TODAY'S MARKETS

LOCAL MARKET.

London, Friday, Aug. 11.

Trade was not up to the standard for this day of the week, as there was not the usual amount of hay offered. There were but 7 loads of hay on sale; there was a brisk demand, and $7 to $8 per ton, mostly at the first-named figure.

No straw or oats offered.

One load of wheat was offered at 80c per bu.

There should be a lively demand at Saturday's market, owing to the light business during the week.

T. A. FAULDS,

PROVISION MERCHANT.

Fresh chipped eggs, 2 dozen 25c. New honey, 10-pound pail, 90c.

STOCK MARKETS.

H. C. Becher, stock broker, next Free Press building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today:

New York, Aug. 11. — Noon. — There has been a marked increased inactivity and the market has been more buoyant than for some time. Bullish feeling seems to run more especially into such high-priced stocks as Northern Pacific, Great Northern, N. Y. C., U. P., and Illinois Central. Of news to affect prices there has been little or none. It appears, however, that the speculators and investors have begun to realize the conditions are throughout the country brilliant, and the prospects for growing crops. Little attention is paid to dispatches from Portsmouth expressing fears that the peace negotiations would not reach a successful conclusion, for the reason that in well-informed foreign financial circles confidence is expressed that both parties are anxious for peace, and after a moderate period of negotiations satisfactory compromise will be made by both sides.

NO IRISH PICNIC FOR HER

Mrs. Turner Refused To Go to Port, and Got Into Trouble.

A half-dozen drunks were allowed to depart this morning by Police Magistrate Love.

Harry Harlow and Agnes Harlow are charged by Mrs. Margaret Turner with assault. It appears that the Harlows wanted to join the Irishmen at the Port yesterday, and asked Mrs. Turner to go along, as they did not care to leave their house open. Mrs. Turner demurred, and then trouble began. The Harlows are alleged to have tossed her out on the highway, and now she charges them with assault. The Harlows were bailed in the sum of $400 until Monday.

Charles Walsh was charged with being drunk and disorderly. He had been bailed out, but failed to appear. He will be up tomorrow.

OFF FOR A HOLIDAY

Ald. Forristal Talks of Retiring From the Aldermanic Arena.

Ald. Forristal today made the statement in the city hall that he will not be a candidate for municipal honors next year. His business interests have lately been greatly increased, and he does not feel like devoting any more of his time to public affairs. He has been in the council for three years, and he has earned a reputation for himself of being honest, straightforward and manly on all matters upon which he has cast a vote, his first thought always being for those he represented. He has been courageous, too, and on pavement matters has been consistent. It is scarcely likely that his many friends and admirers will allow him to drop out of public life. Certainly ward 3, in which his large factory, the London and Petrolea Barrel Company, is located, will not let him go without a struggle. Ald. Forristal left today on a trip to Winnipeg. During his absence Ald. Wyatt will be chairman of the board of works.

WRESTLING MATCH

Hoy and Bouldin to Try Conclusions for $50 a Side.

A wrestling match for $50 a side will take place tonight at the Colosseum of the Hatch shows, corner of Talbot and King streets, between Tommy Hoy, of Buffalo, and Clarence Bouldin, of Cleveland, who is generally known as the Cuban wonder.

The match is the outcome of a challenge which was issued last night by Hoy. It will be catch-as-catch-can, best two in three falls. William Mahon, of Ridout street, will referee.

Clarence Staley, the wrestling partner of the Cuban, is also willing to take up Hoy's challenge for $250 a side. Staley weighs 153 pounds, and is therefore in the same class with Hoy. He is willing to meet Hoy either this week or next. A match between the two may possibly be arranged for tomorrow night if Hoy will stay over after his match with the Cuban.

MOTORMAN INJURED

Mr. William Livermore Meets With a Peculiar Accident.

Motorman William Livermore, of the London street railway, met with a peculiar accident last night, which resulted in his receiving injuries which will lay him up for some time.

He was proceeding east with his car on Dundas street, when the motor blew up near Colborne street. A tongue of fire shot up and Livermore jumped to one side, falling out of the door of the moving car. He alighted on his head and shoulder and was badly bruised.

The car continued on its journey with the vestibule full of smoke, but the conductor rushed forward and applied the brake. The passengers on the car were greatly frightened for a while. Livermore is now under the care of a physician.

POUND POUNDED GOAT, 'TIS SAID

Farmer Has Two Charges to Answer in Court, as a Result.

