Hamilton's Good List of Entries.

HAMILTON, March 5.—Excellent entries have been made for the six Hamilton Jockey Club events which closed on March 1. Besides the well-known stables of W. Hendrie, J. E. Seagram, John Dyment, Robert Davies, J. F. Dawes and others, there are two or three new stables represented. Among the new stables are the Brookdale Stables of Barrie, owned by John Dyment's uncle, and Adam Beck's of London. The Knowsley Plate for 1894 has 12 entries, and for 1895 19 entries. The Prince of Wales Plate for 1894 has 16 entries, and for 1895 18 entries. There are 26 entries in the Wentworth plate, 1894, for 3-year-olds. With horses like Edith, Lotus, full brother to Leonawell, Major General, Blue Garter, Penniless, Come Home and Kazan entered, this should be a great race. The Wentworth plate, 1895, has 17 entries.

Wing Shooters Out in Force.

Had a tournament been in progress the Woodbine could not have presented a more lively appearance than that of Saturday, when a large number of wing shots gathered at the park to take part in the various pigeon, sparrow and blue rock matches which comprised the afternoon's program. The Granite members were out in full force, and had the satisfaction of shooting at as fine a lot of pigeons as ever left the traps. Members of every other gun club in the city were present, and a great many shot in the open matches of the H. P. Davies Co., which were conducted by W. McDowall. The ground, of course, was rather damp, but in other respects the day was perfect for shooting. The beautiful spring weather made everyone feel young again, and all returned home voting they had had a good day's sport.

Basket Ball in the West End.

An athletic vocal and instrumental concert last night in the West End Y.M.C.A., under the direction of Instructor Donald Barton was a most enjoyable affair. There was club swinging, horizontal bar performance and general gymnastics by the clever athletes of the Y.M.C.A., besides piano, violin and banjo solos and numerous songs. At the close an exciting basket ball match resulted in favor of the West End over the Central Y.M.C.A. team by 2 goals to 0.

CANDIDATES FOR T.B.C. OFFICERS.

A Big Grist to Select From at the Annual Meeting—First and Second Lieutenants Elected by Acclamation.

There is a big grist of candidates for Toronto Bicycle Club officers. The nominations were made at the general meeting last night, President Ryckman in the chair and about 75 members present. Hamilton asked for two delegates to their bicycle dinner to-morrow. Messrs. J. Senkler and W. Robins with J. Milo spare man were selected. The C.W.A. delegates will be chosen next Monday, when selections will be made from the following, after which the club's old gymnasium goods will be auctioned off:

Want the Scullers to Visit America.

Hanlan cabled Sullivan and Harding last night that he had no desire to row, but if they will agree to row for $25,000 a side he will allow each man a thousand dollars to come to America and will guarantee not only the double scull race but two single contests, each man to be accommodated. Gaudaur is in accord with what Hanlan says and expresses his opinion that the Englishmen should, as they are the challengers and he and his partner are willing to do more than any other two men.

Aquatic Echoes.

Charles Richard Harding, the English sculler who will partner Sullivan in their proposed race with the Canadians and who defeated George Bubear of Hammersmith in a race over the Thames championship course on Feb. 5 for stakes of £100 a side, is in the very best of health, and has been engaged to train John Gibson for his forthcoming match on the Thames against Jacob Tyrrell. He has also been again engaged as trainer to the Buda Pesth Amateur Rowing Club, the engagement to begin in the early part of April next.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Toronto Skiff Sailing Club will be held to-night in the club rooms, foot of Sherbourne-street.

Changes in the Game Law.

Hon. Mr. Gibson yesterday laid before the House the report of the Fish and Game Commissioners. The latter report the law working fairly well. The province is divided into four districts, with a warden each and 413 deputies. They recommend the appointment of two more wardens; that the period of protection for snipe, woodcock, partridge and quail be extended from Sept. 15 next to Sept. 15, 1897; that non-residents may obtain licenses to hunt deer and take from the province not more than two carcasses; no dogs to be allowed after Oct. 31, and report partridge more plentiful. This is attributed to the working of the law's restrictions.

Sporting Specialties.

The return ten-pin bowling match between Athenæum and Toronto Athletic Clubs will take place in Church-street next Tuesday.

Ed. Williamson, the once famous shortstop of the Chicago Baseball Club, died at Willow Springs, Ark., Saturday night.

