TURKISH BLACK SALVE.

UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF THE HONORABLE THE EAST INDIA COMPANY.

THIS SALVE, prepared from the original Receipt, procured from a celebrated Turkish Hakim, (physician) of Smyrna, in Asia Minor, and which has obtained an unprecedented celebrity in Great Britain and the East Indies, from the astonishing Cures performed by it in both these countries, has lately been introduced into Montreal. As might be expected, its popularity has followed it, and its use is becoming general among all classes. The contracted limits of an advertisement necessarily precludes entering into any adequate detail of its merits, but, for the information of the public, it is intended to publish, from time to time, such statements of cures as have or may occur. It has been used for the following complaints with the most complete success:—Such as Swollen Glands, Broken Breasts, White Swellings, Whitlows, Scalds from Steamboat explosions, or other causes, Burns, Fever Sores, Scrofulous Sores, Sore Nipples, Carbuncles, Scald Head, Gun-shot Wounds, Bruises, Boils, Frostbites, Wens, Chilblains, Ulcerated and Common Sore Throats, and Bonions. If used in time, it will prevent or cure Cancers, also, Swellings arising from a blow on the Breast, Ring Worm, Pains in the Back, Rheumatism, Gout, Pains in the Chest, Palpitation of the Heart, Complaints in the Lower Spine, Heart and Hip, Rushing of Blood to the Head, Swelled Face and Toothache. In fact, it is impossible to enumerate half the complaints that have been cured by the application of this Salve.

Sold in Montreal by S. J. LYMAN & Co, Place d'Armes; SAVAGE & Co., Notre Dame Street; CRQUHART & Co., Great St. James Street; W. LYMAN & Co, St. Paul Street, and in all the principal Cities in Canada.

TESTIMONIALS.

"It is, undoubtedly, the most complete Dictionary of the English language that has ever been published, and some will claim it stands before any other Dictionary of that language will be required. It is, in every respect, the superior of the fifth edition of Johnson's Dictionary. The introductory matter—on the origin and progress of language—Etymology—the changes of the English language, and other topics—contains an immense mass of useful information, which must have cost the author a very great degree of labor and research. The pronunciation of Scriptural, Classical, and Geographical names, forms a most valuable appendix to the Dictionary, and comes in the highest approbation."—Thomas Dick, (Author of the Christian Philosopher, &c.)

Broughty Ferry, near Dundee, Sept. 12, 1849.

"In regard to pronunciation, we feel perfectly satisfied that this revision places that subject on a more sound than any other work of the kind. The system of pronouncing conforms to a pure and manly tone, adapted to the character of the language, and is far removed from all affectation and mere fashion. . . . It is now, as we fully believe, in this revision, brought down to the true standard of the community in all respects. And we hope it will find its way rapidly, not only to the schools and the study, but to the parlor, the counting-room, and to the every day purposes of life."—Rev. Wm. M. Cuthbertson, Dr. 1849.

"We venture to say that there is no Dictionary in the English language which combines so many advantages with such economy of size, as this Quarto Edition of Webster."—N. Y. Observer.

"We rejoice that the public award is strongly, emphatically, and deservedly in favor of the Noah Webster, who decidedly the best Lexicographer who has treated of the English language. Emphatically the Dictionary of our language."—N. Y. Tribune.

"There is no Dictionary but this of Webster's that can be adopted as a standard."—Boston Courier.

"In its admirable definitions, its accurate philology, its copiousness, good sense, and completeness, it is fast receiving the judgment of the learned world, that it has no equal."—N. Y. Evangelist.

"With materials so abundant, advantages so unusual, and upon a basis so valuable as the result of the labors of Webster, during the long years which he devoted to this subject, Professor Goodrich has completed a perfect and most authoritative Dictionary of the English language as spoken and written in A. D. 1848."—Baltimore Patriot.

"Perhaps no work ever issued from the press more faultless in every particular."—Daily Ohio State Journal.

"Its cheapness is not the least remarkable thing about it; ninety-five quarto pages for 66c."—St. Louis Revelle of Religious Liberty.

OTTAWA HOTEL,
McGILL STREET.

THE PROPRIETOR of this long and favorably known Establishment, respectfully begs leave to inform the Citizens of Montreal, and its vicinity, that recent improvements have been made for the comfort and accommodation of the Public. The new arrangements will be found such as to justify the Patronage of those who desire an agreeable Residence during the coming Winter, as the rooms will be comfortably and thoroughly warmed—the Table and Bar supplied with every article necessary for health, enjoyment, and that variety necessary to good living. The Proprietor, from the present state of pecuniary embarrassments in Montreal, will furnish Board at a reduced price—lower than can be obtained at any similar Establishment in the City—and invites those desirous of securing an agreeable Winter Residence, to call and inspect his Rooms and Table. Thirty or forty persons can be comfortably provided for.
