REDMOND'S DEFECTION

Is Wormwood to the Irish National Federation.

ULSTERMEN MEET IN NOVEMBER.

The Mashonaland Campaign Will be Short.

Men and Women Trampled by Horses in a French Miners' Riot — A Falling off in Canada's Trade With England—Earl Clancarty Financially Embarrassed — Startling Developments Imminent in Brazil—The Austrian Militia to be Re-organized—Emin Pasha's Successor.

DUBLIN, Oct. 11.—The Irish National Federation held a meeting to-night. Michael Davitt said the latest development in Redmond's unpatriotic policy was his attempt to belittle the Home Rule cause and to organize a movement in the country for the purpose of thwarting its authors. If Redmond's policy were carried out, said Davitt, the Irish party would soon have to face a Tory Government and be estranged from the Radical party. Ireland, however, would not be deceived by this thinly disguised treachery to Home Rule. Ireland's national representatives would keep faith with the industrial democracy of Great Britain.

UNIONIST COUNCIL OF FORTY

To Co-Operate With the Ulster Members in Opposing Home Rule.

A circular from the Watch Committee of the Ulster Convention League, signed by the Duke of Abercorn, Earl Erne, Lord Arthur W. Hill, Col. Saunderson, M.P., the Mayors of Belfast and Londonderry, and Thomas Sinclair, who, with Abercorn, is mentioned for the presidency of Ulster, for a meeting to be held in Belfast on November 6, was issued to-night. It says the attitude of the Ulsterites is unchanged and a council of 40 men of courage and discretion is to be elected who will co-operate with the Ulster members of Parliament in formulating a scheme in opposition to the Home Rule movement for submission to the convention.

REDMOND AND THE CLAN-NA-GAEL

His Speech at Dublin Said to Be An Appeal for Young Men to Organize.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes another interview with the secret service officer, supposed to be the Spy Le Caron, whose views in regard to the Clan-na-Gael were recently cabled to Canada by the Associated Press. The officer declares that the speech delivered by Mr. John E. Redmond at the Parnellites' meeting in the Rotunda at Dublin on Monday evening confirms his reports that the Clan-na-Gael is organizing. Redmond's speech, he says, is an appeal to the young men to be in readiness for work in the immediate future.

MATABELE WAR WILL BE SHORT.

Cecil Rhodes Says it May Last a Month—Lobengula Preparing for Defeat.

CAPE TOWN, Oct. 11.—The columns proceeding against the Matabeles have already advanced 50 miles. Mr. Cecil Rhodes of the Chartered Company predicts that the campaign will be finished within a month. King Lobengula has sent much of his property in the direction of the Zambesi, and has a fleet ready for use in case it is needed.

Lobengula is reported to be encamped with the pick of his troops between Buluwayo and Fort Charter on the Shanghai River. The officers of the chartered ship are convinced that their own troops will suffice and that Tati will be occupied on Friday or Saturday.

Fired Upon from Ambush.

A despatch to The Pall Mall Gazette from Johannesburg, South African Republic, says: "The troops advancing from Forts Victoria and Charter were frequently fired upon by small bodies of the enemy in the bush. There has been no fixed engagement up to the present time."

Carrington Offers His Services.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The celebrated Colonel Carrington of Carrington's Horse, who has held many commands in South Africa since 1877, has offered to take command of the Mashona expedition. Colonel Carrington's offer will possibly be accepted. Theodore Bent in an interview yesterday expressed the opinion that Lobengula would be defeated. "But," he added, "the Government must act with energy. If the Matabeles are not subdued before the rainy season the British will have to face a harassing guerilla warfare and will have to take the field again in the spring."

WILL NOT CALL IN QUEENSLAND.

The Canadian-Australian Steamers May Touch at Fiji Instead.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—James Huddart has cabled to Sydney definitely abandoning all the ports of call in Queensland for the Canadian-Australian steamers. This is consequent because of Queensland's hesitancy to subsidize the line.

