Immediately after her acquittal the woman was re-arrested, charged with interfering with mails, and will be tried again.

A coroner's jury at St. Louis, after spending several days investigating the death of John Allen, of the football team of the Christian Brothers' College, in a game with the St. Louis University eleven, returned the following verdict: "We, the jury, find that the game was played strictly according to Rugby rules, but we believe the game is dangerous, and should be prohibited. Verdict, accidental."

It is just now a question whether Aguinaldo has captured a couple of missing United States Generals or whether the Generals have captured him. For the present the whole trio have disappeared into the mountains, their exact whereabouts, or the fate that has befallen any of them, remaining a mystery which is puzzling the friends of Generals Lawton and Young. These two intrepid officers have followed the fleeing Aguinaldo into his fastnesses, in the hope of running him down. It is reported that the wily and resourceful Filipino leader eluded his pursuers by donning the garb of a peasant. Meanwhile news of the missing expedition is anxiously awaited.

The SS. Patria, from New York for Hamburg, was found to be on fire near Dover, and her passengers were taken off and landed at Dover. The boats were got out, and with great difficulty all the Patria's passengers, numbering 150, were transferred to the Russian steamer Ceres. The hurry of the rescue was indicated by the fact that most of them were enveloped in blankets only. They were rapidly distributed among the hotels or sent to the Sailors' Home and everything possible done for their comfort.

The Speaker prints a scathing denunciation of the Samoan agreement, declaring that Lord Salisbury has given Germany possession of the Pearl of the Pacific and the only possible naval base in the South Seas in an exchange of an acknowledgment by the Kaiser of the British British rights in Tonga and a peck of new troubles in the Solon Islands, adding: The loyal and generous colonies' interests were sacrificed for the sake of toadying to the Emperor, who only despises us for our servility.

A complete roster of the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the contingent now on its way to South Africa has never yet been published, a circumstance which has caused some surprise among military men and friends of those now on the Sardinian. It transpires that in the enlistment attending the departure of the contingent from Quebec two of the captains of companies inadvertently kept in their pockets the copies of the rosters of their companies. This mistake, quite excusible perhaps, under the circumstances, has prevented the publishing of the complete roster nor can it be given out until the missing rolls are returned from Cape Town.

For the present the controlling factor is the general indifference of markets abroad, which, in turn, are influenced by the full stocks. The comparatively small export shipment of wheat from Russia is a matter of criticism. The official crop estimates for 1898-99 was 427,000,000 bushels, and for last year 416,000,000 bushels. The surplus from these two crops, it is claimed, would be 320,000,000 bushels, whereas in fifteen months only 200,000,000 bushels have been shipped. The official crop estimates are not credited by English authorities (Beerbohm, etc.), and it is believed that there are better reserve stocks of wheat in Russia, than the past fifteen months' export shipments would indicate.

PIGG, HOG AND BACON MEET.

To the casual observer yesterday the register of the Savoy Hotel looked more like an inventory book of a packing house than a hotel register. Early yesterday morning a stranger entered the hotel and signed:

"J. R. Pigg, Windsor, Mo."

A few minutes later two men stepped up to the desk and signed just below Mr Pigg's signature:

"H. R. Hogg, Canton, Ohio," and "Brown Bacon, Chicago."

The three gentlemen who attached such strange names in juxtaposition were not acquainted with each other, but when the hotel clerk saw the strange signatures, the three gentlemen whose names attracted so much of notice were eagerly sought by the curious, and it was but a short time before Mr. Pigg, Hogg and Bacon were good friends.

Mr. Pigg said that he had nothing to do with any packing house, as he was a Government meat inspector of Windsor Mo. Mr Hogg said that he and Mr Bacon were travelling men.—Kansas City Journal.

FOR NINE YEARS—Mr. [illegible] Bryan, The Ilford, writes: "For nine years I suffered with dyspepsia and lung. I expended over $100 in physicians and tried every remedy I heard of or saw recommended for such disease, but could get no relief. I at last was recommended to give Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil a trial, which has resulted after using a few bottles (using it internally and externally), in a complete cure. I believe it is the best medicine in the world, and I will do all in my power to make known what it has done for me.
