THE CZARINA RECOVERED.

London, Feb. 2.—A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from St. Petersburg announces the complete recovery of the Czarina from her delicate condition.

HIGH-PRICED PICTURES.

Paris, Feb. 2.—At the auction yesterday of Henry Velr's collection of pictures, Daubigny's "Bords De Oise," was bought by an American for $15,600, the highest price ever paid for any of Daubigny's paintings. Messionier's "Staff Officer" sold for $19,000.

TO OUTDO FRANCE.

Berlin, Feb. 2.—Germany is paying Count Muravieff, Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, a great deal of attention in the hope of offsetting the effect produced by the warmth of the reception he received in France.

ITALY TO RETAIN KASSALA.

London, Feb. 2.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily News says that as a result of the negotiations with England for the cession of Italian possessions in Northeastern Africa to Egypt, it has been agreed that Italy is to temporarily retain Kassala.

SIR DONALD SMITH.

London, Feb. 1.—Sir Donald A. Smith has rented for six months the furnished West End mansion in 25 Cadogan Square, preferring that to the High Commissioner's official residence in Cromwell road. He has for neighbors on the square Lord James, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Lord Elcho and many other notables.

FOR HUMANITY'S SAKE.

London, Feb. 2.—A parcel containing a massive gold necklace, a magnificent diamond and a pearl brooch was left with the doorkeeper of the Salvation Army headquarters in Edgware road, with the following note:

"From an anonymous friend, to help in placing a jewel in the Savior's crown."

DUCHESS OF MONTPENSIER DEAD

Seville, Feb. 2.—The Duchess of Montpensier, aunt of the late King of Spain, and mother of the Countess of Paris, is dead. She was the second daughter of King Fernando VII. of Spain, and was married Oct. 10, 1846, to Prince Antoine of Orleans, Duke of Montpensier, sixth son of King Louis Philippe of France.

EARL COWLEY'S CONFESSION.

London, Feb. 2.—The trial of the action for divorce brought by Countess Cowley against her husband, Earl Cowley, was resumed. Evidence was given, which proved by the admissions of the earl himself that he had visited Brighton with a woman who passed as his wife.

London, Feb. 2.—Countess Cowley today was granted a decree of divorce from her husband on the grounds of desertion and adultery.

THE WEST INDIES CABLE.

London, Feb. 2.—Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, in House of Commons yesterday, replying to a question relative to the construction of a cable, under British control, to the West Indies, said that negotiations on the subject were proceeding. He was unable to say when it would be completed, and he admitted that he was aware that a French-American company has recently laid a cable which would compete with the proposed British cable.

CANADIAN SYMPATHY APPRECIATED.

London, Feb. 2.—The success of the famine fund in Canada for the relief of India is creating much favorable comment throughout the country. On the Stock Exchange, in the clubs, and in all public places, appreciation of the Canadians' generosity is in evidence. In several of the city churches Sunday Canadians' lead in the famine fund was touchingly referred to.

FULAHS PUT TO FLIGHT.

London, Feb. 2.—A dispatch from Egbom, in the heart of the Niger region, says that the column of the Royal Niger Company's expedition against the Emir of Nupe, arrived in good order after a seventeen days' march of 200 miles. The power of the Fulahs in the regions of the South Niger River has been utterly destroyed. The flotilla and a detachment accompanying the expedition surprised and destroyed the southern Fulah capital of Ladi. Twelve hundred slaves were rescued.

THE FRENCH GRAIN CROP.

Paris, Feb. 2.—According to the official report just issued the area of growing grain, compared with 1895, in two departments, shows an increase of from 1 to 5 percent; in nine departments the area is equal to that of 1895, in sixteen departments it is from 1 to 5 per cent less, in twenty departments it is from 6 per cent to 10 per cent less, in 21 departments it is from 11 to 20 per cent less, and in eighteen departments the area of growing grain is over 20 per cent less, when compared with 1895.

A HARD-FOUGHT FIGHT.

London, Feb. 2.—The fight in Forfarshire has been a remarkable one, and the excitement has been intense since Capt. Sinclair's arrival from Canada. A snow storm prevailed all day long on Saturday, and the drifts were deep, but the enthusiasm of the voters was not influenced by the weather. Many of them tramped many miles through the snow, and voters came all the way from Cumberland and London, and even from Ireland. Bands of ploughmen and bleachers marched in procession to the polling booths. Lord Haddo actively canvassed in the interests of Capt. Sinclair.

