THE BISLEY MEET.

Canadians Second in the Valley-Firing Contest—Many Money Prizes Won.

London, July 25.—At the annual meeting of the National Rifle Association at Bisley, Sergt. Fuller, of the Queen's Westminster Regiment, won the St. George's Vase today, with a total score of 108. The scores of the members of the Canadian rifle team in the competition for this prize were as follows: Huggins, 104, won a National Rifle Association badge and £10; Ross, 80; Weller, 94; Newell, 98; Munro, 63. The four last named won small money prizes.
In the shooting match for the MacKinnon cup, for international teams of ten men each, rapid volleys, at 500 yards range, the Irish team won, with a score of 40. The Canadian team was second, scoring 31; England was third, with 31 points. Second place was given to the Canadians because of the greater number of hits by their team. This team consisted of Hayhurst, Harp, Lieut. Mitchell, Sergt. Mitchell, Munroe, Armstrong, Weller, Ross, King and Huggins.
In the Alexandra competition Armstrong, Lieut. Mitchell, King, Runions, Campbell, Harp and Hayhurst won small money prizes.
In the Martini-Henry cup match Campbell, of the Canadian team, won £8 for his wife.

REJOICING AT THE BARRACKS.

The Long Looked for Pay Comes at Last—Tommy Atkins Smiles.

Tommy Atkins, of Wolseley Barracks, wears a face today as radiant as his burnished accoutrements. If you stop and ask him why, he will wink the other eye, tap his pocket significantly, and perhaps treat you to a bottle of sarsaparilla.
For some weeks Tommy has been in the dumps. Although he would die for his country at a moment's notice, he would do it with much better grace if he were paid, well for it, as he ought to be. For six long weary weeks he has had no pay, and his funds sunk lower and lower, until they reached bottom, and Tommy was literally on the rocks. But down town he filled out his waistcoat, and held his head as high as ever, and no one who looked at his sturdy form would ever suspect that a drooping heart lodged in that manly bosom.
The cause of his sudden joy was the arrival today of a little check at the barracks. It was converted into crisp bank bills, which found their way to Tommy's empty pocket. He is now off the rocks, and floating at high tide. There are 64 officers and men at Wolseley Barracks, and pay day was overdue six weeks.
