CHICAGO.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 1.—A very nervous wheat market, with quotations ranging within less than a cent, but at a much lower level than Saturday, was seen today. The pit was in almost a panic at the opening, Liverpool responding to the recovery of Saturday on this side by declining from ¼d to 1d. The stocks at that place increased 872,000 bu during January—a circumstance which was of significance when the recently reported belief of a scarcity in importing countries is considered. First trades were from 1½c to 1½c under Saturday's close, and subsequently another slight decline took place. The market then gave evidence of a steadier tone, and before the session was concluded a slight advance on the best figures quoted at the opening was established. Closing Paris cables were unchanged to higher. Antwerp unchanged and Berlin lower. May wheat opened from 74½c to 73¾c; sold between 73¾c and 74½c to 74¾c, closing at the outside—1½c to 1½c under Saturday.

Sank 15 Boats.

Cubans Fired on Them From the River Bank.

The Spaniards Lose Over 100 Men in the Encounter.

How the Dons Conduct Their Side of the Struggle—Hospitals Burned—Surgeons, Nurses and Patients Butchered.

New York, Feb. 2.—A Key West, Fla., special says:

Another marine disaster to the Spaniards is reported. This time the naval department will not be charged with it, as one of Gen. Weyler's own river expeditions was badly used up. Fifteen boats are said to have been sunk, 100 men are reported to have been killed or to be missing, and the number of wounded is put at 75.

Hearing that the insurgents had fortified some heights near Paez, on the River Caunao, Santa Clara Province, Gen. Weyler sent Col. Serves with 300 men in small boats to capture the place and destroy the forts. After proceeding up the river about 20 miles, a heavy fire was opened on the expedition with rifles and six-pounder field pieces.

The fourth shot from the cannon sank one boat. A second later another boat was sunk. The Spanish drove the insurgents off, but could not capture the cannon. A few miles from Paez the Cubans opened fire with two cannons. Six boats were quickly sunk, and then the rebel rifles played havoc with the Spanish soldiers as they struggled in the water. Four of the wounded men were caught by alligators near the shore and dragged under.

Col. Serves was forced to order a retreat, which speedily became a route. Hastily the boats pulled back, but the Cubans pursued, keeping up a constant fire and sinking more boats. Had not a reinforcement met the Spanish ten miles from Cienfuegos not 100 men would have escaped.

Gen. Weyler has made no official report of this disaster.

SPANISH TACTICS.

New York, Feb. 2.—A special from Key West, Fla., says:

A horrible story comes from Remedosa, in which the Cubans had a large hospital, where were quartered sick and wounded soldiers. Near the insurgent camp was also located the well-known leper hospital of Cardosa, in which were about twenty unfortunates. Guarding the insurgent hospital was a company of Cuban amazons, numbering about 70, under command of Senorita Inez Alvarez, whose father and brothers had been butchered by Spaniards, and who had taken up arms for revenge.

The hospital was in a solitary location, and was thought to be safe from Spanish molestation. But a colonel of the Spanish Regiment de Bourbons, operating in that district, learned of the hospital's location, and sent 500 men to destroy it.

The Spaniards attacked at night and fired the buildings. The inmates and amazon guards awoke to find flames roaring about them. The sick and wounded soldiers could not escape, but the amazons rushed out only to be greeted by a murderous fire.

FOUGHT BRAVELY.

The amazons fought bravely, but they were only a handful compared to the Spaniards, and were soon shot down. Many of those were butchered, except eight, whose beauty led the Spanish commander to order them saved for a fate worse than death.

In the hospital were more than 70 sick and wounded soldiers, six surgeons and ten nurses. Not one escaped, and including the amazons, nearly 150 people fell victims to Spanish thirst for slaughter.

Returning, the Spaniards passed the leper hospital, which they set on fire, and nearly all the inmates perished in the flames.

Another frightful story comes from Matanzas Province. One of Weyler's flying squadrons discovered a batch of Cuban huts near the great cave of Mozote, a famous natural curiosity in Matanzas. The Spaniards proceeded to fire the huts, and while so engaged were fired on, four of the troopers being killed. The shots confused the Spaniards, and gave the Cubans, about forty in number, including women and children, time to escape to the cave of Mozote.

When the Spaniards arrived they demanded that the Cubans surrender, and this being refused, attempted to break down the barricade. The Cubans fired, killing and wounding several Spaniards. The Spaniards then managed to build a great fire against the mouth of the cave, and with rifles and machetes ready, waited for the flames and smoke to drive out the Cubans.

