INDIANS STARVE TO DEATH

Wife of the Bishop of Moosonee Tells of the Red Man's Pitiable Plight

WHEN RABBITS ARE VERY SCARCE.

Fifteenth Annual Meeting of the Church of England Woman's Auxiliary is Over.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary was brought to a successful close last evening with a social gathering at St. James' Schoolhouse, under the auspices of the Girls' Branches. Mr. Heber Hamilton, assisted by a few friends, gave an imitation of a Japanese tea party, which was hugely enjoyed by the large assemblage present. Mrs. Tilton spoke a word of cheer to the departing delegates as the gathering broke up.

The morning session was given over to an informal discussion of matters referring to the constitution. The president, Mrs. Williamson, called the attention of the delegates to the fact that the branches apparently paid little money for missions, but much for materials for their bales. The matter was explained, however, when it came to light that each person who gives material for the missions is asked to place a value upon it. This makes the amounts seem large, altho no cash has actually been laid out.

Help for Needy Churches.

The result of the previous day's balloting as to the destination of the $400 in life members' fees was announced in the afternoon. It will be used to build a church at Cordova, near Havelock, in the Toronto diocese. The $85 interest on the century fund will go to pay a debt on the parish of Apsley, in Toronto diocese.

"Lo, the Poor Indian."

A most interesting feature of the afternoon session was the address by Mrs. Newnham, wife of the Bishop of Moosonee, telling of the difficulties that beset a missionary in her diocese. The work was chiefly among the Indians, whose condition was very wretched indeed, as they receive no Government aid like those in the Northwest. The one staple article of food was rabbits, and, when these were scarce, death from starvation was frequent. It devolved upon the missionaries to feed the sufferers, but it was impossible adequately to accomplish this owing to financial straits. The speaker pleaded eloquently for more material aid in this matter. She also referred to the terrible mental strain endured by the missionaries consequent on the utter loneliness and isolation of their lives in the far north.

At the conclusion of her address, Mrs. Newnham was made a life member of the auxiliary.

The thank offerings were then collected. They totalled $519.51.

Mrs. Williamson delivered her valedictory address, reviewing the work of the auxiliary during the year, and suggesting plans for further progress.

The statement of the amounts pledged by the Diocesan branches in November, 1900, showed that $906.60 was yet to be paid in out of a total of $2465.

Officers for 1901.

The following officers were elected for 1901: President, Mrs. Williamson; vice-presidents, Mrs. Forsyth-Grant, Miss Tilley; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Willoughby Cummings; recording-secretary, Mrs. Dykes; treasurer, Mrs. Webster; treasurer E. C. D. Fund, Mrs. Miles; convenor Dorcas Committee, Mrs. McLean Howard; secretary-treasurer Dorcas Committee, Mrs. Banks; convenor of Literature Committee, Mrs. Davidson; secretary-treasurer of Literature Committee, Miss Fanny Jones; convenor P. M. C., Mrs. Morgan; secretary-treasurer P. M. C., Mrs. Hoskin.

HIS BACK IS BROKEN.

George Jose, an Employe of the T. Eaton Co., Badly Hurt While at Work.

George Jose, a laborer, who lives at 287 Chestnut-street, is lying in St. Michael's Hospital, suffering from a broken back and other serious injuries. His condition is critical and the physicians fear that he will not recover.

Mr. Jose was employed in the Albert-street building of the T. Eaton Company, and was assisting to hoist some goods on an elevator, when the accident occurred. He was standing on the second floor of the building, holding the cable of the elevator and overlooking the shaft. Suddenly the power was turned on, setting the cable in motion. He was drawn up several feet and his shoulder struck a cross beam. He fell down to the elevator, a distance of 10 feet. Fellow workmen carried him into the building and Dr. Edmund T. King, who was summoned, had him removed in the ambulance to the hospital. His back was broken near the shoulder and the remainder of his body below the fracture had become paralyzed.

Mr. Jose is a middle-aged man and married.