Mr. Huddart is now seeking the permission of the Canadian Government to substitute the Fiji Islands as ports of call instead of Brisbane. The Governor of South Wales has already consented to the change and it is expected to lead to financial help from Great Britain, as well as promote the trade and success of the line.

Mr. Huddart is contracting for a complete system of refrigerators at a cost of $50,000 for the steamers Miowera and Warrimoo.

AFFAIRS IN BRAZIL.

Startling Developments Imminent—Restoration of the Monarchy Assured.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 11.—Desultory firing is proceeding between the insurgent squadron and the forts. The city is quiet and is not touched by the enemy's shells. Banks and other establishments are open and general business is proceeding as usual. President Peixoto has issued a manifesto, in which he says that should the Congressional elections on the 30th inst. result adversely to him he will know how to obey the will of the country.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Exchange Telegraph Company says a private telegram has been received from Rio stating that startling developments are imminent in the capital and that the restoration of the empire is merely a question of time.

Gen. Chinchila to Command at Melilla.

MADRID, Oct. 11.—The Government has ordered Gen. Chinchila to Melilla to take command of the engineers and artillery. It has been decided that whatever forts Spain builds shall be located on Gurudu heights and the side of Quariach in advance of the Melilla lines. The majority of the newspapers censure the Government and Gen. Marjello for their hesitancy in sending out an expedition to punish the Moors.

CANADA'S TRADE WITH BRITAIN.

Our Imports and Exports Both Show a Decrease.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The British Board of Trade returns show that the British exports to Canada decreased 18.52 per cent. in September and increased 3 per cent. in the nine months of 1893.

The British imports from Canada decreased 6.65 per cent. for the month and 17.4 for the nine months.

Canada sent less cattle, sheep, bacon, hams, butter, cheese, eggs, fish and wheat than she did last year.

MEN AND WOMEN TRAMPLED

In a Cavalry Charge on Rioting Miners in France.

PARIS, Oct. 11.—A despatch from Lens says a very turbulent meeting of striking coal miners was held at Henin Tietard in the Pas de Calais district last night. During the meeting the strikers became most disorderly. The dragoons were called out and the strikers were ordered to disperse. On refusing to do so the dragoons charged the mob and several men and women were trampled by the horses and severely injured. Agitator Goulle was arrested.

The Riots Continue.

The disturbances continued throughout the night. In various parts of the district there were riotous processions, which were repeatedly charged upon and dispersed by cavalry.

Resorted to Dynamite.

A miner's house at Noyelles-Godault has been wrecked by an explosion of a dynamite bomb. The inmates had a narrow escape.

Humbert's Sympathy With MacMahon.

ROME, Oct. 11.—King Humbert has sent this telegram to Signor Rossman, the Italian Ambassador in Paris: "Holding in affectionate remembrance the glorious part taken by the illustrious Marshal MacMahon in the campaign of 1859, I beg you to convey to the Marshal and his family my hope that he might yet be spared for many long years retaining the gratitude of Italians and the admiration of the valiant French army."

Dr. Harich Sent Down For Six Months.

BERLIN, Oct. 11.—Dr. Harich of The Berlin Tageblatt, whom Gen. Kirchbach tried to shoot in his house last week, was convicted in the sheriff's court here to-day of having insulted the editor of a Saarbruecken newspaper. He was sentenced to six months' imprisonment. The court held that he should be punished with exceptional severity, as he had been found guilty so recently of the offence against the Kirchbach family.

The Coal Strike is Over.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Many of the miners are returning to work. About 2600 went back to work to-day at the Stanton pits in Nottingham. Many men returned to work in the largest pits at Ashton and South Derbyshire. Throughout Leicester work has been resumed.

Mine owners have decided to accept the proposals for a settlement of the trouble made by the mayors of Sheffield and other cities.

Reorganization of the Austrian Militia.

