One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in St John for some time past was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at St James Episcopal church when the Rev. A. D. Dewdney united in marriage Mr. Richard Dole of the Bank of New Brunswick, of this city, a son of Dr. W.P. Dole and Miss Nellie Y, daughter of Mr Samuel T. Vaughan of Lincoln town.

Miss Vaughan was attired in plum-colored cloth with velvet trimming and hat of corresponding shades She was attended by her cousin, Miss Bessie Upham, of Parrsboro, N. S. Miss Upham was becomingly dressed in a suit of fawn material and hat of cream chiffon. The bride carried cream roses, the bridesmaid cream carnations. Mr Gilbert Jordan supported Mr. Dole. After the ceremony a reception and luncheon were held at the residence of the bride's father. The happy couple left later in the day for Boston and New York on their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside on Crown street.

Indiantown, particularly the mill leading to the wharves, was gay with British and American flags, Wednesday in honor of the wedding of Miss Florence Brown, only daughter of Mr. Jas. R. Brown, head surveyor for Tapley Bros. to Mr. Alex Munro a leading druggist in Portland, Me. Miss Brown is one of the most popular young ladies in the northern end of the city, and her friends were lavish in the arewell display of good will. The wedding was held about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev R. P. McKim of St. Luke's Episcopal church, officiating Relatives and immediate friends were the only guests.

Miss Brown looked quite charming in a travelling suit of blue cloth and white felt hat She was unattended. The happy couple will visit the principal American cities before taking up their new home in Portland.

At the residence of her grandfather, Samuel Belyea, Middle street, West End, Tuesday evening Miss Amanda Parker was united in marriage to J E McLeod by Rev B N Nobles. About fifty of the friends of the young couple were present and sat down to a substantial supper There were numerous and appropriate presents, as the bride and groom are a most popular young couple, identified with church and other organizations in the West End. They left on Wednesday for a trip to Queens county, and on their return will reside on the City Road.

On Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr B J Dibblee, Broad street, the Rev Mr Dewdney united in the bonds of holy matrimony Miss Annie Louise Northrup and Isaac B Murry of Messrs Grant's Insurance office. The event was a quiet one and attended only by immediate relatives of the contracting parties In the evening Mr and Mrs Murry left by the steamer St Croix on a wedding journey to Boston and New York. They were given a happy send off at the wharf by a large number of friends Both parties are very popular and received many congratulations.

Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mr William H Olitz, Kennedy street, Miss Mabel Lillian Olitz was married to Mr A. Harvey Case, son of Mr A. W Case of 164 Waterloo street, by Rev. C. SMOOTH SEWING SILK
Corticelli sewing silk is twisted on automatic machines which stop when a break or knot happens in any one of the hundred strands it is twisted with.
It is therefore perfectly smooth.
Being smooth it is strong—free from knots or flaws.
Better than cotton or linen because it lasts longer, goes further, and won't fade.
