PREPARING TO REMODEL FURLONG BUILDING FOR NEW BANK HOME

When the present plans are completed the Provincial Bank of Canada, now occupying temporary quarters in Germain street, will have handsome and ample offices in Charlotte street. In addition to the usual equipment of a modern bank, provided for on a generous scale, the new offices will afford something new to this city, a special room for the lady patrons of the bank in order that they may not be permitted to feel the diffidence which some ladies experience in transacting business in a public office.

The plans and specifications have been prepared by Architect H. Claire Mott and tenders are being called for the work of remodelling the Furlong building, which has been secured by the bank for the new offices. Their quarters will include the premises now occupied as a fruit and confectionery store, and also the adjoining shoe-shine parlor.

A new stone front will be placed in the building to conform with the standards of a banking establishment. The existing brick piers and columns in the interior will be removed and the second floor will be carried on heavy steel beams supported on steel columns at the outer walls.

A modern burglar-proof vault, eight by twenty-two feet, inside measurements, will be constructed in the rear of the building. The vault will be extended from the basement to the second floor, entered from the ground floor and with interior stairway giving access to the other floor.

The ground floor will be laid in tile. The main entrance will be about the centre of the building, with the manager's office at the front on the extreme right. The ladies' room will be at the front between the main entrance and the manager's room. The working space of the bank proper will be on the right of the entrance and extending across the rear. The public space will be directly opposite the main entrance.

There will be two tellers' cages for, while only one may be required for the present, the banking room is being laid out with a view to the future needs of the business. In the rear of the banking room, directly in front of the main entrance, will be a booth for the holders of safety deposit boxes, where they may attend to their affairs in private and without interfering with the work of the officials of the bank. The whole will be furnished throughout in oak in natural finish.

When the work is completed the patrons of the bank will be able to do their business in a most convenient and up-to-date bank building.

The death of A. T. Hicks occurred at Upper Dorchester on August 28th. He was fifty-nine years of age and is survived by his wife, two sons, Horace of Halifax, and Roy of Vancouver, and one daughter, Pearl. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. James Smith, of Amherst.

Rome, Sept. 11.—An official communication given out last night says:

"Along the entire front small but important actions continue, due to the active offensive of our detachments in reconnoitering or to attempted surprise attacks, notably at night, against our advance positions. The dash and energy of our troops in the offensive, their active and tenacious surveillance and their resistance in defensive have everywhere turned these encounters in our favor. Among the combats thus favorably reported are:

"On Naglerspitz, 10,740 feet in altitude, in the Upper Valtellina, at Malg Piana, in Calamento Valley—Val Sugano; at Passo Della Sentinella in Sexten Valley, where we captured enemy emplacements and destroyed an armored refuge; in the Pass of Monte Croce and at Carnico, and to the northeast of Ramaz, in the Upper Chiarzo.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Mrs. Adam S. Murray took place on Thursday at her home in Sunny Brae. She was in the sixty-third year of her age, and was formerly Miss Margaret Riley of Great Shemogue. She was twice married, her first husband being the late Robert Jamieson of Moncton, by whom she leaves one son, Charles E. Jamieson, in the Canadian west. Her second husband, Adam S. Murray, survives her. Mrs. Murray also leaves her mother and two brothers, John Riley of Sunny Brae, and James T. Riley of Chicopee, Mass. Three sisters, Mrs. John M. Brown, Sunny Brae, Mrs. J. A. Bulmer of Cherryfield and Mrs. Edmund Clegg of Chicopee, Mass., also survive her.

Mrs. Alex. Girvan of Moncton was in receipt of a telegram on Friday announcing the death of her son, Robert Stewart Girvan in the Cullen Consumptive Home, Boston. He was thirty-two years of age. He was the only surviving son of the late Alex. Girvan, formerly a well known resident of Moncton, and Mrs. Girvan, who resides with her daughter there. He leaves beside his mother, one sister, Mrs. Ira Davis.

In Moncton on Thursday Mrs. Sarah Forbes, aged 81, widow of Peter M. Forbes passed away. She is survived by three sons and one daughter. The sons are Albert, locomotive fireman, I.C.R., Blackville; George H., and Edmund, at home. The daughter is Miss May Forbes at home.

NINETEEN DEATHS

The record of deaths at the St. John Board of Health offices this week was quite lengthy, nineteen being registered. Four resulted from cholera infantum, and one each from cerebral hemorrhage, heart disease, typhoid fever, arthoritis deformans, cholecystitis, gastro enteritis, strangulated hernia, angina pectoris, Bright's Disease, inanition, premature birth, meningitis, carcinoma of stomach, infectious diarrhoea, and a cause not given.

A baptismal font 200 years old was used at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Boynton at the Wisconsin Veterans' Home in Milwaukee when Rev. E. B. Erle baptized Ray Gustav Boynton. The font was an heirloom of Judge Bellow, grandfather of Dr. Boynton.

REMEMBER "WHO PAYS" AT LYRIC NEXT THURSDAY

The Lyric management anticipates stepping right in the van of popular picture presentations when the "Who Pays" series commences at this popular theatre next Thursday. As announced the "Who Pays" series of feature pictures, each story complete in itself, will commence next Thursday and continue on the week ends for twelve weeks.

