UNDYING MEMORY.—How vividly did the bloom brance of my early days come stealing on my remembrance whilst lost on the mountains. I do not say stealing on memory, for it be distinction between memory and remembrance is great, the one far nobler than the other. Man ceases to remember; but in a moment when he is not aware, Memory asserts her undying character, and brings forth the good or evil of years gone by, unasked, and often unwished. The sinner sits at ease, cherishing every false way, but an avenger is within him, who starts forth with the voice of a lion and the grip of a bear, crying, "I am Memory: remember the sins of days long past!" It is as if poison were poured into the goblet, the cup falls from the conscience-palsied hand, the music ceases to breath thelofty, the brightest eyes look dim, ill gotten gains are loathed, and the soul cringes and shrinks, crying, "Hast thou found me, O mine enemy?" What would not the wicked give would they destroy memory? But it cannot be. Her greatest, grandest part is yet to be enacted. Deity, to whom be glory, will one day fire her like a train, and then she will light up the remembrance of all that is past,—the day of judgment, that, when "God shall bring every thought and every secret thing into judgment, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

FLORENCE, Sept. 25th.—When it became known here that Garibaldi had been arrested his partizans in this city were greatly exasperated, and appearing in the streets in crowds made a turbulent demonstration of sympathy for their leader. The manifestations finally developed into a riot, but the disturbances, though threatening, was suppressed by the Government. All the volunteers of Garibaldi, who had gathered at various points on the Roman frontier, have been compelled to disperse and retire by the Italian troops. King Victor Emmanuel has issued another proclamation, in which he says that the faith of the Government, pledged in its treaties with foreign powers, exacted of it the painful duty of arresting Garibaldi, the acknowledged leader of the movement, in direct violation of these treaties. It is said the Italian Government has offered to send Garibaldi to his home at Caprera, and relieve him of all constraint, if he will give his parole not to engage in further hostilities against the Roman States.

☞ 'Tite butes,' says Josh Billings, 'air luxury, inasmuch as they kause a feller to forget ayl his ether miseries.

TWO QUESTIONS EASILY ANSWERED.—Why should men wear beards? Because they are a great protection to the throat and lungs, and add much to their personal appearance.

Why should we use "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers?" Because when used for coughs, colds, tickling in the throat, hoarseness, &c., they act like a charm. Ministers and lawyers use them, physicians recommend them, and singers and public speakers say they are the very best medicine in existence for the cure of such complaints. Sold by all medicine dealers, at 25 cts. per box.

Heenan and England's Champion.—We hear that Heenan has again challenged England's Champion for a very heavy sum, but whether the challenge will be accepted or not we cannot say, negotiations are still pending, and should it come to a battle, our advice to all parties concerned is to be well supplied with the "Canadian Pain Destroyer," the finest thing for bruises cut, it soon cures sprains, and flesh wounds, and relieves painalmost immediately. Price 25 cts per Bottle. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

WHAT a glorious country is the East, where they have no such thrilling winds, and cold, and stormy blasts, to wreck the constitution. But yet, although the climate here is ordered thus, Nature has kindly endowed mankind with the conquering power of ewlding an all-sufficient weapon against the enemy Disease. Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Liver, Kidney's Digestive Organs, &c., are here most prevalent, and for their cure we have nothing to compete with the Great Shoshonees Remedy. 36w 1m.

JOHN HALDAN, JR.

Dated this 21st day of Sept., 1867.

A MISTAKE IN A MILLION.—We are by no means sorry to learn that Rev. Dr. Cumming and the other incendiary individuals who have taken up in these latter days the doctrines of the famous Mr. Miller, have discovered a trifling error in their calculations which puts off the destruction of our earth for a matter of a million years or so. We are rather glad of this, for although astronomers tell us that our globe is small, infinitesimal even, in comparison with some others of their celestial acquaintance, it is quite big enough to secure our interest and enlist all our sympathies. It is a little strange how lax in accuracy the figures of the fiery prophets have ever been; Miller discovered several successive errors in his calculations, and postponed the final smash first for two years, then for six, then for three more, and finally passed away himself, leaving the earth behind as fresh, and strong, and young, and lively as ever. But we like Dr. Cumming's plan better; by delaying the consummation of all things for a million of years he at once relieves us of all personal anxiety.

Written for the Huron Signal.

TO THE MAITLAND.

On the rugged banks of Maitland's stream
I'd love to pass my days,
Indulging in some like dream
Of coming Minstrel's lays;
Lying amongst the elms and beeches,
Learning the lessons nature teaches.

When with tiresome care I am oppress'd,
I love to steal an hour
Amongst the trees in summer drest,
In some cool and shaded bower,
Where nought disturbs, there I'm content,
My mind on other days is bent.

Here on this river years ago,
The Indian's canoe plied;
Where white-man's foot ne'er trod the soil,
But now such things have died;
The star of Indian's hope is set,
The sun and earth to him have met.

The evening shades are drawing close,
How scented is the air:
The hawthorns on the river bank
Emitting fragrance rare—
An Elysium of happiness is wafted on the breeze,
As the Zephyrs title playfully amongst the lofty trees.

We speak from experience in this matter, having tested it thoroughly, and therefore those who are suffering from any of the complaints for which it is recommended may depend upon its being a Sovereign Remedy.

The astonishing efficacy of the Canadian Pain Destroyer in curing the diseases for which it is recommended, and its wonderful success in subduing the torturing pains of Rheumatism, and in relieving Nervous Affections, entitle it to a high rank in the list of remedies for these complaints. Orders are coming in from Medicine Dealers in all parts of the country for further supplies, and each testifying as to the universal satisfaction it gives.

A GREAT CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND DYSPEPSIA IN CANADA.

Consecon, Prince Edward Co., C. W., March. 1867.

MESSRS. YOUNG & CHAMBERLAIN,—Sirs, having proved within my own person that there is at last a medicine that will indeed cure liver complaint and Dyspepsia, I am induced to make this statement under oath, which is to certify that I have been sorely afflicted for the last three years, according to the Doctors' statements with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia I had a feeling of sinking and vague uneasiness about the stomach, worse than pain, eructations of wind, occasional pain, drowsiness, constipation, uneasiness in the right side, headache, a poor appetite, &c., &c., and was greatly reduced in strength. Hearing your new Indian medicine the Great Shoshonees Remedy spoken of so highly, I tried a bottle with your Pills, from these I must say I found but little change, but I took another and then found my health improving. I continued it until I have taken about ten bottles, using the pills, and I find that I have quite recovered. I eat hearty without pain or uneasiness. I am well and have pleasure in attending to my business. The doctor remarked to me I was looking much better. He told him the Great Shoshonees Remedy was doing it. I have recommended the Remedy in several cases and it has invariably given good satisfaction, and I would strongly recommend it to all afflicted as I was.

AMBROSE WOOD.