A double-barreled case of a peculiar nature will occupy the attention of the interim sessions court in this city today and tomorrow. For practically the same offense the same alleged offender will be tried by two different magistrates, the complainant in both cases being the same

Some days ago Arthur Brown, of North Dorchester, appeared before Squire Gorwill and laid two informations against a man by the name of Pound, belonging to the same township. Pound, he told the magistrate, gave his goat a severe beating with a stick, and then shot the poor animal dead. In one information Brown charged Pound with cruelty to animals, and in the second with destruction of property.

Brown then demanded that the magistrate issue a warrant for Pound's arrest. The squire, however, although fully sympathetic with the deceased goat, did not feel that the matter was important enough to warrant the arrest of the alleged offender. Brown therefore withdrew the second information and took it to Squire Lacey. Mr. Lacey also refused to issue a warrant, and so the complainant had to be satisfied with a summons, and asked the squire to issue it.

The case was thus split in two. This afternoon Squire Lacey will hear his side of the case and decide whether the goat met its death at the hands of Pound or not. Tomorrow Squire Gorwill will have to go over the same evidence to determine whether Pound treated the goat cruelly. So that if it is decided that Pound did not kill the goat, he will still have to face the charge of having pounded it. If he both pounded and killed the unfortunate animal, he will have two sets of fines, witness fees and court costs to "butt" up against. The whole case could easily have been tried by one magistrate, thus cutting the costs in two. Many cases of a nature similar to this one crop up in the courts, and indicate the need of law reform.

REUNION MANAGERS HAVING TROUBLES

on Saturday last, and yesterday was glad to sell them at 25 cents a basket.

It is known, however, that the bakers, the butchers, the restaurant people and the hotel and saloon men did a land-office business. Souvenirs also sold like hot cakes, and one jeweler stated that the reunion more than doubled his trade this week.

Inspector McCallum is not being troubled by people who want assistance, but last Saturday he had four applications for railway passes.

Today the city save for the now bedraggled decorations and the side shows on the streets, has resumed its normal condition. Business is getting on its feet and people are satisfied to stay at home and rest for a while. A week's fun is always found at the end to be mighty hard work.

At noon today the Toledo Newsboys' Band left for home. They were greatly pleased with their reception here and say they will be on hand when the next reunion is held.

Mr. C. B. Edwards at noon counted the baliots in the queen contest, which will close tonight. The figures then stood as follows:

Mrs. Best, Detroit	798
Miss Edna Flawn, Cleveland	319
Miss Cousins, Cincinnati	159
Mrs. Small, Chicago	53
Miss Hodgins	2
Miss Young	2

A GROWING TIME FOR THIS CITY

Assessment Figures for Ward One Show Marked Gain in Population.

Today Assessment Commissioner Grant handed out a report of the result of the assessment for 1906 of Ward 1. The figures show an increase in assessment of $517,823, and a gain in population of 237 for the year. From this it would appear that the city of London will increase its population on the whole by not less than 1,500 this year, as the growth in two of the other wards will be sure to be double the increase in Ward 1. East London will be sure to give a good account of itself, as will also Ward 4, where a great deal of building has been going on in the north end. Mr. Grant's statement continues as follows:

"The total gain in population is made up from that part which was formerly South London, as old No. 1 is fast becoming a manufacturing district and losing population. The $125,963 increase in real estate is the natural growth of the ward, as our attention this year was directed altogther to the working out of the new system, business tax and income tax.

"The business tax exceeds the old personal property tax by $131,422. This is largely made up by the 75 per cent business assessment on banks and financial institutions and 50 per cent on agents for premises occupied, together with the minimum assessment of $250 on all business, be it ever so little. Parties formerly assessed from $10,000 to $20,000 personal property, in many instances came in for a handsome reduction, while those formerly assessed for from $1,000 to $1,500 were invariably increased. Large stocks come out best.

"The working out of the income entails a great deal of trouble, for instance the loan and insurance companies in this ward alone paid a lump sum of $112,000 income, and would continue to do so, but the stockholders living outside of the city are not liable for assessment here, except they live outside of the Province and the trustees live here, consequently a number receiving dividends living outside of the various cities will escape taxation. A much better system would be, I think, to tax a certain percentage of the earnings of those companies, which might be agreed upon similar to the assessment on telegraph and telephone companies.

"Instead of being able to assess them in bulk sum as formerly under the statute, the companies made a return of all dividends paid to their stockholders resident in the city of London and outside of the Province of Ontario, varying in sums from 50 cents to $700 or $800. Those returns had to be worked out and placed in the various wards and divisions of the city. In the aggregate there is quite a bit of money that I did not think worth while assessing and made no assessment under $5. Then there are returns from parties that undoubtedly have large incomes and also employers' returns of all parties earning $400 and over if single and $1,000 and over if a householder. This class of income from banks, wholesales, railroads, I think will be solid enough, but when you get to the real wage earner I don't think it will be stationary enough, but the aggregate does not amount to much. Then we have the statute labor trouble, assessing parties for small incomes where they work, and another assessor levying statute labor at his residence. This trouble can only be gotten over by indexing the whole of the statute labor after the assessment is made, and checking it out with the incomes.