Edward Swartwood, the veteran baseball player, and formerly of Hamilton, Ont., has received word he has been appointed an umpire on the National League staff.

The O.J.C.'s spring program has just been published in neat pamphlet form, which gives besides much valuable information and a memorandum for owners in regard to races closing, when the weights are announced and the declarations are due.

A cable from London says that Alcock, the cricketer who arranged the fixtures for the Philadelphia team in that country, says that he knows nothing about the report that the American cricketers intend to abandon their tour.

A despatch from Baltimore says that the story published to the effect that Jake Kilrain, the well-known pugilist, is dying is without foundation. He was in the street this morning and says that he is in good condition.

A San Francisco despatch says that George Helm has broken the world's record at the shooting festival at Shell Mound Park, making a possible 75, three bull's eyes in succession. Up to this shoot the championship belonged to anybody, with odds in favor of F. O. Young. The target is the Mid-Winter Fair target, with a bull's eye just the size of a silver dollar, at a range of 200 yards.

Australian cyclists are mourning the loss of one of their best men, William Satchell. He plunged into the water after a young woman who had thrown herself from Melbourne Pier and both were drowned. He was 23, and had been a cyclist for nine years, being a well-known racing man in the ordinary days, and winner of the "obstacle" race at the last Austral meeting.

Norway Pine Syrup cures Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Sore Throat and diseases of the throat and lungs. Price 25 and 50 cents.

The Lieutenant-Governor a Forester.

Yesterday morning a large number of the most prominent members of the Independent Order Foresters, at whose head was Dr. Oronhyatekha, the Supreme Chief Ranger, gathered at the Government House and obligated His Honor Lieut.-Governor Kirkpatrick. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Oronhyatekha, who in an eloquent speech welcomed the distinguished gentleman into the order. His Honor made a suitable reply, at the same time commending to the concert to be given by the order in aid of the unemployed to be under his and Lady Kirkpatrick's patronage. Among those present were John A. McGillivray, S.S.; Dr. Millman, S.P.; Rev. Alex. McGillivray, H.C.R.; Dr. McConnell, H. A. Collins, D. E. Cameron, W. T. R. Preston, Joseph Tait, M.L.A.; C. C. Whale, K. Murdoch, A. McCall, Daniel Rose, Dr. Rose, W. Hetherington, D. A. Rose, C. C. Baird of Hamilton and Postmaster Hill of Brockton.

A Retreat for Drunkards.

Dr. Ryerson gave notice in the Legislature yesterday of a bill to provide for a provincial retreat for habitual drunkards, whose cases in this city shall be determined by a commission composed of the Mayor, the Police Magistrate and a physician. This retreat shall not be open to patients able to pay their way, for whose benefit two institutions now exist.

The doctor considers habitual drunkenness a disease, and thinks that it can be cured.

Died a Natural Death.

An inquest was held at Sheehan's Hotel, Mimico, last night to ascertain the cause of the death of the infant child of Mrs. Greenside. The investigation showed the death to be due to collapse of the lungs.

The Young Tories.

The Young Conservatives met last night and discussed the question of revising their constitution, but no action was taken. The club went into parliamentary form and the Cook ministry resigned. W. D. Macpherson occupied the chair.

Young Liberals Discuss Cumulative Voting

Cumulative voting was the principal theme of discussion with the Young Liberals last night. The debate was adjourned for one week. The concert for the benefit of the unemployed will be held in the Pavilion on March 15.

Will Not Sing Anthems.

The session of the West Presbyterian Church announce that out of a small vote on the question of anthem singing a majority of 15 was against the innovation.

AT THE THEATRES.

The Ridiculously Funny Three-Act Comedy "Incog" at the Grand.

The Grand was only half filled last night, when Mrs. R. Pacheco's three-act comedy "Incog" was first presented in this city. The plot is scarcely new, although more complicated than "Jane," "Lend Me Your Wife," etc., but of the same order. Two brothers named Winters, who look alike, mix matters, and when Charles Dickson as the hero, Tom Stanhope, puts on a blonde wig and whiskers to imitate the pair, the situation is indeed inexplicable. Each of the two has a wife or lady love and thus 18 combinations are located, causing many ridiculously funny situations. The third scene happily is placed in a lunatic asylum when the apparently inextricable plot is unravelled and everything ends satisfactorily. The cast is well balanced although mediocre. The piece is preceded by a rather clever one-act dramatic comedy as a curtain raiser that produces much merriment.

