The Western Union Telegraph Company has few of its poles on the streets of the city, most of them being on private property. The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company has about 150 poles on the streets subject to taxation and has not paid the tax. To-day Mayor Collier issued an execution against the company which was placed in the hands os High Constable Harvell to be served. He levied on the property of the company to satisfied the judgment.

HER LIFE FOR HER MOTHER'S.

Mollie Hangs Herself so That Mrs. Roath Could Get the Insurance.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 31.—It transpired yesterday that Mollie Roash, the milliner who hanged herself in this city Saturday night, committed suicide to save her old mother from starving.

The two were entirely alone in the world and they were supported by the girl's labor. Mollie often spoke of her fear that her mother would suffer should the daughter die first, and last year took out a $2,000 policy in the Knights and Ladies of Honor. Her wages were small at the best, and when she was thrown out of employment by the hard times last December they were soon in debt.

She was discouraged. Saturday afternoon she was missed, and early on Sunday morning was found dead in an empty room. The premiums on the policy were kept paid up, and Mrs. Roath will have enough to live on the remainder of her life. Mollie was 30 years old, and bore an excellent reputation. She had confided to a friend that if she could not get work she would kill herself so that her mother could get the insurance money.

FELL DEAD WHEN HE HEARD IT.

His Daughter-in-Law Told Him His Son Had Inflammatory Rheumatism.

PASSAIC, N.Y., Jan. 31.—Henry Coleman, of 336 Gregory avenue, went to call upon his son, Charles E. Coleman, at No. 24 Lincoln street, last night in response to a message that the young man was indisposed. As he entered the house he met his daughter-in-law. "What is the matter with Charley?" he inquired anxiously.

"Don't be frightened, father," she answered. "He has a bad attack of inflammatory rheumatism—worse than he had before."

Without speaking, Mr. Coleman threw up his hands and fell dead. His physician has been treating him for heart trouble for some time. He says the cause of death was heart disease, undoubtedly aggravated by sudden excitement.

Engineered Gigantic Pension Swindles—27 Charges.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 31.—Rev. C. W. Lewis, colored, with many aliases has been arrested by Special Pension Examiner Fitzpatrick, and the most gigantic frauds ever known in the south have been unearthed, which will lead to the arrest of probably 100 negroes implicated with Lewis in swindling the Government. Lewis himself drew a large pension and on evidence of his own manufacture secured pensions for others. He appeared as a witness in numbers of cases and forged the names of notaries. He has operated here, in Kansas City, New Orleans, and other points. There are 27 charges against him up to this time and more are coming.

Highly Pleased.

GENTLEMEN,—I have used your Hagyard's Yellow Oil and have found it unequaled for burns, sprains, scalds, rheumatism, croup and colds. I have recommended it to many friends and they also speak highly of it.