Facing cremation, the hopeless Cubans broke through the wall of fire, to be greeted by a murderous volley. Enrique Rodriguez and his five sons and eight other male members of the Cuban party were killed and several others wounded. These were quickly butchered.

The Cuban women and children rushed through the flames, but their clothing ignited, and eleven of them were burned to death, the Spaniards not offering to aid them. Among the women who perished were five beautiful young daughters of Enrique Rodriguez. Six little children, ranging from 4 to 8 years, were also cremated.

In all over 30 Cubans died by Spanish bullets, machetes and fire. Not a man escaped. The survivors were Senora Rodriguez, several other women and a few children. They were taken to Matanzas City and lodged in prison as "enemies to Spain."

Premier Laurier.

Enthusiastic Welcome at Orillia.

The Liberal Leader on Live Public Questions.

Orillia, Ont., Feb. 2.—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier spoke yesterday in the opera house to a crowded audience. Hundreds of people were unable to gain admission, and an overflow meeting was held in Shaftesbury Hall, where the Premier spoke again for a few minutes. When Mr. Laurier arrived at 12:20 p.m. on the Northern he was met by an immense crowd of people, who gave him an ovation. The town band played, and Mayor Sanderson was present in his official capacity to welcome the distinguished campaigner. A mounted guard of honor preceded the Premier's sleigh up town, and then followed a long procession of vehicles.

In the course of his address the Premier said that through Mr. Fisher's efforts the Government had just had the embargo against Canadian cattle removed by the United States, and he wished to state here that the policy of the Government would be that of more intimate trade relations with the United States. Whenever this was spoken of there was always a cry of "treason" from the Conservatives, but nevertheless that was the Government's policy. They were not going to approach their neighbors to the south in a cringing manner, asking for favors, or as annexationists, but as Canadians and as British subjects looking for friendly trade relations between the two countries. His instructions to any commission which he may send will be to approach the American Government in that spirit, but if they expect or hope for us to go back on Old England, then we will have to close all negotiations.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION.

As regards the school question, he had heard that Mr. Foster was not satisfied with the terms of the settlement. He did not expect to satisfy everybody, Mr. Foster least of all. There were only two ways in which the question could have been settled—coercion or conciliation. The Conservative Government had tried the former for six years, without success, while they had settled it in less than six months. Mr. Foster had one cry for Ontario, that he was through with the school question, but he had another for Quebec, where the French Conservative papers are still crying for remedial legislation. The speaker said that he could have had a majority of 65 in Quebec instead of 49 had he pandered to the passions of his fellow-countrymen. As to the alien labor law, he would make overtures to the United States to have that law repealed, and if they refused then, and only then, would he be in favor of putting it word for word in our own statutes.

The Premier subsequently spoke at Coldwater, Waubaushene, Victoria Harbor, Midland, and Penetanguishene. Hon. Wm. Mulock, Mr. Cook and others accompanied Mr. Laurier. In Penetanguishene two halls were filled to overflowing.

A GREAT DEMONSTRATION.

Welcome to Premiers Laurier and Hardy in Brantford Tonight

Brantford, Feb. 2.—Premier Laurier and Premier Hardy speak in the drill hall here tonight. Messrs. Laurier, Paterson and Hardy will be escorted from the station to the Drill Hall by 300 torch bearers. Already that number of torches have been secured. A magnificent display of fireworks will take place on the way to the station. The fireworks promise to be gorgeous and upon a liberal scale. A hundred Indians will be in attendance and three brass bands will take part. It will be a great demonstration.

January Victories Over Disease and Death.

The Grandest Record Ever Attained in One Month.

Paine's Celery Compound the Acknowledged King of Medicines.

The Kind the People Need in Order to Restore and Preserve Health.

The acknowledged king of medicines in the world today is Paine's Celery Compound.

Its marvelous cures during the month of January made up a record for surpassing the work of any previous month in past years. Hundreds of letters were sent in by saved men and women who were truly plucked from the grave and saved to anxious relatives and friends. In thankful, burning words the young and old admitted that without Paine's Celery Compound their cases would have been quite hopeless.

Surely, poor sufferer, this is sufficient proof that Paine's Celery Compound is able to meet your case, even though it be serious and desperate—able to give you the new life you so much desire. Try it once; a bottle or two will work wonders.
