Aces Take Last Game of Series --- Toronto Scottish Beat Ladysmith Eleven 3--0

ACES DEPART WITH LAST CONTEST 7--2

Gillenwater Holds Londoners to Eight Hits, While Carmen Is Found For Dozen Lusty Slugs, Three of Them Triples.

The Saginaw Aces helped themselves to the last game of the series here yesterday afternoon by a score of 7—2.

No tear-streaked faces were discernible around the visiting dugout at the prospect of leaving the London encampment, but the Aces were almost hysterical at times during the game as the fact forced itself upon them that they were in the process of winning a ball game. As they became more confident in the last stretch they became a regular little closed-in mutual admiration society.

It was largely owing to Gillenwater, now considered one of the best Ace mound bets, that the local barnstormers were kept well dampened down, for he held them to eight widely-separated knocks, and none more than the regulation size. A widely varied assortment, of which an under-hand curve and cross-fire were the most villainous, had the Tecs standing still enough for a slow camera to work on them.

Carmen was nicked for a dozen hits, three of them good for three bases, and they kept the little southpaw peeking around the corner for trouble every chapter. His fast one, which usually pushes its way to the plate deceptively, pushed harder than usual yesterday, so that none of the Aces had eye-strain watching for it.

No Misplays at All.

Both teams again turned in a perfect fielding day, the Aces having a nice comfortable margin on the speed in which they worked. In fact, it was this speed and a few features tucked in, that stopped a couple of feeble attempts by the Tecs, and one honest-to-goodness effort in the sixth.

Just at this point, Gillenwater, after whiffing Burman, for some unknown reason started to get near the boiling point and walked Carmen, and hit Vandyke. Shay injected a hit to right here, scoring Carmen, and then Stutz was walked. Gillenwater saved himself from boiling over when Schaefer sent one down straight at him that gave him the choice to get Vandyke at the plate, which he did, but he was still in danger of the altitude when Malmquest faced him. It's a situation where Silent Walter is apt to break out into conversation, and he did with a smashing liner toward second. Dick Dodson, seeing he couldn't get anything worse than a bad fall, went up after it and speared it with one hand, much to the discomfiture of the London clan. The locals gathered another in the eighth, when Vandyke singled to center, achieved second on a passed ball, third on a caught foul, and home on Stutz's single. Schaefer walked, and with Stutz, pulled a double steal, but the punch weakened when Malmquest whiffed, and Johnny Murphy made a sizzling fast pick-up of Kuhn's hot grounder.

Much Trippling.

Triples punctuated the first four runs the Aces got. In the first frame, Murphy, who was on by virtue of his choice, which killed Pike off at second, stole second and came in on a smash Nesser directed towards Shay. The sea lion went around on Kirby's triple to right which followed. The second started off better when Wright, who sent a hot one at Stutz, went on past the bag when he saw Donnelly drop the bounding peg, but failed to see Burman backing up the play. He was run down. Then Shaw, with all the impulsiveness of youth, horned into the affair with a very matured three-bag smash to middle field in behind the sign boards. Gillenwater's knock, which bounded high above Carmen's head and bounced on past second out to middle, scored his battery mate.

It was Bill Pike who nearly good-natured became in the fifth, when he lifted a ponderous but clean three-ply knock over Bill Kuhn's head, which Bill chased right diligently, else Pike might have broken into laughter at the plate. Ted Anderson's well-placed ground-out near second scored Pike.

In the seventh Murphy placed a hot one too close to the grass for Shay's peg to catch him, went to second on a wild pitch. Anderson's single to left scored the peppery Irishman. Nesser slapped one down on the edge of the foul line, which Donnelly caught with his bare hand while circling which he described back to the bag ahead of the big fellow.

There were ragged edges to the Aces' eighth. Kirby grounded safe to Stutz; Dodson flied out, and Wright Walked. So also did Shaw. Gillenwater drove in his second run with a high sacrifice fly to center. In the ninth Johnny Murphy singled, and went to second when Ted Anderson's fly was allowed to drop unmolested between short field and center. Carmen filled the bags, walking Kirby and Dodson with two gone. Wright's choice right into Stutz's mitt caught anderson off third.

CIVIC WELCOME TO BRITISH BOWLERS

Ottawa Mayor and Bowlers Take Part in Celebration.

OTTAWA, Aug. 3.—A cordial civic welcome was extended to the international British bowlers on their arrival here this morning by Mayor Plant. Many prominent local bowlers took part in the welcome. Today was given over to seeing points of interest in the city. Tomorrow and Friday special games have been arranged for the visitors, and Friday they will leave for Toronto.