Charity Concert Committee.

The adjourned meeting of the committee appointed by the Executive Council of the Independent Order of Foresters to arrange for a charity concert was held on Saturday morning in the supreme offices, at the corner of King and Yonge-streets. The sub-committee to whom the engaging of talent was relegated reported as having arranged for the following to take part: Mrs. M. Custer-Calhoun of New York, sister of the late General Custer, one of America's best elocutionists; Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Miss Irene Gurney, Mr. D. E. Cameron, Alec Gorrie, Harry Rich, Mr. Barton, and Mr. Hewlett. With such an array of talent the concert is an assured success, especially when the object is such a laudable one, the gross proceeds going to the unemployed of our city. The I.O.F., which is essentially a fraternal society, is meeting all the expenses of this concert, so that every cent received for admission goes to the fund of the unemployed, thus illustrating the true principles of the brotherhood of man. The Decorating Committee reported progress as well as the Ticket Committee, and it is anticipated that the Pavilion will be filled on the evening of the 15th. Among those present at the meeting were Dr. Oronhyatekha, John A. McGillivray, Dr. Millman, Daniel Rose, K. Murdock, D. E. Cameron, D. A. Rose, W. Hetherington, A. Milne, W. Green, A. McCall and G. L. Wilson.

The Kleiser Recitals.

Grenville P. Kleiser has had a most remarkable season's engagements, having read four and five nights each week throughout the amusement season, besides filling his duties at the College of Music as principal of the Elocution School. On March 26 Mr. Kleiser will commence his third annual tour to the Pacific Coast, reading for 40 consecutive nights and ending at Portland, Oregon. Mr. Kleiser's tour is under the exclusive management of Mr. E. G. M. Shipman, the energetic young Canadian manager, who is now en route to the coast closing out the remaining contracts. Mr. Kleiser has fast won an enviable reputation as an artistic elocutionist, and it may be expected that his fame will now increase across the other side of the line.

"The Vendetta" at the Academy.

"Fabio Romani," which opened three nights' engagement at the Academy of Music last night, is a play taken from the late Cardinal Newman's novel of the same name. The piece is made up of five acts, is well constructed, and with the scenery seen last night makes an excellent appearance. Mr. Aiden Benedict, who appears in the dual roles of Fabio Romani and Count Olive, did some very good acting, besides possessing a good appearance. Miss Frances Field did very well in the role of Nina, upon whose conduct the plot turns. Miss Hunter gave a mediocre exhibition of Spanish dancing. "Fabio Romani" will be repeated to-night and to-morrow night, with a matinee to-morrow afternoon.

Rev. Dr. Willits' Lecture.

The sixth and concluding number of Kleiser's Star course fully atoned for the failure of the preceding number. The subject chosen for by the lecturer, Rev. A. A. Willits, D.D., of Dayton, Ohio, was "Sunshine, or the Secret of a Happy Life," and he handled his subject in a most satisfactory manner. His delivery is fluent and distinct, and he has a style in relating anecdotes which is peculiarly his own. He went over his subject in a most comprehensive manner, and told of the different varieties of grumblers that infest the country. The audience was large and appreciative.

It Was a Tornado.

Lincoln J. Carter's scenic play, "The Tornado," was presented before a well-filled house at Jacobs & Sparrow's last night. The piece abounds in thrilling scenes, which are graphically portrayed. The tornado was very vivid, and many of the more timid were fearful lest they should be blown away. The cast includes several clever people who were quite capable of sustaining the plot.

The Musee.

In the lecture hall of the Musee this week are three excellent attractions—Prof. Horn's trained birds, Weller, the one man band, and Me and Him. The vaudeville performance, with the exception of the brilliant work of Musical Dale and the contortions of the three Droles, is much below the average.

Notes.

On Thursday night the well-known comedian, Ezra Kendall, will begin a three-nights' engagement at the Grand in his new comedy success, "The Substitute," supported by a splendid company of players. In the cast is Mr. Henry Jardine-Thomson of Toronto, son of the late Mr. James Jardine, who will make his first appearance professionally in his native city. In honor of this event his numerous friends have resolved to tender him a testimonial reception on Thursday evening, upon which occasion the charming vocalist, Miss Jardine-Thomson, sister of the actor, will, by special request, sing in the second act of the play.

