HEAT FLASHES, DIZZY, NERVOUS

Mrs. Wynn Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her During Change of Life.

Richmond, Va.—"After taking seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new woman. I always had a headache during the Change of Life and was also troubled with other bad feelings common at that time—dizzy spells, nervous feelings and heat flashes. Now I am in better health than I ever was and recommend your remedies to all my friends."—Mrs. LENA WYNN, 2812 E. O Street, Richmond, Va.

While Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, the annoying symptoms which accompany it may be controlled, and normal health restored by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such warning symptoms are a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness.

For these abnormal conditions do not fail to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

Simcoe, Nov. 5.—Senator Richard Blain of Brampton has on invitation consented to attend to-morrow a mass meeting of Unionists at the court house here and to speak on the political situation in Canada.

Mr. Agar Off to Welland.

Mr. T. J. Agar, after spending last week at Chatham, conducting the Crown's cases at the Assizes, returned home late Saturday night and left this morning for Welland to act in the same capacity with a murder case, a manslaughter case and a shooting affray on the docket.

Odd Ends of News.

Jas. Mace of Pittsburg was recently over to Toronto to secure some twelve maimed soldiers, who should be entertained by the city of Pittsburg while they by their presence enthused Uncle Sam's resident soldiers and eligibles. Mr. Mace is physical instructor at the City Y.M.C.A. His father, James Mace, came to Canada some forty-three years ago as a pugilist, crossing the lake and landing, we believe, at Woolley's Point, to pull off a fight which was forbidden "over home." On that occasion the militia was called out to disperse the crowd and James, sr., was prevented from finishing his engagement, even in the "wilds of Canada."

The exemption tribunals will sat at the county buildings on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Wm. Mercil, president of the Windham Reform organization, has called a meeting of the faithful for Wednesday evening at 7.30. The dodger does not state the business in hand.

The pretty souvenir was developed by Geo. W. Brown and printed locally.

The promoters of the movement for an independent candidate billed the county on Saturday and engaged the town hall here for the meeting but are already fearing lest the crowd will be too large for the hall in which case they will endeavor to secure the court house for the purpose.

LLOYD HARRIS FOR LIBERAL PARTY

Former Standard Bearer Accepts Nomination Provided Fusion Fails

Lloyd Harris, president of the Russel Motor Company and newly appointed representative of the Imperial Munitions Board at Washington, will be the Liberal standard bearer in South Brant, unless a fusion candidate can be selected this week. At a convention of the Liberal association held in their clubrooms on Saturday night, Mr. Harris accepted upon the above conditions the nomination tendered him. The meeting was largely attended, several women being included in the gathering. Numerous charges of trickery and breach of faith on the part of the Conservative party both in the two ridings of Brant and throughout the entire Dominion were made by various speakers, and accorded with by the gathering.

"The man who forces a political fight at a time like this is playing the Huns' game" declared Mr. Lloyd Harris, in accepting the nomination, "but if we have to fight, it will be some fight, believe me, and we will carry both Brants for the Liberal party."

Three Candidates.

Mr. Harris was not the only candidate mentioned. T. H. Preston was nominated as Liberal standard bearer by John Muir, seconded by E. Plowes, and George Cooke of Oakland, ex-Warden of Brant county, was nominated by M. W. McEwen, who appealed for representation of the farming classes in parliament, and seconded by Mr. McIntyre. Messrs. Preston and Cooke withdrew, however, in favor of Lloyd Harris.

Mr. Harris was nominated by W. H. Whittaker and Henry Simpson, and seconded by Geo. Cooke and C. S. Tapscott. He was, declared Mr. Whittaker, the strongest man obtainable, even if his methods of winning the war might not meet with the views of all. He charged that an attempt had been made "to put something over the Liberals."

Can't "Queer" Liberals

"The Conservative party has attempted to 'queer' the Liberals both in North and South Brant" declared Mayor Bowlby, who occupied the chair, "but we are not to be queered. The Conservatives all over the country have got their heads together and have evolved a scheme to have their Conservatives labelled.

Union Government False

His Worship went on to declare that the Liberal members who had entered the Union Cabinet had been induced to do so by false pretences, by promises of an equal distribution of seats. "Has this promise been kept?" he demanded.