REASON OF THE MASSACRE.

London, Feb. 2.—A dispatch from Brass, West Africa, says it has been learned that the recent massacre by the King of Benin of the British expedition under Consul-General J. R. Phillips, was owing to the fact that the king was performing a ceremony involving the annual butchery of slaves, and that he did not want any white men present at the time. On this account Consul-General Phillips and the officers accompanying him were slaughtered without mercy. This annual killing of the slaves is a custom which has prevailed for many years in Benin city.

A FEARFUL SITUATION.

Bombay, Feb. 2.—Two more Europeans have died in the hospital here from the plague. The position of things is still fearful in the extreme. Two convicts died of the plague in the house of correction, and a number of other convicts have been attacked by the malady. The significance of this arises out of the fact that the house of correction was planned and laid out upon the most approved sanitary principles, and yet the plague made its way within its walls. The medical deputation from Egypt, which has been here a little time, visited the jail, where a number of convicts were inoculated with specially prepared prophylactic vaccine by Prof. Hagfkine. Members of the police force are suffering severely. The position of Karachi is a most critical, and a perfect panic prevails in several other towns.

THE EDUCATION BILL.

London, Feb. 2.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Chamberlain said that the question of an imperial conference to continue the work of the Ottawa conference, to take place when the colonial Premiers came to London to be present at the Queen's jubilee next June, was under consideration.

Right Hon. Arthur J. Balfour introduced the Education Bill mentioned in the Queen's speech, as "a measure for the promotion of primary education by securing the maintenance of voluntary schools." The bill, he said, was limited to a single measure, relative to voluntary schools. The scheme formulated in 1896 had collapsed, because it was too comprehensive. Reform in education must be dealt with piecemeal, and it was now proposed that the state grant to voluntary schools 5 shillings per child, which, in the aggregate, would amount to £616,500 annually.

Arthur H. D. Acland (Liberal) moved the rejection of the bill, chiefly, he said, on the ground that the measure did not promise any aid to necessitous board schools.

CABLE NOTES.

Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick's condition is steadily but satisfactorily improving.

News from Herak says that ten Christians were murdered Thursday while outside the gates of the city, and that the villages of Christians are being plundered by the Mussulmans.

It is stated on good authority that in Vatican circles it is regarded as probable that Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, will be created a cardinal by the Pope.

Lord Salisbury has accepted an invitation to be present at the dinner when United States Ambassador Bayard and Mrs. Bayard will give in honor of the Prince of Wales on Wednesday, Feb. 3.

The official weekly bulletin regarding the situation in India shows that light rains have been general throughout the provinces, Bombay and Madras alone excepted. Spring crops have improved. Prices for all products are slightly lower.

Matter for Regret.

The Possible Failure of the Peace Treaty.

Caustic Comment of the Course of United States Senators.

London, Feb. 3.—The Westminster Gazette, commenting upon the delay in the passage of the arbitration treaty through the United States Senate, remarks: "The jingoes and silverites of both parties will not have even a symbolic act of peace with Great Britain. If there is any doubt of its passing, we frankly hope the treaty will be withdrawn. Great and striking as would have been its ratification, as a contribution to the cause of peace, its proposed rejection would certainly be a correspondingly serious set-back."

The St. James' Gazette, commenting upon the probability of President Cleveland dropping the treaty, says: "Should, however, President Cleveland or his successor ask us to accept an amended treaty it would be just as well to do so, and thereby again show how much we wish to keep on friendly terms with the United States. In the meanwhile, what a lesson the whole story gives as to the value of the great principle of arbitration between the two states more closely related in language and blood than any others in the world. They are without a real cause for quarrel, yet they cannot even agree to arbitrate without elaborate provisions which exclude everything of the least genuine importance."

The Paris Gaulois attributes the hanging up of the treaty of arbitration arranged between Great Britain and the United States to Secretary Olney's unpopularity with the Senate, and to the desire of the Republicans not to allow President Cleveland the honor of signing such an important document.