RIDICULOUS STORY DENIED

To the Effect That Kitchener Had Advised Yielding to Boer Demands.

London, May 10.—The War Office here denies the statement, published in New York, that Lord Kitchener has telegraphed, advising yielding all the demands of the Boers, with the exception of independence, owing to his conviction that they cannot be forced to lay down their arms without a long continuation of the war.

O'BRIEN'S "IRISH PEOPLE" SEIZED AND A HOT DEBATE PRECIPITATED

John Dillon Makes a Matter Up and Declared It Was Grossly Illegal—Burning Words by Secretary Wyndham and Leader Balfour.

Senate Reading Room
5feb 01

Dublin, May 10.—The police of Cork, Limerick and other towns of Ireland seized all the copies of Mr. William O'Brien's weekly paper, The Irish People, found at the newsdealers' this morning. The offending articles, it now appears, were abusive attacks on King Edward, Cardinal Vaughan, and the address to the King, which the paper declares was such as might have been presented to a Legree half a century ago. The article finds consolation in the fact that the presentees were English Catholics, "who are repudiated by the only really Catholic nation now in existence. The loyalists represented England only, and if the English Catholics choose to acknowledge themselves superstitious idolaters it is no fault of ours."

O'BRIEN, THE MAN.

William O'Brien began life as a reporter on The Cork Daily Herald. He subsequently wrote for The Freeman's Journal, and founded United Ireland in 1880. He founded a new agrarian movement in 1898, styling it the "United Irish League," and starting The Irish People newspaper as its advocate. O'Brien has been prosecuted nine times for political offences, and has spent more than two years in prison. He has been a Member of Parliament for North Cork since the election of 1900.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE.

London, May 10.—Mr. Henniker Heaton, Conservative, in the House of Commons to-day drew attention to the annual loss of £700,000 in the telegraph service, aggregating £8,300,000 since the Government took over the lines, and asked how the Government proposed to remedy this.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, admitted the correctness of the figures. The reason of the loss was that the public was more eager for rapid communication than the revenue warranted. Unproductive extensions must be discouraged.

Lease to Private Company.

Mr. Henniker Heaton also asked if the Government was prepared to lease the telegraph lines to a private company. The Chancellor of the Exchequer did not reply.

Seizure of The Irish People.

At the conclusion of the questions in the House of Commons to-day, John Dillon (Nationalist) moved the adjournment of the House, in order to call attention to the seizure of The Irish People.

Mr. Dillon complained that the action of the authorities was grossly illegal, and asked whether it was due to the attack on Mr. Wyndham, the Chief Secretary for Ireland, or to the attack on the King. Mr. Wyndham replied that it was owing to the attack on the King.

Courts Should Be Used.

Mr. Dillon said he was not concerned to defend the violence of the attack, but any seizure should have been done thru the courts. Far more violent attacks on Queen Victoria had been made in the English papers without their being seized. The present action was a blow to the liberty of the press.

Mr. William Redmond (Nationalist) seconded the motion, characterizing the article complained of as a very proper and patriotic attack on the conduct of the Chief Secretary.

Foul and Poisonous Article.

After Mr. Redmond had commented on the impolicy of the Government's action in seizing the paper, which would simply have the effect of fastening attention on the article of The Irish People, many copies of which were in the pockets of members then in the House, and many of which had gone to America, Mr. Balfour, the Government leader, denied that the Government was attacking either the freedom of the press or legitimate Irish agitation. He asked: Was the publication of an obscene libel a necessary weapon for the Nationalists? No epithets he could employ were too strong to describe this foul and poisonous article. No man in that House could expect any Government to allow an act of such gross indecency to be committed with impunity.

John Burns (Socialist) expressed the opinion that if the article had been submitted to the King he would have smiled and thrown it into the waste paper basket.

Hot Invective.