Crichlow Leaves To Report To Grand Rapids

Crichlow left the city last night to report to the Grand Rapids club of the Central League. At the end of London's fifth inning yesterday Crichlow was presented with a traveling bag by the London club, Bill Moore doing the presentation honors.

Crichlow carries the best wishes of the London fans. He will probably be back here next year if the London club can get him.

Ole Mississippi was well satisfied with his London berth, except on very cold days. His loyalty to the London club really got him into the mix up which ultimately meant his going to Grand Rapids—and the aftermath of President Maines.

The worst Londoners can wish Crich. is that he'll meet no De Lave's in the Central League.

BRANT SLUGGERS HELD TO FOUR SCATTERED HITS BY SIMMONS

Bay City Makes It Three Out of Four From Hams.

HURONS BEAT BEAVERS

De Lave Has His Second Day of Trouble At Kitchener.

BRANTFORD, Aug. 3.—Simmons, the Flint rookie, held the Brants to four scattered hits in the contest behind the dyke this morning, while the Flint batters supported him runs, and the Vehics took last game of the series by 5 to 1. Both pitchers were good, but the Brants showed a decided looseness in the fielding department.

Although the Brants got men on the bases they did not make the hits which meant runs. The only Brant tally came in the eighth inning. Orme singled, and Polly Werre walked. Dye's single scored Orme before the side was retired with two men on bases. The score:

STILL WRECKING.

HAMILTON, Aug. 3.—Bay City made it three out of four today when they easily defeated the Hams by 8 to 1. The score indicates the difference in play. Cuyler connected for a home run in the first inning that sent in two runs ahead of it. It was a long clout over the centerfield fence with lots to spare. Reddy, late of Buffalo International ranks, was no puzzle to the Wolves, who clouted him to the four corners, connecting with his offerings for eleven safeties. Collins, for the visitors, allowed but six scattered hits, and was never in serious difficulty. The box score:

WILD BILL DONOVAN LIKES MOONEY GIBSON'S CHANCES

Wild Bill Donovan, manager of the Phillies, former Washington and Detroit flinger, paid a short visit to town yesterday and attended the ball game. While here he intimated to London fans that he thought Mooney Gibson's Buccaneers had more than a good chance for the senior pennant.

"Unless we grab it off ourselves," added Bill, which, of course, must have been one of Bill's wild ones.

Bill's seen some wild baseball. He's played some very untamed stuff himself even, and it's probable that he wasn't hilarious about yesterday's exhibition. Even at that, there should be quite a bit of material around the Mint circuit which could be of help to the Phillies at times in their downward career.

Local Riflemen Go To Long Branch

Party Leaves On Sunday For Toronto Shoot.

London will be well represented at the O. R. A. rifle matches next week at the Long Branch ranges, near Toronto. The following party will leave by the noon G. T. R. train on Sunday, all being members of the W. O. R. Rifle Association: Sergt. M. H. Lee, Sergt. H. E. Smith, Pte. J. H. Sinclair, Sergt. J. W. Smith, Pte. C. W. Morgan, Pte. E. Francis, Pte. H. Oke and Sergt. C. W. Smith. The party expects to be joined by Major W. Chester Butler and Pte. Fred Allen, who are now on their way home from the national rifle matches at Bisley.

The following week the party will proceed to Ottawa to take part in the D. R. A. matches at the new Connaught ranges near Ottawa. The W. O. R. has good material for a first-class team, and will enter all the team events in competition with other regiments. It is regretted that Major T. J. Murphy may not be able to take part in the matches, owing to pressure of private affairs.

"RAINMAKERS" AGAIN MATCHED.

New York, Aug. 4.—For the eighth time General Tunney, A. E. F. light-heavyweight champion, and Marty Burke, New Orleans, will attempt to fight here tonight. They have been matched seven times to date in various cities, but each bout was postponed, usually on account of rain, and now the fighters are known as the "rainmakers."

DELLOW LOSES AGAIN TO NORMAN GENERAL

Indian Finishes Ten-Mile Race in a Sprint Like a Mile-Runner.

BRANTFORD, Aug. 3.—The twilight meet this evening proved a big feature of the old-home week celebration, with a modified run over a 10-mile course via Tutela Heights, as the big event. This was won by Norman General of the Brantford Lacrosse Club, who defeated Dellow and Scholes of Toronto, who ran with him in the last Olympic marathon. The time was 55:5, and is considered excellent in view of the rough course. General came down the home stretch in a sprint like a mile runner.

