The Weekly Monitor.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9th, 1892.

Thankfully Acknowledged.

The additional increase to the subscription-list of the MONITOR during the past two months is unprecedented in its history. Without the least solicitation on the part of the management, further than the offer to new subscribers, the list has been strengthened by upwards of fifty names; and not only has this been the case for the past eight weeks, but during the entire year there has hardly a week passed by that our efforts have not been rewarded by receiving new subscriptions from all parts of the county and the United States. We can assure our many friends that such tangible support is greatly appreciated, and that our aim in the future, as in the past, will be to make the MONITOR a complete and reliable gazeteer of the county, furnishing pithy news items from each and every locality. Our offer still holds good, and those wishing to take advantage of it can secure the paper from now till the 31st day of December, 1893, at the usual price, viz., $1.50.

While we feel greatly pleased at the liberal patronage bestowed upon us, it is our duty to refer to another matter of great importance, and that is the large amount due from many of our readers on their subscriptions. Though these sums, individually speaking, are of a trifling nature, in the aggregate they foot up quite a handsome amount, of which we stand very much in need at the present time; and we beg to announce to those in arrears that our Mr. McCormick will make a personal call in the near future, on which occasion, we earnestly trust, a satisfactory response will be made.

The Municipal Elections.

As the municipal elections are to take place before our next issue we take this opportunity of advising all our readers to throw aside all political and personal considerations and in every case to vote for the best man. We never could see any sense in running these elections on party lines. There is no government to support or oppose in the council, and nothing that a councillor can do, if he is an honest man, to benefit either political party. Why then should party politics enter into these elections?

Instead of electing a liberal or a conservative simply because he belongs to this side or to that, how much more important is it that a ward should be represented by a man who will be a true representative of the best that the ward contains. A clear-headed, intelligent man, who will do what is right without regard to party lines is what the electors should seek after.

There appears also to be some doubt in regard to the time when nomination papers could be fyled with the various presiding officers. This should not have occurred, as it has been stated over and over again in the press that all papers fyled up to and including the 4th inst. are in time. We believe that the Attorney-General has given an opinion to that effect when consulted in regard to the matter. All papers fyled on the 4th inst. were therefore in time, and any presiding officer refusing to receive them on that day is liable to a penalty.

The following named gentlemen, as far as we can learn, have been chosen by the ratepayers in the different Wards to run for seats in the council, and it will be seen, that with one exception, that of Lower Granville, an election is to be held:—

No. 1, Margaretville—J. A. Balcom, John Hawkins.
No. 2, Middleton—Geo. H. Vroom, N. F. Marshall.
No. 3, Lawrencetown—J. R. Elliott, Hamilton Young.
No. 4, Bridgetown—T. A. Balcom, A. Vidito.
No. 5, Belleisle—Geo. Litch, Walter O. Bent.
No. 6, Granville Ferry—S. W. W. Pickup, Walter Mills, Austin Caswell.
No. 7, Lower Granville—Daniel Cronin, acclamation.
No. 8, Clementsport—Jas. P. Roop, Herbert Hicks.
No. 9, Bear River—W. G. Clarke, John V. Thomas.
No. 10, Annapolis—J. J. Ritchie, W. C. Healy, Wm. Malcolm, Jas. Gavaza.
No. 11, Carleton's Corner—Weston A. Fowler, Manley Benson.
No. 12, Nictaux—Elias Beals, James E. Oakes.
No. 13, Springfield—Oliver McNayr, Wm. Charlton.
No. 14, Maitland—Wm. Rowter, Adelbert Thomas.
No. 15, Dalhousie—Robt. McGill, Joshua J. Buckler.
No. 16, Torbrook—George Holland, R. G. E. Leckie.

Arrested on Suspicion.

A man giving the name of John Brenton was arrested on Saturday last at Margaretville by Constable Judson Foster, who is supposed to know something in connection with the late burglaries committed throughout the valley. Although there was nothing found on his person that would fasten the guilt upon him, he was the possessor of a few revolver cartridges, razor, two jack knives, considerable money, etc. From the fact that he was known to have been at Granville Ferry on the night the safe of the Carribean store was robbed, and that he could give no information as to his stopping places from that time till he reached Middleton on Tuesday night, it was deemed advisible to deliver him over to the authorities at Annapolis, where he was placed in jail, awaiting an investigation, which took place yesterday, when he was again remanded for further examination to-day.