Mr. Wyndham, in defending the seizure, declined to "soil his lips with reading the attack on the King, which constituted seditious libel, nor wound the feelings of millions by propagating the outrageous, gross and scurrilous lies of the article."

The motion for an adjournment was defeated by a vote of 252 to 64.

SECOND LINE ACROSS LAKE

Toronto Navigation Company, Limited, With Capital of $100,000, Applies for Incorporation.

FIRST STEAMER STARTS MAY 24.

Second Boat Will Be Put on Early in June—Big Things Expected From the Project.

The World learns that a second line of passenger steamers is, this season, to ply between Toronto and the Niagara districts. The new line, of course, expects to reap a rich harvest from the Pan-American traffic, but the enterprise is not started for this season only, but is to be put on a permanent footing, with a view of being in the business to stay.

The Toronto Navigation Company, Limited, capital $100,000, is the name of the new concern, which has applied for incorporation by the Provincial Government. The men connected with the enterprise have sufficient means to carry it out to a successful conclusion.

It is understood that the company has already secured its first steamer, which will start the season about May 24, and that a second boat will be put on the route early in June. The company's Toronto offices are at 52 Yonge-street, and its steamers will daily leave Geddes' Wharf, at the foot of Yonge-street.

The terminals of the line on the south side of the lake will be Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario, and Youngstown, N. Y., just across the river from Niagara. Between those points, each of the company's boats will make two round trips, five days in the week, and three round trips on Saturday, the last return boat leaving Youngstown late on Saturday night.

At Niagara-on-the-Lake, the boats will connect with the Michigan Central Railway, and at Youngstown with the Lewiston and Youngstown Electric Railway, close cars will connect at Lewiston with the New York Central Railway, the Gorge Route and the Niagara Falls Park and River Railway for Niagara Falls, Buffalo and the Pan-American Exposition. It is expected that arrangements will be made to run electric cars direct from the steamers' sides right into Buffalo and the Pan-American grounds.

On the Lewiston and Youngstown Railway, near Fort Niagara, is situated a fine park of 22 acres, to which the company will run excursions. This is another feature of their proposed business. Besides this, an electric line runs thru fruit orchards all the way to Lewiston, which adds to its attractiveness. In the fall, the company expects to do a big business in fruit. What will please the people on the other side of the lake is the fact that it is stated that the boats will run till as late as the middle of November. Family book tickets will be sold, and every effort made to make the route a popular one at popular prices.

ANNIVERSARY OF BATOCHE

Annual Dinner of the Royal Grenadiers Sergeants' Mess a Complete and Gratifying Success

SIXTEEN YEARS AGO TO-MORROW.

Northwest Rebellion Was Broken by the Charge at Batoche—Presentation to Pte. Murdison.

Sixteen years ago to-morrow the Northwest Rebellion was broken by the charge at Batoche, and in commemoration of the event the sergeants' mess of the Royal Grenadiers held their 16th annual dinner in their quarters at 77 West Queen-street, last night. Sergt.-Major Johnston presided, the menu was in capable hands and the fun was continuous.

Among the guests present were: Lieut.-Col. Ryerson, Lieut.-Col. Mason, Lieut.-Col. C. Denison, Surgeon-Major King, Capt. Mason, Capt. A. E. Gooderham, Capt. Craig, Lieut. C. S. Wilkie, Alex. Muir, Mayor Howland, A. Murdison, F. Ker, F. R. Rogers. The three last named came over from Buffalo for the event, Mr. Murdison being a former member of the regiment, who served in the Northwest Rebellion.

Presentation to Mr. Murdison.

A pleasing feature of the entertainment was the presentation of a beautiful gold headed cane to Mr. Murdison by the sergeants. Col. Mason made the presentation speech, which was reminiscent of the Northwest campaign, and he spoke of Private Murdison as a true soldier. The recipient made an appropriate reply and concluded by presenting the mess with a Pan-American memento, a bronze Buffalo. Mr. Murdison possesses the esteem and confidence of his old comrades in arms and could not but have been pleased with the welcome he received.

