A BACHELOR'S CONSOLATION,

A Romance of the Needle.

BY ROCKAFELLOW.

I.

In a snug little cot, not a thousand miles off,
Lived a lonely, contented old "bach,"
Who cooked his own grub, and dined by himself,
And had no one to sew on a patch.

II.

With his cat, and his dog, and his little pet mouse,
Our hero, 'twas said, wanted nothing:
But needles were sharp, and would frequently stick,
So he oft went with holes in his clothing.

III

There no doubt were misses and maids quite near
Who would fly to relieve his distresses,
But he oft had declared he could never abide
The appearance of hoopskirts and dresses.

IV.

Now, this lucky old bachelor heard by a friend,
Or read in his morning journal,
Of the wonderful stitching of sewing machines,
And considered the matter nocturnal.

V.

Having fully determined to get a machine,
He spent a whole day in inspection,
For an hour or so would never suffice
To select from so large a collection.

VI.

For some thought the "Wheeler & Wilson" the best,
And others the "Wilcox & Gibbs,"
While others affirmed that the agents of both
Were too much inclined to tell fibs.

VII.

And a few for the "Florence" were ready to fight,
While most liked the "New Family Singer;"
Another one swore the "Osborne" was best,
The last one, I think, was a shaker.

VIII.

So first to the "Wheeler & Wilson" he went,
Where he found them making a shirt,
At the end of each seam they used needle and thread,
And by experience he knew they would hurt.

IX.

Then down to the agent of "Florence" he went,
And told him the part that was slack,
So the "Florence" a certain advantage had gained
By the feed that could make it sew back.

X.

But our Bachelor friend was dissatisfied still,
For the "Florence" so complicate seemed,
He feared the minutiæ might "get out of fix,"
And could never be wholly redeemed.

XI.

Then they told him another advantage they had
Over other machines in the West,
That four different stitches with it they could make,
And from four he might sure get the best.

XII.

Our hero replied, "What's the use of the four!
None of the stitches is best,
Why that is the right one to use all the time,
And what will you do with the rest?"

XII.

The "Howe" and the "Wilson" both vainly he tried,
The "Domestic" and "Osborne" as well,
But the "Howe" was too heavy, the "Wilson" too light,
And the "Osborne" broke down on a fell.

XIV.

The "Finkle & Lyon" or "Victor" he tried,
The "Ætna," "Bloss," "Leavitt" and "Weed,"
Till worried and vexed with his fruitless research,
He scarce hoped in the end to succeed.

XV.

After trying in vain many other Machines,
Without any hope of success,
He called where the "Singer New Family" was kept,
And they quickly relieved his distress.

XVI.

For here half a dozen machines were engaged
In stitching of different sorts,
Which they did so complete, and with so little noise
He acknowledged the truth of reports.

XVII.

In lightness of running, in stillness and speed,
In construction so simple, yet strong,
Sure none but the "New Family Singer" would vie,
Though he'd searched through the infinite throng.

XVIII.

Then the stitch was so neat, so elastic, so strong
That he only endeavored to break it,
And so many advantages in it combined
That he quickly decided to take it.

J. D. LAWLOR,
Manufacturer of the New Singer Family.
feb 25 40 King street.

From Saturday's Second Edition.

FREDERICTON, March 21.

Mr. O'Leary said the $700 referred to and another $500 special grant, had to come out of Kent's bye road money this year, and Mr. Girouard spent it among his friends to get support for the Government. When such things are done to corrupt members and the people he must vote for the resolution.

Hon. Mr. Willis claimed that the Opposition had established no charge made, and said all explanations had been satisfactory and no proof either in law or fact had been adduced to show wherein there had been real or attempted corruption. He then went into a personal explanation in reference to associating himself with the Opposition in 1872. He had promised his St. John constituents at the hustings to support the free non-sectarian school measure, and, that being made law, he was free to act as he liked so long as he did not endanger that measure. The Government did not pursue so vigorous a policy as he had wished, and as he believed the opposition sincere in their professions of loyalty to the Act; he consented to join their ranks and finally accepted the leadership. He read extracts from the News' report of the want of confidence debate to show he had reason to believe the opposition sincere all through in professed loyalty to the School Act until after the session, when he discovered by their acts in the country in moving resolutions and signing petitions adverse to the act that they were insincere. Then he left them.

