Miscellaneous.

— There is an area of forty acres in North Carolina that has yielded over $1,000,000 in gold since the war.

— Two brothers named Reilly started across from Niagara to Chippewa, but broke an oar and went over the Horse Shoe Falls.

— A young woman of Woolwich, Me., aged 23, married a man 83 on payment of $1,0000, which was the price he offered and she was sold for.

— A penny restaurant at Detroit fed 4,000 persons during its first week, at an average cost of three and a half cents per head.

— The body of Victor Emmanuel was treated by Professor Gorrini, of the University of Padua, with a preparation that made it as hard as marble.

— A late governor of Virginia worked at the Executive Mansion years ago when building as a mason, and has since occupied it as governor.

— An extremely ingenious swindle has been practised in Syracuse, N. Y. An iron cylinder with a cent at each end is rolled in paper and then passed for a package of twenty five pennies.

— The name of Disraeli has never been borne by any other family than that of the present Lord Beaconsfield, and as he has no other relations, the name will expire with him.

— During the recent floods in California, the volume of water rushing towards the Pacific Ocean was so great that no floodtide was noted in the Bay of San Francisco or in the Golden Gate.

— Madame Ristell, the New York abortionist, whose stone house on Fifth Avenue has seen so many crimes, cut her throat in a bath room the day before her trial. She leaves some $200,000 to $300,000.

— There are now 72 postmistresses in the United States, one of whom, Miss Nina Hodges, in the Des Moines Post Office, is said to have handled and paid out $4,000,000, and not a cent has fallen short.

— Should the peach blossoms, which usually make their appearance about the middle of April, not be nipped with frost, there is every indication of the largest crop ever produced in Delaware and Maryland the ensuing season.

— Ogilvie & Hutchinson's mill, at Cooderich, Ontario, has 14 run of stones, a 400 horse power engine; has over 500 wheels; has one belt which cost $770; has one pulley 22 feet 3 inches in diameter, and weighs 25 tons, and is capable of grinding 2,600 bushels of wheat daily.

— A singular case of sudden death occurred in Brighton recently. A girl, named Virgo, 13 years of age, was running along with a squeaking air-bladder in her mouth, when she suddenly fell down dead. She is supposed to have been choked by the toy.

— The London "Daily News" states that the Lady Burdett-Coutts is negotiating for land in Osnaburg street, on which she intends to erect lodgings for the poor, capable of accommodating 10,000 persons, at a maximum rent of 4s 6d weekly per domicile.

Come, billious business men, where'er ye languish.
Come to the Printer, and bring on your ads.
Here cure your poverty, here end your anguish.
In will bring patronage, try it, my lads.
—Rome Sentinel.

— A novelty was at last accounts extensively sold in a Paris street. It was a picture with four heads, those of Queen Victoria and the Emperor of Austria being on the top, and those of the Czar and Sultan below. By folding the picture four times the united heads formed an ingenious picture of Bismarck.

— A novel operation in dentistry was recently tried by a Parisian. Tying a stone to a long string, he fastened the cord to a defective tooth, and ascended to an upper story. He then threw the stone out of the window. The performance was eminently successfully, and extracted not only the tooth but a portion of the jaw-bone, leaving him insensible. When he came to his senses he found himself dumb.

— A commission of enquiry into the public affairs of Jamaica, sitting under the presidency of the Chief Justice of Jamaica, reveals a general mismanagement of the finances. There were some $250,000 a year expended in one department which kept no books of account. The only departments which gave satisfactory accounts were the general post office and the prison.

— The Americans in England are constructing an American window for the church where Shakspeare lies buried. The design represents the "Seven Ages of Man," Bibically. The infant is Moses in the Bulrushes; the scholar, Samuel before Eli; the lover, Jacob with Rachel; the warrior, Joshua; the judge, Deborah (which seems to answer rather inaptly to Shakspeare's description of that functionary); the old man, Abraham; and the very old man, Jacob.