A Hint to the Mayor.

Mr. Alexander Muir made a few happy remarks in reply to the toast, "Our Empire," the gathering singing lustily "The Maple Leaf." Subsequently Mr. Muir, following the Mayor, expressed the hope that His Worship would soon take to himself one of Canada's fair daughters, so that he might be indeed a "City Father." When the author of "The Maple Leaf" left the hall the hymn which he gave to Canada was again heartily sung. Col. Mason also made a neat response to the toast.

Events of a Year Ago.

The Mayor made an effective speech on behalf of the corporation, after the company reminded him in song that "he'll be knighted some day." Col. Ryerson, replying to the toast, "Our Guests," recalled the events of a year ago. One year ago to-day, he said, he stood in the square at Bloemfontein and saw another grenadier regiment marching thru on the way to the Transvaal; and following up this line he referred to the voyage of the Royal Canadian Regiment to participate in the struggle in South Africa. When the transport entered the harbor of St. Vincent, a ship of the royal navy was seen at anchor and as the tars came out to greet the Canadians the latter climbed the rigging and sang "Rule Britannia" as the colonel had never heard it sung before. It was the Canadians' first introduction to the Empire. While in South Africa he met an officer who was in the charge at Batoche and is now a captain of the Royal Engineers—Capt. Nanton—under another distinguished Canadian, Col. Gironard.

Efficient Non-Coms.

Lieut.-Col. Denison said the Grenadiers sent about the same number to South Africa as his regiment, three officers and 27 men, and each regiment lost one killed and three or four wounded. Capt. Gooderham praised the work of the non-coms., who had more to do during the past year owing to the absence of officers on service, three in South Africa, six in Halifax and one in Stanley Barracks. Capt. Mason and others also replied.

"Our Brother Non-Coms" was replied to by Sergt.-Major Borland, R.C.R.I.; Sergt.-Major Stratton, G.G.B.G.; Sergt. Hutchinson, Q.O.R.; Col.-Sergt. Simpson, 12th; Col.-Sergt. Stinson, 13th; Col.-Sergt. Hindson, 19th; Col.-Sergt. Noble, 38th; Sergt. Granger, 9th; Sergt. Williams, 48th, and Col.-Sergt. Amor, 7th.

The musical and literary talent consisted of Staff-Sergt. Hutchinson, H. N. Shaw, Harry Bennett, Geo. Empringham, John Alexander, G. W. McClellan, T. A. Till, Neil Burton and Charles Musgrove.

N. P. SHORTS ARE LET OUT AT 150 QUIET IS RESTORED ON WALL ST.

Doubt Exists as to Who Controls Northern Pacific, Hill or Harriman—Record-Breaking Panic Over—Prices Again Climbing—Money at 6 Per Cent.

Yesterday witnessed a remarkable recovery of Wall-street from the wild panic into which it had been thrown on Wednesday and Thursday. The deliverance was brought about by two circumstances. In the first place, the Associated Banks came to the rescue of the "street" by advancing money in plenty, and call loans soon ruled at 6 per cent. instead of at 60 per cent., as on the day before. In the second place, J. P. Morgan & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. decided to "let out" the Northern Pacific shorts by allowing them to settle at 150.

This easing of the money market and this closing of the N. P. corner relieved the apprehension of speculators, and the market resumed a normal tone. In the morning, many bargain hunters appeared in the field, and prices advanced, closing some cases not far from previous high marks.

The losses during the two-day panic must have been enormous, chiefly among people of small fortune. Not many Toronto dealers are thought to have been hit hard.

And now, after all the struggle between Harriman and Hill for control of N. P., it is not clear who has come out on top. This will not be known until it has been ascertained how much of the stock recently bought by either side can actually be delivered to them.

