(1) After the 31st day of December, A.D., 1921, the provisions of sections 1 to 8, inclusive of this act, shall apply to the Municipal Corporation of the City of London, and in so far as the provisions of this act shall alter, vary or change the provisions of the Municipal Act, the Public Parks Act, the Public Libraries Act, 1920, the London Waterworks Act, and amending Acts, the City of London Acts, or any of them, or any other Act in respect of the civic government within the City of London, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

(2) For the year 1922, and thereafter, the Council of the Corporation of the City of London shall be composed of a mayor and eight commissioners, and the said commissioners shall be elected by a general vote of the municipal electors of the said city. Of the said eight commissioners, the four commissioners who shall obtain the highest number of votes at the election held for the year 1922 shall hold office for a term of two years, and the four commissioners who shall obtain the next highest number of votes shall hold office for a term of one year; and in each year thereafter four of the said eight commissioners shall be elected by a general vote of the said electors, and shall hold office for a term of two years; provided, that in the event of the election by acclamation of all the commissioners for the year 1922, the four commissioners having the highest assessment in the City of London, according to the last revised assessment roll, shall hold office for a term of two years, and each of the four commissioners having the next highest assessment as aforesaid, shall hold office for a term of one year.

(3) The mayor shall be elected by a general vote of the said electors for the term of two years.

(4) In the event of the death, resignation or removal from office for any cause under the provisions of the Municipal Act of any commissioner, during his term of office, the candidate at the last preceding election having the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected a commissioner of the council for the unexpired term of the person so dying, resigning or being removed from office; provided, that in case of the candidates at the last preceding election having been elected by acclamation, or there was a tie vote, the vacancy so created shall be filled by the election of another commissioner by the council for the unexpired term of office of the said commissioner so dying, resigning or being removed from office.

(5) Upon the organization of the Council, the Public Library Board, the Public Utilities Commission of the City of London, the Board of Health and the Hospital Trust shall be dissolved, and the said several boards shall have no further authority or powers in respect of the utilities, works and commissions, powers or duties heretofore under their charge, respectively, under any Act of the Province of Ontario, but any officer or employee employed by any of the said boards in or about the construction or management of the said utilities shall be continued in office until removed by the council, unless his engagement sooner terminates.

THEATRES

AT THE ALLEN.

"My Lady's Latchkey" opened the door of romance, adventure and intrigue to hundreds of people, crowding the Allen Theatre on Thursday. This picture, however, although it forms the feature of the program for the last half of anniversary week, was but part of a splendid program, for, besides, there was comedy galore, a news picture, a song revue and some unusually fine orchestra music.

Katherine McDonald, the beauty of the American screen, starred in "My Lady's Latchkey," a picturization of the novel "The Second Latchkey," by C. N. and A. Williamson. It is the romance of a girl who married in haste and yet did not repent. It is a rich, throbbing drama, which moves swiftly to an exciting climax. The story is built around the marriage of a beautiful girl to a man who, unknown to her, is so much a thief that he stole his wedding gift, for his bride.

The plot is clever and it is well worked out amid gorgeous settings. The costumes of the women are wonderful and scenic effects beautiful. The cast throughout is excellent. Katherine McDonald never acted better, for the many tense situations gave her many opportunities to prove that she has mastered the art of dramatic acting.

"Nonsense," the comedy attraction, is all and more than the name would suggest. Rarely has a better comedy of its kind been shown in this city. The opening, a barnyard prologue, is very much out of the ordinary. It is the eternal triangle, worked out in an unusual and highly humorous manner among the feathered tribe of the farm. It is worth seeing. The comedy of the main part of the picture is good enough to get across without a display of so-called bathing beauties. Then, to give good measure, a Mutt and Jeff cartoon is shown.

The vaudeville attraction is a "Song Revue of 1921," a repertoire of modern and extremely catchy songs sung by Miss June Forest. Miss Forest made a big hit on Tuesday.

An Allen's News Weekly completed a bill which will be repeated today and tomorrow.

AT LOEW'S.

At last a picture has been shown in London in which threatened divorce is averted and the neglected wife does not marry the hero, but rather forgives the erring husband, allowing the hero to wed the ingenue—if such a person there be in the moyies. This film is William D. Taylor's "The Furnace," and is the feature attraction at Loew's the latter part of this week.

No risque situations are allowed to creep into the story and all the situations that do arise are common to everyday humans.

Scenery and costumes are among the front rank features which help to win for the photoplay the approval of the most exacting critic.

John and Ella Burke, in a comedy juggling turn, were deserving of the applause that greeted their every effort. As jugglers, singers and dancers they can count themselves among the best of the artists that appear before local audiences.

Will J. Evans instead of calling himself "The Happy Hobo," might well have styled himself "The Knut Supreme." Only a half-wit or a good-natured souse could relieve himself of wit in such an apparently unconscious manner as this comedian did. His parodies and banter are the equal of any monologue man who has yet played in London.

Lee, Berges & Company present an interesting and humorous little sketch which reveals the folly of shattering the happiness of a home.

A Sunshine Comedy entitled "His Unlucky" is in a class a little above the ordinary run of comic films. Loew's Pictorial and other news films complete the program.

FUR SALES TOTAL $397,000.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 25.—Sales at the winter auction of the International Fur Exchange yesterday totalled some $397,000, with 7,791 Russian sables the only offering.

The decline from May prices that has marked the auction, continued in evidence, the sables generally running 40 per cent lower.

Good-quality skins ran from $150 to $245 each, with the lower grades bringing $40 to $75. The top price paid was for a lot of five Siberian crown sables which went for $500 each.