VIENNA, Oct. 11.—The new bill introduced into the Reichsrath for the reorganization of the Austrian Landwehr provides that the 10 years of non-active service be abolished. It contains a clause preventing the Landwehr being sent out of the country. By this bill the Government aims to bring the Landwehr into closer relation with the army so that in the event of war the military authorities may use the militia to greater advantage.

Earl Clancarty's Financial Troubles.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—According to an affidavit made to-day in a Dublin court Earl Clancarty is in financial troubles. An action which was brought against the Earl to recover £660 for carriage hire brought out the fact that his embarrassment is light. Other actions amounting to £4250 are pending. Earl Clancarty is living in London with his wife, who was formerly Belle Bilton, and who last week gave birth to a daughter.

DUTCH BLUEBEARD DE JONG.

BODY OF ONE OF HIS SUPPOSED VICTIMS DISCOVERED.

The Remains of Miss Juett, His English Wife, Said To Have Been Found In a Forest—De Jong Seen Where Miss Schmitz Was Last Observed Alive.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Sun announces that a body, said to be that of Miss Juett, the English wife of the Dutchman, Hendrik de Jong, who mysteriously disappeared recently in Holland, has been found in the Wolfezen Wood, near Arnheim. This discovery leaves little doubt of hew the unfortunate woman met her fate.

On July 7 last De Jong and his wife left the Hotel Sluys at Arnheim and were seen to enter the forest which surrounds the town. Shortly afterward De Jong returned alone and stated that he had left his wife at the railway station. For several days subsequently he remained in Arnheim, passing his nights at the residence of a Mrs. Wentink, a woman whom some years previously he had tried to persuade to accompany him to Amsterdam. Next he was seen in Amsterdam, where he paid assiduous court to a Miss Maria Sybilla Schmitz.

Where Miss Schmitz Disappeared.

The non-appearance of Miss Juett aroused suspicion, and when Miss Schmitz in her turn also disappeared the Dutch police commenced to investigate the matter. Their theory was that Miss Schmitz had come to an untimely end near Laren's Camp, outside Amsterdam, on Aug. 31. This is the date of the Dutch Queen's birthday celebrations, and late in the evening a great many people went out to Laren's Camp to see the fireworks.

Moans Heard in the Bush.

Three board school teachers—A. J. Jansma, G. J. Vos and W. van de Brock—say that when returning home between 10 and 11 o'clock by a path over the heath from Blaricum to Naarden they were brought to a stand by hearing very distinctly a remarkable sound of moaning. They, however, could find nothing. But when they got home they found that Mr. Schilders, their landlord, and his daughter, a girl about 15, had heard similar sounds when coming from the camp. Aug. 28 is the last time Miss Schmitz was seen alive so far as the police have yet traced.

Then some clothes were discovered in a pawnshop at Amsterdam, which appear to exactly correspond with those in which the poor young English girl was photographed during her short stay at Arnheim.

Another Discovery.

The Dutch police next discovered a piece of lace, which was found clinging to the branch of a tree at about the height of a man's breast. It has every appearance of having been torn from a woman's clothes, but was at too great a height to have been caught by the tree in any ordinary way. Upon this discovery the police built the theory that if De Jong murdered his second wife about the spot where the cries were heard he may have carried her and buried her body some distance away.

A Further Clue.

A further clue, according to the Dutch papers, has also been found. In this neighborhood there are several footprints, evidently impressed by an English-made boot, the native footwear possessing much narrower welts and heels than do those made in England.

Seen By Two Laborers.

Two laborers now have added that on the night of Aug. 31, when they were returning from the festivities, they saw a man coming toward them from a part of the heath where there was no path, and as soon as he came in sight he darted back in the darkness. They were alarmed for a moment, and all they remember is that the man appeared to be one of medium height.

An important factor in fixing this night of Aug. 31 as the date of the disappearance of Miss Schmitz is that De Jong did not on that night stay at any of the hotels at which he had been in the habit of staying.

THE HOOPER CASE.

The Prisoner Reaches Montreal—A Change of Venue to be Asked For.

MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—Hooper, who is accused of poisoning his wife and who was brought to Montreal to-day, left to-night in charge of Detective Carpenter for Joilette, where he will be lodged in jail to await the close of the inquest at Port Hope.

It is probable that Hooper will be tried before the Court of Queen's Bench, and an effort will be made by his counsel to transfer the trial from the district of Joliette to Montreal, so that the case may be tried before an English jury.

SWALLOWED UP WITH ALL HANDS.

That Was the Probable Fate of the Missing Ship Valkyrie.

HALIFAX, N.S., Oct. 11.—The Government steamer Lansdowne returned from Sable Island to-day with the report that the life buoy of the St. John ship Valkyrie was picked up on the eastern sandbar off the island.

The Valkyrie left Sydney two months ago for New York and was never afterwards heard of. Her deckhouse and other wreckage were washed ashore on the island.

The ship is supposed to have struck on the bar and been swallowed in the quicksands, with all hands.

AN ALL-NIGHT SESSION.

ENGLISH INFLUENCE EVERYWHERE.

Imaginative Parisian Journalists Allege That Britain Caused the Moors to Revolt.

PARIS, Oct. 11.—The reception of the Russian fleet at Toulon is but two days off, and the Russian fever grows hourly in intensity. The newspapers now give daily long lists of Russian officials and dignitaries who have come to Paris to witness the fetes. Russian decorations are seen everywhere in such variety and beauty as would not be possible in any other continental capital. Designers and manufacturers have been put to their wit's end to produce novelties which will appeal to the popular fancies. The shops have in their windows full length portraits of the Czar and of Admiral Avalan, who commands the visiting squadron.

British Perfidy In Everything.

Even while thus preoccupied the French editors have not missed every small chance to bait John Bull. They have found in the attacks of the Moors on the Spaniards at Melilla only another evidence of English perfidy. They have roused anew French prejudice against Britain by declaring that English emissaries were behind the outbreak, and that England is only waiting for an opportunity to interfere between Spain and Morocco.

Anxious For Treaties With Morocco.

There is little doubt that both France and England are anxious for a chance to present to Sultan Muley Hassan treaties similar to ones he recently refused to sign for them. Neither the French nor the British Government would be unwilling to probably use the Sultan's present trouble with Spain to secure such an end. This rivalry to obtain the benefits of the Melilla affair is one source of French jealousy.

The Figaro's Fertile Imagination.

The Figaro has outdone all competitors in attacking England. It has published remarkable rumors to prove England's activity among the savages. One of its stories is that Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, English ambassador in Madrid, has been instructed to induce Spain to organize a complete military expedition against the Moors, the Kabyles believing that the Sultan when hard pressed would call on England for help, and thus open the way for her protectorate over Morocco.

More Ghost Stories.

The Figaro declares to-day that William Woodall, financial secretary in the British War Department, and a certain Lord of the Admiralty sailed yesterday on the gunboat Bramble from Gibraltar for Tangier, where they will take a hand in Moorish affairs. These surprising stories, although supported only by The Figaro's word, are swallowed by many Parisians of intelligence and by the whole rank and file of newspaper readers.

The Republique Francaise urges Spain to punish the Moors as they deserve regardless of British sulks, and not to allow herself to be intimidated as was Portugal by England's frown.

Under the direction of Gen. Saussier, military governor of Paris, manoeuvres involving every branch of the military and medical service were begun near the city on Oct. 9. They will last until Saturday night. The troops in the field include two squadrons of cavalry, four infantry regiments and eight batteries. A novel feature of the medical service is a boat ambulance which is intended on the canal between Livny and Pantin.

Marshal MacMahon, whose illness had caused his friends much alarm in the last week, is resting well to-day, but his condition is still critical. There is no prospect of his attending the banquet to the Russians. His invitation was carried to him yesterday by the secretary of the municipal council, who went to Chateau La Forest so as to show full honors to the veteran. Marshal Canrobert also has declined his invitation, as he is weakened by age and many ailments. In his letter to the secretary he said: "I regret that I am unable to honor the guests whose valor and solid qualities we learned to appreciate in the desperate struggles before Sebastopol."