BRIGHTER DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, May 10.—Wall-street emerged from its gloom this morning, with growing confidence of the day, and with something like buoyant elation. Prices of stocks went up with a rush at the last, closing at about the top, and with the net losses left after yesterday's session pretty largely recovered. There were some clouds remaining on the situation this morning, and some natural trepidation lest the violent collapse of yesterday should have left some casualties which would not be disclosed until the clearing-house sheets of the Stock Exchange had been made up. Early in the day, the official announcement was made that the sheets of all the members of the Exchange had been cleared perfectly, and that all their cheques had been honored. This relieved the last feeling of apprehension, and the feverish and earnest signs which were manifest in the stock market during the first hour disappeared. Things quieted down into a steady condition of business such as has not been witnessed in Wall-street for many weeks.

The measures taken over night to clear the situation left little to fear. The agreement to allow the shorts in Northern Pacific to settle at 150 really went to the root of the crisis and wiped out the impelling cause of yesterday's panic.

The announcement by the banks that yesterday's loans, which had been provided by agreement amongst the leading institutions of the street, would not be called to-day, kept the situation free from additional tension. During the day it was announced by some of the banks that loans which had been placed in yesterday's excitement had been voluntarily paid off by the borrowers to-day and the collateral taken up and deliveries made with it.

A Rebound in Prices.

With these threatening conditions removed, a rebound in prices was natural. The extent to which it ran was, however, a surprise and was attributed to various causes. There is no doubt that amongst those who were heavy losers in yesterday's slump were many of ample resources, who view the situation with a sporting instinct and a determination to recoup losses by following the market. It was the popular belief that some of the western potentates who were admittedly forced "to walk sideways" during part of yesterday's events, were again in the market in a bold attempt to retrieve their losses. The obvious leadership of the movement of Union Pacific and the southwestern group gave ground for the conjecture that it was based on benefits expected to accrue to Union Pacific from a control of Northern Pacific; a control which was still stoutly claimed to-day, but as emphatically denied by the Hill-Morgan parties. It was remarkable that the breaking of the corner in Northern Pacific by the settlement with the shorts at 150 brought almost no stock upon the market, as is the rule after the culmination of the corner. There is usually a scramble to get out on the part of the longs after the settlement comes. But it is evident that the contesting parties in Northern Pacific are not yet prepared to let go of a single available share of the stock. The settlement with the shorts progressed to-day at the offices both of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and J. P. Morgan & Co., and it is probable that only the completion of the settlement will reveal how much of the purchases of stock made by the two parties within the last week can be delivered.

The bargain hunters were also on hand in Wall-street to-day, altho their operations fell away as the recovery in prices progressed. During the morning, however, there were a large number of transactions recorded for cash, both in stocks and bonds, which is a manner in which the bargain hunters usually pay for their purchases.

Market Closed Strong.

The market closed strong at the top, with a feeling of relief over to-morrow's impending holiday. The gain extended in Union Pacific to 22, St. Paul and Lackawanna 17½, Consolidated Gas 18, Burlington and Amalgamated Copper 12½, in-

QUEEN'S OWN WILL NOT PARADE IN TORONTO ON "VICTORIA DAY"

Non-Coms. and Men Have Their Hearts Set On Three Days' Drill at Niagara and Oppose the General Order Issued by Col. Otter.

There is something doing in military circles. A well-informed officer remarked yesterday that, of late, there had been numerous desertions from the schools at Toronto, London, Kingston and Quebec. Some of the missing men are chaps who have recently returned from South Africa, and, after the excitement of war, they could not again become content with life in barracks. Others are fellows that are better out of the service than in it. Nevertheless, quite a number of the permanent force have taken leg bail.

Ex-Contingent Men.

It is becoming almost a general topic for comment that there are numerous members of the Canadian contingents in Toronto who are out of employment. When they reached home they had a little money, and were joyfully received everywhere, but now the glamor of glory has mostly faded away, the money is spent, and many of the men who were heroes only a few short weeks ago are now among the unemployed.

Ottawa the Cause.