Extraordinary Caprice of Nature.—Those who have not had an opportunity of seeing the Canadian Siamese twins should not fail to pay them a visit. The twins are, by an extraordinary caprice of nature, united by the body above the hips, so that there hands are opposite each other. They attained the age of two months yesterday, and are so far healthy. Messrs. J. B. Sauve & Co. will exhibit them for ten days, commencing to-morrow, at the St. Lawrence Hall, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column. The babes are females and are in charge of their mother. They are so wonderfully united that every one should go and see them. Such an opportunity may never occur again.—Montreal Star of 29th ult.

EUROPE.

London, April, 6.—The Eastern question is trembling in the balance. England, praying and hoping for peace, is steadily and hopelessly drifting into war. The peace feeling grows weaker in all the upper circles of society and the fear of war grows stronger from day to day. Court circles are discussing warlike matters. Among military men the argument in vogue is that it is easier to whip Russia while she is still weakened after the recent war than when she has had time to recover from its effects. Lord Beaconsfield is anxious to redeem the disgrace of the disastrous humiliating diplomacy of last year and the working classes rejoice at renewed activeness in the dockyards and arsenals. Bankers and merchants see large profits accruing from new loans and new contracts for supplies. Peace can only come from the powerful influence of Germany.

Messrs. John Elder & Co., of Govan, Glasgow, have concluded a contract with the Guion line for the construction of a large steamer to ply between New York and Liverpool. She will be the largest afloat except the Great Eastern. She will be from 5,000 to 6,000 tons, and from 500 to 600 feet long.

London, April 2.—The earl of Leitrim was found in a ditch. The left side of his head was battered in It is thought that he was also shot in the head, but the fatal shot was in his heart. The left arm was broken and the right completely shattered. The driver and clerk were shot in the head. The ground where the driver was shot showed signs of a hard struggle. A fowling-piece and part of another gun were found near the spot. Three or four men were seen loitering in the neighborhood before the murder.

London, April 5.—Four more persons have been arrested for complicity in the murder of Lord Leitrim, McFaggart was released for want of evidence.

Officials of the English Admiralty have gone to Belfast to superintend the equipment of numerous private steamers to be used as cruisers in case of war.

Russia offers to send an Ambassador to the Vatican at once on the Pope's accepting the present condition of the Church in the Russian Empire.

Berlin, April, 4.—The German iron-clad fleet will proceed to the East in the beginning of May.

London, April, 4.—Lord Russel, British Ambassador at Berlin, telegraphs, March 31, that Prince Bismarck has requested him to state that Germany would not participate in the Conference without England, and he, Bismarck, cannot understand how a conference for a revision of European rights could be held when England, one of the chief contractors, was absent.

Rome, April 5.—It is stated that England will raise no objection to the establishment of a relation with the Vatican, but reserves the right to indicate the basis thereof.

The Vatican has instructed the German Bishops to do nothing to prejudice negotiations for re-establishing relations between Berlin and the Vatican.

London, April, 4.—It is reported that mobilization is ordered in the four remaining Russian military districts.

A Berlin correspondent says Gortschakoff is expected to inform the Powers that after Salisbury's circular, if Congress were to meet, it would no longer be likely to solve the question at issue.

Vienna advices from Cettinge state that Russia has requested the Montenegrins to prepare for a renewal of hostilities. Prince Nikita is taking measures accordingly.

A rupture between the Russians and Roumanians is exceedingly probable. The latter, in spite of their numerical inferiority, are determined to resist any attack, believing the excitement in Hungary would compel Austria to interfere.

A Belgrade special announces that fifteen thousand Servian troops are ordered to the Drina and Save.

In an interview at St. Petersburg yesterday Ignatieff was less hopeful that the Congress will meet, and considering everything thinks Congress would only lead to war. There are conflicting interests at stake in this Eastern question which can only be settled by war, and no Congress could reconcile them.

Tischendorff has been appointed to the command of the special corps of Eclairers, destined to penetrate rapidly to the heart of Central Asia in countries where the Russian army has already been on several expeditions. This special corps will be composed of Cossacks and horse artillery, and will be augmented on the march by such recruits as the General commanding may see fit to take. So certain do the authorities here feel of a war with England that preparations have been thus early begun, so that no time may be lost after hostilities commence.

