Killed Himself.

Atlanta, Ga., April 6.—A man purporting to be F. O. Dickensheets, a Kansas City newspaper man, killed himself at the Jackson Hotel last night by taking morphine. While making preparations to end his life he wrote a letter to the papers, with the pathetic request: "I have remembered you; now that I am dead, remember me." His photograph accompanied the letter, and his picture will be printed in to-morrow's Constitution.

Resolution of Sympathy.

At the last meeting of the Cartwright Club the following resolution was passed: Moved by Ald. Ward, seconded by Mr. W. O. McTaggart, that the members of the Cartwright Club desire to place on record their appreciation of the loss sustained by the Liberal party in the death of the late George H. Bertram, M.P., and to express to the members of the deceased's family our sincerest sympathy in their sad bereavement. The great business ability, the sterling honesty and integrity and the intimate knowledge of public affairs, which the deceased member combined with untiring energy and constant devotion to the public interest, make his death not only a loss to Liberalism but also to the Parliament, of which he was such a distinguished member, and to the city, which he so worthily represented, and with whose prosperity his life's work was so intimately associated.

NO MORE PAIN AND WEAKNESS

I'VE PROVEN my theory that no pain or debility can exist where the body is full of Electricity, for this is the source of the vitality of manhood. Thirty years have I spent in developing the best means of using curative ELECTRICITY. I know every pain and weakness that a man is subject to, and have so succeeded in my remedy as to bring perfect health and strength to all those using my marvelous treatment. Men exposed to rough weather, hard work, mentally or physically, or overtaxing vital forces, are quickly and lastingly cured by my method. Many suffer from breaking down of vitality, which never yields to medicines. My new method restores this energy.

Dear Sir,—I would consider it an injustice if I did not say something to encourage you in your great and wonderful business. I have no hesitation in saying that I received more than a hundred times as much good from your Belt than I have from $100 worth of medicine used before I purchased the Belt No. 6.

I feel happier and livelier now than I ever did in all my life. Thanks to your wonderful invention.

I wish you every prosperity, and trust that, with my name on your list of many cures, you will sell many Belts.

From Hybla, Ont.

Dr. C. T. Sanden:

Dear Sir,—Your Electric Belt No. 6, cured my friend in three months. Before wearing the Belt he was in a very weak and run down condition, but now is completely restored to good health, thanks to your Belt. I consider the cure wonderful as he feels better in every way than ever before. I consider your Belt of the greatest value to weak men, and am glad to be able to recommend it to all who are in need of treatment. It will cure where medicines would be entirely useless. Wishing you every success.

I am, yours sincerely,
A. W. A. BARTLETT, Jr.

4 1/6 CENTS A MONTH!

HERE'S A BIG OFFER.

The Ladies' Journal will be sent to you for one year for the amazingly small sum of Fifty (50) Cents.

This is just one-half the regular subscription price, but we want this valuable journal to reach every home in Canada, and take this means of hastening that end.

It gives you an irresistible chance at this low rate of securing one of the brightest, most interesting home journals published. Short stories, serial stories, latest fashion news, fancy work designs profusely illustrated, household recipes and general topics of live interest, with apt and clever sketches—it is brimful of interest every month, providing entertainment for every member of the family and giving suggestions and hints that are invaluable to all mothers and housekeepers.

Send your name and address and Fifty (50) Cents for one year and make sure of obtaining a year of pleasure and profit at this half-price rate.

This offer is liable to be withdrawn and the regular price restored when our subscription list reaches the desired number.

Send the Fifty (50) Cents by postal note or express order (no stamps), payable to The Ladies' Journal. The Ladies' Journal is an old established publication, being now in its 22nd volume, and the proprietors can be depended upon to carry out all offers to the letter.

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR PUZZLE.

Open to all Subscribers of The Ladies' Journal.

$150.00 in cash, Silk Dress Skirts, Silk Petticoats, Silk Stockings, Kid Boots, ladies' or gentlemen's Bicycles, Gold Watches, Silver Watches, Books, and other valuable articles.

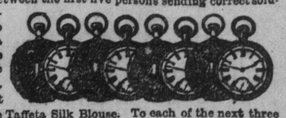
An entertaining feature of The Ladies' Journal is the frequent prize contests conducted to the interest of all its readers. This is the latest offer, called the South African War Puzzle and every new subscriber of The Journal may compete free of charge. Present subscribers may also compete free by sending us one new subscriber.

The following words are the names of prominent places and people, which are found in every newspaper—words that are on everyone's lips in connection with the war news—the letters forming each name being all jumbled up.

See if you can make them out and send the correct list of these well-known places and people. If you are bright and up-to-date you can win.

1—LYEBIKREM.
2—SYDTHILAM.
3—NOIFELTEMBON.
4—REGSLOBEC.
5—GRABREEDAP.
6—GEFAKMIN.
7—TROPARIE.
8—ERRSTOB.
9—TEERNICHK.
10—LERULB.
11—HERNCF.
12—UKREGR.
13—JORCEN.
14—BOTRUJE.

We will give One Hundred and Ten ($110) Dollars cash to the person first sending a correct list of the above names and places. In the event of more than one person being correct the money will be equally divided between the first five persons sending correct solutions—that is Twenty-two ($22) Dollars to each person. To each of the next three persons will be given a Lady's or Gentleman's High-grade Bicycle. To each of the next three persons a fine Gros Grain Silk Skirt, of latest design. To each of the next three persons a latest, up-to-date Taffeta Silk Blouse. To each of the next three a Fancy Silk Petticoat. To each of the next a fine pair of Ladies' Kid Boots. To each of the next ten a pair of Silk Stockings. All these articles will be sent in size to suit winner. To the next five persons a handsome open-face or hunting case Lady's or Gentleman's Gold Watch, reliable time-keeper. To each of the next ten a Gun-metal or Silver-cased Watch, as may be preferred. To each of the next fifty persons correctly answering will be given a full dozen set of Quadruple Plate Dinner or Tea Knives. Then one hundred other valuable rewards of the latest, beautifully Cloth-bound Books by Copp, Clark & Co., Morang, and other leading publishers. The above gifts will be made strictly in the order the letters are received at The Ladies' Journal Office.



As a consolation to late comers we will give forty ($40) dollars cash to the sender of the last correct solution received. Ten days after the close of the competition will be allowed for letters to reach us from distant points. If more than one correct solution is received we will divide the forty ($40) dollars equally among the four last comers.

Bear in mind, all these gifts will be surely made, for if no correct answers are received they will be awarded to those who are most nearly correct.

Every one competing must abide by the decision of the proprietors of The Ladies' Journal, for it will be final.

The names and addresses of those successful will be given in the next issue of The Ladies' Journal after the close of the competition. Address—

THE LADIES' JOURNAL,