A chorus of "No, no" was the response from the gathering.

"No" declared the speaker, "it has not. There are twelve Conservatives in the ministry to nine Liberals. An attempt has been made to palm off one Senator as a Labor man, whereas he is a Conservative as he has always been." He went on to predict that in the event of the Conservative party's obtaining a good majority, they would not hesitate to throw over the Liberal section who had entered the union cabinet.

Other Speakers.

Messrs, J. J. Kelly, O. R. Whitney, C. S. Tapscott and C. H. Waterous also spoke briefly, endorsing the selection of a candidate which had been made by the gathering.

Favored Union.

The entry of Lloyd Harris into the room was the signal for an outburst of applause and cheering. Mr. Harris recalled the fact that this was the third Liberal nomination which had been tendered to him, although that offered in 1911 he had declined. Politics, if allowed, could become very sordid, and the speaker had considered a straight party fight at the present time one of the worst things which could happen to Canada. He had long been in favor of Union Government, and outlined the steps by which his "very good friends" among the leaders of the Liberal party had one by one fallen in line with Sir Robert Borden, E. A. McDonald, F. B. Carvell, Fred Pardee, G. P. Graham, N. W. Rowell.

Union Government, the speaker considered necessary because no party administration could stand the strain of three years of such a war as the present one. He predicted exceedingly hard sledding for the Dominion during the next twelve months, which would prove a year of unusual financial and industrial depression, consequent upon the great reduction in munition work and other causes.

Ready to Fight.

"If the Conservatives," declared Mr. Harris, "will not play the game fairly, it means fight. You cannot expect the Liberals to be thrown into the mud and tramped upon. We should have a voice in the selection of the Union candidates who are going to represent us in the Union Government."

"All Canadians to-day were win-the-war people," declared the speaker, "and not one class or party alone. He felt himself unable to refuse the nomination tendered him, but after having for so long advocated Union Government, he must consistently follow out its principles now. If the other people refuse to parley, then we will go ahead and fight; and believe me, it will be some fight."

Mr. Harris went on to appeal for a sincere effort on behalf of the Liberal party to get the Liberal, Conservative and labor parties together for the selection of a Fusion candidate. If this were accomplished, he would retire in favor of the latter nominee; if not, he would bear the standard of the Liberal party.

"The man who forces a political fight to day," he declared, "is playing the Huns' game, but if we have to fight we will fight, and win both Brants for the Liberal party."

Mr. Harris declared that the treatment accorded Mr. John Harold in North Brant was such as must make the better class of Conservatives ashamed of themselves, and he expressed a willingness to fight it out in South Brant, with Mr. Harold in North Brant, unless the Conservatives proved their willingness to practise, as well as to preach, union.

On the motion of C. H. Waterous and O. R. Whitney, a committee was appointed to take up the matter of calling a Fusion meeting, and to report back to the Liberal Association in a week's time. The committee comprised Messrs. W. D. Wiley (convenor), Rupert Greenwood, J. J. Kelly, John Muir, A. Houghting, Geo. Cooke, N. W. McEwen, C. L. Messecar, W. McCormick, J. C. Biggar.

The Resolution.

That having regard to the policy announced by the union government and feeling that the co-operation of all its supporters is vital to its success, a committee be appointed, composed of the following:—W. D. Wiley, Rupert Greenwood, J. J. Kelly, John, Muir, A. Houghting, Geo. E. Cooke, C. L. Messecar, M. McCormick, J. C. Biggar and M. W. McEwen with Dr. Wiley as convenor, with authority to confer with a committee of like number from the Conservatives of Brantford, together with an equitable representation from such other organized political associations supporting union government, for the purpose of selecting a candidate in support of union government favorable to all parties, and that this committee report to an adjourned meeting of this convention to be held on Saturday evening Nov. 10 at 8 p.m., and that the secretary be instructed to send copy of this resolution to Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, the secretary of the Brantford Conservative association, the secretary of the Independent Labor Party, the secretary of the Brantford Trades and Labor Council, the secretary of the Great War Veterans Association and to the press.

The Saskatoon "Star" says: "There is a dispute between the C.P.R. and the conductors. Just what the point of difference is, is not yet known, but those conversant with railway matters say that the company is demanding a share of the fares."