London, April, 5.—A despatch from Constantinople foreshadows the fall of Ahmet Vefik Pasha, President of the Council of Ministers and Minister of the Interior, and the reconstruction of a Ministry in a pro-Russian sense.

The Journal de St. Petersburg, official organ, adopted a defiant and warlike tone in its article to-day, respecting Lord Salisbury's circular.

London, April 8.—A Constantinople special says that a report comes from a good source that the Khedive of Egypt has announced that he will declare his independence, should Turkey form any alliance against England.

It is stated that Russia has officially offerred to quit the neigborhood of Constantinople if the British fleet withdraws.

Italy is endeavoring to induce the Porte to suspend hostilities in Thessaly, alleging fears of grave complications. Greece is similarly endeavoring to influence the insurgents.

The Russians are desperately urging the Sultan to surrender his ironclads and positions on the Bosphorus.

A San Stefano despatch says the first Russian cavalry division and a division of Cossacks of the Don have begun the homeward march via Ibrail. Three divisions of Cossacks, two batteries and the eleventh corps, under Gen. Schakoffsky, have gone via Rustchuk.

UNITED STATES.

New York, April, 7.—A Vienna correspondent of the Herald telegraphs that a scheme has been proposed for the settlement of the difficulty whose origin is attributed to Archduke Albretch of Austria. Count Andrassy told General Ignatieff at their recent conversation that the security of the Austrian Empire was incompatible with the treaty of San Stefano; there is no room in the unstable condition of the Austria-Hungarian equilibrium for a single additional Slav State. Austria therefore submits the following compromise. 1st. Russia to seek territorial compensation, in Asia Minor. 2nd—to divide European-Turkey into three parts—namely, Northern, Western, and Southern, each part to be granted autonomy and administrative reforms, Bulgaria, north of the Balkans, to be under the patronage of Russia; the western section, Bosnia, Herzegovina and Albania, to be under the patronage of Austria; the southern section, including Thessaly, Epirus and Roumelia, to be under the special patronage of England and the Greek autonomy; all the European powers to guarantee the autonomy. Thirdly, the status quo ante bellum to be maintained on the questions of the Straits and the Danube.

It is thought in London that Lord Salisbury will adhere to the scheme, with the reservation that if Russia annexes territory in Asia Minor there shall be a neutral line between Russian and English frontiers in Asia, under the guarantee of the powers.

The Pall Mall Gazette is officially informed that there is no foundation for the statements that the present intention is to keep the channel squadron near Malta available for the transport of troops therefrom.

Count Andrassy is anxiously striving to revive the Congress. The friends of peace will make strenuous efforts.

Germany is using her utmost efforts in favor of general accomodations.

Should this scheme meet England's approval, Count Andrassy will again endeavor to revive the Conference, that, in event of the Conference being summoned, it may take into consideration the changes which the events of the last twelve months have rendered unavoidable in the treaties respecting the Ottoman Empire.

The San Stefano treaty is consequently in the back-ground. In England all await Prince Gortschakoff's reply to Lord Salisbury.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

St. John, April, 6.—William Vaughan, convicted of the murder of Mary Quinn, of Little River, on the 13th February last, received his sentence to-day. All available room in the Court House was occupied. At seven minutes past eleven Mr. Justice Wetmore took his seat. The prisoner was shortly afterwards brought into court, and, without requiring any directions, stepped into the box and nervously moved back on the bench, so as to make himself comfortable. Having crossed his legs and clasped his hands, he looked round the room quite unconcernedly. He was very pale, but showed no signs of trouble of mind. He was asked if he had anything to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon him. He rose and said, "I have nothing to say more than I have. I leave it all in the hands of a just God." His Honor then made a very impressive address to the prisoner, at the conclusion of which he passed sentence of death in the usual form, condemning the prisoner to be hanged on Saturday, June 22nd, and praying God to have mercy on his soul. When His Honor had concluded, Vaughan, still unmoved, said with a firm voice, "I am willing to die." He was then removed to his quarters in jail.