The London Globe says: "Here, in England, we are loth to rid ourselves of old-time delusions, and that is undoubtedly why we still cling to the idea that the people of the United States are our American cousins. This tradition, of course, was fostered by the fact that they speak English more or less, and that those seen most here, Lincoln, Phelps, and Bayard, care to all intents and purposes Englishmen. Considering how tender we always are with the United States, and how anxious we are to share their feelings in every way, we periodically wonder why they in return are so discourteous and malevolent to us. The fact of course is that the people of the United States are a very mixed race, and are no more related to us as a whole than to Germany."

Marine Disasters.

Fatal Explosion on Board an Oil Steamer.

The Gardenia Lost in the Ice — The Georgia Still Missing.

London, Feb. 2.—The German steamer Persia, from New York, Jan. 16, reported arrived at Hamburg, Jan. 29, is ashore in the River Elbe.

London, Feb. 2.—While the petroleum steamer Loyota, from Philadelphia, was discharging at Passages, three miles east of San Sebastian, an explosion occurred on board of her. One man was killed and several were injured. The vessel was so badly damaged that she sank.

London, Feb. 2.—Advices received at Lloyds show that the British steamer Gardenia (Capt. Rutherford), from Stettin, Jan. 27, for New York, has apparently been lost in the ice off Greifswala, Prussia, near the mouth of the River Ryck. The Gardenia was a vessel of 1,205 tons net burden.

St. John, N. B., Feb. 2.—The steamship State of Georgia has now been out 90 days, and few have any hope that she is still afloat.

Halifax, Feb. 2.—The Gloucester fishing schooner Maggie and Lilly, struck a rock off Shelburne Sunday night and foundered. The crew took to their boats and succeeded in reaching the shore. Everything was lost.

A REIGN OF TERROR

Prevailing Among the Entourage of the Sultan.

Marseilles, Feb. 2.—Tewfik Pasha, until recently Turkish Minister for Foreign Affairs, has arrived here. He states that a reign of terror prevails among the entourage of the Sultan. He is fearful as to the fate of his family, which he was compelled to leave behind him at Constantinople, under the protection of the foreign embassies.

Arrested at Last.

Butler, the Australian Multi-Murderer, Captured

On Board Ship, at San Francisco—After Being Followed for Thousands of Miles.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 2.—The bark Swanhilda, having on board the Australian murderer, Butler, arrived this morning from Newcastle. The police and detectives, after three weeks' vigil, boarded the vessel as she entered the harbor and captured Butler.

British detectives have been trailing Butler for thousands of miles. He is wanted for a long series of murders committed in Australia upon luckless colonists, whom he supposed to have money.

He was another Birchall, except that his crimes outnumbered greatly those of the arch-fiend of Canadian criminal annals.

Even more dastardly than that of H. H. Holmes, the slayer of Pietzel, and many other, does Butler appear from the meager accounts that have reached this country concerning his atrocious crimes. It was only by accident that some of his victims were unearthed. When he took passage on the ship Swanhilda, his deeds were not known, but suspected. He had the audacity to ship under the name of one of his victims, whom he compelled to dig his own grave.

Butler will be taken back to Australia in irons, there to await trial for murder.

A Set-Back.

Look as if the Peace Treaty Will Suffer One.

The U. S. Senate Amendments Objectionable to Both Governments.

New York, Feb. 2.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

"The Anglo-American arbitration treaty, as amended by the Senate committee on foreign relations, is highly objectionable to the Administration.

"If the treaty, in its present amended shape, is ratified by the Senate, it will not be proclaimed during the present Administration here or during Lord Salisbury's incumbency of office in England.

"The amendments will be opposed by the Administration, not only because they destroy the vital parts of the proposed treaty, but because the State Department is morally certain that if the treaty goes to Great Britain in the present amended form it will be 'turned down,' and a long time may elapse before the United States will ever again have the opportunity of securing peace on such easy terms.

"It is not definitely known whether Secretary Olney and Sir Julian Pauncefote have conferred regarding the committee amendments, but your correspondent has positive knowledge that the Administration officials have abandoned all hope of the acceptance of the treaty by Great Britain, if ratified in its amended form.

"Your correspondent has also learned of another important amendment to the treaty that did not leak out until Sunday morning. The whole of article seven was stricken out, which has the effect of still further limiting the operations of the treaty."