This evening it is reported that Count Ferdinand De Lesseps had recovered fully from his recent acute illness. He was suffering merely from derangement of the stomach.

The Labor Congress of the Guesa districts closed on Monday evening. Its proceedings were conducted with great mystery. The Socialist journals in Paris paid little attention to it and the general opinion is that the whole affair was a fizzle.

Prince de Joinville, son of Louis Phillippe, has completed his memoirs and placed them in the hands of his publishers. They are said to contain a great fund of new anecdote concerning court society in the days of Louis Phillippe's power. The first official reception of the diplomatic corps ever held at the embassy of the United States will take place early in November. Had Mr. Eustis come as Minister instead of Ambassador he would have been required by diplomatic etiquet to pay personal visits to the other diplomats as soon as he had presented his credentials to President Carnot. As an ambassador he simply issues a kind of circular note stating the day on which he will receive his colleagues. Russian stocks were depressed on the Boerse to-day owing to an unfounded rumor that the negotiations for a commercial treaty between Russia and Germany had ended in failure.

TROUBLE IN THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL

Two of the Inmates Ask the Court for Relief.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 11.—John and Ann Hamilton of the House of Israel have filed a bill of complaint against Eliza Court and others of Israel asking the court for relief. The Hamiltons claim that Michael K. Mills, alias "Prince Mike," now an inmate of the State Prison and Eliza Court had induced them under false pretences to sell their property in Canada worth $10,000, and give them the money for religious purposes. They charge these two Israelites gathered in many victims, fleeced them and then turned them upon the world penniless.

The bill further alleges that the management of the colony is in the hands of Elizabeth Court, who is said to rule in the most tyrannical manner, using the funds and property of the individuals for her own purposes.

Shipmates Have a Jolly Time.

One of the most obliging and good-natured crews that sailed out of Toronto during the season just closed was that of the favorite boat Chicora. And officers and crew were never in better humor than last night, when they assembled in the dining room of the boat. Their work on the lake was done, as the Chicora made her last trip for the season.

The occasion of the gathering was the presentation of a handsome illuminated address to Captain James Harbottle, the popular captain. Accompanying the address was a pair of the latest improved marine glasses. The presentation was made on behalf of the crew by First Officer Higinbotham. Chief Engineer Parker was not forgotten by his shipmates, and will in future wear a gold chain and locket. Second Engineer Rafferty in a neat speech made the presentation.

The evening was spent right merrily in speeches, songs and recitations given as only jolly sailors can.

WOMEN AND MEDICINE.

Satisfactory Opening of the Woman's Medical College—The Lieutenant-Governor Present.

The Woman's Medical Building was closely packed last night, the occasion being the opening of the school term. Among those present were: Drs. J. F. W. Ross, Cleland, Duncan, Thistle, Dwyer, Drummond, Ray, Thomas, Inspector J. L. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Denison and Mrs. James Gooderham.

Dr. Nevitt, Dean of the college, addressed the visitors and students. He reviewed the history of the attempts at founding a ladies' medical college in Toronto. The first year of the present school opened 11 years ago with no students and increased to three during the year. Last term there were 11 new students and this year 14. There are now 48 students in attendance, five of whom come from the defunct Kingston College.

Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick sympathized with woman entering the medical profession, for which she appears eminently fitted. The time was now past when woman might say, as she did not so long ago:

"My only books were woman's books,
And folly all they taught me."

Whether marriage has proved a failure or not woman is opening up avenues for her future usefulness and independence. He had been interested in the Kingston Woman's Medical College until circumstances lately led to its retirement from the scene. He hoped the Toronto college would continue to prosper.

Miss MacMillan, president of the College Y.W.C.A., read an address to the new students and extended a hearty welcome on behalf of her fellow-students.

A tasty lunch was served after the speeches to the accompaniment of sweet music by the d'Alesandro orchestra.