"In some cities statute labor tax is entirely abolished. There have been 60 pages of additional work in No. 1 Ward alone, but preparing and examining the statements for entry was, of course, the great delay. There will be some appeals to the court of revision to be decided upon in a friendly way, possibly, by the judge. On the whole, information was freely given by the citizens, with the remark, 'We trust you will use everyone alike.' The increase on income assessment for this ward was $260,438, and the total increase $517,823."

The following are the figures for the ward, together with the figures for last year, and the gains under each heading:

	Population.	Real.	Business.	Income.	Total.
1906	10,573	$5,862,979	$1,266,722	$369,118	$7,498,819
1905	10,336	5,737,016	1,135,300	108,680	6,980,996
Gain for 1906	237	125,963	131,422	260,438	517,823

QUOITERS HERE FROM ALL PARTS

Forty Players Participating at the Forest City Club's Tournament.

The annual tournament of the Forest City Quoiting Club opened on the club grounds on King street, between Clarence and Richmond, this morning, with players in attendance from this city and several outside points that have not been represented at tournaments held in the past.

The number of entries this year is the largest on record, totaling 40, and including the best quoiters of the Dominion. In the list are Messrs. R. The Forest City Club, which was organized five or six years ago, is offering $135 in cash prizes, and with so many good players in attendance, some keen matches may be looked for. The fact that the club has new grounds this year, providing every convenience for the players, has tended to bring a larger number here this year.

The chief event of the tournament will be the play for the Hyman trophy —a massive piece of silver on an ebony base. The trophy is now held by Robt. Callander, of Toronto, who last year defeated Jim Bell, of this city. Unless all signs fail, the fight for the prize will again be between these players, and if Bell pitches as well as he has been doing during the practices of the past few weeks, the Londoners feel that Callander will be beaten. However, there is this to be said of the Toronto man—his opponent will have to play to win, for Callander is exceedingly strong and always steady. Loss of nerve is an unknown thing for him.

The first draw of the first series was played this morning, and those who saw Bell in the early stage of the play were very much disappointed at the form he showed. He was pitted against W. R. Henderson, and for a time it looked as if he would be a loser. However, after the game was pretty well advanced, Bell steadied down and soon overcame Henderson's lead. After that Henderson was never in it, being beaten by fourteen shots. Errington had A. Mathewson as his opponent, and he had no difficulty in winning by 41 to 21. The scores:

First draw, first series:

J. S. Bell	41	W. R. Henderson	27
R. Errington	41	A. Mathewson	21
J. Talbot	41	H. Storie	34
D. Miller	41	A. Wanless	9
R. Walsh	41	A. Carter	22
J. Reid	41	J. Walton	38
F. Claus	41	R. Gilmore	29
J. Wright	41	J. Skillings	27
R. Hunter	41	M. Hutchinson	7
R. Callander	41	J. Beattie	22
W. Weir	41	D. L. Thompson	23
T. Pratt	41	J. Polson	31
W. Nichol	41	R. Wright	29
J. Treble	41	W. Carlisle	32
Levi Young	41	J. J. Coulter	25
J. Nichol	41	— Sabine	21
— Callan	41	— Jakes	22

A. Brown defaulted to J. J. Thompson.
J. Houston defaulted to C. Fox.

Dr. Wyckoff, the vice-president of the club, is keeping the scores, and Billy Baskerville, the treasurer—well, Billy is everywhere, doing what he can to make the tournament the big success that it promises to be.

LABORER HURT.

An Italian laborer, who is in the employ of Ross & McCrae, the contractors who are in charge of the new double track, was painfully injured, between Strathroy and Komoka, this morning. He was working with the steam shovel, and had his abdomen badly crushed. He was brought to this city and taken to Victoria Hospital in the ambulance. The state of his injuries is not yet known.

TINY ACTOR FOLK PLAYED GEISHA

Clever Little People at the Grand Make Another Big Hit.

Last night at the Grand Opera House, another large audience was captivated and charmed by the dainty little men and women who represent the Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company. The Geisha, by many considered cleverest and most pleasing of musical comedies, was given with the splendid vim and appreciation that distinguishes these tiny actors. Last night, especially, the choruses and dancing were rendered with a dash and grace that but few of the grown-up actor folk possess. Tonight the famous "Society Girl", the pioneer musical comedy, will be presented just as presented by the all-star companies in London and New York. Tomorrow afternoon and evening the "Lady Slavey," also one of the most successful of the English musical comedies produced within the last few years, will be put on.