On Thursday evening Barlow Bros.' Minstrels will commence a three-days' engagement at the Academy. They present an entertainment not less brilliant than that which has so frequently delighted the metropolis with its completeness. For years they have enjoyed the enviable distinction of being among the best, and their hold on public esteem and confidence was never stronger than at the present time.

So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen, that often in a few weeks a simple cough culminates in tubercular consumption. Give heed to a cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and cure yourself. It is a medicine unsurpassed for all throat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as exerting a wonderful influence in curing consumption and all lung diseases.

Personal.

Bishop Dowling of Hamilton is confined to his house as the result of injuries sustained by being thrown from his cutter a few days ago.

It is understood that the vacant position of stamp distributor at Osgoode Hall will be filled by the appointment of Mr. S. T. Bastedo, presently private secretary to Sir Oliver Mowat.

The death occurred at Riverside, Cal., on Friday of Percy Morris, formerly of this city, but later in the employ of the Imperial Bank at Edmonton. A couple of months ago his mother, who still resides in Toronto, took him to the coast in the hope that the milder climate might prove beneficial.

The death is announced at Victoria, B.C., of Mrs. Allan Francis, relict of the late Hon. Allan Francis, for half a century a member of the United States Consular Service, and who died suddenly in St. Thomas, Ont., in 1887. Mrs. Francis was 86 years of age.

Rev. Dr. Rand, Chancellor of McMaster University, was taken suddenly ill with an affection of the heart on Friday evening and on Saturday was thought to be dying as he lay in a comatose condition for two hours. His condition was somewhat improved yesterday and hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Rev. J. A. Dunlop, pastor of the Lutheran Church, Vaughan, gives an interesting reminiscence of Gen. Early, who died a few days ago. Mr. Dunlop served throughout the War of the Rebellion, and was in York, Pa., when Gen. Early seized that place and levied on it for $25,000. During the day Gen. Early took up his position very close to the window of the room in which Mr. Dunlop was concealed. The general sat only a few yards from the window, and three times Dunlop raised his revolver, intending to rob the Confederate army of one of its officers, but each time his friends dissuaded him, pointing out that it meant capture and death to himself, for the town swarmed with 20,000 Southerners. And so Gen. Early escaped death.

Don't Wish Exemptions Abolished.

Rev. Dr. Parker, Rev. Dr. Dewart, J. J. McLaren, Q.C., and others yesterday mornings and Rev. Septimus Jones, Rev. Dr. Langtry and several other Anglican clergymen yesterday afternoon arranged for an interview with the Government next Friday, when they will present their objections to Dr. Ryerson's bill to tax church buildings.

MAGNIFICENT Selling Success

AGAIN THE JAMES EATON STORE AT 88 YONGE-ST. CROWDED ALL DAY LONG YESTERDAY. IT'S WONDERFUL THE PILES OF GOODS, ALL NEW, THAT ARE BEING TURNED INTO MONEY AT AWAY BELOW REGULAR PRICES.

Architect is now drawing plans. Bricks, mortar and dust must soon fly. Cables, telegraphs, telephones and letters are being hourly put into force reordering brand new goods in immense quantities for our big store, and until then we're going to hold the

Grandest Sale in The Universe

We've had many sales, but this one is going to be the greatest that this management ever attempted. We want a good many thousand dollars to make improvements, and we shall not stop to think of profit. Can you match these bargains in this country?

2 bales 7c Factory Cotton 5c yard.

Double-fold two-toned Dress Goods, regular price 30c, imported to sell at 30c; enlarging price makes it only 15c yard; will be all gone in less than 20 hours.

Double-fold Black Serges at 15c; no reason why they should not be 30c.

Colored Henrietta, 48 inches wide, 20c yard; 'twould be a shame to sell these even at 28c if we weren't wanting the money.

Heavy Tweed Dress Goods, grey, only wholesale cost, but we got it cheap, so shall you--20c.

All-wool Costume Serge, all shades, 24c yard; ought to be 50c.

Fancy Colored Sateens 8c yd., worth 15c.

Heavy Cambric Prints 6 1-2c; thousands of yards of this line have been sold at 10c, but "Cheap, Cheap, Cheap," is our motto; enlarging price 6 1-2c.

10x4 Honeycomb Quilts 75c; down from $1.