Brenton is a man weighing 144 lbs., about five feet nine inches high, is of florid complexion, with light moustache, and says he is a Truro printer, but during the past season worked a portion of the time at Yarmouth, and since leaving there has been in company with another man following the vocation of repairing umbrellas. There are many circumstances in connection with his conduct for the past week, or since the safe robbery, that tend to throw suspicion on him, and any evidence bearing on the case would be thankfully received by the Annapolis authorities.

The Valley Telephone Company.

A meeting of the directors of The Valley Telephone Company is announced to take place at Middleton on Friday evening, 11th instant, at 7 o'clock, at which several important matters will be discussed. The line is, thus far, giving every satisfaction, and so generous has been the patronage bestowed since opening, as to warrant us in stating that it has greatly overreached the expectations of the promoters. The central offices in the more important towns require the constant attendance of an operator, and the demand for more instruments is a daily occurrence. Commercial men find it a great advantage in transacting business along their line of trade; and to meet the requirements of this class, hotel proprietors are beginning to place instruments in their houses. Foremost among these we note that Mr. John Ross, proprietor of the Middleton hotel, has had an instrument placed in his office for the convenience of his patrons; and it will doubtless only be a short time when our other leading places of entertainment will follow the example. Mr. Balcom, the genial and energetic manager, who finds his time taxed to the uttermost, informs us that where it was thought only a certain number of instruments would be required, the demand in almost all instances has been double.

The Presidential Election.

The result of the Presidential election is being watched with much interest by many of our citizens. Up to the hour of going to press there could be nothing definite obtained ralating to the different States, but from the intelligence received there is very little doubt but that Mr. Cleveland has won the victory.

Thanksgiving Day.

To-morrow the stores, offices and workshops of our town will be closed, and the bells of the various churches will be rung, inviting people to enter and praise the gracious Giver of all good for His mercies granted to us during another year. And does it not speak well for the religious feeling of our country that, although in England with an established church, no such day is appointed, we with no establishment observe the appointed day year by year.

We know that our friends across the border in years gone by were opposed to keeping Christmas, so had to appoint some day upon which to eat the turkey and the goose and keep high festival generally. Consequently Thanksgiving Day in the United States is always placed at a later date than ours, although the observance of Christmas amongst our neighbors is becoming more noticeable year by year, people having no objection to two feasts in place of one.

But what have we to be thankful for? In the first place we should be thankful for the fruits of the earth, for the bountiful crop of hay, for the remarkable yield of grains and the various other crops, as a rule fully up to the average. No one ever saw in this highly-favored country every crop a failure, such as occurs sometimes in England,—notably in 1879. And then we should be thankful for continued health and strength. Whilst other countries have been visited by dire epidemics during the past year, ours has been entirely spared. One great reason for thankfulness is the entire absence in our midst of the miserable poverty and squalor that exists to such a fearful extent in the old countries. None but those who have lived or travelled in Great Britain, or on the continent of Europe can fully realize the utter misery and degradation of a large portion of the overcrowded poor in all the chief cities. In our own country the small number of persons in the alms-house and the kind treatment and good food that they receive there, is a matter for the deepest thankfulness that starvation and misery are entirely unknown in our land.

But possibly some who read these lines may have had trouble during the past year, they may have lost some one near and dear to them and the wound may be still very sore, or they may have had severe financial difficulties. But even in trouble there is cause for thankfulness, for trouble ought to bring us nearer to Him who alone can comfort us, and as the Psalmist says "turn our heaviness into joy." The writer has known many people who have acknowledged that they thanked God for the trouble which, although hard to bear at the time, had been a means of great spiritual blessing.

So when the bells are heard to-morrow morning saying "Come, come, come," let us all respond to the invitation and praise God for His goodness and mercy.—COM.

The Eastville Gold Mine.