Peculiar Death.—A little over a month ago, a young man, 19 years of age, named Steward Smith, boarding at 104 Prince Street, inflicted a slight wound on his foot while paring a corn. For several days he felt no inconvenience and went to work as usual, but afterwards his foot began to swell and got so painful that he was finally induced to go to the General Hospital, which he did on the 20th March. Despite all efforts he got worse and died late last evening at 10 o'clock. It appears that after his foot began to bleed the deceased, not fearing danger, put on a blue stocking, and it is supposed his blood was poisoned thereby. Dr Fenwick, the physician in attendance, was interviewed by our representative to-day, but refused to give any particulars, saying the matter would appear in his journal in a few months' time. The young man was buried this morning, the funeral being largely attended by Orange Young Britons. The deceased has a mother living in Upper Canada.—Montreal Star.

☞ As Time goes on, the languages spoken in the world are steadily becoming fewer. Three hundred years ago Cornish was beginning to disappear as a spoken tongue, and a similar fate is now being experienced by the Breton, in many respects a kindred dialect. In Ireland every year the number of those who speak Irish decreases. The rising generation nearly all speak English, except some on wild Atlantic-washed Islands. The Welsh, however, stick to their vernacular, and when you get into a rural district in a county not contiguous to the English border, you might almost as well be in Russia.

☞ Experiments with a new telegraph apparatus have been lately made at Vienna, by means of which some one hundred or one hundred and fifty messages may be sent in the short space of one hour, on one wire. Under certain conditions this number may even be raised to two hundred or two hundred and fifty messages.

☞ In Nelson county, Va., a hawk was recently seen to seize a large moccasin snake and soar to a considerable height with the serpent writhing in its claws, when suddenly the bird clasped its wings and fell heavily to the ground. The moccasin had bitten it in the neck, but the talons of the hawk were so buried in the vitals of the serpent that it also died.

☞ The Paris Rosthtchilds, who are all bankers, are said to work as hard as if they were just beginning their fortune. They observe their office hours as punctually as does the poorest clerk. There is a popular belief that they hope to execute the dream of the rebuilding of the temple and the city of Jerusalem.

☞ A letter from an American journalist in Bombay, says: "Nana Sahib is reported to be still alive, and located in the country north of the Indus, with a large band of followers. The excitement amongst the Moslems in India, too, is daily increasing, and it is alleged that an army of 200,000 Moslem volunteers could could be raised in a few months to go to war against Russia."

THE MOST VALUABLE GIFT—RESTORATION OF THE HEALTH.

During the past ten years the Great Shosonees Remedy has faithfully redeemed every promise and guarantee made to the public. Alarming and apparently hopeless cases of Lung Diseases, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, afflictions of the Kidney and Chronic Complaints of every description, including Scrofula and Skin Diseases of life-long duration, have been permanently removed and eradicated. Those who volunteered their testimony to the efficacy of the Remedy are not bogus people in unheard-of localities of foreign states, but respectable citizens of this Dominion, easy of access and open to question, upon whose verbal recommendations we are willing to rest the reputation of the Great Shosonees Remedy. If you are afflicted do not delay until medicine may be powerless to aid you. No injurious effects can possibly follow the use of these Indian Remedies, as they contain no minerals, by which the fate of the invalid is so often sealed under the form of some temporary sedative or stimulant. These Indian Remedies are widely known and still possess the public confidence after the lapse of sufficient time to test the efficacy.

The Shosonees Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills have won for themselves the most favorable reputation of any pill before the public. Their efficacy has been fully proved as a Remedy for Biliousness, Sick Headache, and inactivities of the stomach. Price of the Remedy in pint bottles $1; Pills 25cts. a box.

I shall be constantly on hand to serve all the old customers and as many new ones as may favor me with a call. I hope to keep up a good reputation for square dealing and strict business principle, thereby making friends of my customers. Although unable to advertise or offer such enormous accounts as some of our country store keepers, I can safely say that I am prepared to sell as low as any of them, and selling altogether for cash can give my customers the full benefit of the extra percentage necessary to carry on a credit business. So as to make room for a heavy importation in Spring, I have determined to close out my stock of Winter Goods at Reduced Prices.
