IMPOSING ON A PASSENGER

J. Adam Bede, of Minnesota, the humorist of the House while he was in it, and whose humor still bubbles, despite the fact that he was elected to stay at home, tells the following on a friend of his who travels for a carpet firm:

"My friend," said Bede, "is of a saving disposition, and he recently had to make a longish jaunt with two trunks. Arriving at the station he approached a stranger standing on the platform and said: 'Are you going to Chicago on this train?'

"'I am.'

"'Have you any baggage?'

"'No.'

"'Well, friend, you can do me a favor and it won't cost you a cent. I've got two good-sized trunks here and they always make me pay excess for one. You can get one checked on your ticket and save me some money.'

"'Yes, but I haven't any ticket.'

"'But you said just now that you were going on this train.'

"'So I am. 'I'm the conductor.'—San Francisco Examiner.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THE etiquette of the acknowledgement of wedding invitations and announcements is a subject about which I am so often quizzed that I am going to try to blanket the whole subject with a few simple rules.

An invitation to a home wedding or wedding reception does not require an acknowledgement if you intend to be present. It is, however, a very kind and courteous thing to send an acceptance. If you do this, the acceptance should follow the general style of the invitation. That is, if the invitation is informal, the acceptance should be the same; if the invitation is the regulation third person formal affair, the acceptance should be formal as:

Mr and Mrs. So-and So accept with pleasure the kind invitation of
Mr. and Mrs. So-and-So to the wedding of their daughter
on Wednesday evening, Oct. 17, at seven o'clock.

If you do not intend to be present, send two visiting cards to the bride's parents, mailed so as to reach her home the morning of the wedding. The idea of the two cards is that one is for the bride, the other for her mother.

It is not necessary to acknowledge an invitation to a church wedding. But in this case also it is a mark of thoughtfulness and courtesy to go beyond the absolute requirements and send either a regret or acceptance.

An announcement of a wedding does not require any acknowledgement. If it is the first news you have had of the marriage, and either of the principals is an intimate friend, it is courteous to write him or her an informal note of congratulation.

"Do I need to send a wedding gift in such and such a case?" is one of the most frequent etiquette questions that my postman brings me. And I always find it a difficult matter upon which to give advice. You never NEED to send a wedding gift. It is simply a matter of your own discretion and desire and should be looked upon in that light much more than it is now.

It is not customary to send a gift in response to an invitation to a church wedding unless one of the principals is someone whom you know very well.

It is customary to send a gift in response to an invitation to a home wedding, but by no means obligatory. If you are but slightly acquainted with the principals do not feel that such an invitation imposes any obligation whatever.

When for any reason, a couple have a quiet family wedding without outside guests the close neighbors and intimate friends usually send gifts despite the fact that they were not invited to the wedding. Such gifts may be sent before the wedding or on receipt of the wedding announcement.

Wedding gifts may be sent any time from the three weeks before the great event to the wedding day itself, but kindliness and consideration for the bride will suggest sending the gift a few days before the event, as that will make less rush and confusion for her in the last day or two.

A wedding gift, even if it is sent by afriend of the groom who never even heard of the bride, should still be addressed to the woman in the case.

Daily Hints for the Cook

EGGLESS CAKE.

One cup maple syrup, half cup butter, one cup sour milk, one heaping teaspoon soda, quarter teaspoon salt, one cup raisins, little citron. Add a little of all kinds of spice according to your own taste. Don't get in too much. Flour to mix—about 2 1-2 cups.

DELICIOUS JUMBLE.

Two cups of sugar, one cup of butter, half cup of milk or cream, two eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Add the grated rind of a lemon, with flour enough to roll. One teaspoonful soda. Roll thin and bake quickly. If too rich for taste, take one cup of milk.

STUFFED DATES WITH WHIPPED CREAM.

Remove seeds from choice dates. Fill with English walnuts and press into original shape. Stew in a little hot water, adding sugar and lemon juice at the last. Whip a cup of double cream and a cup of milk with whip churn. Remove the froth, drain and serve with the dates around it.

COCOANUT CUSTARD PIE.