The following brief description, from the Hants Journal, will give our readers some slight idea of the valuable gold mine in which our townsman, Mr. John Quirk, is a part owner:—

"The Eastville Mine at South Uniacke is three and a half miles from Mount Uniacke, and adjoins the Withrow property, about three-quarters of a mile from the R. R. siding. It is owned by Mr. James Thompson, of Halifax, and Mr. John Quirk, of Bridgetown, who, it will be remembered, has been paying off some outlawed debts since meeting with his present success. Those gentlemen secured the property from the Govt. four years ago, and one year after had the works in operation. The indications were at first not very encouraging, and a year's work was prosecuted before a paying vein was struck, the main shaft having up to that time been sunk fully a hundred feet, and when the operators had about reached their bottom dollar. But since the main lead was found, two years ago, the mine has paid handsomely, the aggregate being between sixty and seventy thousand dollars for that period, the highest yield per month being about a year ago, when from 29 tons of quartz 404 oz. were obtained, valued at about $8,000—this, too, with a 5-stamp mill, which is almost unprecedented in the history of gold mining in the province. The average yield from the start has been about 11 ounces per ton. The owners are fortunate in having one of the best miners and millmen in the province, as amalgamator, Mr. John McDonnell, of New Ross, Lunenburg Co., who has spent all his time from early childhood in and about mines. His brother, Mr. Angus McDonnell, is the underground boss, and is an expert at his business, both men enjoying the fullest confidence of their employers. This property comprises nine areas of 150x250 feet each.

County Court Decisions.

Following are the causes tried and decisions given last week in the County Court in addition to those which appeared in our issue of the 2nd inst.:—

W. R. Troop vs. Daniel Clark. Settled.

G. W. Spurr vs. W. E. Brown. Judgment for defdt.
W. R. Troop vs. T. W. Chesley. Settled.
J. A. Balcom vs. Elias Phinney. Judgment for pltff.
J. G. H. Parker vs. H. E. Elliott. Judgment for pltff.
John Hicks vs. Seretha Freeman. Judgment for pltff.
Seretha Freeman vs. Nathan R. Morse. Judgment for pltff.
J. G. H. Parker vs. Daniel Messenger. This was tried before a jury which disagreed.

Episcopal Progress.

The Philadelphia Times observes that "an interesting feature of the recently published statistics of the Episcopal Church in the United States is the statement that 49 per cent, or practically one-half of the churches and chapels throughout the country are free—that is, open to all alike without the encumbrance of rented pews or sittings. This proportion is constantly increasing, pew rents being almost unknown in most of the western dioceses, except in a few of the larger cities, and this is doubtless one of the reasons why the Episcopal Church has so rapidly outgrown its former position as the church of a small and highly respectable class and is reaching out so successfully among the masses."

Perhaps the day is not far away when free pews or sittings will be the rule for regular attendants, as well as for casual visitors, in churches of all denominations throughout the land.

Death of William H. Sancton.

The melancholy and sad announcement of the death of Mr. William H. Sancton, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Sancton, reaches us this morning just as we are going to press. The deceased was a printer by trade, and carried on a business for himself on Washington street, Boston, up to within a few weeks ago, when, owing to rapidly failing health, he was compelled to dispose of his plant and seek rest and careful nursing at home. He was a young man of exemplary habits and sterling integrity, was widely known among the craft in the city of Boston, and his early demise will be deeply regretted. To the sorrow-stricken parents and other relatives we extend our deep sympathy.

Oddfellowship.

As intimated in our last issue a lodge of this order is to be formed in this town this evening. Should the weather be favorable, a procession will be formed about seven o'clock, and about one hundred members, wearing the beautiful regalia of the order, and headed by the 69th brass band, will march through the principal streets of this town before entering the Court House where the lodge will be instituted, their own hall being too small to accommodate the crowd expected. A special from Annapolis will arrive about 6.45, bringing a number from the west to be in attendance at the organization.

NEW APARTMENTS.—The custom tailoring business of Mr. A. J. Morrison has increased to such an extent within the past year, as to render the premises formerly occupied inadequate to the requirements of his trade, and his stock is now being removed into the spacious store underneath the Masonic hall on Granville street. Let all who wish the cause well make it a point to be present.

