FROM
Yesterday's Edition:

THE LEGISLATURE.

FREDERICTON, April 11.

Wedderburn presented the final report of the Contingent Committee. They have effected a saving of over $500 on the contingent account of last year.

The Secretary moved the following address to the Queen:—

"May it please Your Majesty.

"We, your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of New Brunswick, beg leave to renew our expressions of loyalty and devotion to your Majesty's person and throne. We beg to assure your Majesty of the intense anxiety which pervaded all classes of your Majesty's subjects in this Province, during the recent alarming illness of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and as the Parliament and on behalf of the people of New Brunswick we desire to tender to Your Majesty our warmest congratulations, that it has pleased Almighty God in his great mercy to restore his Royal Highness to health, to the great joy of Your Majesty, his family, and the whole nation."

The House in Committee agreed to the bill to incorporate the Washademoak Steamboat Company.

Wedderburn said that in the absence of the Leader of the Opposition he would second the address.

House in Committee referred the reports of the Committees that have investigated the claims of Robert McCann, for school teaching, and Justice McCaffery for loss sustained in defending a suit for false imprisonment.

Dr. Alward moved a resolution, asking for a Special Committee to make arrangements for publishing Debates next year.

White opposed the resolution.

Wedderburn was in favor of Debates.

Hatheway said that his feelings in the matter were well known; but if the Debates were decided on he would like them to make an arrangement with the gentleman who reported the speech of the member from Gloucester for the ability displayed in that verbatim report.

The resolution was carried, and Alward, Willis and McPherson were appointed.

House agreed to a bill to provide for the expenses of witnesses in criminal prosecutions. In reply to Gough the Secretary said the Botsford matter was settled.

House went into committee on Wedderburn's Liquor Bill.

Adams moved the three months hoist.

Maher spoke defending his position in opposition to the bill; and Lindsay in favor of the bill is now speaking.

The following was the division on the motion to give the St. John Liquor Bill the three months' hoist:—

Yeas—Hatheway, King, Caie, Crawford, Gough, McPherson, Theriault, Blanchard, Adams, Landry, Girouard, Phillips, Napier, Robinson, Alward, Williams, Maher, McAdam—18.

Nays—Stevenson, Willis, Wedderburn, Hibbard, Beckwith, White, Ryan, Palmer, Tibbitts, Covert, Lindsay—11.

Crawford moved House into Committee on the Bill to extend jurisdiction of Justices in civil suits, and proceeded to talk to time so that Gough's resolutions could not come before the House.

He spoke amid much confusion, until the recess.

When the House met after dinner the members set to work to enjoy themselves.

Girouard, Beckwith, Blanchard, and other French members made orations in their native tongue, there followed the usual scene of slamming of desks, etc., and progress was finally reported at about five minutes before three, when Gough moved the order of the day, but before any discussion took place, or a vote could be taken the usher of the Black Rod appeared, and the House was summoned to the Legislative Council Room, when his Excellency gave his assent to all the Bills passed, with the exception of Crawford's Liquor Bill, which he reserved for the assent of the Governor General and the Knickerbocker Mining Company, from which assent is withheld for the present.

The House stands prorogued till the second Tuesday in June.

The speech is about the same as usual, He thanked the members for their untiring energy and zeal, and for the liberal supplies, and ended with an expression of hope that our institutions would maintain their present high character, etc.

"LOVE THY NEIGHBOR."

"'Love thy neighbor as thyself.'—
When at dawn I meet her,
As by the garden wall she stands,
And gives me flowers across the wall,
My heart goes out to kiss her hands—
—Are hands or flowers the sweeter?—
I'm ready at her feet to fall,
Or like a clown to labor!—
Better than I love myself
Do I love my neighbor."

"'Love thy neighbor as thyself.'—
When at dawn I meet him,
As by the garden wall he stands,
And takes my flowers across the wall,
My soul's already in his hands—
It flew so fast to greet him!
And oh, I grow so proud and tall,
And my heart beats like a tabor!—
Better than I love myself
Do I love my neighbor."

Hegira of Nova Scotians.

The "Empress," which arrived at half-past five this morning from Annapolis, brought over about three hundred passengers, nearly all of whom left in the Boston boat at eight o'clock. The majority of them were young people, and two-thirds of them young women of very intelligent appearance. Many of the parties were probably intended for Massachusetts Factories, as it is known that proprietors have been making extraordinary efforts to obtain this description of labor from the Provinces. Others, doubtless, have been "roped in" by the agents of the Northern Pacific Railway, as the Company's representative as long ago as October last anticipated securing a large number of settlers from Nova Scotia.

The Halifax Chronicle of Tuesday says:

The Spring immigration to the United States has commenced. Last week the "Carlotta" took away about 200 passengers. Yesterday she was again crowded; 126 passengers received tickets at the agent's office and a number of others went on board without tickets.