The debate was adjourned till Saturday afternoon.

The Becaguemic Boom Company bill, after several speeches, was agreed to.

Mr Lindsay committed a bill further to amend the Maduxnekik Boom Company act, Mr. Palmer in the chair. In reply to Mr. Adams Mr. Lindsay said the committee had heard the American party, as well as those favorable to the first bill, by themselves and counsel, and this bill was the result.

Mr. Robinson also explained the deliberations of the committee, and said the bill was the best thing the committee could do as between the parties.

Hon. Mr. Crawford said, in order that the house might judge intelligently on the bill, all the questions in dispute between the parties should be explained by the mover.

Mr. Lindsay said the great point of difference is as to whether the Boom Master should have the power to close the River entirely across at certain times, or not. The committee had determined to leave the question as to when the Boom should be opened or closed to the judgment of the Boom Master. There had been some objections on the ground that the bill interfered with the provisions of the Ashburton treaty, but the House is not the place to settle such questions as that.

Mr. Wedderburn hoped, as the interests of another country were involved, the House would be all the more careful in dealing out justice to all. Under the section of the bill giving one more power to close the river up at will there is no knowing what ruin may be worked to lumber operators. It is well also that the House should act intelligently in a matter affecting the Ashburton treaty, though the interpretation of that officially belongs to the Attorney General. The boom master may shut up the river at any time when the water is at a certain pitch—the most important part of the driving season—thus preventing millions of logs from finding an outlet at the proper time, with the result of hanging them up for months within the limits of the boom. The provision enabling the boom master to use this dangerous discretion should be struck out.

Shipping Notes.

Quick Run.—The schooner Lizzie K., Waters, Masler, which left Portland yesterday at 7 a. m., arrived here this morning a little before 8 o'clock, thus making the trip in 24 hours.

The bark Algeria.—Telegraphic advices to Messrs. Taylor Bros., from their agents in Galveston, received this morning report that the bark Algeria, from Havre, via Key West, for Galveston, before reported ashore on Bolwar Beach, has been got off without damage and has been taken to Galveston.

The Bark L. G. Bigelow, O'Neil, master, from Liverpool 15th ult., for Providence, R. I., has been spoken returning to Belfast, with loss of mainmast and mizzentopmast.

The bark Eliza Ouiton—(Tel. to Board of Trade.)—From Savannah, 9th ult., for Malmo, is aground at Hoganas, Sweden, and will have to discharge a portion of her cargo before she can be got off She is leaking badly aft and has five feet of water in her hold.

The Circuit Court.

Henry Short swore he heard the first conversation between W. Gerow and Hamm. Gerow had stated that the horse was getting all right. The horse was staggering when taken into Hamm's stable. The horse was left on Saturday and died on Monday. The sleigh was put away and had not been used since.

Dr. Bunting swore that he had found the horse sick, pulse about 100. A healthy horse's pulse beats from 36 to 40. The horse was in such a state that he declined to treat him, and had no hopes of his recovery.

Mr. Thomson then addressed the jury. He contended that Gerow had perpetrated a fraud on his client in selling him a horse in a dying state. The fact was, Hamm had once sold a horse—by auction—to Gerow, and Gerow had been cheated. This sale to Hamm was but an offset. In concluding he told the jury that the present tone of society demanded that they should give a verdict to his client, as it was now considered that "a man who swaps or deals in horses has a perfect right to cheat as much as he can."

Mr. Palmer, for the plaintiff, contended that Gerow had in perfect good faith sold the horse and taken Hamm's note for the amount. A misfortune had happened and Gerow had offered to divide the amount in dispute. Mr. Palmer quoted a number of authorities in support of the legal points taken. After his speech the Court adjourned until Monday, when the Judge will charge the jury.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL — DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA — EUREKA — VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

MRS. LESTER—Dear Madam, I have been troubled for the last fifteen years with Biliousness, and have tried many of the different kinds of medicines recommended for the cure of the above complaint, but received no material benefit until I commenced using your DINNER PILLS, (now about eight months since.) I continued their use according to directions for about three months, and must say that I have enjoyed better health since taking the Pills than I have for the last fifteen years, and would recommend them, with all confidence, to any person similarly troubled.

I am, Madam,
Yours, very thankfully,
HENRY HANEY.
