OATS SHOWED A SLIGHT ADVANCE IN PRICE TODAY

Top Price Was $1.20 Per Cwt. —Hay Prices Dropped a Notch.

Some 35 or 40 loads of hay crowded the hay market on the local square this morning. Sales were not so ready as they have been, and the price dropped lower than it has for some time past, a few loads selling as low as $10 per ton and none going higher than $12.

Oats took another slight advance, the top price today being $1 20 per cwt. The price varied from $1 15 to $1 20 per cwt.

Butter sold at 22 cents per pound, and eggs at 19 cents per dozen. In both dairy produce and eggs the supply was small.

Vegetables and greenstuffs were not so plentiful as on recent market days. The flower market was gay with roses, carnations and peonies.

Dressed poultry was moderately well supplied and sold at fair prices to ready purchasers.

INSURANCE ON THE COLD STORAGE BUILDING

Names of the Companies Which Are Interested.

"Our loss depends altogether on the condition of the insulation of the plant," said Mr. T. H. Smallman, the president of the Cold Storage Company, to The Advertiser. "The various departments, or sections are insulated, and if the water has done damage to them we will suffer a great loss. We cannot tell at the present time. The stock is in good shape, and the loss will not be large so far as that is concerned. We are hoping that it will not be large. There will be no interruption of business, we find, and we will be prepared to take any goods tonight or tomorrow morning."

The insurance on the building is carried by G. M. Gunn & Co., and amounts to $70,000, distributed among fourteen companies in equal shares. The companies involved are: British-American, Manitoba, London Assurance, the Sovereign, the Hartford, the Phoenix, the Scottish Union, the North British, the Phoenix of London, the Western, the Royal, the Northern, the Standard, and the Caledonia.

"I cannot say what the loss will be," said Mr. Gunn. "An enormous volume of water was poured into the building, and the loss may be heavy. I cannot approximate it at the present time."

The rescue of some of the furs was carried out with considerable nerve by the employees of the company. A number of them went to the top flat, and forming a human chain, they handed the goods out. The smoke was so intense that they would not venture in any distance. In this way several hundreds of dollars' worth of furs were protected by the men.

TELEGRAPH POLES ROTTEN AT BASE

C. P. R. Company Must Replace Them at Once.

The C. P. R. Telegraph Company will have to put in new poles on Richmond and Dundas streets before the pavement is resurfaced. When the Barber Asphalt Company started to fill in the trenches, it was found that the poles were rotten at the base, and the company were notified to put in new poles at once.

City Engineer Wright instructed the company to get to work at once, and today received word that the poles had been shipped and would be replaced this week.

"We will not be delayed to any extent," said Mr. Wright. "It will take them but a short time to place their poles, and then they will be good for some years to come."

Undoubtedly there will be a large number of citizens avail themselves of the opportunity of visiting the store, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

EX-ALD. GILLEAN FOR THE HOSPITAL TRUST

Understood That He Will Succeed Mr. J. C. Judd, K. C.

There will be a meeting of the hospital trust on Wednesday afternoon to accept the resignation of Mr. J. C. Judd, K.C., as member. Owing to the fact that he has been appointed police magistrate, it will be impossible for him to sit on the board.

The meeting was first called for this afternoon, but it was found impossible to obtain a quorum, and the session was put over till Wednesday.

It is probable that Mr. Thomas Gillean will be named for the vacancy. In conversation with a number of the aldermen his was the name most prominently mentioned, and it is considered more than likely that he will be given the position.

VERY FAVORABLE RATES FOR LONDON OLD BOYS

The Fare for the Reunion Here Will Be $26.20 From Winnipeg.

The London Old Boys west of Port Arthur will obtain good rates for the reunion. Secretary Jas. O. Weldon, of the home guard, has received a letter from Mr. Fred Chittick, of Winnipeg, international president, stating that a rate of $26.20 had been quoted to them.

All the railways will meet this rate, and it is certain, as a result, that a very large number of westerners will be in London during the holiday week.

President Chittick states that he has been in touch with a large number of the organizations in the west, and they are all enthusiastic over the reunion. He is certain there will be one special train from Winnipeg, and in all probability there will be two.

"Everything is progressing most favorably," said Secretary Weldon. "With good rates on the railways, there is no reason in the world why we should not have the best reunion ever held. I have had scores and hundreds of inquiries, and all of them show the greatest enthusiasm in the celebration. The western boys are in great shape, and there is absolutely no question that they will be down in large numbers."

There will be a meeting of the railway committee tonight in the city hall to consider the communications received.

BAITS SIR EDWARD OVER PEACE PACT

Unionist Critic Thinks Great Britain Has Been "Bamboozled."

[Canadian Press.]

London, May 30. — Rowland Hunt, Unionist member of parliament for the Ludlow division of Shropshire, who has made it his special business to bait Sir Edward Grey, the foreign secretary, on the subject of President Taft's arbitration proposal, returned to the charge in the House of Commons this afternoon.

Mr. Hunt suggested that the great expectations which had been raised by Mr. Taft's offer had been whittled away, as its ratification by the Senate was received, and that the proposal could no longer be regarded as the basis for a treaty of unrestricted arbitration.

"May we hope," he asked, "that in the future the Government will not allow itself to be bamboozled by foreign powers?"

Foreign Secretary Grey declined to comment on the proposed treaty until he had thoroughly digested it.

"The full text of the draft of the treaty has only just been received, and I have not yet seen it," Sir Edward said. "I intend to pay it the compliment of giving it my full consideration before I make any detailed comment concerning it."

The foreign secretary added that he did not know what Mr Hunt's expectations were, but the time to decide whether these had been disappointed would be when the treaty was concluded. The draft of the treaty as of a tentative character, and would form the subject of discussions on the part of the two governments. After consideration, the British Government would make its suggestions to the United States Government, which was the author of the treaty. He declined to debate the matter until the discussion between the two governments had been concluded.