HIGHLY COMPLIMENTARY.—The following notice, referring to the son of Mr. Edward Brooks, of Paradise, appears in the Wakefield (Mass.) Citizen and Banner of the 28th ult.: "Mrs. M. L. Clothey has secured the services of William Brooks of Newton, formerly employed by Dr. Hudson of Newton, to take charge of her drug store. Mr. Brooks comes with the highest recommendations, is a first class pharmacist, a practical chemist and will undoubtedly prove to be a popular young man and will sustain his reputation as a thorough business man and competent druggist."

BLACKBOARD EXERCISE.—The exercise given by Mr. Israel Longley, of Paradise, in the Baptist Church last Sabbath evening was of a highly interesting character. The subject was "The growth of the Church," and was dealt with in such a unique and attractive manner that the speaker held the attention of the large audience for nearly one hour and a half. Each letter of the subject suggested some truth taught and emphasized in the growth of the Church. In substance the exercise was a lecture on the Acts of the Apostles, received by the audience through eye and ear. Mr. Longley is a pleasant speaker and his language choice. We would be pleased to see and hear him again.

CARD!

To the Electors of Ward No. 3:

GENTLEMEN,—Agreeable to the request of a large portion of the Electors of the Ward, I am again in nomination for the position of your Councillor for the ensuing term. In soliciting your support it seems necessary that I state in a few words my position on some matters of particular interest at the present time.

My main platform is to continue to guard jealously the economic interest of the ratepayers, consistent with the efficiency of our institutions. In other words, I see no necessity of increasing the volume of our municipal taxes.

As in the past, I am not in favor of an expenditure for an insane asylum other than is absolutely required for mild cases of insanity, because I do not think that the necessities of the case demand it; and besides, I am not at all satisfied that the results in other countries of elaborate county institutions of this kind have proved a success.

I am thoroughly opposed, as I always have been, to our new Road Act, because it is in direct opposition to my own theories on Political Economy, and not in the interest of the people. Respectfully yours,
J. R. ELLIOTT.

To the Electors of Ward 2.

GENTLEMEN,—I have been requested by a large number of electors representing both sides of politics and all sections of the Ward to allow myself to be nominated as a candidate for councillor at the coming municipal election. Although not at all anxious for the position, I have, after carefully considering the matter, decided to accede to the request. If honored with the confidence of the electors I shall endeavor to serve the Ward to the best of my ability, distributing all public moneys and making all appointments without regard to party lines. I also pledge myself, if elected, to oppose all unnecessary expenditure. I am entirely opposed to the new Road Act, believing that a law which would tax the ratepayers of this county from $6000 to $12,000 yearly, and then deprive the people who pay this tax of direct control over its expenditure, is unjust to the taxpayer, unsuited to the times, and a direct violation of the principles of responsible self-government.

Soliciting your support on the 15th inst., I remain, your obedient servant,

N. F. MARSHALL.

To the Electors of Ward 16.

GENTLEMEN,—Having been chosen by a regular convened meeting of the Electors of Ward 16, in the county of Annapolis, to represent you again in the municipal council, and having accepted of the nomination will endeavor, if elected, to serve the county and Ward 16 in particular to the best of my ability, and will here state that I am opposed to the proposed road tax being made law. Respectfully yours.

GEORGE HOLLAND.

To the Electors of Ward 11.

GENTLEMEN,—

Having been solicited by a large number of the electors of Ward No. 11 to again allow myself to be a candidate at the ensuing Municipal Election, I hereby accede to your request, and shall strive, if elected, to guard the best interests of our county.

I shall resist the adoption of the Road Act, to which I am strongly opposed.

Yours respectfully,

WESTON A. FOWLER.

To the Electors of Ward No. 4.

GENTLEMEN,—

At the request of many of the ratepayers in Ward 4, I have decided to comply with their wishes, and will, at the approaching Municipal Elections on the 15th of November next ensuing, ask the support of those who are desirous of seeing me returned as representative of the Ward. Should it be my good fortune to be returned, you may rest assured that I will do the utmost in my power for the best interests of all, and will use every effort to protect the people against all extravagant and unnecessary taxation, too much of which is now strikingly apparent.

Respectfully yours,

T. A. BALCOM