This series of pictures will bring the patrons' attention very directly to at least twelve problems and temptations of life to which the ordinary mortal is subjected daily. They will produce more comment and provide more food for thought than any series of pictures yet offered. Ruth Roland and Henry King are featured in each play, and the company supporting are identical in each instance, carrying out precisely the same idea as the popular stock seasons in legitimate theatricals.

The title of the first play is "The Price of Fame" and those who see the completed picture of this subject will never miss "The Pursuit of Pleasure" and the other ten, particulars of which will be given later.

THEY MADE ABOUT $150

A most successful picnic was held at Long Reach on Labor Day, under the auspices of the Long Reach Patriotic Club. The proceeds, which netted the handsome sum of about $150, are for patriotic purposes, the specific purpose in view being a contribution towards the machine gun which is to be given by the residents of Kings county. Supper was served by the ladies in the public hall and a pleasant day brought to a successful close.

The management committee of the Long Reach Patriotic Club extends thanks to:—J & A. McMillan, Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Ltd.; Brock & Paterson, Ltd., Canadian Consolidated Rubber Co., Ltd, Edwin A. Ellis, Emerson & Fisher, P. Nase & Sons, N. C. Scott, E. J. ## DARE DEVIL STUNT IN "LURE OF THE MASK" AT LYRIC MONDAY

Thrilling situations, an absorbing story, and delightful Italian scenic effects combine to make the "Lure of the Mask" one of the most interesting feature pictures the Lyric has ever had the privilege of showing. Irving Cummings, the dare devil among leading men, has seldom done a more thrilling stunt than that shown in the "Lure of the Mask" Cummings as Prince Monte Bianca rides madly along the cliff road, closely pursued by Giovanni. The two collide, the prince is stabbed and tumbles to the ground. The spectators hold their breath as the fall is a hard one. A moment later Giovanni kicks the body over the cliff, where it falls down a fifty foot declivity. "The Lure of the Mask" will be found well worthy of patronage.

Toronto, Sept. 10—The proposed new type of street car, with longitudinal and cross seats, and an inside aisle; has met with the approval of the Ontario Railway Board for use in Toronto. D. M. McIntyre, the chairman, has so announced. This type has been in use and under observation for some weeks, and even during the exhibition it has proved satisfactory at rush hours.

It is now regarded as probable that the board will recommend this type of car for use in the warmer months of the year, and will order the company to abolish the old style of open car with the running board.

THE SNARES OF A BIG CITY

Thomas Santschi in Great Story at Gem Next Week — Serials Closing

A special three part Selig production dealing with life in a big city, "The Octopus," showing the many perils which beset the path of the inexperienced, and telling a powerful story of the career of a well-intending young man and a deceiving woman, is the feature to be shown at the Gem Theatre on Monday and Tuesday next. Thomas Santschi, a favorite picture player, has the leading role strongly supported by a capable cast.

The favorite serial "The Exploits of Elaine" is drawing to a close, and the same is true of "Road O' Strife" which will be ended with one more chapter after next week when on Friday and Saturday "The Man Who Did Not Die" will be presented. "The Devil Worshippers" is the title of next Wednesday and Thursday's chapter in the Elaine series, a further eventful experience in her lively career.

VANDALISM

The beautiful dalhia beds in front of Carvell Hall, Waterloo street, were invaded last night, flowers stolen and others broken and crushed. Why such things are done no one can imagine. Girls are suspected. Mr. Carvill is offering a reward of $10 in connection with the matter.

Can You Save 60c. per Week?

For a man between the ages of twenty-three and thirty, about 60c. a week will maintain an Imperial 20 Payment Life Policy for $1,000.

If, after you have paid but one premium on such a policy you should die, this Company would pay $1,000 to your wife or other beneficiary. That $1,000 invested at 6% would yield your heirs an income of $1.15 a week as long as they live, and still leave the principal intact.

Have you considered what a wonderfully safe investment this is? Think of the men who were worth thousands before the war who do not possess five hundred dollars in real money today. The bottom has fallen out of their real estate and stock holdings and if they were to die their affairs would be in a bad muddle.

One policyholder said recently "the only thing I possess that is worth one hundred cents on the dollar is my life insurance policy and, I regret today that I am not carrying five times as much."

Write for our booklet entitled "Penniless Old Men." You'll find it interesting.

THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE

It Makes a Difference Where You Buy a Watch

Watches are different from ordinary merchandise. The Jeweler is more than a middleman between the factory and the consumer. The factory depends on him to perform a technical operation—casing the watch.

So far as the consumer is concerned, the factory, with a few notable exceptions, doesn't produce a complete watch.

The Jeweler buys the cases of another manufacturer, and unless he buys good cases and employs a skilled, experienced watchmaker to fit the movements into the cases, the watches he sells won't give satisfaction, no matter how fine the movements are.

The Watch bought at Sharpe's gives thorough satisfaction, because only high-grade movements are dealt in, and we are experts in casing them.