RESCUED FROM DROWNING

Boy Had a Close Call at Saunby's Dam—Saved by Mr. W. Meehan.

Edward Edwards, of 546 King street, a lad of 16 years, had a narrow escape from drowning at Saunby's dam yesterday afternoon. The lad was in swimming and suddenly sank. He had gone down twice when Mr. William Meehan happened along, and being apprised of the boy's danger, he jumped into the water and rescued him.

Young Edwards was unconscious when he reached the shore, and Dr. Tillmann was summoned. It took the physician an hour and a half to bring him around.

MAY BE TRANSFERRED

Rumor That Mr. U. R. Gillen Is to Go to G. T. R.'s New Line.

A rumor is going the rounds to the effect that when the Grand Trunk takes over the Canada Atlantic line next month a number of changes will take place among the G. T. R. assistant superintendents on the middle division. It is said that Mr. U. E. Gillen, assistant superintendent at London, is slated for an important post on the newly-acquired road, or a better position on the old lines of the Grand Trunk. It is also said that Mr. Brownlee, superintendent of the G. T. R. at Toronto, is to be transferred to the Canada Atlantic.

BOWLEY—McLEOD

Marriage of a Former Londoner in the Queen City.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. J. K. McLeod, 698 Spadina avenue, Toronto, when his youngest daughter, Jean, became the bride of Mr. Fred J. Bowley, formerly of London, and eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bowley, of Brighton Villa, South London. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Kennedy, of Memorial Baptist Church, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends.

The bridal party entered the drawing-room, which was very prettily decorated with palms and cut flowers, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Mabel Thomas, of Toronto. The bride looked very dainty in a gown of white silk, with white picture hat, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Nettie McLeod, who wore a pretty voile dress, with large white hat, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Will Bowley, of London.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served in the dining-room. The out-of-town guests were from London, Wingham and Chicago. The many beautiful presents received showed the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held. The bride's traveling suit was of navy blue broadcloth. After the wedding tour Mr. and Mrs. Bowley will take up their residence at 538 Manning avenue, where Mr. Bowley conducts a grocery business.

THE BIG SUMMER SALE

Here's Four Sample Values to Judge By

LONDONER GETS EDWARD BLAKE SCHOLARSHIP

The results of the recent junior matriculation scholarship examinations, held in connection with the University of Toronto show that Messrs. G. M. Smith and N. T. George, of the London Collegiate Institute, succeeded in passing the different subjects very creditably. Both are entitled to full matriculation.

Smith also won the Edward Blake scholarship in mathematics and moderns, stood seventh in English, Class III.; second in German, Class II.; fifth in French, Class I., and second in mathematics, Class I.

George stood sixteenth in mathematics, Class III.; first in science, Class III.; first in physics, Class III.; fifth in chemistry, Class II., and fifth in biology, Class III.

Ice Cream

Best in point of quality and purity.

GEORGE PETERS, Confectioner, Richmond Street.

1832

was the year in which the late Mr. Davis founded the oldest jewelry business in London. This, at his death, was continued by Mr. William Davis, who, six years ago, sold it to Mr. J. S. Barnard. Old Boys and visitors are invited to see the progress made by this business, which has such a long and honorable history. They will find a very fine stock of London Souvenir Jewelry at 170 Dundas Street.

CONDENSED LOCAL NEWS

—At midnight last night someone sent in a false alarm from the corner of Simcoe and Maitland streets, and all three brigades responded. The police have the case in hand.

—A partial eclipse of the moon which will be visable in Canada, will take place on Monday next, Aug. 14, and a total eclipse of the sun on Aug. 30, the maximum occurring at 6:34 a.m. This will be a grand astronomical phenomenon, and will probably be the finest of the kind ever witnessed in Canada.

—A pleasing incident in connection with the Old Boys' reunion was the meeting, at the residence of Mrs. J. Swinburn, 356 King street, of Mrs. Marian Andrews, of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Edward Anderson, of Buffalo, N. Y., who had not met for fourteen years. Later their brother, Charles Overbury, of Clinton, Ont., whom they had not met for twenty-one years, arrived.

—Mrs. William Bird, of 248 Dundas street, denies the statement that her son, William Bird, was arrested in the brawl on King street on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Bird claims that when her son saw Policeman Lucas handling one of the McKays without gloves, he asked the officer to allow him to take McKay home with him, but Lucas refused and told Bird to go to the police station to see what he could do toward securing his friend's liberty. At the station Bird was ordered out by some of the officers, and when he did not go he was also placed in the cells. It was not for having taken a part in the street fight that Bird was locked up and fined $5.