Scald one pint sweet milk and turn while hot on half cup cocoanut. Beat two eggs, two-thirds cup sugar and a little salt together. Add this to milk and cocoanut. Bake in a deep plate with under crust.

ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS

And Find Out if You Have Kidney Disorders. Also Make This Test:

Have you pains in the back over the kidneys?
Have you urinary disorders?
Do you suffer from severe headaches, dizziness or defective eyesight?
Is the skin dry and harsh?
Are you failing in health and strength and suffering from rheumatic pains or swelling of the limbs?

These are a few of the symptoms of kidney disease, and here is the test.

If the urine after standing for twenty-four hours is cloudy, milky or has particles floating about in it, or if there is a sediment in the bottom of the vessel, your kidneys are diseased.

There is no time to lose in beginning the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. Delay means the development of Bright's disease, and you do not want to take any chances with that. Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills will help you more quickly than any other medicine you can obtain, and that is one reason why they are so successful and popular.

Mr. W. H. Hodder, South Augusta, Grenville county, Ont., writes:—"I used Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills and firmly believe there is no medicine to equal them. I was troubled for years with kidney disease, and this treatment has cured me. When I began the use of these pills I could only walk from my bed to a chair. Now I can go to the field and work like any other man. Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills are an excellent medicine." This statement is certified to by the Rev. E. H. Emett, Baptist minister, of Brockville, Ont.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. The portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, are on every box. These are for your protection against imitations and substitutes.

ALL ADMIRE FINE PORTRAIT OF BISHOP

A very large number of people thronged the Keith assembly rooms last night at the Cathedral high tea. Upwards of 500 suppers were served. The rooms have been handsomely decorated, and the ladies in charge are receiving much praise for their efforts to please the eye in this manner.

Joseph Nicholls last night won the beanboard contest on the men's board and Miss Gallagher on the ladies.'

The magnificent portrait in oils, of His Lordship Bishop Casey, before referred to, was viewed with admiration and all evening deeply interested groups stood before it noting the wonderful work of the artist. The painting has been described as the finest example of modern art on the continent of America. It was a revelation to all and will easily prove the chief attraction of the high tea.

The City Cornet Band will provide a musical programme this evening.

A Skin of Beauty Is a Joy Forever.

DR. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier.

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth Patches, Rash, and Skin Diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and defies detection. It has stood the test of 62 years, and is so harmless we taste it to be sure it is properly made. Accept no counterfeit of similar name. Dr. L. A. Sayre said to a lady of the haut ton (a patient): "As you ladies will use them, I recommend 'Gouraud's Cream' as the least harmful of all the skin preparations." For sale by all druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers in the United States, Canada and Europe.

REPLY OF A SOCIALIST

Editor Times:

Sir:—Evidently John Armstrong's knowlege of Socialism is rather limited or he would not claim that a man cannot be a Socialist and a Christian. Perhaps his knowledge of Christianity is also limited.

Socialism, as Mr. McCaskill pointed out last evening, is a science of economics, and has no more quarrel with Christianity than science has.

Many intelligent clergymen claim that Socialism is an ethical movement, and that Christ was the first great Socialist. Be that as it may, it is worthy of note that Christ's most immediate disciples started a communist movement, and apparently looked forward to the establishment of the Kingdom of God, the reign of brotherhood on earth. This movement, necessarily revolutionary in character, spread rapidly among the slaves and workers. By the time of the Emperor Constantine it had become a menace to the established order. That gentleman had a vision—probably of the same kind as that of Divine Ribht Baer—and Christianity was perverted to the uses of the state—made an instrument of class domination. Pungent, vivacious, intelligences began to teach that men must look for relief from trouble, for the rewards of patient labor and suffering in a heavenly hereafter. The teachings of Christ were put in the background; the dogmas of Paul were exalted, and ere long Christianity came to mean withdrawal from the world, and we have the eras of monasteries, associations, self-torture, and torture of one another in the name of Christ.

The church controlled by the classes thus came to preach a gospel of the blessed dead.