IMPORTANT REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Forty-Three Feet on Yonge, Near King, Sold for $80,000.

No. 84 and 86 Yonge-street, west side, 99 feet north of Dineen's corner, occupied by the Bell Clothing House, has been sold by Mr. George Cassels to Mr. F. Crompton (corset company) for $80,000. The frontage is 43 feet 2 inches, and the depth 80 feet. The structure on the land is an old brick one. Mr. Case still retains a lot the same size immediately north of it. Mr. Crompton bought as an investment. The price paid is at the rate of $1860 a foot frontage, or what is a better way of measuring, $23 a square foot.

Real estate men consider the sale a very good one, and that it indicates that central property is not shrinking in value, notwithstanding the recent general decline.

KILLED BY A BEAR.

Sent to Fetch the Cows a 14-Year-Old Girl Meets Death.

QUEBEC, Oct. 11.—A few days ago a little girl of St. Barthelemy, aged 14, sent to fetch home the cows from their pasturage on the outskirts of the bush, did not return home. Growing anxious at her prolonged absence, her parents instituted a search, and, tracing her into the bush, came upon her dead body, bleeding and mangled by a bear which had encountered her.

COOLER TO-NIGHT.

Squalls May Occur To-Night, With Showers From the North.

Probabilities: Fresh to strong southerly winds, fair and warm, followed to-night by cooler weather and local squalls or moderate gales and showers from the north.

The probabilities are that Dineen's big October sale will break the record. So far this month the sales are away ahead of the same month in any past year, and increasing crowds visit the showrooms every day.

New style fall hats are in great demand, and hundreds are being sold every day. Of course the special prices are an attraction in hats and in furs. In the latter specialty an enormous trade is being done.

The sale will continue daily for the rest of the month, and the wise will lose no time in choosing their furs at Dineens', corner of King and Yonge-streets.

A $10,000 FIRE AT THE JUNCTION.

The Canada Wire Mattrass Factory Badly Damaged.

Fire broke out in the engine room of the Canada Wire Mattrass Company's factory, Toronto Junction, at 8 o'clock last evening. All the machinery on the second floor was destroyed, and this with the damage to the building makes the loss close upon $10,000, but covered by insurance.

All the leading high-class vaudeville successes have been engaged and will appear at every performance. The usual prices will prevail and the regular Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees will be given.

The Glee Club begins practice for the annual Christmas tour next week. The club, as a body, will not assist in the chorus of the Greek play, but many of the members will take part.

Pure Water and Long Life.

Independent of all other precautions there is one sure method of avoiding disease, and that is in drinking perfectly pure water. There is no water so absolutely pure and healthful as a mineral water, providing, of course, it is bottled fresh at the spring. But any physician will tell you that it is far healthier to drink fresh lake water that stale mineral water, carbonated and bottled. "Sprudel" is one of the few mineral waters bottled at the spring.

EARL ELGIN VICEROY OF INDIA

A CANUCK TO SUCCEED THE MARQUIS OF LANSDOWNE.

The London Press Has Little to Say of His Appointment Except That He Voted For Home Rule, and Has a Record at Once "Blank and Blameless."

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Earl of Elgin has been appointed Viceroy of India.

Lord Elgin's father died while Viceroy of India in 1863. The new viceroy is a Canadian by birth. He first saw the light in Montreal in 1849. In 1886 he was treasurer of the Royal Household and First Commissioner of Works.

The Daily News has but little to say in support of his appointment except that it believes he inherits the tact and discretion of his father, and adds that he goes to India with the prestige of a great name.

Is It a Reward for His Home Rule Vote?

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Standard says in regard to the appointment of Lord Elgin that in some respects he is admirably fitted for the post, although he has had no official training. It adds that Lord Elgin voted for the Home Rule bill in the House of Lords, but admits that this has no connection with Indian politics.

His Record Blank and Blameless.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Times says: If it was necessary to appoint a Gladstonian peer Earl Elgin is as good as any. He has a high private character and his political record, if almost a blank, at least is blameless.