Soldiers of the permanent corps, as well as those in the militia, are discussing the large percentage of deaths which have occurred among the volunteers for Baden-Powell's police who sailed on the Montfort for South Africa. There seems to be but one opinion, and it is, that the diseases which caused death were contracted while the volunteers were enjoying the wretched accommodation provided for them at Ottawa by the Dominion Government.

Queen's Own on Strike.

The Queen's Own do not want to stay in the city on May 24. The regiment has applied to the Militia Department for permission to put in three days' drill at Niagara. Notwithstanding the fact that the officers of the garrison have agreed to have a garrison parade in this city on Victoria Day, the decision could hardly be considered unanimous, because the Queen's Own don't want the arrangement. If they are refused permission to go to the old camping grounds at Niagara, the likelihood is that they will themselves refuse to turn out for parade on Victoria Day. There is nothing to compel them to turn out, and matters are thus at an interesting stage at present. The non-coms and men are hungry for a renewal of camp life, as it is three years since the regiment went away. They want the cooks' parade, the fireworks and the other comforts incidental to the outing program which has made the regiment known in many places.

Too Many Garrison Parades.

Col. Delamere said last night that his regiment wanted to go to Niagara. The program at present is to leave here on the Thursday evening and return on Sunday night or Monday morning. His men do not take kindly to a garrison parade here on the 24th, particularly as there is a garrison church parade on Sunday, the 19th.

Defer the Drill.

Col. Bruce of the Royal Grenadiers said that, as the coming holiday was the first Victoria Day, he thought the Queen's Own particularly should turn out in the garrison parade. He thought the boys in green should defer their holiday for drill until July 1.

THE FUTURE.

We cannot look beyond to-day!
The ages past we scan,
But not one moment of the future lies
Before the eyes
Of any man!
To-morrow is a great, white wall
That keeps receding ever as we go,
And so,
In dark days and in fair,
You, I, and all
Men gaze upon it, wondering what it hides—
We guess a few things that are there,
And worry over much besides.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association has been called for Tuesday next at 4 p.m.

HARD LINES FOR A CANADIAN

Robert W. Saul Went to Kingston to Secure Work on the Royal Military College.

UNION DEMANDED $25 OFF HIM.

Was Willing to Pay Regular Rate, But Objected to Extortion—Not Allowed to Work.

Ottawa, May 10.—(Special.)—At the opening of to-day's sitting of the Commons, Mr. N. Clarke Wallace read the following letter:

"Camden East, Ont., May 10, 1901.

"To J. W. Bell, M. P.:

"Dear Sir,—I went to the City of Kingston to work on the Royal Military College, to build an addition, but was stopped by the International Union, unless I would pay the sum of $25 to join the union. I offered to join if they would take the regular price, but objected to pay $25, consequently I am at home, and have nothing to do. I have a large family to support, am a Canadian, and cannot get work on a Canadian contract let by your Government. What am I going to do? A foreigner can come in here from the United States, if he is a member of the union, then can go to work, while I may sit and starve. If we are going to have unions, let us have Canadian ones, and let them be controlled by Government, so that they cannot coerce any man by extortion, but let them be fair and honest in their dealing. I have this day mailed to the editor of The Labor Gazette, Department of Labor, Ottawa, a copy of my grievance. Will you kindly see that it is brought before the proper parties, or before the House, so that I can go to work. I am, yours. (Signed), Robert W. Saul."

Mr. Sutherland, Acting Minister of Labor, said he would have the department investigate the facts.

Mr. Tarte said his attention had not been called to the matter.

The World's Best.

Two propositions enter into the contemplation of a hat purchase.

First, where can I get an assortment of up-to-date hats, all sizes, shapes and colors?

Second, where can I buy one at the lowest price, consistent with style and quality?

If you allow us to answer we can conscientiously direct you to the W. & D. Dineen Co., corner Yonge and Temperance streets, that old established hat firm, who have won public favor by honest dealing and who thoroughly understand the hat business. Their stock is large, their quality the best, and their prices the lowest.