But Christ said, "I came to bring life." And life, according to Dr. Drummond's national law in the spiritual world, is adaptation to environment. Christ very clearly pointed out the evils of class domination in His time, and the need of a reorganization of the economic system upon the principle of brotherhood. He condemned the system of production for profit, and the instution of interests. Socialists are not floored by Christ's saying, "That the poor ye have with you always." If He was speaking to His disciples, he probably knew that the right of brotherhood would not be established in their time. But it is not clear from the Gospel of St. Luke that He wasn't talking to the money changers—the generation of vipers—a word which some scholars tell us would be more correctly translated profit-mongers or interest takers.

Certainly if Christ's commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves meant anything, He did not contemplate a state of society where there would be any people poor in material things, as compared with others. One could not possess wealth while his neighbor lacked necessaries, and love his fellows as himself.

As to the Pope condemning Socialists. Some years ago the Catholic priests took a very active interest in the Socialist movement in France. Then came the trouble between the French government and the Catholic church, and the Socialists ranged themselves against the church. That was no doubt the reason the Pope felt called upon to condemn the Socialists in Europe.

C. McKAY.

(Having in an evil moment decided to publish Mr. Armstrong's letter, the Times today gives Mr. McKay space for a reply. No doubt each writer is profoundly convinced that the other is entirely wrong. The controversy might go on forever, but so far as the Times is concerned it ends right here.—Editor Times.)

NEW ONE ON HIM.

Visitor (at public library) —I suppose that when some sensational novel happens to make a hit you have calls for it ad nauseam?

Attendant Ad what? O, yes. I think I remember. We've had one or two calls for it, but it's rather commonplace, don't you think?—Chicago Tribune.

MAYOR NATHAN'S LETTER TO MONTREAL MAYOR

Montreal, Nov. 21—(Special)—Mayor Nathan of Rome has replied to Mayor Guerin of Montreal, acknowledging the vote of censure passed upon him by the city council, and incidentally heaping satire upon the Montreal aldermen in connection with his letter to the Pope.

The mayor of the eternal city opens by ironically apologizing for his previous idea that the Montreal council would investigate before passing condemnatory vote, and goes on:—"They (the Montreal council), stand alone in over-stepping the bounds of their civic mission and boldly bestowing their words of praise or blame without regard to international law and customs to functionaries with whom they have nothing whatever to do, and who are evidently and utterly indifferent to their grotesque and meddlesome utterances. I can only hope that such exceptional conduct will meet with its merited reward, and be recorded in your civic annals as an unexampled instance of judgment passed by a self-erected tribunal in default of knowledge, right or common sense."

Mayor Nathan's letter was received today, but was not presented at the meeting of the council. It is not expected that it will meet with much consideration when it gets beyond the table stage.

A PLEASANT VISIT

Last evening the members of the Ludlow street Baptist Young People's Society paid a fraternal visit to the Charlotte street Baptist Young People's Society, and the vestry of the latter church was well filled with the joint societies. President Howard of the Charlotte society, was in the chair and Mrs. Norman P. McLeod acted as pianist. Addresses were given by Rev. W. R. Robinson and D. C. Clark, solos were sung by William Langan and Miss Gregory and a reading was given by Miss Coles. At the close refreshments, were served by the Charlotte street society and they were invited to pay a return visit in December to the Ludlow street society.

TO many women the most puzzling problem that Christmas brings is, "What shall I get him?"

The list of possibilities seems surprisingly small, and as you run over them, and over them again, nothing seems to quite suit. It is so much harder to buy for a man than for a woman.

Wait a minute!

Have you thought of the Gillette Safety Razor?

That's a gift worth while.

A Gillette, whether Standard Set, Pocket Edition or Combination Set, in gold or silver plate or gun metal finish, looks good—and is good. To the man who has used the open-blade razor or a make-shift safety, the Gillette is a revelation of comfort and convenience.

"But," you object, "he always goes to the barber."

Does he? Then he wastes a week's time or more every year, to say nothing of money. The Gillette will give him a clean, comfortable shave in three minutes, every morning in the year.

You see the Gillette habit is well worth encouraging.

Your hardware dealer, druggist or jeweler can show you a splendid selection of Gillettes.

Standard Sets, $5. Pocket Editions, $5. to $6.
Combination Sets from $6.50 up.