IS IT AN ELOPEMENT?

Albert Smith Said to Have Run Off With Mrs. Barker of Woodstock.

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 11.—James Barker is now keeping "bach" at 173 Dundas-street. His wife left the other day ostensibly to visit her mother at Deckerville, Mich., but the fact that a boarder, Albert Smith, disappeared on the same day has given rise to some discussion in the neighborhood. Mrs. Barker took a trunk, a bed and a sewing machine, which has aroused her husband's suspicion, although when he said "good-bye" to Rosina on the train he did not think she was eloping with Smith. She also took her two children with her.

A reporter found Barker washing the dinner dishes at noon. He said he had heard that Smith had gone off with his wife, but when Albert left the house he said he was going on a trip around the world with a G.T.R. conductor.

THE MANITOBA SCHOOL CASE

Will Be Called in the Supreme Court On Tuesday.

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—The Supreme Court got through with the Quebec cases this afternoon and then adjourned until Tuesday morning, when the Manitoba School case will be taken up.

West Peterboro Conservatives.

PETERBORO, Oct. 11.—West Peterboro Conservatives met in convention to-day and nominated Mr. Harry Wonch as their candidate for the coming local election. A public meeting in the evening was held in the Opera House, when G. F. Marter, M.L.A., and John Clancy, M.L.A., delivered addresses.

Registrar Ryan to Resign.

A friend of Mr. Peter Ryan told The World last night that within a very short time that gentleman would send in to the Ontario Government his resignation of the office of registrar. "The office is not congenial to Mr. Ryan," said The World's informant, "neither is it sufficiently remunerative to warrant Mr. Ryan devoting his undivided attention to it."

Public School Notes.

The grade convention of the city teachers will meet in November. The teachers of the junior first classes will be the first to go into session.

Mr. T. J. Prince, one of the most prominent educators of the Eastern States and perhaps the best known in the State of Massachusetts, is expected to be in the city this evening. Mr. Prince, who will be the guest of Inspector J. L. Hughes, has been visiting some of the schools in the south with a view to studying their educational facilities and methods of teaching. Of late Canada has been attracting the attention of many earnest educators, not only from the American side, but from older lands.

Inspector Hughes has been asked to speak at the American Institute in July next, but as he purposes visiting England he may not be able to accept the invitation.

Trinity Medical Corporation.

At the meeting of Trinity Medical College yesterday, there were present Dean Boddy, Profs. Rigby, Jones, Clark, Huntingford, Cayley, Canon Dumoulin, Dr. Spilsbury and J. A. Worrell, Q.C.

A statute was passed defining the examinations for the degrees of bachelor of pharmacy and doctor of pharmacy. It was decided that occasional students must pay a fee to be fixed by the Executive Committee.

Rev. Alexander Williams, St. John's, Toronto, and Dr. Smythe, Q.C., Kingston, were admitted to the corporation.

The Clancy Bros.' License.

The Clancy Bros. were defeated at the Court of Appeal in their endeavor to secure a transfer of their license to the southeast corner of Queen and Salter-streets. Clancy wished the matter to come before the electors of sub-division 4, where they would have had a majority favoring their petition. Justice Meredith allowed this. The Court of Appeal, however, says No. 15 is the sub-division which determines the matter. This practically defeats the transfer.

The most marvelous discovery of the 19th century for indigestion. Adams' Pepsin Tutti Frutti, beware of worthless imitations.

The Flag to Fly Daily.

Collector John Small, Toronto Custom House, now flies the Union Jack from his main top gallant mast daily during the business hours of the Custom House. The sheet goes up when the door opens and comes down when it closes. The idea is a good one. Our neighbors to the south do the same thing and the custom is worth observing here.

Conducive to Comfort.

For a man of advanced age an annuity of a few hundred dollars is a very comforting thing. This can be secured by almost any person of moderate means. How?

