his offending. They were green, and were ground with coffee, which was given to Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield and child, Dr. Shields, and a negress. Sickness immediately followed, which would undoubtedly have resulted in death had the seed been in a state of preservation, as a more certain poison cannot be named.

When arrested the girl and boy made a full confession, but the old woman maintained rigid silence. After a clear and patient investigation, she was found guilty and sentenced to be hung on the 3rd inst. The boy was sentenced to wear round his neck a five pound iron collar for twelve months; and the girl to wear a similar collar, and to receive twenty five lashes per month for the same period.

THE IRON DUKE.—Although no man is more capable of enjoying the refinements of society than the Duke of Wellington, luxury has not enervated his mind or manners. His dress—his equipage—his habits—all partake of the same indifference as to effect—all demonstrate the hardy self-denial of the camp: Constant horse exercise,—a mattress bed,—early rising and remaining up twenty hours out of the twenty four,—attending Divine service at the Chapel Royal St. James,' before eight o'clock on Sundays,—and the habituated use of cold shower baths at all seasons of the year—these contradictions to the ordinary habits of man, who have attained the ripe age of three score years, and then, fully illustrate his Grace's Well known determination of purpose, and his utter carelessness of ease, and the luxuries of life. Well indeed has the Duke of Wellington been named "The Iron Duke."—Naval and Military Sketch Book.

The following is a copy of a letter received by a clergyman through the Post Office:—"Reverent sir, I forbids the bands of marriage between Edw. Blewitt and Mary Ann Howels, the reason is he is under age, and she have got a husband he live, and she is went away from him; he is in the Harmy, and she is with her Hankell, so you dare't marrie them, sir, not Dursent."

BRITISH SQUADRON FOR THE GULF.—Capt. J. C. Huffington, of the barque Mopang, from Barbadoes, via St. Thomas, arrived here yesterday, says the N. O. Times, June 25th. The Mopang left Barbadoes on the 25th ultimo, and St. Thomas on the 11th instant. Capt. H. states that in Barbadoes, before he left, it was reported that the British West Indian squadron was ordered to cruise in the Gulf; and when at St. Thomas he learned that it, consisting of ten or fifteen sail of the line, had touched there the day previous to his arrival on its way thither. The object of this squadron in coming to the Gulf may be protection of British property—nothing more. Capt. Huffington also reports having met a French man-of-war, 74, and two frigates, bound to the Gulf.

LATER FROM ST. THOMAS.—We learn from Capt. Smith, of the brig Lyra, from St. Thomas in 10 days, that news had reached there of two American vessels being captured by Mexican privateers, off the south side of Cuba; and shippers at Porto Rico and St. Croix would not ship in American vessels at any rates. All orders for vessels at St. Thomas had been countermanded, and the Lyra was obliged to return in ballast.—New York Express.

On Wednesday last Capt. White, Lieut Rathbourne, and 79 rank and file of the 77th Regt. arrived here in the Schr. Tweed, from Halifax, to relieve the Company of Rifles which have been in this Garrison for the last twelve months. We have been informed that another change will take place in a few days, and that the Company of the 77th now here will proceed to Canada, and be relieved by a Company of the Rifle Brigade.—P. E. I. Royal Gazette.

FROM KINGSTON.—The brigs Lewis Walsh, Capt Leland, and J. A. Lancaster, Capt. Soog, arrived at this port yesterday afternoon from Kingston, Jamaica, whence they sailed on the 17th June.—They bring no news of any interest, except that the market is over-stocked with American produce. The officers of both vessels bring a report which we trust is incorrect, although it comes from pretty good authority. They report that the British brig Telegraph, from this port, Capt. Young, arrived at Kingston on the 18th instant, and reported that on the 16th instant, when off Cape Antonio, saw a rakish looking schooner having all the appearance of a privateer giving chase to an American ship, and distinctly saw the schooner fire two windward guns at her. Two American vessels were at anchor under the Point, and Capt. Young believed them to be prizes of the schooner. He immediately hoisted English colours and bore away for Kingston. This report created an intense excitement on shore, and was disbelieved until the log of the Telegraph was examined, where the circumstance was found entered. Many persons, however, believed the matter to be a hoax of Captain Young's, got up for the purpose of deterring other vessels from this port from going out with produce. There were five American vessels in port at the time this report was circulated at Kingston, and they all took in ballast immediately, and commenced beating out to the windward through Crooked Island.—[N. O Picayune, of 26th.

☞ We understand that Mr. BERNISON had notice given in the different Sabbath schools last Lord's day, that he intended opening a Sacred Music class this afternoon, and on Thursday next. He will therefore be in attendance at the Institute, from half past 4 till half past 6 o'clock, on those days, for the purpose of giving instruction to the Lads and Misses of this City who have not yet joined his former class.—Observer.

☞ The President and Other Officers of the SAMARITAN SOCIETY of St. John, beg leave to acknowledge the receipt of the very handsome sum of Ten Pounds from his Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, as a donation to the funds of the Institution. They have also the satisfaction of acknowledging the receipt of liberal donations from the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, and the Right Rev. Bishop Dollard, as well as from other charitable gentlemen of various persuasions which will appear in detail in their next Annual Report.—R.

THE 12TH JULY.—The day falling on Sunday, it was duly celebrated on the following day, by the different Loyal Orange Lodges in the Province holding a general meeting of the Body at Gagetown. Although the intention of meeting at that place was made known but a short time previous, a very large number assembled on the occasion—the steamer Herald conveying the Lodges of this City to the spot. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon, a procession was formed, and proceeded to a large field near the town, where they were addressed by the Right Worshipful Grand Master, W. H. Needham, Esq., in an extremely neat and appropriate speech.—Several Resolutions were passed, and after refreshing themselves, the brethren prepared to return to their various places of abode, which they did in the best of order. The day was remarkably fine, and nothing occurred to mar the interest and good feeling evinced at the meeting.

To Correspondents.—In reference to Mr. Dunn's communication, we have decided on carrying out our expressed wish of Friday last. The continuation of the subject would be attended by no profit either to our correspondents or the inmates of the Alms House, and with less to our readers.

We refer T. G. H. to his usual publisher.