In the modified marathon the runners finished in the following order: Norman General, Brantford; Dellow, G. A. C., Toronto; Charles White, G. A. C., Toronto; Art Scholes, G. A. C., Toronto; Thomas Ellis, Hamilton; W. M. Stevenson, Grimsby; Robert Wilson, G. A. C., Toronto; Bruce Martin, Mount Hamilton; George M. Green, Ohsweken; B. Fulcher, Brantford; Fred Douglas, Ohsweken. Percy Weir, Fred Makinson, Harvey Irwin, Francis Hughes, Eddie Rae, Charles Morton and Sage Harris also ran. Ellis led in the way out of the inner track, but on the route round Tutela Heights he was displaced by the four others who finished in the same order and took the four first prizes.

A. M. Trick Wins Elmwood Singles

Two Tillsonburg Trundlers Left in Second Event Finals.

Albert Trick won the Smallman & Ingram Trophy over at the Elmwood singles tourney yesterday, beating Dr. Jarvis out of the silverware by a score of 21—13. The second event went to Tillsonburg bowlers, A. S. Rennie and W. S. McDonald going into the finals in this, and deciding to play it off at home.

The trundling yesterday at the south side greens was of excellent quality, and every game was hard fought.

The trophy winner met Gillette from Aylmer in the semi-finals, and Dr. Jarvis drew McDonald of Tillsonburg for his opponent in the semi-finals. Manness and Hillier, Londoners, succumbed in the semi-finals of the second event by margins that were not too large at any time for them to overcome.

Yesterday's affair will do much to popularize the singles of the Elmwoods.

ST. MARYS TOY WITH SARNIA LACROSSE TEAM

17--2 Score of First Clash in O. A. L. A. Semi-Final At Stone Town—Was a Surprise.

ST. MARYS, Ont., Aug. 3.—Sarnia and St. Marys, both winners of their respective groups in the Intermediate O. A. L. A., and old rivals, met on the flats here today in the first of their home and home games, and when the final whistle blew the locals found themselves victors by a 17 to 2 score. It was a surprise for everyone and even Billy Lavelle could hardly credit it, as Sarnia was known to have a good team. A good one they have, but today's battle proves they are not in the same class. Cowan started the ball rolling barely three minutes after the face-off with a counter, followed by two from Billie Lavelle's stick within the next ten minutes. This gave St. Marys a good start and they simply held the visitors at bay for the remainder of the period. Early in the second Yates made a rush up the field, passed to Cowan, who handed it over to Stricker, which meant one more tally. Wondering if Sarnia could score, the St. Marys goal was left open for them, but no, they failed in the attempt. St. Marys recovered the ball, and made a dash for poor McDonald, and lo, another for Billy. Only two more minutes and up slipped Stricker with the third goal in this period. Lou Lavelle, with fifteen seconds to go, passed to Cowan, who fell in front of the net, but tallied.

Picked Up.

Sarnia picked up and showed wonderful form early in the third, but it did not last long as Stricker got the ball, made a shot. It missed, and in the rebound Bill Lavelle was on the job and another one went into the Sarnia net. Two minutes and Cowan back with one. By this time McDonald was almost tired out, up and down the field two or three times rushed both teams like madmen, but all of a sudden Stricker sprung from nowhere and ran in another. Immediately following the face-off Tuer brought one more in for the Stone Town. Billie Lavelle with a clear shot from centre put in one so fast that the Sarnia goal keeper couldn't even see it. By this time the Sarnia boys were getting desperate and McDonald left his goal, making a wild rush down the field, thought he might change the luck, but even with him in the forward line they were unable to score in the fourth period, and after three minutes of fast play on both sides, Lou Lavelle rushed from centre scoring the thirteenth goal, wich must have been lucky for Sarnia. Just shortly after, they made two brilliant rushes and scored twice. The reason of this being that St. Marys didn't want to simply whitewash them. St. Marys came back. Billy Lavelle scored, followed by Cowan. Two minutes Billy with another one. Half minute and Lou Lavelle with a parting shot put in the seventeenth goal. The game was clean throughout and both teams put up a fine showing in spite of the one-sided score. This game gives the Stone Town lads fifteen goals of a lead to go up to Sarnia with, so there is little doubt as to what the result of the first round of the semi-finals will be.