By obtaining a 7 per cent. guaranteed income bond in the North American Life Assurance Company of this city. Probably you have never heard of this plan before, still it is worth your while to investigate it and find out if it does not suit your case. 246

SUNDAY CARS IN HAMILTON.

Two Ambitious City Churches Ask the Company For a Service.

[Hamilton Herald, Oct. 11.]

There is a movement on foot to restore in Hamilton the partial Sunday car service which ceased when the company substituted electricity for horses, and the outcome of it may be the introduction of a regular Sunday service by trolley cars. Yesterday afternoon H. D. Cameron and William Lees of Scott, Lees & Hobson, representing the Central Presbyterian Church, and Rev. E. M. Bland, representing Christ Church Cathedral, met President Charlton and several directors of the Hamilton Street Railway Company in the company's offices and discussed the subject.

It was represented that a large number of the congregation of Central Presbyterian Church live in the east end, while many of the adherents of Christ Church Cathedral reside in the southern part of the city. The old system of cars before and after church was found very convenient, and they would like to see something like this re-established.

The company pointed out that it could not be expected to provide power and run cars by electricity during such a small portion of the day as had been the custom on Sundays.

The running of a few horse cars was suggested, and it was agreed that two bobtails might be put on for each of the churches represented, four cars in all, they to guarantee to the company a revenue of at least $2 a car each Sunday. But President Charlton pointed out that, by its agreement with the city, the company is shut out from the right to run horse cars, and any effort to meet the wishes of the churches represented will depend on the consent of the corporation being obtained.

In the discussion it was explained that the company has the right, if it desires, to run its cars on Sunday, and some of the directors are in favor of giving an all-day electric service, or at least from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. But they do not care to initiate such a move unless there is shown to be a general demand for Sunday cars. If the churches will father a movement in favor of an all-day electric service, and show that it is likely to prove profitable and popular, the probability is that the company will give it.

But nothing is likely to be settled until the return from California of Manager J. B. Griffith. This afternoon there will be a meeting of the directors to talk over the matter further.

FOR ASSAULTING A CHILD.

A Laborer Arrested Yesterday on a Serious Charge.

Assaults on young girls are becoming frequent in the suburbs. Yesterday afternoon Alfred Pullen, laborer, who lives in Ossington-avenue across the tracks, was arrested by Mounted Policeman Kerr charged with assaulting Minnie Mack, aged 14, 56 Lansdowne-avenue. Pullen is a married man, 27 years of age. The child was badly bruised and frightened.

TRUE PATHOS AND HUMOR.

The Life of the Native Women and Children of India.

Mrs. F. A. Steel has gained distinction by her fresh and forcible pictures of life in India. She knows the life of the native women and children as well as the more obvious phases of Indian existence, and her book, "From the Five Rivers," is described as remarkable for its fresh humor and true pathos. It is published in "Appleton's Town and Country Library" (50 cents), at John P. McKenna's, bookseller, 80 Yonge-street. The red-brown covers of this library have come to be an infallible sign of a story worth reading.

Two Girls Assaulted in Bathurst-street.

Last night in Bathurst-street two ruffians attempted to commit an assault on two young girls. After 11 o'clock that portion of the street below King is pratically deserted, and is inefficiently lighted. Miss Lila Fulton was returning from a visit to Miss Maud Martin of Waterloo Terrace in company with Mr. Mrs. and Miss Martin. She resides in Batterse-place, a small street which runs west off Bathurst. The two young ladies, aged 16 and 17, skipped on ahead. They reached Batterses-place 50 yards in advance of the older people and stopped at the entrance to the lane to wait for them. Just then two tough-looking individuals emerged, stopped and accosted the two ladies. Both miscreants seized on the girls and proceeded to drag them up the lane. They screamed and Mr. Martin ran to their assistance. One of the villains fled, but the other showed fight, but after getting a few knocks perhaps the best known in the State of Massachusetts, is expected to be in the city this evening. Mr. Prince, who will be the guest of Inspector J. L. Hughes, has been visiting some of the schools in the south with a view to studying their educational facilities and methods of teaching.
